Wheat Spreads Into New Farm Territory

A. E. Anderson Says Old Idea That Figures Are for a Few Is Disappearing.

A. E. Anderson, state and federal agricultural statistician, in a special article Saturday, said the AAA brought to farmers a greater appreciation of accuracy in agricultural statistics. "There is also a greater realization of the value of agricultural statistics and the part they play in the economic situation of the country," Anderson said.

"The old idea that agricultural statistics were prepared for the benefit of a few classes is rapidly disappearing. The experience of the past few years has amply demonstrated that prices respond abundantly to the old law of supply and demand."

Anderson said the desire and demand for agricultural statistics has never been greater than it is now. He pointed out that every type of business was interested in statistics as a measure of the farmers' buying power.

"Most farmers and others have now learned that a more satisfactory price level can be maintained if production is balanced with demand," Anderson continued. "They have learned also that it is unwise to deplete their soil fertility in producing a surplus for a foreign market that does not exist except at ruinous prices."

HONEST COMMUNITY

From Saturday's Daily: That the local people are honest and minding their own affairs was illustrated this morning in the business section of the city. Chief of Police Libershal, coming down Main street, was surprised to note two persons entering the Donat Liquor store, which is a grave offense, as under the "licker" ordinance these places may only be entered between the hours of 11 p. m. and 8 a. m. by the owner, who must be accompanied by a member of the police force.

The chief approached and found the men standing in the store. They inquired as to the presence of the owner and were informed by the chief that no sales were allowed until 8 o'clock.

The door to the store had been left unlocked and only the honesty or the lack of knowledge of the open door prevented the place from being highjacked out of several hundred dollars worth of fine liquor.

Murdock Jottings

By the Journal Field Man
The Journal will appreciate the giving of news items of interest to its representative by our readers on his weekly visit to Murdock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Work and the children, of Omaha, were guests at the home of Grandfather and Grandmother Tool last Sunday.

A. H. Ward was called to Ashland, Manley and Louisville last Wednesday, to supply customers at those points with gasoline and oil.

Frank Rosenow has just completed the seeding of some forty acres of wheat, believing there will be a good demand for this grain the coming year.

William Langhorst and John Cardwell, of Wabash, were in Murdock last Wednesday and were looking after some business matters for a short time.

John Gakemeier was called to Manley to look after some business matters in the real estate line and was also meeting with his many friends while there.

Mrs. Lloyd Fifer, of Minneapolis, arrived in Murdock last Thursday and has been a guest since then at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Eddie Craig and husband.

Homer H. Lawton and Glen Buck have been assisting with the erection of snow fence along state highway No. 1 between Murdock and Murray, during the past week.

Mrs. Emma Keeling, of Ord, a sister of Mrs. Henry Heinemann, has been visiting here for the past week, and also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rikli, north of Murdock.

John H. Buck and family were at Fort Crook, where they went to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schutz, and while there they purchased a quantity of cucumbers for pickles.

Fred Cordes has just completed the seeding of some thirty-five acres of wheat. Due to the lateness of the season, he thinks it will not be safe from molestation by grasshoppers and other pests.

Mesdames Herman R. Schmidt and Louis Schmidt were in Lincoln last Monday, where they were visiting with friends and looking after some shopping. They drove over in the car of Mr. Schmidt.

Henry Heinemann is working at the lumber yard, where he is getting the sheds in readiness for the reception of a number of cars of lumber, which is to be shipped here during the next few weeks.

Henry Carsten was visiting with his mother in Havelock last Sunday, as he endeavors to get home to see the mother every week, which is a very fine practice, for who is dearer to us than "mother."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heinemann and Mrs. Emma Keeling and Fred Lemmert, who is visiting at the Heinemann home from his home at Huntley, were visiting in Lincoln last Monday, and were looking after some shopping as well.

Chester Irons and wife and their two children of near Elmwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin, of Avoca, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dean, where they enjoyed an excellent dinner.

Kenneth Tool and wife, of Wahoo, were in Murdock last Sunday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool. They hurried home in mid-afternoon to attend the Bohemian gathering which was a feature at Wahoo that day.

Frank Rodgers and wife, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, were visiting here last Monday for a short time. Mr. Rodgers and wife expect to move to Nehawka soon as Mr. Rodgers is employed in the stone quarries there.

