

Nehawka

Miss Lenya McKeynois attended a Kappa Phi banquet at the University Club in Lincoln last Saturday evening.

Hans H. Stoll was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Wednesday where he went to get a pair of glasses fitted.

Alva Dodson was shipping his cattle to Omaha last Monday, they being delivered to the market by Frank Trotter.

A. G. Cisney was able to get his oats seeded on the farm last week and is feeling he was fortunate to get them in so early.

J. A. Boyd who operates a produce and cream station in Nehawka, was a visitor for over the week end at his home in Elmwood.

Joy Kettlehut was a visitor in Omaha on Monday of last week where she was visiting friends for the day as well as doing some shopping.

The Sheldon department store was having water installed in the store, the work on the extension of the water main being done by Fred Hallbock.

Herman Friedrichs of Nebraska City and Dorothy Yost drove over to Lincoln last Sunday evening where Miss Dorothy is attending the state university.

Robert Bestor of Plattsmouth and Lois Troop, who is attending the state university at Lincoln, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein.

Martin Ross was in town last Monday and was telling about the rain which was very slight at his home some five miles south of Nehawka while in town they had a very good rain.

Mrs. George Troop, who has been in very poor health and was staying in Plattsmouth with her sisters and father was able to return to the farm last Saturday and is again enjoying the country.

R. H. Chapman, one of the rural carriers out of the Nehawka post-office, has been kept from his work of late by a very lame back, which has kept him from performing his accustomed work.

Clarence Hansen, who recently sold a John Deere tractor to his father, A. F. Hansen, was equipping it with pneumatic tires on Monday of this week, so that the father could get after the spring farm work.

Robert Bruce Stone and wife and Julian James Pollard and wife were over to Fremont last Sunday where they went to visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Switzer who is engaged in the oil business in Fremont.

Mrs. W. O. Troop, although but a short time ago there was deep drifts of snow, has at this time an abundance of lettuce and radishes which she has grown in her garden. It pays to get after the garden as early as possible.

A. G. Cisney and wife were visiting in Shenandoah last Saturday, at the home of their daughter, Billie and husband, Chuck Davis. While there Mr. Cisney also attended a sale which was held at the Radio stockyards. They also attended the KMA birthday party.

C. Steffens and wife of Lorton had a sister-in-law of Mrs. Steffens pass away at Lincoln Friday of last week. The funeral was held Monday of this week at Lincoln and they desiring to attend, J. H. Steffens went down to Lorton where he looked after the conduct of the bank while they were away.

Roy Snyder, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Snyder, who has been in very poor health for some time was taken to the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City last Sunday night where he was placed under observation and treatment in order to ascertain the nature of his sickness and to effect a cure if possible. Last Saturday Otto Wohlfarth of Plattsmouth, representing the Cass County Motor Co., sold to Thomas Mason, the mail carrier of one of the rural routes out of Nehawka, a 1936 Buick automobile, taking in exchange as part payment a 1935 Ford V-8 which Mr. Mason had been using for a time in carrying the mail route. As a fitting tryout of the new car Mr. and Mrs. Mason made a trip to Omaha in the evening to visit friends residing there.

Doing Their Part.
The Nehawka Red Cross chapter is doing everything possible to gather what is possible for relieving the suffering of the flood ridden section in the east where homes have been destroyed, many losing their lives and many thousands without a place to live. We with good homes, plenty to eat and happy, should do what we can to relieve this want and distress. See the Red Cross and do your part.

To Hold District Convention.
With some six cities in this district having Rebekah assemblies, Nehawka, Weeping Water, Nebraska City, Avoca, Talmage and Elmwood, will hold a district convention at the Auditorium in Nehawka on May 7th. Arrangements have been in progress for some time and the matter of entertainment of visiting delegates is in the hands of proper committees of the Nehawka lodge.

MOUNT VERNON UNTOUCHED
Washington.—Those Washingtons were a far seeing family. The flood which inflicted much damage on other property along the Potomac never even touched George Washington's home, Mt. Vernon, which is fifteen miles downstream from Washington.

Sketch of Life of Pioneer Otoe County Resident

Robert Campbell Ferguson, Well Known in Southern Part of County, Laid to Last Rest.

Robert Campbell Ferguson was born in Erie county, N. Y., near Buffalo, January 4, 1850. He lived there three years when he with his parents moved to Guernsey county, Ohio, near Cambridge where the mother died in 1861. In 1869 when he was 19 years old the remaining family came to Nebraska, traveling by steamboat down the Ohio river to Cairo, Illinois, then to St. Louis on the Mississippi, from there to Nebraska City on the Missouri, the trip taking 18 days. They lived on the Steamwagon road west of Nebraska City nearly three years when they moved to the home nine miles northwest of Nebraska City where he resided for 67 years.

He was married July 28, 1890 to Miss Kate McCartney who lived on an adjoining farm. To this union was born three children, two who are surviving, Mrs. Ivan Balfour of Union, Nebr., and Charles, living on the home place. One child, a baby twin, died when four months old. The wife died February 14, 1899, leaving him with two small children, 5 and 7 years old, Charles and Eunice. As soon as the daughter was old enough, she kept house for the father and brother. The original family consisted of seven sons and one daughter of which Robert was the last survivor. He was also the only one of the family born in America. The rest, father, mother, brothers and sister, were born in Glasgow, Scotland. His father was a type setter. The brothers' names were William, George, Thomas, Oliver, James, the baby brother buried in the ocean and one sister, Elizabeth, former Mrs. John Edmunds of Murray, Nebraska.

