Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

DO you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination, backache, headache, dizziness, swollen feet and ankles? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly, for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.

DOAN'S PILLS

Mrs. Stout, Mrs. Mabel Winn and son and Mrs. Elmer Klyver were Sunday dinner guests at the Hubert Cheever home in Lincoln. In the afternoon they went to the Bryan Memorial hospital to visit Miss Golda Klyver.

Birthdays Celebrated

A family dinner was greatly enjoyed Sunday at the John Skinner home, given in honor of Mrs. Lloyd Pifer, of Valentine, Mrs. Emmett Friend and Mrs. Don Shelton, who were celebrating their birthdays. Those present to enjoy the occasion were: Mrs. Lloyd Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Don Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig, of Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. John Skinner and son and Mr. Speece.

W. C. T. U. County Convention

Those enjoying the splendid program at the W. C. T. U. county convention at Eagle Friday were Mrs. W. C. Timblen, Mrs. Wayne Deles-Dernier, Mrs. J. U. Deles-Dernier, Mrs. Roy Coatman, Mrs. Turner McKinnon, Mrs. Earl Fairfield, Mrs. Minnie Peterson, Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. Roelofs and Miss Della Sutton.

Attended Convention at Union

Several of the ladies of the Alvo Woman's Reading club attended the county convention of the Federation of Women's clubs held at Union last Thursday. Those attending were Mrs. Minnie Peterson, Mrs. Aug Johnson, Mrs. Edgar Edwards, Mrs. Zoz, Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mrs. Roy Coatman, Mrs. William Cople and Mrs. Otto Stuve.

Mrs. Zoz, accompanied by Mrs. Stuve on the piano, sang, and Mrs. Banning served on the election board.

VERY SUCCESSFUL DANCE

The opening dance of the fall season held Wednesday night at the Legion building was most successful from the standpoint of attendance. The music by Anna Mae Winburn and her 12 Cotton Club Boys proved all that had been claimed for it and the crowd stayed until the last strains were played at 1 a. m.

The Legion has been making extensive improvements at its building, all of which are not yet completed, and will feature regular mid-week dances each Wednesday night during the fall and winter with leading orchestras.

MARRIED AT CITY HALL

Wednesday afternoon at the city hall occurred the marriage of Mrs. Dorothy Clous and Mr. John Cathro, both of Omaha. The bridal couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blotzer, also of Omaha, who witnessed the ceremony as the marriage lines were read by Judge Charles L. Graves in his usual impressive manner.

Legislature is Eligible to Judge Own Members

G. E. Price, Lincoln Attorney and Bill Drafter, Says Courts will Not Disturb Members Seated.

From Saturday's Daily: Governor Cochran may not find smooth sailing in his intention of notifying county committees of four-teen or more vacancies in the ranks of the legislature and the filling of them by these committees, and in case of failure of committees to elect successors, appoint the successors himself. This would be in case any of the present members now holding federal or state appointive offices or positions care to hold on their seats until their eligibility to stay is passed upon by the two houses when they are called into special session the last of October.

Governor Cochran may issue a call the last of next week for a session the last week of October. The governor, basing his action on an opinion of the attorney general's department, will soon notify certain county political central committees that vacancies in the legislature exists in their legislative districts.

The governor is basing his action of such notice upon an opinion of the attorney general that persons holding office under the authority of the federal government are rendered ineligible to a legislative seat, or to have a seat in the legislature; that when the legislator renders himself ineligible the office is forfeited, and when an office is forfeited it becomes vacant and steps should be taken to fill it.

G. E. Price of Lincoln, attorney and bill drafter for the state senate, said he did not agree with the attorney general and he had given an opinion to a state senator upon request.

"I am of the opinion," said Price, "that when one has been elected and seated by the legislature, he can be removed only by the legislative house to which he belongs," his own house passing upon whether or not he is disqualified.

"In a Nebraska case, VanCamp vs. the State, a mandamus suit involving the seat of a legislator who had been seated by his house, the court held that it would not go into the right of the legislature to seat a member.

"Courts of Michigan, Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania have decided along this same line. In Pennsylvania the courts have held that if members whose disqualification has been challenged are not removed by a legislative house, the courts will not inquire into the validity of any acts passed by the legislature containing alleged disqualification provisions, so there is no danger of such legislation being declared void."

From the above, it is quite apparent that the legislature itself will have the right of determining whether any of its members have placed themselves in a position to merit disqualification for further service under the terms of the law.

EXTENSION CLUB MEETS

The Home Makers extension club met last evening at the home of Mrs. Otto Keck with Mrs. Fay McClintock and Mrs. Hazel Jameson, associates. The ladies discussed the lessons of the coming year and which has promise of the greatest interest.

The ladies also had a fine time in several games that were much enjoyed and the evening culminated with the serving of refreshments of the Halloween season.

There were several new members present, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Frank J. Koubek, Mrs. Burch and Miss Sumner.

The next meeting will be the last Friday of each month in the future.

Iowa Demos Slap Critics of New Deal

Wearin and Utterback Suggest that G. O. P. Give Better Plan in Shenandoah Speeches.