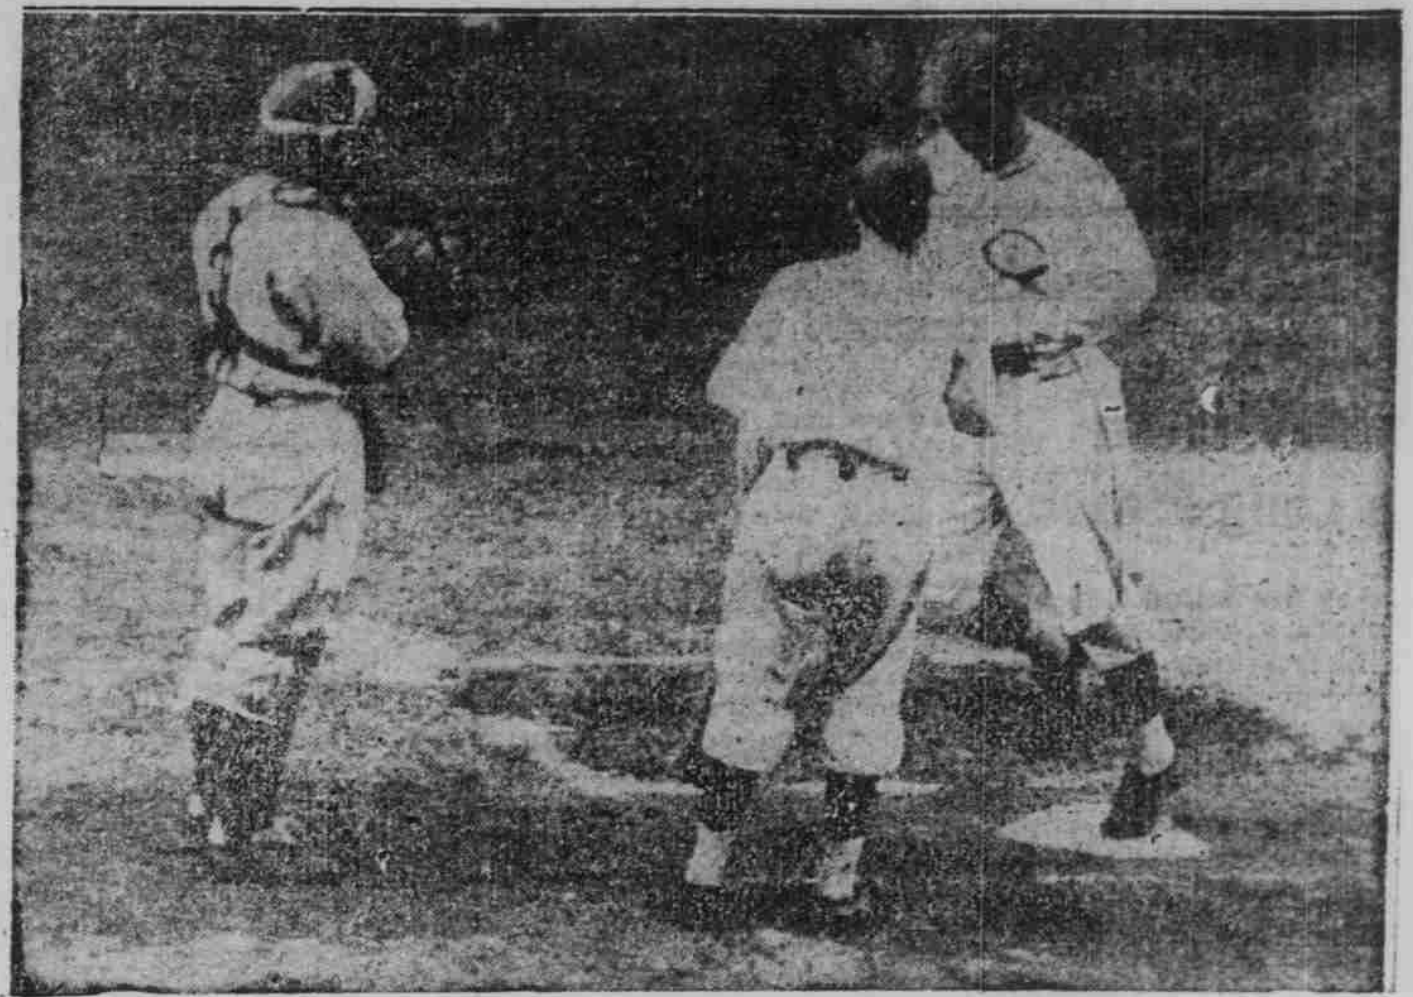

Oscar Gopen, of Plattsmouth, accompanied the Journal field man on his rounds last week and enjoyed visiting in Murdock as well as looking over the town and country. "Os" is much interested in farming operations, as he has been a farmer all his life and understands the problems of the agriculturist.

Charles Stroy and Henry Gakemeier were shelling and delivering corn to the Murdock elevator on last Wednesday and Thursday. The shelling was done by Alvin Bornemeier and the hauling by Ray Gamlin with his trucks. The price was very good, as the market has gone up due to the threat of war in Ethiopia.

William Bornemeier, who resides five miles south of Murdock, was re-sowing some of his wheat and alfalfa on account of the grasshoppers having destroyed a portion of the original sowing. Frank Rosenow, residing east of town, had the same experience and had to sow a second portion of seed around the edges of his wheat field.

Paul Scheve, who some time since

Cubs Win 5th Game, 3 to 1

Chuck Klein of the Cubs is shown scoring on his home run in the third inning of the fifth game of the world series in Chicago Sunday. He drove in Billy Herman before him, giving the Cubs the first two runs of the game. The Cubs won the fifth game, 3 to 1.

completed the seeding of his wheat had to reseed a strip about two rods in width on account of the original seeding being taken by the grasshoppers. Much concern is evidenced by the farmers as to what will happen the coming season when the young hoppers hatch as there seems to be prospects of large numbers.

John Rounberg and wife, of Omaha, were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Reinke, where they enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Reinke, who has been in poor health for some time. They returned home Monday and Mrs. Reinke, accompanied by her sister, was taken to Omaha by Harold Schliefer, where she entered the Clarkson hospital for a major operation for the removal of a growth from her left breast. It is hoped that she will soon be able to return home entirely cured.

Lutherans Win from Wabash

There was only one game last Tuesday evening at the ball park, but it was enjoyed to the limit. The Lutheran team were successful in carrying away the laurels, for they won from the Wabash team by a score of 14 to 9.

Some Changes in Farms

C. A. Kupke, farmer of this vicinity, will move to Iowa to farm the coming year, but will also have some wheat on the place he has farmed here. Walter Backemeyer will move from the Miller place to the Kupke place, while Emil Miller, who has been making his home near Adams, Nebraska, will move back to Murdock and will occupy the Miller place which is now owned by Charles I. Long and will farm there.

Revival Meetings Close

Many of the people of Murdock and vicinity have been attending the series of revival meetings which have been held in Elmwood during the past two weeks. The meetings were closed with the session last evening. There has been much interest and a large attendance and at times there was not room to accommodate all who came and they had to return home or remain outside the building and listen to what they could hear. All consider the meetings a very great success.

Church Thirty Years Old

The Ebenezer Evangelical church is thirty years old today, having been organized October 7, 1905, and on the coming Sunday the thirtieth anniversary of the church and the Bible school will be celebrated. A more detailed account of the celebration and the history of the church will appear in Thursday's paper.

The first Bible school session was held October 7, 1905, with Herman R. Schmidt as the superintendent and Christian Miller, assistant superintendent. In the institution of the church here, it was organized with 68 members. The new church was completed at that time and has been occupied during the intervening years. As the membership grew, there was need for additional room and the original building was added to, being one of the numerous fine rural churches in Cass county.

Attending Bible School Convention

Rev. Harvey A. Schwab and Rev. F. C. Weber, pastors of the churches at Murdock and Callahan, respectively, are in Plattsmouth today attending and taking part in the program at the Cass county Sunday school convention. There are others from this vicinity present, among them being L. Neitzel and G. Baur, as well as several whose names we have not been able to get.

Attended County Convention

Mesdames Henry A. Tool, Oscar C. Zink, A. J. Tool and Rudolph Kuehn, all members of the Murdock Woman's club, were in Union last Wednesday, where they attended the county convention of Federated Women's clubs which was being held there that day.

Matthew Schoeman Dies in South

Matthew Schoeman was born near Louisville about sixty-six years ago and attended the schools here, making his home in the vicinity where he was born for the first thirty years of his life. He was united in marriage to Miss Rose Eichoff, daughter of the late Louis Eichoff and wife, in the year 1893, and about 1897 they went to Oklahoma to make their home and have since been residents of the southland.

On going to Oklahoma, they engaged in farming and later moved to Enid to reside, where Mr. Schoeman was caretaker of the public school buildings and grounds.

He has always been of robust health and was sick but a short time at the time of his death. He passed away at his home there on September 27, the funeral and burial being held on September 30th. He leaves a wife, one son and one daughter, both of them married and with families of their own. Relatives here include, George, Henry and John Schoeman and their families; brothers, and Mrs. Herman R. Schmidt, of Murdock, a sister of Mrs. Schoeman.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and the funeral was held from that church last Monday.

Village Board Meeting

The village board met in regular session.

