

The Plattsmouth Journal.

VOL. NO. LII

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1936.

NO. 33

Popular Young People Wedded Here Sunday

Miss Grace Welch and Mr. Clarence W. Forbes, Jr., Married at the Presbyterian Manse.

Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at the Presbyterian manse occurred the marriage of two of the popular young people of the city, Miss Grace Vinetta Welch and Mr. Clarence Wendell Forbes, Jr.

The wedding was very simple and attended only by the bridal couple and their attendants, Miss Gertrude Valley and Mr. Robert Rummel.

The impressive ring ceremony was used by Dr. H. G. McClusky in the solemnization of the marriage vows.

The bride's wedding gown was a pink lace tunic trimmed with baby crystal buttons over silk crepe with white accessories. She as well as the bridegroom wore corsages of pink and lavender sweet peas and roses.

Miss Valley wore lavender crepe with the white accessories.

The groom and best man wore dark suits.

Following the wedding here the bridal party motored to Omaha where they enjoyed a wedding luncheon and later Mr. and Mrs. Forbes motored to Columbus where they are to make their home in the future.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Frances Meisinger and has grown to womanhood in this city where she has a very large circle of warm friends. She was graduated from the Plattsmouth high school in 1935.

The groom is a son of Mr. Clarence W. Forbes, Sr., and was born and reared in this city where his family have long made their home. He was a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in 1932 and while in school was one of the outstanding athletes of the school in basketball and was a member of the southeast championship team of 1932. He is at the present time engaged with the Lyman-Richey Sand and Gravel company at Columbus, where the young people are to start housekeeping at once.

The young people will carry with them in the new home the very best wishes of the host of friends in this community for their future success and welfare.

DEPART ON VACATION

Mayor and Mrs. George Lushinsky departed Sunday on a vacation trip to the west and which will take them through the mountain country of Colorado and to Salt Lake City. They are planning on a visit at Colorado Springs, Colorado, where they will visit at the home of William Lushinsky, only brother of the mayor and will then continue on into the beautiful mountain country of Utah and the many interesting sights in and near Salt Lake City. They expect to be absent for some two weeks on the vacation outing. In the absence of the mayor from the city, the duties of mayor will devolve on E. A. Webb, councilman from the first ward and president of the city council.

ATTEND FAMILY GATHERING

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Weidman were at Lincoln Sunday where they were guests of relatives and enjoyed a family reunion, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Weidman of Chicago being there for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kroehler, the latter a sister of Mr. Weidman. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ebinger and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weidman of Plainview, motored to Lincoln for the day's visit. Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Weidman are planning on visiting at Plainview and later at the old home in Plattsmouth.

RECEIVES CARD SHOWER

Charles E. Hartford, of Boone, Iowa, a former resident here, was given a card shower on Friday, the occasion being his birthday and some sixty of the old friends and business associates of Plattsmouth joined in their well wishes to him on his birthday anniversary. Mr. Hartford desires the Journal to express to the friends his deepest appreciation of their thoughtfulness to him. The many friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. Hartford is showing improvement and is able to be out and enjoy short car rides now and feeling much better.

GIVEN SURPRISE

Sunday a group of relatives from Lincoln came to spend the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loe Kinnamon and Mrs. Herman Garteman, the party arriving here by car to give their relatives a very pleasant surprise. A fine dinner was enjoyed and the party spent the day in visiting and having a good time. Those here were Mrs. Charles A. Kinnamon, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Kinnamon, Mrs. Ruth Summers and children, Ralph and Barbara. The members of the party returned to their homes Sunday night.

Veterans Here are Recipients of $70,000 in Bonds

Consignment for 132 Veterans Arrive on Missouri Pacific and Placed in Hands of Owners.

From Monday's Daily:

This morning the northbound Missouri Pacific train from Kansas City, reaching here at 6:20 brought the bonus bonds of 132 of the veterans receiving mail from the Plattsmouth postoffice and at 8 o'clock the task of delivering these was started by the local postal force.

The estimate of the amount of the bonds based on an average of a little over $500 per bond was placed at $70,000 worth of the bonds that were ready to be placed in the hands of the veterans.

Postmaster Cummins held open house at his private office today where the veterans were tendered their bonds and the official receipt signed by the veteran as the bonds were all sent by registered mail.

The work of printing, checking and packing the bonds in individual packages was carried out in fine shape and shows excellent work on the part of the Federal Reserve bank at Kansas City which handled the bonds of Nebraska, Kansas and several other states in the tenth reserve district.

The speed with which the bonds were handled set a real record and the governmental forces made good their promise to have these delivered on the dot to veterans.

DIES AT MASONIC HOME

The death of Mrs. Carrie Ellison, 82, occurred Sunday at the Nebraska Masonic Home following an illness of several years, she being bedfast in a Denver hospital prior to coming here on March 13, 1936.

The deceased was born November 29, 1853, at Perry, Iowa, and was admitted to the Home here from Rawlitt lodge No. 138 of Oxford, Nebraska. Her husband, Benjamin Ellison, preceded her in death in 1910, at Atwood, Kansas.

She is survived by one son, Frank O. Ellison of Omaha.

The funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock from the Horton funeral home, Dr. Luther M. Kuhns of Omaha conducting the services. Mrs. John E. Schutz gave two of the old and loved hymns. The interment was at the Masonic plot in Oak Hill cemetery.

