FOUR MILE COMMUNITY CLUB

The Four Mile Community club held its second meeting of the season on Nov. 5th at the home of Mrs. Harry Neilson who was assisted by Mrs. Elmer Tritsch and Mrs. F. G. Nolting. All members, except one, and two visitors attended.

The president, Mrs. Sterling Ingwerson, opened the meeting with a business session. This was followed by a presentation of the song of the month given by Mrs. Russell Stander. The lesson, "Holiday Happiness," was presented by the lectors. This gave many useful ideas for the enjoyment of the Christmas season, especially the preparation of practical gifts.

The hostesses served a delicious lunch, after which the meeting adjourned to meet December 10th with Mrs. Hugh Stander.

more intimate style, made of white satin and cut in a tailored pattern. The sleeves are wide, pockets and a swagger touch, and the stock of lace creates an alluring effect. The tea gown worn by Gertrude Michael is a delicate affair of yellow lace over yellow satin, reminiscent of a decade ago.

AVOCA NEWS

Albert Breuner has purchased a new Pontiac car through the agency of Carl O. Zaiser.

C. W. Everett of Weeping Water was in Avoca last Tuesday, reading the meters of the various electrical customers here.

Frank Dean and family of Murdock were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin, parents of Mrs. Dean, last Sunday.

Robert Michel and wife, with their son Henry and wife, and their daughter, Donna Jean, were in Nebraska City last Tuesday, where they went to do some shopping.

Elmer Hennings, who has been having a serious time with a gathering in one of his ears, during the past few weeks, is now feeling much better, as the gathering broke and is now getting better.

William Maseman was selected as the juror from this portion of the county for the coming term of the district court, but as he was also a juror at a recent term of court, he thinks he should not have to serve now. The term of court will open next Monday, November 18th.

Mrs. Thomas Pitman, who made her home in Avoca for nearly fifty years prior to going to Nehawka recently to make her home with her daughters, Mesdames Laura Fleischman and Mrs. Robert H. Chapman, following the death of her husband, came over last week for a visit at the home of her son, Marion Pittman and family.

Enjoyed Theatre Party

The Camp Fire Girls of Avoca, who are a very active group and are always trying to learn something new under the instruction of their sponsor, Miss Dorothy Sneed, a teacher in the schools, were treated to a theatre party by Miss Sneed on Monday evening, when the group went over to Weeping Water and took in the current feature at the Liberty theatre. The girls are loud in praise of their sponsor and are counting on Christmas as a time to get even with her for her kindness.

Celebrated 75th Anniversary

The Methodist church of Otoe was organized seventy-five years ago and has continued active throughout the intervening three-quarters of a century, which is certainly an achievement to be proud of. Last Sunday, there was celebrated the anniversary of this church, with a large number of people from Avoca and vicinity there to enjoy the festivities. Fred L. Nutzman made an address recounting some of the early history of the church and also the history of the nation and state which was interwoven with the progress made by the church and which proved most interesting to all who heard him.

Will Hold Services

Arrangements have been made for the holding of services at the Avoca church on Sunday, November 24th. Please bear this in mind and be there to welcome the minister who comes from Lincoln to deliver the sermon. It is reported that Rev. Fred W. Hall and family are liking their new home at Franklin very much.

Watch Football Game

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moquardt, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel, Fred Moquardt and wife and Mrs. L. J. Moquardt were in Lincoln last Saturday, where they took in the football game between the Nebraska Cornhuskers and the Kansas Jay-Hawks, in which their nephew, Sam Francis, a member of the Nebraska team was one of the outstanding players. Stuart Mas-man also accompanied the party and did his share of shouting for their favorite, Sam Francis.

Observed Armistice Day

At the Avoca school Monday, the forenoon was put in listening to an address by President Roosevelt over the radio, speaking in honor of the soldiers of the world war, and also in the presentation of a program during the remainder of the forenoon which was enjoyed by all present. During the afternoon the regular order of study was observed.

New Building Goes On

The new house which is being constructed at the farm of Max Steen, is going forward at a good rate of speed and on Tuesday of this week the plastering was completed. With that out of the way, work can proceed on the interior finishing and it is expected that the next week or ten days will see the completion of the home.
