NEW STRIKES PLAGUE FRANCE
Paris, June 8.—A new era of strikes gathered momentum in France Monday night as big employers, having capitulated to strikers' demands under the pressure of Socialist Premier Leon Blum's Leftist government, virtually washed their hands of the consequences.
While spokesmen for employers charged that revolutionary forces are sweeping the country and predicted the cost of living will rise to dizzy heights, the fashionable cafes of Paris became the latest centers of strike activities as cooks, waiters and other employes halted their work.

More Awards Announced.
For fear of some error three awards made by Supt. L. M. Hauptman on class night were omitted from the list of awards in last week's column. Here they are: An activities medal was presented Dale Ganz because of his participation in the widest variety of school activities. He also was presented with an athletic medal.