He voted his first time in Wyoming precinct and had never missed an election there. The first president he voted for was General Grant, in 1872. He was always a strong republican and took much interest in politics. He was always proud of his Scotch origin and the Presbyterian faith. He always loved the Wyoming church and never missed attending a church dinner. He loved community gatherings, also gatherings of the family.

His father William, and sister, Elizabeth, wife, Kate, and son, are buried in Cowles Hill cemetery. The father died in 1877. He was very much devoted to his two grandchildren, Verla Kathleen Balfour and Calvin Ferguson. He spent several months each year at the Balfour home near Union and it was there on Thursday, March 5 that he had his last illness, suffering a stroke and heart attack. On Monday he was removed to St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City, where all possible care was rendered him, his two children both giving blood for transfusions in the hope of his getting better. He passed away on Saturday, March 14, at 9:45 p. m., the same day of the month as his wife, the one being February 14, the other March 14, at the age of 85 years, 2 months and 10 days. He leaves two children, Mrs. Ivan Balfour, Union, Nebr., and Charles Ferguson, Nebraska City; two grandchildren, Verla Kathleen Balfour, Union, Calvin Cline Ferguson, Nebraska City, both 10 years of age, nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

He was buried at Cowles Hill cemetery beside his wife with services in the Wyoming church, conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, on Tuesday, March 17 at 2 p. m. Relatives from Shenandoah, Iowa, attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferguson, Mrs. Earl Ferguson, Burnett Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schneider and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Gauss; from Murray, Wm. and Chas. Sporer, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sporer and Martina, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sporer, Mr. and Mrs. Doc Long and Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kennedy; from Dunbar, Mr. C. C. West, Mr. and Mrs. Edd West. Loud speakers were installed so all might hear as the church would not hold the crowd. Floral contributions were many and formed a very lovely setting.

When Mr. Ferguson first took sick at the Balfour home their road was still snow blocked, altho it was over a month after the storm and the doctor and nurse had to be secured in a lumber wagon by going through a field over to old highway 75. Fred Baker, their nearest neighbor made these trips after night.

A navigable Missouri river by 1937 is the promise of Missouri river development boosters.

AVOCA NEWS

Albert Dankliff was delivering corn to the Marquardt elevator last Tuesday and also made a business trip to Nebraska City in the morning.

Jane Gray was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Sunday, going to spend the day with her parents, who recently moved from Avoca to Plattsmouth to make their home.

Claude A. Ruse of Plattsmouth, proprietor of the Ruse Motor Co., was a business visitor in Avoca on Tuesday of this week and was looking after some business matter for his company.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Thomas and the two daughters of Shenandoah, Iowa, were visiting in Avoca for over Sunday last week, coming as the guests of the father and brother of Mrs. Thomas W. H. Bogaard and son, Clyde. All enjoyed a very fine visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Zasler were in Omaha last Sunday where they were visiting for the day with friends and relatives and were accompanied by Oscar Zimmer, the capable and courteous clerk at the Avoca bank who was also visiting with friends for the day.

John Marquardt of the Marquardt Drug company, was a visitor in Omaha Tuesday of this week where he went to attend a convention of the Norge refrigerator dealers and also attended the banquet in the evening, which was provided by the company. Mesdames Fred and Ray Kremer and the two little kiddies from Panama, were visiting for the day last Tuesday at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCann, where all enjoyed a very pleasant visit for the day.

Home From a Visit.

Mrs. L. J. Marquardt who has been visiting at Beaver Crossing with her daughter and family for the past week or ten days, returned home last Sunday evening. Her son, Fred Marquardt and wife drove out last Sunday accompanied by Miss Corrine Hallstrom for a visit for the day and to bring the mother home. The party was also accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Vette who went along and visited for the day at the home of her mother at Utica, all returning home in the evening, having had a very fine day of it.

Working at Campaign.

Senator Fred L. Carsten, who is candidate for election to the unicameral legislature was visiting the various towns in Sarpy county last Tuesday, going to Papillion, Springfield and Gretna, where he met his many friends and as well much of the farming district. He stopped at Plattsmouth and met many of his friends there and was greatly encouraged with the trip and the good feeling which he found on his trip.

Building Cream Station.

During the early part of the winter a fire destroyed the cream station on the south side of Main street down near the creek and which has not been builded during the extreme cold weather, but with the coming of spring Fred Marquardt, on whose property the building stood, had it restored and during the present week Ed Shackley has been erecting a building to replace the one burned, which is to be occupied by H. E. Nutzman who will represent the Jerpe Commission company.

Visited at Avoca.

George E. Nickles of Murray who has been a member of the last two sessions of the state legislature from Cass county and who is a candidate for the unicameral, was a visitor in Avoca meeting and interviewing the people here in the interest of his candidacy.

Visited at Plattsmouth.

Justice of the Peace J. M. Kokker and Lumberman H. M. Lum were over to the FHA meeting at Plattsmouth on last Monday and were greatly interested in the work. They were well pleased with the interest taken by people from all over the county in the move for better homes.

Plattsmouth offers opportunities unexcelled anywhere to small factories. Natural gas, low cost electricity, nominal living wages.
