

MURDOCK ITEMS

Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Weber motored to Columbus last Monday to assist Rev. Weber's father in the celebration of his 89th birthday.

Miss Evelyn Elsemann, who resides in Omaha, visited over the week end with her brother, Chester Elsemann, of this place, driving down from the metropolis.

Warren Taylor Richards of Wabash was looking after some business matters in Murdock last Tuesday and was meeting and visiting with his many friends here.

John Scheel has been in rather poor health for some time past, and while he is able to be about and sometimes down town, still he is not feeling much improved.

The choir of the Murdock church held a practice session last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rikli, when they rehearsed the special numbers to be rendered at the church service yesterday.

Edward Knabe, of near Nehawka, was a visitor in Murdock, looking after some matters on the farm of his sister, where Carl Meyerjurgan lives. He was also calling on his friend, Henry A. Tool, while here.

E. W. Thimgan, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murdock last Wednesday afternoon and was looking after some business matters as well as visiting with his daughter, Mrs. W. J. B. McDonald and family.

Mrs. Oscar Newman, who resides between South Bend and Ashland, was in Murdock one day last week and had her tonsils removed at the office of Dr. Lee, as they had been giving her much trouble of late.

Henry Carsten, manager of the Murdock elevator, was at Havelock last Sunday for his usual weekly visit with his mother. Henry has great love for his mother and does not miss any opportunity of going to see her.

B. I. Clements and daughter, were in Murdock last Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Clements looking after some business matters, while the daughter was visiting the beauty parlor of Mrs. Lenette Lau, where she was having some work done.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kupke was made happy last week by a visit from the stork, who brought them a very fine baby boy. Both the new arrival and mother are doing very nicely. This makes them two children, a boy and a girl.

Three young women, members of the Salvation Army, were in Murdock last Wednesday disposing of copies of their magazine, the War Cry, and also doing some missionary work for the organization. They were able to dispose of a goodly number of the magazines.

Mesdames Ellen Brown and Newton Gaines, of Lincoln, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool last Tuesday evening, where a very enjoyable dinner was served. The hostesses on this occasion included Mrs. Tool, Mrs. Charles Kupke and Mrs. O. C. Zink.

Frank A. Melvin was in Weeping Water Tuesday of last week, where he attended the soil conservation meeting and with others present at the meeting were guests of the Weeping Water business men at a dinner which was served at the CCC camp, located at the south edge of town.

Keith Munford and wife, of Wabash, were visiting in Murdock, and Keith was having his wrist treated, as he started in picking corn a little too vigorously and now has to wait for the strained muscles to get well before he can continue. The corn is not in any too good condition to pick, anyway.

Kenneth Tool and wife of Wahoo visited over last Saturday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool and on Sunday drove to LeMars, Iowa, where they enjoyed a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tool, remaining there for a portion of Armistice day and returning home late Monday night.

Attended Brotherhood Meeting
Rev. Harvey A. Schwab and Henry Amgwert were guests of the Brotherhood of the First M. E. church of Weeping Water last Monday evening at their monthly fellowship meeting and program. Rev. Schwab gave an Armistice day address as part of the program.

Special Program Arranged
"The Magic Thank Offering Box" will be presented at the Murdock Evangelical church on next Sunday evening, November 24, by the three Missionary organizations. At that time, the thank-offering boxes which the members have had in their possession during the year for the reception of gifts of gratitude, will be brought as a Thanksgiving act. The community is invited.

Louisville Evangelical Church
Divine worship at 9:30 a. m. Church school, 10:30.

Murdock Evangelical Church
Church school, 10:00 a. m. Divine worship at 11:00. Christian Endeavor, 7:30 p. m. Worship hour, 8:00 o'clock.

Callahan Church Notes
F. C. Weber, Pastor

Our total attendance for the last Lord's day services numbered 340. We are also glad to note the increased interest in all departments. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Worship at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. E. L. C. E. at 7 p. m. Prayer service each Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Only the ignorant and low-minded sneer at the churches. To all others the mere act of worship, however imperfect and inadequate, is a sacred thing. Along this avenue of visible adoration of the unseen God all the highest and holiest have walked; forth from these shrines men and women have gone to all the glorious martyrdoms; out of this worship have come those restraining forces which have held back the baser passions, and those commanding aspirations which have led the march to civilization. All moral reforms were born in the manger of Bethlehem and were baptized with the blood of Calvary, and make their way in the world on the wings of the voice. Go to church somewhere.

Reading Missionary Books
The Woman's Missionary society and the Mission Band met Sunday afternoon at the Murdock Evangelical church for their monthly mission studies. The W. M. S. members are earnestly engaged during these fall and winter months in reading missionary books as part of their annual work. The women are doing fine.

Attended Convention at Hastings
Rev. Harvey Schwab and family left today (Monday) for Hastings, at which place they are attending the State Christian Education convention being held there today and tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. He will attend a conference commission on survey meeting at Hastings. As a member of that commission, he and several others are to survey conference activities and possibilities and present their findings at the next annual conference in May, 1936. They will return home the latter part of the week.

