Webr. State Historical Society

Plattsmouth Journal.

ness.

VOL. NO. LII

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1936.

From Tuesday's Daily:

STORM BRINGS NEEDED RAIN

This morning this section was visited by a much needed rain and of an inch and was a much needed relief after the intense heat and dry-

The storm was one that looked very threatening as the huge clouds banked in the west and northwest and brought on a semi-darkness over the city. The storm passed more to the north and was very severe in Omaha

as well as at Norfolk where trees

Coach for the

Clark Boggess of Red Oak, Iowa, to Elected to Social Science.

cut off by the force of the storm.

NO. 36

Plattsmouth Physician is Wedded at Omaha and southern part of the United

Bride of Dr. O. Clair Hudson in Pretty Home Ceremony.

Sunday alternoon at 1 o'clock at to Niagara Falls, motoring on the home of the parents of the bride, through several of the larger cities 2911 Dewey avenue, Omaha, occurred to Washington, D. C. where they will the marriage of Miss Marie L. Judson spend a short time and then on and Dr. O. Clair Hudson of this city. through the south before they return

The home was beautifully arranged to Chicago and home. in the color scheme of pink and white and which also was carried out in the luncheon that followed the wed- Plattsmouth ding ceremony.

The marriage lines were read in the living room of the home by the Rev. G. A. Pahl, pastor of the St. Paul's Evangelical church of this city, the impressive ring service being used.

bride, was matron of honor, and Wayne Hudson, of Sht andoah, Iowa, built of the groom, served as the dan. Delores, small sister of the me, acted as flower girl for the John Becker, Robert Ramsey Livingston and Charles George Nowacek, ceremony, preceding the bridal party. all of Plattsmouth, were among the

The bride wore a charming frock 714 persons who were awarded deof white net over satin with picture grees from the University of Nehat of white and wearing a corsage braska at the sixty-fifth annual commencement exercises held this mornof Ophelia roses.

Mrs. Freeman wore a gown of yeling. Mr. Becker received the degree low net with hat to match and wore of bachelor of science in business ada corsage of pink and white roses. ministration, Mr. Nowacek the de-Following the wedding the mem- gree of master of arts and Mr. Livingbers of the party were entertained at ston, the doctor of medicine degree. a delightfully arranged luncheon in Dr. W. B. Munro, internationally which was emphasized the happy oc- known authority on government, decasion in the hearts and cupids of livered the commencement address, speaking on "The New Era and the the dessert.

Only the immediate members of Old Virtues." Bishop James H. Ryan the families of the yopng people were of Omaha gave the baccalaureate serin attendance, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. mon Sunday.

Hudson, of this city, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hudson, ATTEND WEDDING AT LINCOLN and son, Shenandoah, Iowa, Mrs.

Albert, granddaughter of Mrs. John A. Albert, was married to LaVerne B. Glaze, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Glaze at the St. Paul's Evangelical church at 8 o'clock Sunday evening.

Albert-Glaze

Marriage Held

A hundred guests were present to witness the ceremony performed by witness the ceremony performed by Rev. G. A. Pahl. Mrs. Glenn, Terryberry accompanied the ceremony with soft organ music. Mr. Leonard Paulson of Mc-Cook sang, "I Love You Truly" and during the ring ceremony he sang

"The Rosary," accompanied by Mrs. take Up Position-Milo Price Is Glenn Terryberry. The maid of honor, Miss Thelma Ludlow of McCook, wore a printed From Tuesday's Daily organdy dress and carried a bouquet The board of education at their of Hollywood roses. The bride wore a gown of dotted net with a shirred neckline fastened the school for the past several weeks, on the shoulders with rhinestone that of the position of athletic coach of white organza with insertions of clasps and a flowing skirt. Her and in the department of social sci- lace. Her tulle veil of finger tip double tulle veil of finger tip length ence. was gathered into a close fitting cap formation and a face veil. Her bridal bouquet was a sheaf of Hodgy-Etter daisies and delphinium. Mr. John Glaze, brother of the He is a graduate of Buena Vista, of the valley.

groom, was best man. Iowa, college, and has taught at Suth-Following the ceremony a recepbride's grandmother, Mrs. John Albert. The towering wedding cake has had two years in special athletic roses.

