

Weeping Water

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields were in Omaha last Sunday visiting with the son and daughter-in-law and their little grandson.

Earl Mechlen was a visitor in Plattsmouth Monday of this week where he had some business matters to look after for a short time.

The Weeping Water Women's club was meeting last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. F. Marshall, enjoying a delightful afternoon of entertainment and a fine program.

Pete Miller has accepted a position picking corn at the farm of Harold Blackie and was laying off a few days while the weather was so that it was difficult to work at the corn.

The Weeping Water band gave a concert at the CCC camp Tuesday evening of this week, providing entertainment for the members of the camp which numbers a large concourse of people.

Last Sunday there was a stranger came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Olive and applied for a home with them, which was heartily given and so now there is another baby boy in their home and everybody is happy over the event. Even Grandfather George Olive is happy and a very kindly smile lights up his sunny face. All are doing nicely and joy reigns supreme.

The Weeping Water football team last Saturday lost their first game at Shubert where they played the game of that place. Weeping Water had won every other game this season and were striving to keep the slate clean, but the breaks and good playing of the Shubert team was too much for the Weeping Water lads. The score was Shubert 19, Weeping Water 0.

Duane Harmon, who is attending the state university, was a visitor at home in Weeping Water last Saturday and Sunday with his parents, returning to his studies Monday morning. Since going to Lincoln to attend school he has been solicited to join two orchestras and two bands as well and is working with them, thus making his studies and practice the more difficult. However he is keeping the studies all up.

Entertained for Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen entertained last Sunday some friends from Lincoln, near neighbors when the Allens lived in Lincoln. The visitors as well as the host and hostess enjoyed the day very much and the very fine dinner which was served by Mrs. Allen and daughter.

Will Convene Next Monday.

The Brotherhood of the Methodist church has become a very active element of the church work which have been taking up a solution of a very perplexing problem which has confronted the minister and church board.

If you are a member of the Brotherhood, be sure and be in attendance at the meeting which is to be held the coming Monday evening at the church, and also bring a friend with you, and again if you are not a member, better get someone to invite you and you can make arrangements to become a member. Remember the date, Monday evening Nov. 11, Armistice day evening.

Returns From Trip.

Henry Lemke returned last Monday evening from a trip which in-

Charges "Free Love"

N. T. Mears

Officials at University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, emphatically denied charges of N. T. Mears, St. Paul business man, who said "open immorality" prevailed on the campus and that "at least a dozen senior girls and men were living together, although not married." His son, from whom Mears said he obtained his information, denied that he had told his father anything like that.

cluded the western and northwestern portion of the state where he with friends from Grand Island went to hunt ducks and were disappointed in not even getting a shot.

The ducks were arranging to make their annual pilgrimage to the south for winter and were interfered with by severe rains which wet the feathers of the birds and accumulated to that extent that the birds were weighted down with the ice so that they lighted on the ground and the people were able to kill them with clubs. Henry said that the weather was very cold up that way.

Weeping Water Pioneer Passes.

C. W. Olander, better known as Grandfather Olander who had made his home here for 60 years and for more than forty years a worker in the stone quarries in and about Weeping Water, making his home in that portion of the town known as Swedetown, suffered a stroke last Monday morning and after about an hour he passed away, leaving the aged wife, two daughters, Mrs. John E. Johnson and Mrs. Ellen Johnson, wife of the late Oscar Johnson, two sons, Walter Johnson of Omaha and Edward Johnson of Weeping Water.

Grandpa Olander was born in Sweden nearly eighty-five years ago and came to America when a youth and has resided in and about Weeping Water nearly all his life.

The funeral was held Wednesday at the Congregational church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. L. Wilson, as Mr. Olander had been a member of the church for many years. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery. The Hobson funeral home conducted.

Enjoyed Hallowe'en Party.

Friday of last week the Bible school classes of Mrs. Creta Johnson, Emily Moore and Chris Rasmussen enjoyed a very pleasant evening with a Hallowe'en party held in the basement of the Methodist church. A most merry time was had by all in attendance.

Home From the West.

On last Monday evening Harry Speck, Dennis Oldham and Walter and Merritt Walton, the latter two from Detroit, Michigan, returned from a three months stay at Fort Peck, Montana, where they have been working on a government project and the boys say they liked the country and the work there until it got too cold. They started home one evening and while it was cold there was only two inches of snow, but the following morning there was a foot of snow and much colder, which hurried them on home.

Will Meet at CCC Camp.

The Weeping Water merchants and business men have arranged to hold a meeting early the coming week at the CCC camp south of town when they will have the farming community as guests. A full explanation of the scope and purposes of the work of the camp will be made and as well there will be some eats. This is done that the farming community may become better acquainted with the soil erosion work of the camp.

To Celebrate 75th Anniversary.

Arrangements are being perfected at this time for the celebration of the passing of the 75th anniversary of the organization and institution of the Congregational church in Weeping Water which is to come to pass in the near future. Committees are in the field at this time making arrangements for the celebration.

Roy Haslam Very Busy.

