

Cass County Farm Bureau Notes

District 4-H Judging Day Soon. A most important event on the 4-H club calendar is the district judging day which will be held at the Agricultural College, Lincoln, Friday, June 12th.

Camp Days Scheduled. The dates for Mothers Vacation Camp and the district 4-H Club Camp, in which Cass county will participate, have been scheduled as follows: Mothers Vacation Camp will be held at Camp Brewster near Omaha, July 30, 31, August 1 and 2.

Time for Second Cover Spray. E. H. Hoppert, horticultural specialist from the College of Agriculture, says: "There was a decided peak in the emergence of codling moths about the 26th of May. A few worms from the early moths are beginning to show up."

Milk Tainting. Penny Cress and weeds of the mustard family in pastures do serious damage because of their tendency to taint milk and cream. There are a number of annuals and fall-annuals of the mustard family all of which have the tendency to cause milk and cream to taste "garlicky."

Contours Hold Moisture. Here's adequate proof that contour farming is practical. Ten inches of rain fell in Jefferson county in a 20-day period last year. There was no run-off on a 35-acre native pasture on the Ernest Kriesel farm.

CLEVER COOKING CLUB. The Clever Cooking club of 1936 met to reorganize at the home of Osa Marie Boedeker. Miss Baldwin was present at our organization.

JOLLY STITCHERS MEET. The Jolly Stitchers met at the home of Frances and Virginia Bieri on June 4th. The constitution was agreed on and signed.

Jersey Parish Shows. Eastern Nebraska farmers again this year have the opportunity of attending some old-time dairy cattle exhibitions. They are the third annual Jersey "Parish" shows scheduled to be held at Lincoln, June 9; York,

Watch Your Kidneys! Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood. YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.

Doan's Pills. Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

Milk Goats for Sale. I have three fresh milk goats and one Billy goat of the Talkington strain for sale.—Joseph Hochel, Manley, Nebr. JS-2MP

Enjoyed Family Gathering. The children of Fred Fleischman and wife, Mrs. Charles Gade and family and Mrs. Albert Cochran, both of Ashland; John Fleischman and family of Louisville and Glen Fleischman and wife of Chicago, were all at home last Sunday for a very pleasant family reunion.

Will Quit Making Trailers. August Krecklow, who has been engaged in the making of trailers, is now well stocked up and has decided not to make any more until he disposes of the present surplus. He has made and sold a lot of trailers during the past few years.

Preparing for Confirmation. Albert Theil of Murdock, who has been transporting the children of the Murdock consolidated school district to and from their homes during the school year, is now engaged in transporting children from Alvo, Elmwood and Weeping Water to the vacation time catechism school which is being conducted by the Manley Catholic church for the purpose of preparing the various youngsters for confirmation.

In Honor of Father Harte. The Altar society of the St. Patrick's Catholic church will hold a lawn fete at the grounds of the church on Sunday, June 14th, in honor of Father Patrick Harte, who has been parish priest here for a number of years and who is to leave Manley on June 18th for Beatrice, where he takes over the pastorate of a larger church. A large attendance is expected and a good time promised all who attend.

Return from the North. Mesdames Ralph Keckler of Weeping Water and Harry Haws, of Manley, who have been enjoying a vacation in the northwoods country of northern Minnesota during the past three weeks, in company with a sister from Mrs. Haws, who lives at Fairbault, Minn., and owns a cabin on up in the state, where they stayed, arrived home the middle of last week

MANLEY NEWS

Charles Honor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Honor, was spending a number of days during the past week at the Frank Stander home.

Misses Mayme Mahar and Catherine Reinke were in Lincoln on last Monday for a visit with friends, as well as doing some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rau and George Rau were visiting at Friend and Utica over Saturday and Sunday of last week, spending Memorial day there.

Rollin Coon, who is traveling on the road for the John Deere company out of Beatrice was a visitor in Manley for a short time one day last week.

Theo. Harms and wife and J. C. Rauth and wife were at Plattsmouth last Saturday, going to attend a meeting of the democratic county central committee.