served as the centerpiece of the serv- work at the coaching school of Iowa ing table. Miss Maxine Cloidt and state university at Iowa City. He a wedding breakfast was served for ity and it is fitting that he was given July, 1883, the blizzard of 1888 and Miss Marjorie Arn poured alternate- comes here very highly recommended. the immediate families at the Aquila this very pleasing recognition. The the drouth of 1894. ly assisted by Miss Eva Wichmann In addition to his coaching work he Court tea room.

and Mrs. C. C. Cotner. Mrs. Verna will teach mathematics in the junior Mr. and Mrs. Knot been outstanding. Mr. Price has been school.

head of the schools at Roca, Ne-

LOSE TO 0. T. C., 1-6

MANY VISIT AT OMAHA Popular Young People Wedded at Omaha

Miss Marie Yelinek of Omaha Wedded to Joseph E. Knoflicek of This City in Church Ceremony.

From Tuesday's Daily

Joseph E. Knoflicek of this city.

Angelicas."

Plattsmouth and Cass county day at the Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben was one of the largest special days that has marked the summer races and the opening of the den show. Hundreds from all sections of Cass county were in Omaha for the races in the afternoon and a much larger crowd was present in the evening at the show.

The show was one of the best in several years and pleased the large audince of southeastern Nebraskans. This morning at $:30 o'clock at the St. Patrick's church in Omaha, The party were entertained with occurred the marriage of Miss Marie refreshments following the show to Yelinek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. add to the completion of an evenwere blown down and wire service Louis Yelinek of Omaha and Mr. ing of real interest.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Michael Condon, Local Scouter pastor of the church. During the is Honored at services Bernard Knoflicek, brother of the groom, sang "Ave Maria" by Rosewig. Miss Gertrude Sheehan, ac-Local School companied by Miss Mildred Knofficek, sister of the groom, sang "Panis sister of the groom, sang "Panis

E. H. Wescott Presented Silver Beaver The wedding marches were played for Long, Faithful Serviceby Mrs. Helen Gerrin Lang, organ-Local Scouts in Circus.

The bridal couple was attended The annual circus staged by the by Miss Helen Yelinek, sister of the Boy Scouts of America of the Arbor bride as bridesmaid and Louis Knomeeting last evening filled two of flicked, brother of the groom, served the vacancies that have existed in as the attendant of the groom. from the district being present to ness. The bride's gown, floor length, was take part in the various demonstralength, was fashioned with a cap of very efficiently given.

For the coaching position the lace with a border of lace extending ing was the award of the Silver they moved to Murray. Soon after board selected Clark Boggess, of Red to the hem of the veil. Long lace Oak, Iowa, an experienced school man mitts were also worn. Her bridal Beaver, one of the recognitions given moving to Nebraska she was united and coach in several Iowa schools. bouquet was of white roses and lilies for faithful work as a scouter or mem- with the Otterbein United Brethren ber of the committee and advisory church, where her membership con-council that guides the affairs of the tinued until her death. Miss Helen Yelinek's gown was of erland and Corning, Iowa, and in pink organza with which she wore a Scout organization. The Silver tion was held at the home of the both of these schools had excellent matching picture hat and pink lace Beaver this year was awarded to E. the trying times they experienced football and basketball teams. He mitts. Her bouquet was of Talisman H. Wescott of this city, who has de- when they first came to Nebraska.

Following the wedding ceremony and boys' activities in this commun- sion were the terrible hail storm in citation that accompanied the beaver She enjoyed reading and keeping stated it was for services as member are leaving for Chicago for a short honeymoon of the committee of Troop No. 364 loved the great out doors and found In the department of social sci- and on their return will reside at of Plattsmouth, from April 1923 to her greatest pleasure in the garden ence, made vacant by the resignation 2328 South 32nd avenue, Omaha. 1933 and for services on the council and among the flowers.

Mrs. Henry C. Long Was Resident of Cass County Since 1882 When Family Settled Near Murray

Ella Torrance, daughter of Daniel and Perlena Torrance, was born at Raratan, Illinois, July 1, 1858. Her ancestors came from Scotland and Ireland and settled at Jay, Essex county, New York, before the Revolutionary war.

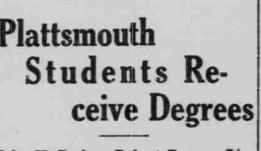

She was next to the oldest in a family of seven children, two sisters and a brother preceded her in death. In early childhood she moved with her parents to South Bend, In-Auburn Circus with her parents to South Bend, In-diana, and when she was sixteen years of age they moved to Shenandoah, Iowa.

