New State, Federal Agency to Give Written Examinations to 862 Persons.

Prof. C. O. Swayzee of the University of Nebraska announced Tuesday 862 of 1,524 persons who applied for jobs in the new state-federal employment agency setup have been accepted for written examinations. There are only about 30 places to fill. The written examinations will be held March 27 and 28 at Alliance, Grand Island, Lincoln, Norfolk, North Platte, Omaha and O'Neill.

Those who survive the examinations will be interviewed by a special federal board, and not more than five persons for each job will be recommended by V. B. Kinney, state labor commissioner, who will make the final appointments.

The agency will be maintained on a 50-50 basis by the state and federal governments. Offices will be in Lincoln, Omaha and Norfolk. Only 12 persons passed the first hurdle in the race for the principal job of state director.

To Hold Housing Meeting Monday

Lumber Dealers of Cass and Sarpy Counties Invited to Conference at Plattsmouth Hotel.

The Federal Housing Administration office in Omaha has called a meeting of lumber dealers, bankers and local town PHA chairmen of Cass and Sarpy counties to be held at the Plattsmouth hotel next Monday, March 23rd, beginning at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and lasting until 5 in the evening.

It is the purpose of the meeting to make material dealers more familiar with the terms of Title 1 (short term modernization loans) and Title 2 (long time amortized home loans). Both these plans provide a method of getting money for new construction and repair, by guaranteeing the loans against loss to the lending institutions.

As it will require the full day to cover the field, it is suggested in the call sent out by V. A. Hall, associate state director, that all planning to attend be there at 10 o'clock sharp, so as not to miss any part of the program. All dealers in materials of any kind that enter into home construction or repair, and artisans who do this work, carpenters, painters, plumbers, etc., are welcome to attend the meeting.

Different because it's

We don't mean one of those "talking point" differences. We mean a real difference. Alloying Germ Processed oil goes beyond refining and re-refining. After every harmful element is cleaned out, the patented Conoco Germ Processing element is scientifically put IN.

That's what brings you this alloyed oil, with its strange attachment for pistons, cylinders, and all other engine parts—including every known type of bearing. All these parts really become oil-plated!

This oil-plating is extra. It's a plus—added to the tougher, more slippery, heat-beating Germ Processed oil film. You've got this high-durability oil film, sliding on thoroughly oil-plated surfaces, and so you're that much farther from wear and noise.

You're facing hotter days and harder runs. Out with dirty winter oil! Only the Conoco man can change you—quickly—to Germ Processed, the alloyed oil. Continental Oil Company.

Two More Stars Join Hollywood "Rebels"

Grace Moore

George Raft

James Cagney

Hollywood's growing list of stars on strike added to its roster Marlene Dietrich and Grace Moore after long-smouldering studio difficulties broke into the open. La Dietrich abandoned work on her new picture, protesting her part as a chambermaid was "unsuitable to her dignity", and was replaced by Margaret Sullivan, while Grace Moore declared she was through with pictures until Hollywood "learned to treat her as a human being". George Raft had previously walked out on a picture in which he was to have been co-starred with Carole Lombard, and James Cagney sued Warner Bros. because he was "compelled to make too many pictures." Cagney also demanded a salary increase.