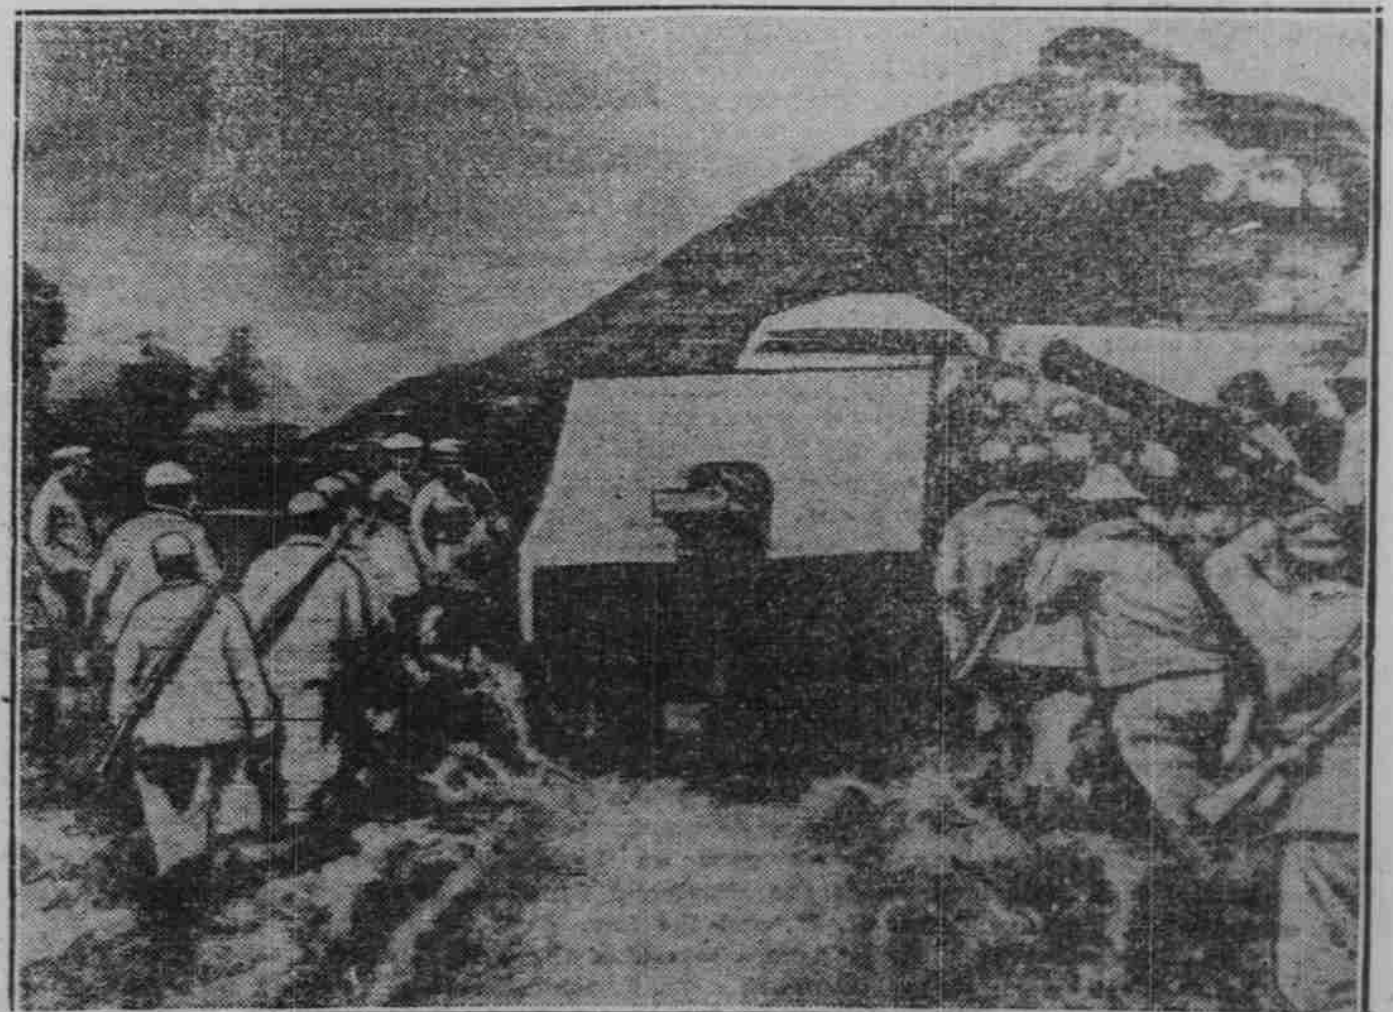

The meeting was called to order by the chairman and the following business was transacted.

The minutes were read for information. The following bills were presented and allowed:

National Stone Co., crushed stone	$ 2.19
McDonald Store, supplies to fire dept.	6.40
Plattsmouth Journal, printing	1.05
L. W. Rase, storage	6.90
Murdock Co-op Credit Ass'n, exchange	.20
The minutes were approved and a motion prevailed to adjourn.
CHAS. I. LONG, Village Clerk.

See the goods you buy. Catalog descriptions are flowery enough, but how about the goods when you get them?

War in Ethiopia—First Picture by Radio!

This first picture from the Ethiopian war front shows an armored tank being moved into position a few miles inside the Abyssinian border as the Italian forces moved on Aduwa. It was flown to Rome, telephoned to London and transmitted by radio to the United States.
