The time was spent preparing for the Father and Son banquet, which they served that evening. The next meeting will be held in two weeks, November 22, at the church, and the hostesses will be announced later. Covered Dish Luncheon The ladies of the Methodist Guild and the Woman's Home Missionary society held a seven o'clock covered dish luncheon at their church Friday evening, November 8, as a farewell courtesy to Mrs. P. A. Sanborn, who will leave in the near future for Council Bluffs, where she will make her home, and Mrs. O. F. Peters and Mrs. Mary Talcott who are each going away to spend the winter with their children. After the luncheon an initiation radio program which had been planned by Mrs. Frank Welton, was enjoyed by all as the members responded very well to the parts that were assigned to them, making up a program of much merriment. Mrs. Sanborn was then presented with a handkerchief shower from the Missionary society and a lovely leather purse from the members of the Guild. All departed for their homes at a late hour after wishing the honored guests much happiness in their new homes and visits. Fine Armistice Program The Greenwood Woman's club held its November meeting on Thursday evening at the American Legion building. After a short business meeting which was conducted by the president, Mrs. H. E. Warren, the following program appropriate to Armistice day, was given: Flag Salute, led by Mrs. E. A. Landon, program chairman. Roll Call, Name of a State or a County Officer. Song, "America," led by Mrs. Rex Peters. Paper, "What Armistice Day Means to Us," by Miss Roxanna Allen. Piano Solo, Elizabeth Martin. A Thanksgiving Story, by Mrs. P. A. Sanborn. Discussion, "Are We Americans Extravagant?" Vocal Solo, Mrs. Rex Peters. A social hour was then held in honor of Mrs. P. A. Sanborn, who is soon leaving for her new home in Council Bluffs. She was presented with a handkerchief shower. Delicious refreshments were served by a committee. Observed Armistice Day Monday morning the Greenwood school commemorated Armistice day by having a flag raising by the Boy Scouts, assisted by J. S. Gribble, commander of the Greenwood Legion post, No. 173. The pupils were congregated in the assembly room, where J. S. Gribble and George E. Bucknell gave the school an address on "Armistice Day, Its Origin" and "What the American Legion is Trying to Accomplish in a Public Way." Father and Son Banquet The Father and Son banquet was held November 8 at the Christian church, at 7:30 p. m. Charles Armstrong was the toastmaster. H. E.