Enjoyed 81st Birthday
A very enjoyable gathering was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel, in honor of the 81st anniversary of her father and the visit here of her mother's two sisters, that brought the family together in a joyful reunion.

Covers were laid for twenty-six and a splendid dinner was served. A fine birthday cake, prepared by Mrs. Hitchcock, was presented to her father. After the "eats," reminiscences were called for and Mr. Neitzel gave a short resume of his life, and some depressions he has lived through. The three sisters also responded, bringing to the younger persons present bits of history not known to them before. Thus ended a very pleasant and enjoyable day for all participants.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel, A. J. Neitzel and family, Mrs. J. J. Martin and family, Guy Martin and family, Harvey Kubitz and family, Mrs. Meta MacDiarmid and daughter, O. J. Hitchcock and family and Mrs. J. J. Arnold of New York, who is on her way to California.

Visited Near Elmwood
Miss Elizabeth Box, who resides with her brother, Walter, on a farm near Elmwood, last Wednesday entertained the members of the Order of Eastern Star. A large number were present at the meeting, including four of the members from Murdock, and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent, with a delicious luncheon following the social hour. Those from Murdock who were present were Mesdames C. A. Kupke, A. J. Tool, Henry A. Tool and Oscar C. Zink.

Boosting for Murdock
The Murdock Booster club, an organization made up of business men and citizens interested in advancing the town and attracting business here, met last Thursday evening to discuss matters of interest. A very enjoyable meeting was had.

How About that Convention
There was a move started by Elmwood for the organization of a county-wide league of members of the various Volunteer Fire Departments of Cass county and the committee visited a number of towns in the cause, finding all the departments favorable to the organization of such a league as well as for the holding of a convention this fall. Now the only thing to do is for Elmwood to send invitations and have the firemen of the different towns notified of the time of such a meeting, for it is sure all will respond.

Murdock is anxious to see the plan carried out and will promptly join hands with the other departments of the county in getting the organization going.

Had Finger Badly Injured
While Walter Heier was working about his corn elevator, he accidentally allowed one of his fingers to get caught in the chain of the elevator, mashing the end off and as well the nail. While the wound was a very serious one, Dr. L. D. Lee dressed it and it is hoped that the finger will come out nearly as good as it was before the accident.

To Make Home in West
Mrs. W. E. Newkirk, mother of Mrs. L. D. Lee, who has been making her home here for some time past, departed early last week for Greenwood, where she visited at the home of her son, C. W. Newkirk and family. Later in the week her grandson, Raymond Newkirk, took her to Byron, accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Lee and granddaughter, Miss Virginia Newkirk, of Greenwood. Mrs. Newkirk will make her home with her son, A. E. Palling and family at Byron for the winter. The remainder of the party returned home late last week.

Entertained Last Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie were host and hostess last Sunday for the day and at a very fine dinner, having as their guests for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Rector, of El Reno, Oklahoma, and two sisters of Oklahoma City, Okla., and also Mr. and Mrs. William McNamara, the former a brother of Mrs. Gillespie, they making their home at Fairmont. All enjoyed the occasion splendidly.

Foot Still Very Sore
Some weeks since, Miss Thelma Lau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lau had the misfortune to drop a table leaf on one of her feet injuring the same very badly, and which has since been giving the young woman much trouble. She was having the foot treated in Lincoln, but as it grew worse, the doctors there referred her to Omaha, where she has been going to receive treatment. She and her parents were in Omaha one day last week to have the member dressed.

Entertained Last Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. John Scheel, Sr., entertained at their home in Murdock and had as their guests for the occasion their daughter, Mrs. Frank Hart and the other members of her family, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tonak, all of Omaha.

Take Vacation in West
I. G. Hornbeck, the genial agent of the Rock Island was out in the western portion of the state last week, where he and his brother Louis Hornbeck were taking their vacation and as well were hunting some ducks, getting their full quota, which was twenty, and also two large geese. Mr. Hornbeck, who has been making annual trips to the west to hunt, says the trip this year was the most enjoyable of all he has taken—in fact, as he puts it, more enjoyable than all the other trips put together.

Place cards, attractive table decorations can be found for the Thanksgiving season at the Bates Book & Stationery store.

Almost Nine Millions Live on the Government

Over 2 1/2 Millions Directly Employed by the Federal Administration — Drain on the Treasury.

A survey that has just recently been completed in Washington shows a total of 2,620,618 persons now employed directly by the government, with millions of others partially or wholly dependent upon federal funds.

The others include an estimated 2,000,000 families still on direct relief, 400,000 persons employed in government construction outside of the work progress administration program, 555,867 drawing veterans compensation or pensions. An estimated 3,000,000 farm benefit payments also will be made during the year.

Because of the inevitable duplication in some of these figures, a total of the persons or families drawing support from the treasury could not be reached. The grand total, including duplications, is almost 9,000,000.