Shenandoah, Iowa, October 4.—Republicans who bitterly denounce new deal legislation were challenged here Friday by Otha D. Wearin, Hastings, seventh district congressman, to "present a better working program." At the same time, Judge Hubert Utterback, congressman, of Des Moines, outlined five points for future new deal enactment.

Addressing some 2,000 farmers at the annual jubilee of the Henry Field company on "Democrat Day," Wearin said:

"The Constitution is a sacred document which must be brought up to date from time to time."
He asked why the republicans had not balanced the budget during the Hoover administration when the United States was "receiving war debt payments and was not aiding the unemployed," adding that the democrats have a balanced "working budget, even though they are receiving no payments on war debts."

Propose New Acts
Utterback followed Wearin and proposed enactment of laws declared unconstitutional by the supreme court into amendments, if necessary. He outlined the following points for future enactment:

- 1—Legislation to restore honest business;
  - 2—To obtain work for unemployed persons;
  - 3—Raise and stabilize prices of all farm commodities;
  - 4—Maintain U. S. credit;
  - 5—Security legislation.
- Senator L. J. Dickinson, Algona, and E. P. Chase, Atlantic, will speak on the "Republican Day" program today.

MOVING TO NEW LOCATION

The office of the National Farm Loan Association, which has been located on the second floor of the First National bank building, is to be moved to the second floor of the Bekins building. The new offices will be located on the Main street front of the Bekins building. Here Mr. D. C. West, secretary, will be able to enjoy very comfortable quarters for the winter.

MANLEY NEWS

Oscar E. McDonald was looking after business matters in Lincoln last Wednesday.

Father Harte was called to Omaha last Monday to look after some business matters for the day.

John Gakemeier, of Murdock, was looking after some business matters in Manley last Wednesday afternoon.

Theo Harms was called to Lincoln last Friday to look after some business matters. He made the trip in his car.

Joe Wolpert and John Rohrdanz were building a foundation for a cob house on the farm of Mr. Wolpert the latter part of last week.

Herman Dall and wife were in Omaha last Wednesday, driving over in their car to look after some matters of business and visit with friends.

Messrs and Mesdames R. Bergman and Oscar Dowler were at Weeping Water last Monday, where they attended the Tango party held at the American Legion hall.

E. F. Snavley, of Lincoln, was a visitor in Manley, coming down to look after having the house on his farm near here repaired and placed in good condition for winter.

Fred Laurensen was looking after business at the Manley lumber yard three days last week while John Crane was visiting in Chicago and attending the world series baseball games.

Henry Vogler was in Manley for materials to be used in the making of some repairs to his home, included among which is the re-roofing of the house and other repairs, getting the same in good shape for the coming winter.

Henry Osborne, of Omaha, was in Manley last Wednesday, working as operator and agent for the Missouri Pacific that day. He was accompanied by Mrs. Osborne and they enjoyed a visit with their many old friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Harold Cochran and Mrs. Charles Gade of Ashland, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleischman, were here during the greater part of last week, and with their mother were busily engaged in the canning of peaches and other fruit.

August Krecklow is busy on another auto trailer. He just keeps making them, and when he gets them done someone invariably comes along and purchases them, making a profitable enterprise for him and providing the buyers with good trailers at a minimum cost.

Herman Rauth shelled and delivered the rest of his corn last Wednesday, the grain going to the Manley elevator and bringing a good price. The following day Walter Mockenhaupt shelled the corn which he and John Rauth had stored in the cribs on the Rauth place.

Harold Krecklow, who recently completed the manufacture of some furniture for the kindergarten in the Barneson schools, accompanied by his wife, took the truck load down last week and delivered it. On his return, he went to work on some other furniture for which he has orders at this time.

Virtus Haws, who has been at Clay Center, Kansas, for some time, arrived home last week in time to take over the job of running the elevator while his father, Harry Haws, accompanied John Crane and Ralph Keckler on a trip to Chicago to witness the world series baseball games played at Wrigley field there.

Lost Valuable Horses

Paul Fleming had the misfortune to lose two horses with what he believes to have been the so-called sleeping sickness that is reported as prevalent in eastern Nebraska and is attributed to fly bites. The last few weeks have been bad for all kinds of animals as the flies attacked them in droves, causing them to become frantic with pain and later beating their heads against the ground until they kill themselves. Reports are that a large number of horses have died as a result of this strange malady in the vicinity of Ashland and last week a number of horses died around Louisville. In ordinary years, the flies have about disappeared by this time, but this fall the prolonged warm weather has resulted in there being great swarms of them to menace the livestock.

Changes in Farm Ownership

Walter Mockenhaupt sold his farm containing eighty acres to Ray Wiles, this land sitting in nicely to fill out a niche in the farm of Mr. Wiles. After disposing of the same, Walter turned around and purchased the farm of Charles Lau. This coming spring he will move onto the new farm and Robert Wiles will move on the place which he sold to Ray Wiles.

Herman Slides Into Third Base

Billy Herman, Cub's second baseman, is shown safe at third on his triple to the center field in the third inning of the fifth world series game at Chicago Sunday. Herman was scored by Chuck Klei on his home run a few moments later. The game ended with the score 3 to 1, in favor of the Cubs, giving them a renewed lease on life and carrying the battle back to Detroit to finish.