Warren gave the address for the fathers, with a few fitting remarks and the response from James Jeffery for the sons was very ably handled. The banquet was served by the Dorcas society of the Greenwood Christian church. A fruit cocktail was served, followed by a course consisting of meat loaf, green string beans, sweet potatoes, rolls, butter, jelly, pickles and a vegetable salad, following which came the final course composed of a large piece of nut cake with whipped cream and coffee. During the serving of the banquet, a number of pep songs were sung. The invocation was made by Rev. Frederick Anderson. After the banquet, the fathers and sons went to the main floor and Rev. Lindquist of the Bethlehem church gave a very fine address. At the close, Lee Knolle sang a very fine solo. Everyone enjoyed themselves immensely. X-L Club is Active The X-L club met November 7 at the home of Mrs. Carl Swanson, with Mrs. Walter Collins and Miss Dorothy Greer as assistant hostesses. The lesson, "Holiday Happiness" was much enjoyed by a large group. Mrs. Ranney and Miss Margaret Greer were enrolled as new members. Mrs. Swanson, the Misses Mary Kelly and Birdene Clark were visitors. Lovely refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be held December 19 for an all day meeting and Christmas party with a covered dish luncheon to be served at noon at the home of Mrs. Glenn Lewis. Met Here to Plan District Meeting On November 4, the executive committee of the Cornhusker district of the I. O. O. F. met at Greenwood with the local lodge to finish plans for the district meeting to be held at University Place on Thursday, November 14. Louisville lodge No. 184, Havlock Lodge No. 244, University Place Lodge No. 343, and Lincoln lodge No. 11 were represented at the meeting, with a total attendance of 35 members and visitors. After the meeting a lunch was served. All left at a late hour after a fine time. Dinner Guests Mr. and Mrs. John Vant entertained at a dinner at their home Saturday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gentry Vant and son of Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Sandy and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Holmes and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, all of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Evan Armstrong and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Goodhart Vant and children and Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Vant, of Fairmont, Nebr. O. E. S. Kensington The O. E. S. Kensington was entertained Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. A. Landon and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong as hostesses at the home of the former. There was a good size crowd present. The regular business meeting was conducted by the president, during which time it was decided to hold an all day meeting next Wednesday, November 20, at the hall, with a covered dish luncheon at noon, for the purpose of quilting their quilt. After the business session, the time was spent with guessing contests and a character sketch. The rest of the time was spent with fancy work and visiting. This was followed by the serving of delicious refreshments by the hostesses. The next regular meeting will be held on December 11 and will be in the nature of a Christmas party, at the home of the hostess, Mrs. Ralph Clymer. Each member is to bring a 25 cent gift. Observed Educational Week The Greenwood public schools observed Educational week at school, and on Wednesday evening. They held an evening session of school from 7 o'clock until 8:45 with regular class session. There were about sixty patrons and other visitors who registered for this novel feature and everyone felt well repaid for their attendance. The superintendent and teachers are to be complimented upon their splendid work. Passing of Mrs. J. V. Carnes Mrs. J. V. Carnes, 86, resident of Nebraska for 70 years, died November 4 at her home, 320 North 26th street, Lincoln, following a year's illness. She suffered a cerebral stroke a year ago and has been bedfast most of the time since then. Her husband, J. V. Carnes, died December 20, 1934. Rhoda H. Bowman, daughter of Albert and Mary A. Bowman, was born November 2, 1849, at Richmond, Virginia. She removed with her parents in early childhood to Burlington, Iowa, and in 1862 to Denver, Colo., making the trip in a covered wagon. She related many times the story of the blizzard encountered during that trip and the tales of Indian skirmishes. In 1865 her parents came back east to Plattsmouth, where they lived for six years and then homesteaded near Greenwood. Mrs. Carnes taught two terms of school there. She joined the Christian church in Plattsmouth in 1888. On June 23, 1870, she was united in marriage to Mr. J. V. Carnes. Six of their seven children survive, being: Mrs. Frank Van Doren, Mrs. P. M. Johnson and Oliver F. Carnes, all of Lincoln; Mrs. N. O. Coleman, of Greenwood, and Miss Mary and Miss Rhoda, who resided at home with the mother in Lincoln. One daughter, Mrs. Lulu Belle Harmon, preceded her in death on November 8, 1918. She also leaves four step-children. They are: Mrs. Isaac Wiles, of Weeping Water; J. S. and Jesse M. Carnes, of Neligh; and Melvin J. Carnes, of Johnson; also one sister, Mrs. E. V. Phillips of Broken Bow and several grandchildren. After her marriage, Mrs. Carnes transferred her membership to the Greenwood Christian church, where she was an active worker for forty-four years, being president of the Ladies Aid society for several years. In 1914 the family moved to Lincoln, whereupon she became affiliated with the East Lincoln church for a period of four years and then transferred her membership to the First Christian church, of which she remained a faithful member for the rest of her life. Mrs. Carnes was a member of the Womans Relief Corps for many years, her husband having been a Civil war veteran. She was actively interested in affairs of the city and state. She died two days after her 86th birthday. Brief funeral services were held at the home on Wednesday afternoon, November 6th, at 1 o'clock, and at 2 o'clock from the Greenwood Christian church, Rev. Ray E. Hunt officiating. The Womans Relief Corps conducted a special service at the home. Burial was in the Greenwood cemetery. Journal ads bring you news of timely bargains. Read them!

Congressman H. C. Luckey Files for Re-Election

Present Efficient Congressman Files With Secretary of State for Seat From First District.

Congressman Henry C. Luckey, of the First district today announced his decision to stand for re-election by making his filing at the secretary of state's office. Congressman Luckey asks re-election on his outstanding record of service in congress as exemplified, by his honest, energetic and faithful representation of the best interests of the entire citizenry of the first district. Probably no other representative in the house has given more careful study of each individual problem and more conscientious labor than Mr. Luckey. In asking for re-election Mr. Luckey brings to the electorate of the first district the same qualifications of courage, honesty and education, as well as experience and understanding of farming and business problems that gave him such a ma-majority of votes in 1934, when he carried every county in the first district. Congressman Luckey is closing his office in the Lincoln Hotel, at Lincoln, Nebraska, which he maintained to give direct personal assistance to the problems affecting the first district since the closing of the first session of the 74th congress. In the future all business will be conducted through his office in Washington. HOLD FINE MEETING The past county chairman of the Extension Project clubs were entertained at the home of Mrs. Henry A. Tool, at Murdock, November 12th at a one o'clock luncheon. Hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. O. C. Zink, present county chairman, Mrs. G. R. Eveland, Mrs. R. A. Kuehn and Mrs. Henry A. Tool. Guests were Miss Mary Ellen Brown, state extension agent of Women's work, Mrs. N. W. Gaines, social leader and Miss Christine Nesbit, county Home Agent of Perkins county, all of Lincoln; Mrs. Nelson Berger, Nehawka, former County Home Agent; Miss Jessie H. Baldwin, County Home Agent and Mrs. D. D. Wainwright, wife of County Agent, of Weeping Water; Mrs. Ray Norris, president of 4-H boys and girls clubs. Special guests: Mrs. Hannah McDonald, Murdock; Mrs. Carrie Nickel, Elmwood; Misses Alice Kuehn and Marjorie Zink, Murdock. Group chairmen: Mrs. Fred Rudolph, Mrs. Wm. Straffe, Mrs. Frances Baldwin, Mrs. George Sheldon, Mrs. Everett Spangler, Mrs. Arthur Shoeman, Mrs. Louis Schmidt and Mrs. Orill Allen, now of Lancaster county. Past chairmen: Miss Rosalie Gerard, Mrs. Henry A. Tool, Mrs. H. L. Gayer, Mrs. G. R. Eveland, Mrs. Wm. Ost, Mrs. R. A. Kuehn, Miss Evelyn Wolph and Mrs. O. C. Zink. Regrets were expressed that two of the first county chairmen, Mrs. George Moomey and Mrs. Henry Smith, were unable to be present. A verse on the place cards composed by Mrs. Henry A. Tool, expressed the experience of most all club women. "Once I was a worm; Did nothing but squirm. The Club gave me wings; Now I enjoy more things." ENTERTAINS FOR VISITORS Friday afternoon Mrs. Walter Tritsch was hostess to a group of friends at her pleasant country home west of this city, honoring her sister, Mrs. Clinton Kenner of Nebraska City and Mrs. Edward Mullen of Los Angeles. There were two tables of bridge and in the playing Mrs. Guy Long was awarded the first prize and Mrs. Mullen, the second. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Completes Road Graveling John Woods, who has been busy for a good number of weeks spreading gravel on various roads in this vicinity for the county, finished up the work last week and will have plenty of time now to rest up. He disposed of one of his trucks to the Western Lime Stone company of Weeping Water, who will use it in connection with their rock quarrying work. Visiting Brother Here Mrs. Grace Morgan, of Denver, a sister of Roy Stanley, not having seen the brother for some four years, sent a letter to Mr. Stanley stating she was coming to visit them and asking that he meet her at Lincoln. However, Sherman Hardaway had gone to Missouri and Mr. Stanley was unable to get away, so Mrs. Morgan came to Weebash via the Missouri Pacific train. They are enjoying a most pleasant visit together. Large Amount of Seed Corn John C. Browne has in storage at the elevator some 2,800 bushels of seed corn, which is owned by Rey Frederick of the Frederick Seed company of Nebraska City, Murray and Greenwood. The corn has been closely graded and will be thoroughly tested, after which the greater part of it will be shipped to the east for seed, although some of it will be disposed of the farmers of this vicinity who are desirous of getting some extra good seed corn for the coming year. Seeing the South Sherman Hardaway, who formerly lived at Fairplay, Mo., together with his wife and William Reuter and son Albert, left a few days ago for that section of the country, where Mr. and Mrs. Hardaway are visiting with the friends of their old home town, and Mr. Reuter and son are visiting with relatives in that part of the country. They took their guns along to hunt quail and rabbits should the opportunity arise, but the opportunity of visiting relatives and friends is the prime object of their trip. Storekeeper Himself Now Roy Stanley, proprietor of the Weebash store, is running the business himself at this time as Sherman Hardaway, the manager, has gone to Missouri on a visit. Speaking of the matter of running the store, Roy declared, "I am willing that Sherman should come back tomorrow or even this evening." The out-of-doors has a lure for Mr. Stanley and he cannot shake it off. Grandmother Bosworth Sick Mrs. Ira Bosworth, who has just recently passed her 82nd birthday, and who has lived in Weebash for a great many years, being loved and respected by a host of friends, has not been feeling the best for some time past and is now down in bed with a severe case of pneumonia. She was feeling some better last Friday, and it is hoped is on the road to recovery. Her children, Mrs. Grace Moore, residing in the southern part of the state, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ohms, of South Bend, were called to her bedside and the pleasure at being able to see them proved as much a tonic as any medicine. Well Attended Box Social A fine program and entertainment was put on by the Weebash school last Friday night, the receipts of which are to be used in beautifying the school room. The program was followed by a box social at which there was some lively bidding for some of the favorite boxes, and the sale was most satisfactory. The teacher and pupils are to be congratulated on the fine program rendered, which shows that even a school with small attendance can really do things when they set about the task with determination. It was a credit to schools of much larger enrollment.

Wabash News

Mrs. Susan Bosworth has been ill with a cold and her daughters, Mrs. Clarence Ohm and Mrs. Tom Colbert have been caring for her. The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Ira Helms Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. John Thoms was the guest of honor and was presented with a shower of gifts. John C. Browne visited at the home of his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stromer, in Alvo, over the week end, returning home on Monday morning. Mrs. Audrey Stromer, daughter of John C. Browne, was over from her home at Alvo and straightened out the home of her father, leaving a quantity of finely cooked food for Mr. Browne, for which he was thankful. John is a good cook himself, but does not have an abundance of time to devote to the kitchen. Completes Road Graveling John Woods, who has been busy for a good number of weeks spreading gravel on various roads in this vicinity for the county, finished up the work last week and will have plenty of time now to rest up. IT WORKED FOR ME
Women should take only liquid laxatives
MORE people could feel fine, be fit and regular, if they would only follow the rule of doctors and hospitals in relieving constipation. Never take any laxative that is harsh in action. Or one, the dose of which can't be exactly measured. Doctors know the danger if this rule is violated. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all. Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why it should be a liquid like Syrup Pepsin. Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if it doesn't give you absolute relief, if it isn't a joy and comfort in the way it overcomes any sluggishness or biliousness, your money back.