Roy Haslam who recently took over the garage and work shop of Sterling Amick when he became postmaster has secured Albert Tuck to assist in the conduct of the new place while Mr. Haslam will look after the place where he has been working heretofore. Both places will be conducted by Mr. Haslam and his assistant, Mr. Tuck.

MOVES TO NEW LOCATION

From Tuesday's Daily. A. L. Brown, who has been operating a lunch room in the Wedge property on Lincoln avenue, is today busily engaged in moving to his new location, which will be in the Timmas property, north of his former location. Mr. Brown expects to be ready today to look after his trade as usual and care for their wants.

T. S. Clifford Dies Suddenly Tuesday Night

Long Time Resident of This City Suddenly Stricken at Home and Dies in Short Time.

From Wednesday's Daily. Last night at 10 o'clock at the family home on North 8th street, T. S. Clifford, 72, a long time resident of this city, passed away. Mr. Clifford was suddenly stricken and died in a few moments from a severe heart attack, as he apparently had been in his usual health and Tuesday afternoon was down in the business section of the city as was his daily custom.

The passing of "Teddy," as he was known to the many friends, takes away one of the old time citizens here and one who was a familiar figure on the streets of the city. Possessed of a sharp and bright mentality he was a genial companion to a large number of the residents of the city and his going will bring a great regret from the associates and friends of the years long past.

Thaddeus Stephen Clifford, son of Stephen and Bridget Clifford, was born in the state of Indiana, seventy-two years ago and when a youth moved with his family to the west where they located at Plattsmouth and which has since been his home.

The deceased was for the greater part of his lifetime engaged in the trade of painter and decorator and in which he continued until the advancing years made necessary his giving up his lifework and retiring. Following the death of his father, Judge Stephen Clifford, a great many years ago, Mr. Clifford made his home here with the mother and in the last few years with his sister, Miss Josephine Clifford, who was with him when the last summons came. Mr. Clifford was an enthusiastic member of the B. P. O. E. and well acquainted with the leading members of the order over the state and during the life of the local lodge was one of the active workers in the order.

He is survived by the sister, Miss Josephine of this city, one brother, Thomas, residing in California, five brothers and sisters having preceded him in death.

The funeral services will be held on Friday morning at 9 o'clock at the Streight funeral home on Oak street.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Plattsmouth Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. J. E. Wiles on Monday evening, Nov. 4. Those who assisted Mrs. Wiles as hostesses were Mrs. C. C. Cotner, Mrs. C. C. Wescott and Miss Elizabeth Spangler.

Rev. H. G. McClusky led the devotions.

A business meeting followed. At the close of the business meeting, two members of the Plattsmouth high school, Miss Sophia Bieri, a senior and Miss Jane Rebal, a sophomore, who were invited guests, were introduced to the members of the club. The young ladies were very grateful for the opportunity of meeting with the club, and expressed their desire of becoming members some time in the future.

Miss Wilhelmina Henrichsen then gave a very interesting and educational travelogue of her trip to the west coast. Miss Henrichsen had the opportunity of going on down across the border line, and with the curios and pictures she was able to secure from there, as well as those from Catalina Island and other high spots of interest, made her lecture very realistic and entertaining.

Mrs. Edgar Newton then presented a playlet, "Utopia in Six Lessons," which she herself had written and directed.

The members of the cast were Mrs. Otto Keck, Mrs. Justus Lillie, Mrs. Walter Reed, Mrs. Hazel Jameson and Mrs. Howard Davis, however Mrs. Davis had been called out of the city and Mrs. Newton took her part in the play.

The play was heartily enjoyed by all, and Mrs. Newton was highly complimented on her ability as a playwright.

Last, but not least, the ladies were favored with several numbers by the Plattsmouth Rotary club quartet. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the program.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Misses Mia and Barbara Gering entertained very pleasantly Sunday at a 1 o'clock dinner at their home on North Sixth street for a number of friends who included Miss Edith Martin, Lincoln, a week end guest at the Gering home, Mrs. Maude Fricke and daughters, Jane and Marion and Mrs. Irene Murphy, of St. Louis.

GOING TO WEST COAST

Lester Raker of Pinewold, Pennsylvania, who has been here visiting at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans and other relatives, has departed for the west coast. He is to locate at Seattle, Washington, where he expects to make his home in the future.

WILL BE BURIED HERE

The body of the late Frank W. Hager will be brought to this city for interment, messages received here for relatives today state. The body is expected here Saturday, but date of interment has not been fixed. Mrs. O. E. Farnham, a daughter, is accompanying the body.

BOMB PROOF SHELTERS

Rome.—Premier Mussolini ordered an appropriation of a million lire (about $80,000) to build bomb proof shelters for the citizens of Messina, Sicily, Italy's key city in the southern Mediterranean.

KILL CROWS FROM PLANE

Osmond, Neb.—An airplane and an army of about fifty hunters thinned out crows in this vicinity. A. A. Risser, piloting the plane, shooed the birds toward the hunters, who were assembled on the Buss farm, west of Pierce.
