PURCHASES NEW BUILDING
Harvey L. Gamer, who has conducted the electric shop and ice cream parlors in the building just north of the Ritz theater, has just concluded the purchase of a building of his own. Mr. Gamer has purchased the Thierolf building on Main street between Fifth and Sixth streets, from the Phillip Thierolf estate. This is one of the best buildings in the business section and located in the main business section of the city and will make a fine location for Mr. Gamer.
The new owner has not decided as to the time that he will move his stock and equipment to the new location which will be arranged to accommodate the business of Mr. Gamer.

HOLD QUARTERLY CONFERENCE
From Wednesday's Daily
Last evening at the First Methodist church was held the first quarterly conference of the local church with a large attendance of the congregation. Dr. M. E. Gilbert, D. D., district superintendent, was present to conduct the conference.
This is the first conference under the pastorate of Rev. V. C. Wright and the report of the church activity showed a fine growth in all departments of the church activities and the district superintendent was especially pleased with the fine increase shown in the attendance record.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT
The death of Jacob C. Coffman, 75, former Plattsmouth resident, occurred Monday at his home, 3900 Randolph street, Lincoln after an illness of some duration. He was one of the veteran engineers of the Burlington and resided here some thirty years ago, where he was married to Miss Myrtle E. Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chandler. The family later moved to Chicago and to Lincoln some twenty-five years ago and where they have since resided. Surviving are his wife, two sons, Claude W. and Clare V., three brothers, G. F. Coffman, Lincoln, Phillip Preston and Perry Coffman of Plattsmouth, sister, Mrs. Margaret Crofford, Falls City.
The funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p. m. at Hodgman's chapel and interment at Wyuka cemetery, Lincoln.

Funeral of W. F. Gillispie Wednesday

Services at the First Presbyterian Church Largely Attended by Old Time Friends.

Wednesday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church was held the funeral services for William F. Gillispie, long time resident of this community, who had gone to the last rest early Tuesday morning at the Nebraska Masonic Home.

Mr. Gillispie had made his wishes known as to the funeral and these were carried out in strict accord by the relatives and members of the Masonic order.

Dr. H. G. McClusky gave the sermon and the message of Christian faith that gives the promise of eternal life to mankind, as well as paying tribute to the departed friend whom he had known for a number of years and who had given his expressions of faith to the pastor.

The Masonic quartet composed of Frank A. Cloldt, H. G. McClusky, R. C. Cook and L. O. Minor, gave the two numbers that had been requested by the departed, "I Will Sing of My Redeemer," and "Rock of Ages."

The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery beside the wife who had preceded Mr. Gillispie two years ago, the pall bearers being old friends and associates who had been selected by the departed, William Rummel, John F. Wehrlein, Julius A. Pitz, William Wetenkamp, Phillip Hirz, George W. Snyder.

The members of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6 attended the services at the church and conducted their ritualistic services at the grave, William F. Evers, past master, giving the eulogy.
