Ben Windham Passes Away at Home in Omaha

Former Well Known Resident of This City and Member of Pioneer Families of County.
 Benjamin Windham, 43, born and reared to manhood in this city, passed away shortly after midnight Monday at his home 2114 Chicago street, Omaha, following a short illness.
 Benjamin Windham, son of Hon. Robert B. Windham and Jennie Patterson Windham, was born in Plattsmouth, January 20, 1893, one of the younger of a large family. He was brought up in this community and here he received his education in the Plattsmouth schools. With the outbreak of the world war and participation of his country, he enlisted in the navy and served until the close of the war.
 Mr. Windham, following the war largely made his home in Omaha and was married in that city, his widow and four children surviving his passing.
 There also survives three sisters, and one brother, Miss Hermie Windham, Lincoln; Mrs. Ellen Sturgess, Omaha; Mrs. Kathryn Riddle, West Palm Beach, Florida, and Samuel C. Windham, of Chicago.
 The death of Mr. Windham brings a great regret among the old time friends here as his genial disposition had made him a large circle of acquaintances, who will share with the family the sorrow that his taking away has occasioned.
 The funeral services will be held at Osceola, Nebraska, the former home of Mrs. Windham.

Plant Windbreak for Rural School

First in the State Is Around Thomas County School Near Thedford; More to Be Planted.
 Earl G. Maxwell, state extension forester at the college of agriculture, announced that the first rural school ground windbreak demonstration for 1936 has been planted in Nebraska. Similar plantings will be made in several score counties within the next few weeks.
 The first planting has been made around the Cordes school in Thomas county, four miles east of Thedford. Forester Maxwell and helpers established the planting of 400 red cedar and 400 yellow pine this week. There are nine rows planted on the north and west sides of the school structure.
 This is the first year a concentrated effort has been made in Nebraska to establish demonstrational plantings around rural school buildings. School boards are co-operating in the program to develop trees both for beauty and protection around the buildings.

ATTEND CHURCH MEETING
 The Nebraska City Presbyterian Society for Missions convened Tuesday afternoon and today at Auburn, Nebr. The local Presbyterian church is represented by Mrs. L. O. Minor and Mrs. Louis Lohnes.
 There was a banquet and a special young people's program Tuesday night which was attended by several of the Westminster Guild girls: Miss Sue Simonton, Miss Ruth Wurga, Miss Wilhelmina Henriksen and Miss Eleanor Olsen. They were accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. H. G. McCusky.

DISTRICT COURT OPENS
 From Monday's Daily
 This morning Judge D. W. Livingston and Court Reporter Glenn Woodbury, were here from Nebraska City to open the jury term of the district court. All of the jurors as well as the bailiff, genial William Atchison, of Elmwood, were on the job as court convened.
 The court will open this afternoon when the case of the State of Nebraska vs. James Bright, will be called and the jury impaneled to try this case, the only criminal action to come up at this term.

HAVE PLEASANT MEETING
 The American Legion Auxiliary held a very pleasant meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. W. Niel with Mrs. R. J. Larson, Mrs. Robert Capple, Mrs. J. H. Palacek and Miss Celia Palacek as the hostesses. There was discussion of plans for poppy day and to make it go over the top. Dainty refreshments were served to add to the pleasures of the occasion.

ENTERTAINS FOR FRIEND
 Tuesday evening Mrs. F. R. Gobelman entertained at a charming 6:30 dinner and bridge, honoring Miss Mathilde Soennichsen, who is leaving in May for a tour of Europe.
 The tables were attractively arranged with flowers and miniature ships as decorative features and the place cards were also in ships.
 Following the dinner the ladies enjoyed the evening in bridge and in which Mrs. W. G. Kleck was winner of high honors, Miss Anna Palacek, second prize and the consolation award by Mrs. Thomas J. Walling.
 Miss Soennichsen was showered with a large number of articles that she will find most useful on the trip abroad this summer and which will serve as a constant reminder of the friends.

VISITS ASSISTANCE OFFICE
 Otto Stube, field supervisor of the state assistance commission, was in the city Monday to meet with Paul Vandervoort, county supervisor, and checking over the office. Mr. Stube found the local office functioning in excellent shape and handling most efficiently the applications that are to be transmitted to the state commission for their action.

RETURNS FROM OHIO
 Mrs. Searl S. Davis returned Tuesday from Dayton, Ohio, where she has been for the past two weeks, called there by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Lee Corbin. Mrs. Corbin is much better now and which allowed the daughter to return home to her family.

DIES AT MASONIC HOME

Sunday morning William H. Miller, 81, passed away at the Nebraska Masonic Home in this city, where he has made his home since March 12, 1935. Mr. Miller was born October 29, 1854, at Hesse Cassel, Germany, coming to the United States in 1872. He has been a resident of Nebraska for a great many years, living at Oakland, Lincoln and Crab Orchard, where he followed his trade of harness maker. He was admitted to the Home through Oakland lodge No. 91, of which he had been a member. Mrs. Miller preceded her husband in death some two years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Willia Mae Miller, of Lincoln.
 The body is at the Horton funeral home and will be taken to Crab Orchard, Tuesday where funeral services are to be held at 2 o'clock. Telemseh lodge No. 17 will conduct the services at the grave.

2 Cent Fares to be Effective on June 2nd

Protests of the Eastern Railroads Are Ignored by the Interstate Commerce Commission.
 Washington.—Eastern railroads lost their fight before the interstate commerce commission for an 18 month postponement in the June 2 effective date of new low passenger fares.
 The roads had asked the postponement of a basic 2 cents per mile rate for passenger coaches recently prescribed by the commission and the substitution of a trial 2.5 percent rate during the interim period.
 They agreed to accept a 3 cent Pullman rate fixed by the ICC. Of the major eastern roads, only the Baltimore & Ohio failed to join in the request for postponement.
 The commission divided five to five on the postponement petition and the issue was referred to Transportation

DEPRESSION VICTIM
 Chicago.—Karl Wolter, 35, an unemployed laborer, was found hanged in his attic room. A note on a table nearby read: "This depression has lasted too long to suit me."
TOLD TO CUT LAND VALUES
 Grand Island.—State Tax Commissioner Smith instructed 17 central Nebraska county assessors here Tuesday to cut valuations of farm lands in high school districts for purposes of equalization.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers pay top prices.
