STRAWBERRIES for sale, 10c per quart. Bring your own containers. Mrs. Albert Young, Murray, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lopp were visiting with friends and looking after some business matters in Omaha last Saturday.

Russell Overhuler, the man who operates the lower cream station, was unloading a car of coal for the Murray lumber yard during the latter part of last week.

Frank Marsh, of Lincoln, was a visitor in Murray last Saturday, coming over to see his friend, George E. Nickles, and was looking after some business matters as well.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt drove to Omaha Sunday afternoon for a brief pleasure trip. They report it did not rain there, but on arrival home they found considerable rain had fallen here.

Edgar Newton and family, of Plattsmouth spent the day Sunday visiting at the home of the mother of Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Vesta Clark, who is manager of the telephone exchange here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucean Carper and their little son were in Lincoln last Sunday, where they visited Mrs. Carper's mother, Mrs. John Griffin, who is at the Lincoln General hospital receiving treatment.

Murray has two Women's clubs, and it so happened that both were holding their meetings last Friday, with a goody crowd being present at each meeting. Excellent programs were rendered at each meeting.

Mrs. John T. Bates, of Rising City, a sister of Mrs. Margaret Brendel and Miss Mary Bates arrived in Murray last Sunday for a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Margaret Brendel and as well with Mrs. W. L. Seybolt.

J. W. Hobson was hauling barrel after barrel of water and pouring it into the runways of gophers, as he said, in order to give the gophers a drink, but in reality in the hopes of drowning them. We do not know how well he succeeded.

Van Allen has accepted a position as mechanic in a Chevrolet garage in Omaha. For the present he has been driving back and forth to his work each day, but expects to board in Omaha and will spend only week ends at his home here.

Raymond Perry of Chinn, Alberta, Canada, drove into Murray last Saturday and visited at the home of Parr Young and wife over night, going to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler on Sunday, where they surprised the folks and enjoyed a fine visit as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Minford were visiting in Omaha last Sunday, going to see Mrs. Minford's father, W. W. Coble, who was injured some time since in an automobile wreck, and who has been rather poorly since. They found the father feeling some better and very cheerful.

Dr. J. M. Greene and family, of Falls City were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mrs. William Wehrlein of Murray and with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein, who reside west of town, and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Lloyd, residing between Murray and Nehawka.

George Brinklow has been repainting and decorating the interior of the home as well as painting the porch floor, which has added to the beauty of the home and also insures it against destruction by the elements. A protective coat of paint is good insurance on any building.

The interior of the Crosser Cafe has again been changed, the lunch counter being returned to where it was before, facing west and near the door. The large opening that led to the rear room has been closed and a small door put back into use. They are enjoying a very good business.

L. R. Upton, Jr., has been delivering ice to the people of Murray, thus providing a needed service and making it possible to secure ice when needed. Of course, he does not come every day, but everyone can be supplied with ample ice by conforming their needs to his schedule.

Played Ball Sunday

Last Sunday, notwithstanding the numerous drizzles of rain and a threat of more, the Murray ball team, known as the Reds, and a team managed by Joe Baker, played two games, both of which were won by the Reds. The score of the last and most closely contested game was 3 to 2. On Friday of this week, the Reds are scheduled to play kitten-ball with the BREX team of Plattsmouth under the flood lights of the Plattsmouth diamond.

Stole Fisherman's Fish

John Stump, who fishes in the Missouri river east of Murray, had some forty pounds of carp, catfish and bull heads in his fish box, all of which disappeared from the box last Sunday night. In their stead, a bottle of beer was left. One bottle of beer for forty pounds of fish does not look like a very even trade, but that is the way some people do. Mr. Stump hinted that he knows who the culprits are.

Daily Vacation Bible School

The Daily Vacation Bible school opened in Murray last Monday morning with some 25 students enrolled. The school opens at nine and closes at 11:30. This week's sessions are being held in the Presbyterian church and next week's will be held in the Christian church.

Mrs. W. O. Troop also accompanied Mrs. Lois Troop to Plattsmouth last Saturday, where they attended the flower show.

United Presbyterian Church.

"A Memorable Memorial Day," is the theme in the morning worship service at 11 o'clock when Rev. E. Garrison Sloan, A. B. B. Th. will preach. Last Sabbath a fine group of men met and organized the Men's Bible class. Mr. Charles Meade was elected president; Roy Gerking vice-president; and John Davis, secretary-treasurer. Other wide-awake men in the community are urged to meet with this splendid class on Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock. The theme is "The Last Supper." At the Young Peoples Christian Union meeting, Miss Thelma Pitman will lead the discussion using the theme, "My Personal Relationship with the Church." This live group of clear thinking Christian Young People will meet at 7:30 p. m.

Late Sabbath evening the Rev. E. Garrison Sloan will leave for Pittsburg, Penn., and other points east on business.

On Friday evening, May 29th, the Young People of the Presbyterian church will leave the church building at 6 p. m. sharp, to go to the Meade home. At the Meade home they will leave their cars, and proceed on a hike to a secret destination where they will enjoy the festivities of more Christian fellowship, mush-ball, and Weiner roast!

Visitors and strangers are welcome to attend the services at the U. P. church at all times.

MAHAN CONSIDERS OFFERS

Tacoma—William Mahan, convicted kidnaper, has offers of a Kansas farm and a life long supply of tobacco in exchange for his one possession, an automobile. The tobacco came from Charles Cline, of Weirton, W. Va. Cline wrote he had heard Mahan hoped to realize enough from the car to buy tobacco during his 60 years imprisonment for the kidnaping of George Weyerhaeuser. The offer of a farm came from A. L. Tedford, of Kansas City, Mo.

Eighth Grade Exercises Held Here Saturday

Students of Rural School of the County Receive Promotion into Larger Fields.

A very large group of the young people from all sections of Cass county were gathered here Saturday afternoon to participate in the eighth grade promotional exercises of the Cass county schools.

The exercises were held at the high school building and where a fine group of the relatives and friends of the young people were present to tender their congratulations to them for their successful work.

The Alvo school band was present and furnished the music for the opening and closing of the class procession. This is one of the snappy young bands of the county and is under the direction of Ray C. Meyers, and the director and the young people are deserving of every credit.

The invocation was given by the Rev. H. E. McKelvey, of the United Brethren church of Mynard, who was presented by Miss Alpha C. Peterson, county superintendent, who presided.

The exercises also featured a vocal selection by Dale Ganz, a student of the Alvo schools, who has a notable record in his musical and athletic work in the school and has scored in many of the district and state music contests.

Miss Peterson then presented Bess Gearhart Morrison, of Lincoln, noted Nebraska woman, who gave a very inspiring address to the young people and one that they will long remember for its message.

The diplomas to the following young people were presented by Miss Peterson in token of their successful passing of their eighth grade and in readiness to enter high school:
