SENTENCE OF CONGRESSMAN

Washington.—Convicted of conspiring to sell a West Point nomination, Representative John H. Hoepfel of California and his 22 year old son, Charles, were sentenced to prison terms of from four months to a year. Both received the sentence without trace of emotion, altho a few minutes earlier the congressman had wept as his attorney argued a motion for a new trial, which was denied. The maximum prison term that could have been imposed was two years.

On the condition that they pursue a speedy trial, Justice Daniel W. O'Donoghue, of the District of Columbia supreme court, permitted the Hoepfels to remain at liberty on $1,000 bond each, pending its outcome.

Experience has proven that the time is ripe for a good, old fashioned evangelistic campaign in nearly every community in the nation. A similar series of meetings was held at Louisville during the past few weeks, resulting in more than three score conversions and an awakened interest in the church and better living.

The topics of the various sermons to be delivered during the course of the two weeks' campaign in Murray are as follows:

Monday evening, January 20, "Seeing Jesus."

Tuesday evening, January 21, "A Sinner Saved by Grace."

Wednesday evening, January 22, "The Unpardonable Sin."

Thursday evening, January 23, "Saved or Lost." (High school night).

Friday evening, January 24, "A Job for Everybody."

Saturday evening, January 25, "Excuses."

Sunday, January 26, morning sermon, "Why Men do Not Receive." Evening, "Giving God the Right of Way."

Monday evening, January 27, "The Defeatless Life."

Tuesday evening, January 28, "The Keys of the Kingdom."

Wednesday evening, January 29, "Who Can be Saved?"

Thursday evening, January 30, "How We may Know we are Saved."

Friday evening, January 31, "Daring God."

Saturday evening, February 1, "Conditions Victorious."

Sunday, February 2, Morning sermon, "Fruit Bearing." Evening, "The Finger of God."

There will be special music at all services. It is planned to close the evangelistic campaign on Sunday, February 2, unless conditions should warrant making a change, in which case same will be announced through the press.

The public is cordially invited to come and hear these positive, uplifting sermons by Rev. Reel.