James Salamaker and wife, of Seward were in Manley several days during the past week, looking after business matters connected with the farm which they own just south of town.

Harold Keckler, who just recently completed the placing of a new shingle roof on the farm home of William Otto, is now placing a roof on the patrol house in Manley and will paint the same, placing it in the best of condition.

Sister Redempta of Omaha and Sister Alexine of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, have been visiting here during the past week, being guests at the homes of their brothers, John A. and Andrew V. Stander. They also looked after some business matters in Plattsmouth while here.

Glen Fleischman and wife, of Chicago, have been spending a week's vacation at the Fred Fleischman home in Manley, as well as with relatives of Mrs. Fleischman residing in Lincoln. They will return soon to their home in Chicago, where Mr. Fleischman is employed as a commercial cartoonist.

Mrs. A. F. Rauth and son, John, of York, were visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity a number of days during the past week, being guests at the homes of John C. and Herman J. Rauth, as well as John A. and A. V. Stander. While here, they looked after some business matters in county court at Plattsmouth. They returned home Wednesday.

Received Call to Beatrice Parish. Father Patrick Harte, who has served the parish of St. Patrick's Catholic church of Manley for the past five years, has been transferred by the bishop of the Lincoln diocese to the Beatrice parish, which is much larger and a distinct advance for the well loved local priest. He will leave here June 18th to take up his work in the new charge.

The place here, made vacant by the removal of Father Harte, will be filled by Father Kazmarek, who has been resident priest of the Holy Rosary church in Plattsmouth for some time.

The transfer of Father Harte, although regretted by his parishioners, will offer him opportunity to work in a much larger field and all join in wishing him the best of success at Beatrice.

MAY REBUILD CONVENT. York, Neb.—A popular subscription drive looking toward possible rebuilding of the Ursuline Catholic convent destroyed by fire early last Sunday is expected to begin shortly.

Officials in charge emphasized that as yet no definite decision to rebuild had been reached. An emergency fund of several hundred dollars has been raised, but it was pointed out that this sum must be supplemented by larger gifts if the convent is to be rebuilt. Bishop Kucera of the Lincoln Catholic diocese has designated July 12 as "fire relief Sunday." A collection will be taken for the sisters on that day.

The fire burned the convent building and damaged the adjoining administration hall, causing damage of more than $50,000. About $19,000 is covered by insurance.

4-H CROWD IS IN OMAHA. From Saturday's Daily: Omaha.—More than 300 4-H club boys and girls from 73 Nebraska counties visited Omaha Friday. The occasion was the annual trip of the 4-H club members to the Omaha Live Stock Exchange, stockyards and points of interest in downtown Omaha.

The boys and girls visited the stock yards and the packing plants during the morning. At noon they were guests at luncheon at the Live Stock Exchange building. The young folks came on a special train from Lincoln and returned on the same train at night. They will return home Saturday.

Met at Weeping Water

The Altar society of St. Patrick's Catholic church of Manley held a social meeting at the home of John Robinson of Weeping Water, being entertained by Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. John Murphy. One of the features of the entertainment was the fine luncheon which was served by the hostesses.

Organize Farm Shop Club

A new 4-H club has been organized in this vicinity which is known as the Farm Shop club, and will be conducted as part of the regular 4-H club program sponsored by the Cass County Farm Bureau. Herman Rauth has been selected as the leader and will give instructions in the making of repairs to farm machinery and tools. The new club has a membership of twenty.

Guests at Herman Rauth Home

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth entertained a group of relatives and friends at their country home last Sunday. Included among the guests were Mrs. Nels Zwielerlein, Mrs. Peter Christensen and Miss Hedwig Sorenson, all of Omaha, friends of Mrs. Rauth. They were accompanied by Mrs. Rena Christensen, a sister of Mrs. Rauth, who is making her home in Omaha at the present time. The guests returned to their homes in the metropolis Sunday evening.

Received Call to Beatrice Parish

The transfer of Father Harte, although regretted by his parishioners, will offer him opportunity to work in a much larger field and all join in wishing him the best of success at Beatrice.