In 1877 she was united in marriage to Henry C. Long, who preceded her in death May 3, 1926 after a companionship of forty-nine years. After their marriage they moved to Lodge district, was held on Tuesday a farm near Shenandoah, Iowa, later evening at the fair grounds at Au- moving into Shenandoah, where Mr. burn, a large number of the Scouts Long was engaged in the livery busi-

In March, 1882, they moved to tions of Scout work and which was Nebraska, and located on a farm west of Murray, which remained their One of the features of the gather- home until the fall of 1913 when

Mrs. Long often related some of voted years to the work of Scouting Those that left the greatest impresposted on all important events. She

WILL ENJOY TRIP

is to enjoy a very delightful outing

and visit in a large part of the east

Miss Corrine Drucker of this city

Mrs. Freda Freeman, sister of the John H. Becker, Robert Ramsey Livingston, Charles G. Nowacek Graduate at Nebraska.

George Olson, sister of the groom and Sunday Mrs. Glenn Vallery of this sons, Donald and Duane, of Lincoln; city and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterthe gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams, Rockport, son, of Omaha, motored to Lincoln Missouri, the latter a sister of the where they attended the marriage of groom; Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Judson, Miss Amelia Schneider and Francis parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. D. Parish, the latter a nephew of Freeman and Basil Judson, brother Mrs. Vallery. The wedding was held at 4 o'clock of the bride.

Dr. and Mrs. Hudson left late in at the Trinity Methodist church, the the afternoon for Colorado Springs marriage ceremony being performed for a honeymoon of some ten days by the Rev. Floyd L. Blewfield, in to two weeks and on their return the presence of 150 guests. will be at home at their apartment Ferns, palms and large baskets of at the Hotel Plattsmouth.

MARRIED IN IOWA

The bride was given in marriage Sunday at Clarinda, Iowa, occur- by her father and was attended by red the marriage of two of the well her sister, Miss Mary Schneider as known young people of this com- bridesmaid and Mrs. Saunders Schneimunity, Miss Nora Hoschar and Mr. der as matron of honor. Saunders Fred Rabb, who were quietly wedded Schneider was best man.

in the Iowa city where they motored The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Sunday morning. They were accompanied by Miss the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D.

Margaret Hoschar, sister of the bride Parish, former residents of Elmwood. and Marvin Stapp, a friend of the NEW ARRIVALS IN COMMUNITY young people.

The bridal party returned home late Sunday afternoon to receive the From Monday's Daily: well wishes and congratulations of This morning a fine nine pound the relatives and friends on their girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles a large circle of friends. Fulton at their home on North 17th new found happiness.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. street. All are doing nicely and the L. C. Hoschar of near Murray, and little daughter has brought a great has grown to womanhood in this com- deal of happiness to all of the family. Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. munity, the family having made their home in this city up to a few months Floyd Fulton, near Mynard, was made happy when a seven and threeago.

the main business of the session the The groom is the oldest son of Mr. quarters pound son was born to them. election of officers, the following beand Mrs. Andrew Rabb, Jr., and The mother and son are doing nicely ing selected: was born and reared here and re- and the new arrival is the object ceived his education in the local of much admiration from the family. schools. ENGINEERS WIN GAME

The young people expect to make their home here for the present at least.

LEAVE FOR THE EAST

Mr. George Jaeger, Sr., departed of the U.S. Engineers of Omaha, by Bethels. the score of 11 to 8. The BREX were Sunday for a trip to the east, the elder Mr. Jaeger returning to his held scoreless until the fifth inning home at Alexandria, Virginia, after a when they were able to score five pleasant visit of several weeks in runs but were unable to overcome this city. Mr. and Mrs. Jaeger will the lead of the visitors.

visit a large number of the points of interest in the east before their return.

DOING VERY WELL

ite rally.

at the office of Dr. L. S. Pucelik, E. J. Delaney who has been at an these being Earl Koebel, Leonard Omaha hospital for some time, is re- Davey and Miss Mildred Knofficek. ported as doing as well as possible The patients have come through the cupations in the next few days.

UNDERGO TONSILECTOMIES

parties have undergone tonsilectomies way.

Rankin of Tecumseh, had charge of high school. The bride's going away costume accessories. The bride and groom will make their home in McCook.

MARRIED AT NEBRASKA CITY

Saturday, June 6th occurred the highly recommended. He is a gradu- among the fine young men of the marriage of Miss Grace Schlater and ate of the University of Nebraska. Mr. D. A. Thornton, of Plattsmouth. flowers decorated the altar with The wedding was performed at Ne-seven branch candelabra on either braska City by the Rev. Harry Mark- the grades, due to the resignation of just been appointed as district agent audience present. ley, pastor of the First Presbyterian members of the last year's teaching for the Citizens Limited Life Insurchurch, at his home. force.