Completion of the administration's program for putting 3,500,000 unemployed on work relief will swell the total drawing regular pay checks from the government to more than 4,500,000. Correspondingly, it will decrease the total of those not employed directly, but dependent upon federal money.

MRS. HOOVER NIPS LEGEND

New York.—Mrs. Herbert Hoover quashed the legend that she went to Leland Stanford university because of a romantic interest in Mr. Hoover. "Some day," she said laughingly, "I'm going to write a book about the lady I'm not."

"I never saw Mr. Hoover until we entered college," she added, "although we were born within fifty miles of each other on the same river in Iowa."

The old college "legend" came up in connection with a tea at the Engineering Women's club. It was recalled that she and Mr. Hoover were both graduates of Stanford's mining and engineering department. Her interest in rocks and mines led her there, she said, rather than romance. Mr. Hoover was a senior when she entered.

Former President Hoover remained at his hotel attending to personal business. Lawrence Richey, his secretary, said Mr. Hoover's only public appearance during his present visit here will be at the annual dinner of the Ohio society Saturday night when the former president will make the principal address.

ACTED WITHOUT AUTHORITY

St. Louis.—An opinion of a federal court special counsel held that O. P. Van Sweringen acted without authority in purchasing $3,438,016 in stock and bonds on the open market in 1930 and 1931 for a Missouri Pacific railroad company subsidiary. The opinion, filed by Fred L. Williams with U. S. Circuit Judge Charles B. Paris, held that the Cleveland railroad magnate and chairman of the railroad's board was personally responsible for the losses suffered in the transactions. An accounting was proposed to determine the exact amount of the losses, but market quotations indicate they will total more than 12 millions.

At Van Sweringen's orders, the opinion said, purchases were made for the account of the subsidiary, the Missouri Pacific Transportation company, with funds advanced by the railroad.

Judge Paris designated Marion C. Early as special master to examine Van Sweringen, Leonard P. Ayres, Alva Bradley, John Sherwin, Jr., G. A. Tomlinson and William Wyr at a hearing at Cleveland Nov. 20.

RADIUM IN ASH CAN

Charlottesville, Va.—The University of Virginia hospital reported the discovery of seventy-five milligrams of lost radium, roughly evaluated by hospital officials at $5,000, in a trash can.

TO HOLD COURT OF HONOR AT NEBR. CITY

Due to conflicting dates, the Arbor Lodge district court of honor scheduled for Tuesday evening, November 19, at Nehawka, will be held at Nebraska City, instead. The court will be attended by several members of the local Scout committee, including Fred Herbst, new advancement director, who will act as a member of the district Board of Review, passing on all applications for advancement and merit awards.

The January court will be invited to Plattsmouth.

Several members of the local Scout troop will be up for advancement and merit badges, but not nearly so great a number as may be expected at future courts with the position of advancement director on the troop committee again filled. This place was twice vacated in the past year, first with the removal of Dr. G. L. Taylor from the city, and later when Alex Geist, who succeeded Taylor, was transferred to Beatrice, Nebraska.

Fred Herbst, who has taken the position of advancement director, is preparing a large wall chart showing at a glance the advancement made by each of the members, and also contacting people of the community to act as merit badge counselors and pass the boys on their respective tests. There are more than 100 merit badge awards provided in the Manual of Scouting and every effort will be put forth to see that each Scout makes some regular advancement. A group of merit badge instruction books for the twenty or thirty most popular subjects will be purchased and maintained in the advancement director's circulating library, to be loaned to the boys as needed.

HEAR AUTO WRECK CASE

From Saturday's Daily:
This morning the time of the county court was taken up in hearing the charge of driving at excessive speed and failing to stop at the scene of accident, filed against George Gerdes, Jr., of Auburn.

The complaint is the outgrowth of an accident that occurred on highway No. 75 south of this city in which it is alleged that the truck driven by Mr. Gerdes forced a truck driven by Oney Meade of near Nebraska City from the highway. The result of the accident was that the truck driven by Meade was almost demolished and August Herzog, riding in the truck with Meade suffered a severe cut on the face. The cattle in the truck, owned by Herzog made their escape and were not rounded up until late in the day.

Mr. Gerdes is represented in the action by Robert Armstrong of Auburn while the county is represented by County Attorney Kleck.

WINS DEBATING HONORS

Participating in the debate held Tuesday at Omaha between the teams of the Creighton university and that representing Oxford university of England, was Henry R. Marshall, formerly of this city and student in the law college at Creighton.

The debate was on the subject, Resolved: "That a written constitution is a hindrance rather than a safeguard to social progress."

The Creighton team was assigned the negative side of the debate and presented a fine argument that won them the decision of the judges, H. A. White, University of Nebraska; Congressman C. F. McLaughlin; Anthony W. Ackerman, manager of Hayden's store.

Mr. Marshall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Marshall, who resided here for a number of years and is also a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1928. He is a brother of Mrs. Justus Lillie of this city.
