Among those who recently received trees for planting of an orchard were John Emshoff, John and Albert Brair who have been busy in setting out the trees hoping in a few years to be able to eat the fruit from them.

While Fred Bruener was blasting some stumps with blasting powder, a premature explosion burned his hands and face very badly. He was given immediate treatment and while the burns are very severe, he is getting along and is hoping the effects will not be such as to impair the use of his hands or injure his eyes.

Had Peculiar Election.

Like many of the towns in this vicinity it was the purpose of the people of Avoca to hold a caucus and place in nomination two times as many candidates as it was necessary to elect officers and when the call was issued there was no response, and there was also no time to call another caucus. So there you are. The time for the election came on and when the election was held there was no candidates to be voted for and each had to select the ones he wanted and so the election went merrily on. The saloon was closed in accordance with the law. We have not been advised as to the results.

Have Pair of Accidents.

Last week while Louis Carsten, Jr. was working about the barn and was in the act of milking one of the gentle bovines, the animal stepped on one of Mr. Carsten's feet and bruised and fractured some of the bones, which layed Mr. Carsten up for some time. In order to assist his son with the work about the farm, which he could not do in his crippled condition, the father, Louis Carsten, Sr., went to the farm and while he was working about the barn a fractious horse kicked both feet, striking him on the leg with one foot and the other struck him in the abdomen, throwing Mr. Carsten over against a pole used to separate the horses, and there he hung for a time until he was assisted to get away. The injury done to Mr. Carsten, Sr., was very serious and he was placed in bed. A blood clot formed on the stem of his bladder. Mr. Carsten is being cared for by Dr. Dieder of Otoe. During the time he has been kept to his bed. It is hoped that he may soon be better.

Dearest father, thou has left us. Here thy loss we deeply feel. But 'tis God that hath bereaved us. He can all our sorrows heal.

Peaceful be thy silent lumbers, Peaceful in the grave so long; Thou no more our songs shalt know.