The couple was attended by Mrs. Pat Reed, sister of Miss Schlater. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Schlater From Monday's Dally:

of Louisville, where she has grown A five man team representing the to womanhood and is numbered Omaha Tennis club visited the local Mrs. Henry Schneider of Lincoln and among the most popular young ladies courts yesterday and won all matches Warner and Edwin Kalina. of that community. except one.

The groom has made his home Sheldon Giles won for Plattsmouth here for the past two years as a part in a three set battle (6-3, 10-12, 6-3) of the U. S. engineering force en- over Gleason of Omaha.

business meeting at their lodge rooms Snell-Kellogg (O) beat Sayles-Hall gaged in the Missouri river improve-Other results are: Kellogg (O) beat ment work and is very popular among Larson (P) (6-3, 0-6, 6-3); Guerin (O) beat Sayles (P) (7-5, 6-3); Underwood (O) beat Mason (P) (6-2, JOB'S DAUGHTERS ELECT 6-4); Snell (O) beat Comstock (P) (6-1, 6-1).

Saturday afternoon Bethel No. 24 Job's Daughters, held their regular beat Larson Mason (P) (8-6,6-4);

Guide-Frances Cloidt.

Marshal-Jeanette Hirz.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

in the Masonic building and had as (P) (6-2, 6-3). VISIT AT LINCOLN

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Schmidt-Honored Queen-Rachel Robertson. Senior Princess-Jean Knorr. mann and daughter, Janis, were at Junior Princess-Eleanor Minor. Lincoln Sunday where they spent the day visiting at the home of Mr. and

Doubles: Guerin-Underwood (O)

The other officers will be appoint- Mrs. Richard O. Johnson. Mr. John-From Monday's Daily: Last evening the BREX kittenball ed later and all will be installed at son, who is the republican candidate team of the local league gave an ex- the meeting to be held on June 16th for attorney general, and Mrs. Johnhibition at the athletic park and in and at which there will be present a son, were both classmates of Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. George Jaeger with which they met defeat at the hands number of representatives from other Schmidtmann at the University of Nebraska.

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON A MINIATURE EGG

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lillie, who Peter Claus brought to the Journal Saturday a small egg, one of the have been spending their honeymoon smallest that we have seen as the of- at Indianapolis and Chicago, returned fering of a full grown normal hen. home Saturday evening and are now

The egg is three quarters of an inch at home to their friends at their The past three days several local long and perfectly formed in every residence on west Main street.

VISITING RELATIVES HERE

Mrs. W. M. Morley of Upland, Cali- City, Iowa, is here to enjoy a visit at handle this line he has placed addiunder the circumstances and it is ordeal in excellent shape and will fornia, arrived Sunday to be a guest the home of her mother, Mrs. Vir- tional shelving in his salesroom and hoped will soon be able to show defin- probably be back at their usual oc- at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. ginia Frady and other members of has the new stock all nicely arranged Sumner and family for a short time, the family and old time friends.

was of printed blue net with white of Wayne Alvord, the board selected The bride is one of the popular of Arbor Lodge district from April Many years ago, she became a Milo Price of Martel, Nebraska, who young women of the metropolis where 1933 to January 1935, as well as for member of the Ladies' Aid society will also have charge of the debate she was born and grew to womanhood services as chairman of boys' activ- and was a charter member of the squad and in which work he has and is a graduate of the South high ities of the Rotary club and for gen- Murray Library association. After eral interest and development of the death of Mr. Long, ten years ago,

