

Alvo News

Simon Rehmeier was at Lincoln, where he attended the state fair last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Elmer West is enjoying a visit from her sister, who resides in Kansas and who is spending some two weeks here.

Edward Gruell, who has been living in town, has moved to the country and is occupying the tenant house on the farm of Orest Cook.

John Banning and wife were in Lincoln last Wednesday afternoon, where they were visiting with friends and also attending the state fair.

Grover Rhoden of Manly was looking after some business matters in Alvo on Wednesday of last week, and was meeting with his many friends here.

Frank Hempke was delivering some wheat for Ed Fisher to the Rehmeier elevator on last Wednesday. This was wheat that had been stored at threshing time.

The Board of Education of the Alvo consolidated schools, was in session on Monday night, considering matters of business connected with the conduct of the schools.

William Kern, proprietor of the Alvo Drug company, has been installing some refreshment booths for the purpose of serving soft drinks and other refreshments.

Carl Rosenow and wife were in Lincoln on Labor day, where they attended the state fair during the evening, remaining for some three hours, and say that was plenty.

Jerry, 17 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cogdill, has been very ill, being under treatment by Dr. Buzza, and we are glad to state is getting along nicely at this writing.

Roy Stewart and Lee Stewart and wife were in Omaha last Wednesday, where they purchased some furniture and other goods, some of which were to replenish the stock at the store.

Mrs. L. M. Scott has been appointed by the Rock Island as caretaker at the Rokoby station of the company south of Lincoln and will take the position, beginning September 17th.

Jesse Jackson and wife, of Dannebrog, who were friends of Dr. Buzza and husband, as well as clients of Dr. Buzza, were here from their home to make a professional call on the doctor.

It is claimed that the installation of a waterworks system in Alvo will entail the spending of some $3,000 for labor alone, all of which would be paid to unemployed residing in this community.

Miss Doris Coatman, who taught the Bushberry school last year, is teaching the Emerald school west of Lincoln this year, while Miss Horsch of Eagle, is the teacher of the Bushberry school this year.

Mrs. J. M. Armstrong, who has been in very poor health for some time past, having had some affliction of her eyes that greatly impaired her sight, is reported as being greatly improved which will be good news to her many friends.

With the increased business which is being transacted at the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Alvo, and the additional papers and records to be cared for, it has been found necessary to purchase a new safe, which arrived and was installed last week.

Messrs and Mesdames Earl Dreamer and John Elliott were at Lincoln last Tuesday, where they attended the state fair and looked over the live stock and machinery exhibits which were commanding much attention on the part of visitors generally.

Dr. Buzza and William Kearns, her husband, who is engaged in the drug business, are both well pleased with the business that has come to them since locating here, and appreciate the kindly welcome that citizens of the town and surrounding community have extended to them.

Betty Swanson, age four, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Swanson, while at play had the misfortune to receive a severe wound in one of her hands which became affected and was treated by Dr. Mildred J. Buzza, with the result that the little one is getting along very nicely now.

Perry Cook sold five hundred bushels of rye to the Simon Rehmeier elevator last Wednesday, which is to be delivered in a short time. This is of exceptionally good quality and as there is a good demand for rye now, it brought a very fair price. Many are using it to take the place of corn for feeding stock, and find it costs considerably less than the maize in comparison with its fattening qualities.

Ray Clarke, who has been residing in the country, has moved to town so the children may be able to attend school regularly. While conversing with the Journal representative, he stated that his mother, Mrs. F. H. Clarke, was that day celebrating her 79th birthday anniversary and was in good health and able to get about as well as in earlier life. Congratulations to you, Mrs. Clarke.

Making Home in Lincoln

Max Adams, who has been making his home on a farm some four miles north of Dannebrog, where he was engaged in farming, although being chief clerk of the house in the last Nebraska legislature and a former legislator, following his recent appointment as secretary of the Nebraska Liquor commission, moved to Lincoln during the past week, and the family will make their home there in the future. Mr. Adams is well known over Cass county, having been born and raised at Plattsmouth, as well as over the state, where he made many acquaintances during his legislative terms and while holding the office of house clerk.

Purchases New Truck

The firm of Coatman & Skinner recently purchased a new Chevrolet truck, and as evidence of the fact that they were needing it, we will say that during the first five days they had it, the distance recorded on the speedometer was over a thousand miles. They are finding business on the increase and needing additional facilities to take care of it. When we all get in that same position there will be no further need to worry about the depression, for it will have gone from our midst. Let us hope for a hastening of that time.

Says Business Has Been Good

John Elliott, the hardware and implement man, advised the writer that business has been good during the past summer and that he has sold thirty-six new farm tractors in this part of the country, some of them going a considerable distance from Alvo.

Waterworks System Live Issue

The proposal to build a waterworks system for Alvo is one of the live issues just now and one that will have to be settled. Many contend it would be a fine thing for Alvo and that while the bucket brigade as a fire fighting measure was all right in its day, it does not serve the present age or give adequate fire protection to property. Just now there is opportunity to get an outright government grant of 45 per cent of the cost, the remainder being bonded to the government at a low rate of interest, and thus all the money would be forthcoming at once to meet the expense.

The town board has received and considered a resolution asking for the calling of a special election to determine the wishes of the voters. From the result of such election it could be determined whether to go ahead with the proposal or not at this time.

It is quite probable there will never be a like opportunity of getting such a large percentage of the cost contributed as exists at the present time under the PWA setup.

School Enrollment Up 200%

The Bushberry school, northeast of Alvo and located about midway between Alvo and Murdock, which was taught by Miss Doris Coatman last year, is taught by Miss Horsch of Eagle this year. Last year there was one student and this year there are three, an increase of 200 per cent in the enrollment. Should there be anywhere near a like increase in all the schools of the country it would be impossible to supply teachers, solving the depression so far as the teaching profession is concerned, but this is only one isolated case out of thousands. There are reported, however, moderate increases in enrollment in most of the schools of Cass county and in at least one school in the county it has been necessary to add another teacher to the force to take care of the extra pupils.

They Saw Much Country

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rosenow returned home last week from a pleasant trip through the west that took them to Sheridan, Wyoming, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Obed Clarke. Mrs. Rosenow and Mrs. Clarke are sisters. Concluding their stay there, they returned home via Denver and Colorado Springs, in each of which cities they spent a short time. They viewed Pikes Peak from a distance, but as they had had plenty of mountain climbing during their stay in Wyoming they did not care to either climb the mountain or to make the trip to its top via the cog road.

They arrived home much refreshed from their vacation trip, despite the fact they were on the go much of the time and traveled many miles, being ready to resume their work in the store when they reached home.

Visited at Norwalk, Iowa

Mrs. Roy Stuart and the girls, Josephine, Marie, Marlene and Evelyn, were visiting at Norwalk, Iowa, during the past week, being guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Stuart. They returned home Saturday, making the trip in some three hours and driving in the rain all the way. They report a most pleasant visit at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Koaf.

J. Howard Davis Attorney at Law Plattsmouth

Getting Along Nicely Now

Mrs. Simon Rehmeier, who was at the hospital for some time, where she underwent an operation on her feet for the removal of calluses and bone formation that had come as a result of wearing wooden shoes when a girl in the old country, is now showing good improvement and expects to be rid of the foot trouble that has caused her much inconvenience and pain during most of her life. Just now, she is enjoying a visit from her sister, who resides in Iowa.

Perry Cook Here Last Week

Perry Cook, who resides in Lincoln and operates a filling station for the Phillips 66 Petroleum company, was a visitor in Alvo last Wednesday and was making some extensive repairs on the country home of Mrs. Blanche Harger. This house, located on a rental farm, had not been repaired for a number of years and was badly in need of the improvements which Mr. Cook is making thereon to put it in good condition again.

Mr. Cook, who has been employed by the Phillips company for the past seven years, reports the members of his family are in good health and that he is doing a good business at the filling station he operates in the capital city.

Alvo School Notes.

The Alvo Consolidated school began on Monday, September 2, with only a half day session. There was not much change in enrollment over last year. Twelve children made up the beginning class.

A meeting of the faculty had been held on the preceding Saturday morning at which Supt. L. M. Hauptman presented a bulletin outlining the principles and policies and procedures of the school for the coming year.

It was necessary to add a third typing class to take care of the number of high school people desiring that subject. Two full classes of manual training and two full classes of home economics are also maintained.

Dr. Buzza is giving the physical examination to the athletes and will give the examination required by law to all the school during the second week of school.

Members of the senior class chose their class rings from Herff-Jones and their announcements and cards from the Seright Publishing Co., during the first week of school.

Boyd Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Elliott, was out of school the latter part of the first week with chicken pox.

The state fire marshal visited the school during the first week and made recommendations for change in the fire alarm.

Elmer West, member of the board of education, attended the Corner sale of school supplies and equipment but found nothing suitable to our needs at a suitable price.

Baseball practice has begun under the direction of Coach Walter Speece.

Girls in home economics are working on an apron project.

Seniors elected Dale Haertel, president; John Weichel, vice-president; and John Abbott, secretary-treasurer at an early meeting of the class.

Ruth Rueter was chosen president of the freshmen with Orland Bennett, vice-president, and Berdine Clark, secretary-treasurer.

Sophomores selected Anna Lee Lancaster as president and Margaret Jean Stroemer as vice-president with Grace Muenchau as secretary-treasurer.

Extra-curricular activities will be begun in their full schedule on the second week of school.

VISITS OLD FRIENDS

Friday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Murphy and daughter, Phyllis, of St. Louis, Missouri, arrived in the city for a short visit with the old time friends and associates. Mr. Murphy was born and spent his younger years here, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murphy and he is now engaged as a traveling representative of the Blackwell & Wieland Co., of St. Louis, one of the largest wholesale houses of the country. From here the party departed for McCook, Nebraska, where they will visit with Wayne Murphy, a brother, for a short time before returning home.

RECORD IN WEDDINGS

Papillon, Neb.—A new record for marriage licenses issued in Sarpy county for a single month was set in August when 110 permits were awarded, County Judge H. A. Collins announced. Only Douglas and Lancaster counties, he said, annually issue more licenses than Sarpy county.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Miss Violet Rabb, who was operated on at an Omaha hospital for appendicitis, has so far recovered that she is now able to be home and to recuperate from the effects of the illness and operation. Her sister, Margaret, who was operated on at the same time, is still at the hospital undergoing treatment as her case was much more severe.