The groom was born and reared Scouting and similar activities. Mr. she has made her home with her braska, for the past two years and is in this city where he is numbered Wescott was unable to be present youngest daughter, Mrs. Gertrude and the formal presentation of the Nickles, and although she had been community and was a member of the Beaver will be made here at a later in declining health for about two The board of education did not act graduating class of 1929 of the date. The ceremony was a very color- years, she was as active as usual, unon the other vacancies that exist in Plattsmouth high school. He has ful one and impressive to the large til the last eight days, when she was confined to her bed. With the best The Plattsmouth Scouts were pres- of medical service and assistance of ent in their large number and par- two trained nurses, and the loving ticipated in the circus, they having care of her two daughters, she failcharge of pioneering work, that of ed to rally from a complication of erecting a rustic fence as well as in afflictions and entered into rest June rope demonstrations which were very 2, 1936. The funeral services were held Fri-In the chariot race, a very inter- day afternoon, June 5 at 2:30 at the esting feature of the circus, the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Louisville troop won first place and Nickles. The service was conducted by Rev. H. E. McKelvey, pastor of Scoutmaster R. J. Larson and Rob- the United Brethren church at My-ert G. Reed of the local committee, nard. During the service three very ochial school building is having a accompanied the Scouts. Cars were beautiful songs, "Just Inside the very extensive improvement program also furnished by L. O. Minor, James Eastern Gate," "In That Land Where carried out that will place it in the G. Mauzy, Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans and We Never Grow Old," "Going Down the Valley One by One," were sung The following Scouts were in at- by Lawrence Leonard, a very close tendance at the circus: Billy Evers, friend of the family. The floors of the school building Burton Rishel, Carter Minor, Bill The pall bearers were A. W. Leonhave been in need of replacement for Cloidt, Reno Edgerton, Tom Solomon, ard, Roy Howard, J. V. Pitman, some time and through the energy Kenneth Wohlfarth, Jimmy Mauzy, Frank Mrasek, A. A. Young, J. A. of the men of the parish and Father Allan White, Allen Persinger, Bob Scotten.

George Agius this improvement was Woest, Bill Knorr, Corbin Davis, Mrs. Long leaves to mourn her loss made. The floor was laid at times Lowell Devoe, Billy Rosencrans, War- two daughters, Mrs. Bertha Shrader, when the men of the church were ren Reed, Bud Long, Edd Steppat, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Gertrude not working and is now in and makes Richard Yelick, Earl Pittman, Rich- Nickles, Murray. Two grandchildren, ard Hitt, Jim Sandin, Jim Webb, Chester Shrader, Omaha, Nebr.; Mrs. Clifford Wilson, Kansas City, Mo. One great-granddaughter, Betty Wilson. Two sisters, Mrs. J. D. Kelsay, Shen-

LAID TO LAST REST andoah, Iowa; Mrs. Orla Perry, Hol-The services for the late Frank brook, Nebr. Also several nieces and Sebatka, Sr., were held on Monday nephews and a host of friends. The many beautiful floral tributes west part of the city, where for a spoke of the love, remembrance and and has turned out hundreds of number of years Mr. Sebatka had high esteem held for Mrs. Long in been a communicant prior to his re- this community.

The interment was at Oak Hill The requiem mass was celebrated cemetery, where the husband is at Those attending the funeral from the message of hope to the members a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilson and daughter. Betty, During te services John Cloidt gave Kansas City, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. three numbers, "Lead Kindly Light," Shrader, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. "Jesus, Jesus Dearest Love," and Kelsay, Shenandoah, Iowa; Mrs. Guy cludes some of the most outstanding "Face to Face," Mrs. Cloidt being Reese, Mr. Burl Bacon, Sterling, Mrs. Mary Frady Quaill, of Charles brands of whiskies and liquors. To the accompanist. The interment was Nebr.; Mr. Ed Burtt, Mr. Couts Adair, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Ernst, Auburn, Nebr.

Phone news items to No. 6.

Fred H. Sharpnack, owner of the

for the inspection of his patrons.

a fine addition to the building.

ance Co., of Lincoln. He is a son of Those from this city who attended the wedding were the members of the Knoflicek family, Mrs. Anna

Zitka, Chris Bulin, Miss Helen

MAKES FINE IMPROVEMENT

The interior of the St. John's parof the volunteer work of a group of the men of the parish.

Mrs. Mary Knoflicek of this city.

starting of school next year.

young men and women since it was first established and conducted by North 5th street liquor store, has secured the handling of the Frankfurter line of liquors and which in-

Nehawka second.

Zitka, James, Ernest and Miss Anna skillfully given by the boys.

and now the building is in excellent

Catholic school in the Lincoln diocese

the sisters of the church.

SECURES NEW LINE

at the Oak Hill cemetery.

For high class job printingphone your order to No. 6.

The St. John's school is the oldest at the Holy Rosary church in the very best of shape and as the result Robert Woest.

moval to Omaha.

The painting of the interior and John Bestor.

plastering of a part was carried out last fall by the men of the church shape and will be all ready for the by the Rev. Father J. J. Kaczmarek, rest. pastor of the church, who brought of the bereaved family.