J. F. M.'s MEET

The J. F. M.'s held their regular monthly meeting at the charming country home of Miss Sophia Bierl, one of the charter members. All charter members were present except Miss Marjorie Fitch, who is visiting at Scottsbluff and Miss Grace Louise Wiles who was unable to attend owing to illness of her brother.

The afternoon was spent in discussing the business of the club and playing games in which clever prizes were awarded to Cleda Koukal, Louise Rishel and Bernese Kaffenberger, the guest of honor. At the appropriate hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Bierl who was assisted by her daughters, Frances and Virginia. The delightful afternoon was closed by each member departing homeward.

ENROLLS AS A READER

Ruth Behrens of Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city Saturday for a few hours and while in the city enrolled as a reader of the Journal for the coming year.

Well Known People Wed in Home Ceremony

Mrs. Ida Cole and Mr. James R. Tremble Married at the Country Home of Bride Sunday.

Sunday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. Ida Cole south of this city, occurred the wedding of Mrs. Cole to James R. Tremble of this city, in a very quiet ceremony and attended only by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Barnard, the latter a daughter of Mrs. Cole.

The marriage lines were read by Dr. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church in the impressive ceremony that united these two estimable people in the bonds of wedlock.

Following the wedding ceremony light refreshments were served by Mrs. Barnard to add to the charm of the quiet and impressive wedding.

Mrs. Cole is one of the long time residents of this portion of Cass county and has a very large circle of friends who will learn of the marriage of these two well known people with a great deal of pleasure and extend to them their best wishes.

Mr. Tremble has made his home in this city for the past several years and has been residing at the Nebraska Masonic Home and also has been quite active in the life of the community.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tremble have been very active in the local Christian Science society and at this time are readers in the local church.

They will make their home at the farm south of this city and where they will be at home to their friends in the future.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM DEWOLFE

The funeral of William E. Dewolfe, who passed away at Nebraska City, Thursday, was held on Saturday afternoon at the Fassbender funeral home in that city. Mr. Dewolfe has been in the employ of the Lincoln Telephone Co., for a great many years and a large number of the old friends and associates were present at the services and accompanied the body on to this city. Rev. Ralph Nelson of the Baptist church conducted the services at the funeral home.

The party were met at Oak Hill cemetery here by the members of Plattsmouth aerie No. 365 of the Eagles, the officers of the lodge conducting the ritualistic services at the grave W. M. Barclay, past state president, conducting the services.

CELEBRATE A BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Mary Hunnicutt, sister of Mrs. M. S. Briggs who has been making her home at Indianola, Iowa, with her daughter, Miss Hazel Hunnicutt arrived in Plattsmouth Saturday on their way west and stopped for over the week end with her sister, Mrs. Briggs. They all spent Sunday at Elmwood park, Omaha, where they were joined by Leland S. Briggs and family of Wahoo, Paul Stangenberg and family of Lincoln, C. B. Briggs and family of Logan, Iowa, F. J. Franzen and family of Omaha as well as Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Briggs where they all celebrated the 45th birthday anniversary of Mr. Franzen, eating their dinner at the park.

ATTEND STATE MEETING

Sunday William M. Barclay, past state president of the Eagles and Franklin Kief of this city, departed for Beatrice where they will attend the state aerie that is to open in that city today. Mr. Barclay has long been one of the leaders in the order in the state and is always a prominent and active figure at the state meetings of the Eagles. Arthur Kief, state president of the order, has recently been sent to Denver and whether he will be able to attend the state meeting is a matter of doubt.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE

An action has been filed in the office of the clerk of the district court entitled Florence Nelson vs. Fay Nelson, asking for a decree of divorce and suitable alimony. The parties were married at Council Bluffs, Iowa, on February 11, 1928 and the plaintiff is now a resident of Cass county.

ATTENDS SUMMER CONFERENCE

Superintendent Lowell S. Devoe of the Plattsmouth city schools, is at Lincoln where he is attending the summer conference of superintendents and principals that is being held there. The sessions will be June 23 to 25th inclusive at the Temple building at the state university.

Mr. Devoe will have charge of the general discussion to be held on the morning of the opening session and will also be on the program at the afternoon session of the same day.

Friends Greet Herman Thomas on Birthday

Large Party of Plattsmouth Friends Motor to Nebraska City for Happy Occasion.

From Tuesday's Daily:

Several years ago while Herman Thomas, then local Missouri Pacific agent, was serving as the city clerk of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Thomas decided to give him a fitting recognition of his birthday and accordingly invited in the members of the council and city officials as well as personal friends to a "stag."

This event proved so popular that in each succeeding year the hospitable Thomas home has been opened to the friends for the annual "stag" and which has proven most enjoyable with Mrs. Thomas proving a royal hostess in arranging for the event.

In time Mr. Thomas was transferred to Nebraska City to the station agency there and the pleasant yearly gathering was thought to be numbered among the sweet memories of the past until last week when Mrs. Thomas extended to the former associates of Herman the good news that there was to be a birthday party at their home in the Otoe county city.

Last evening some twenty-five of the old friends, including the Plattsmouth city officials, motored to Nebraska City to join in one of the real old time birthday parties.

The members of the group enjoyed cards during the evening and the royal feast that Mrs. Thomas had prepared to tempt the appetite of the jolly party.

In honor of his anniversary Mr. Thomas was presented with a gift and Mrs. Thomas also remembered for the many times that she had arranged this most delightful treat.

HOLD FAMILY GATHERING

In spite of the threat of rain the Warren family gathered at Garfield park Sunday afternoon with well filled baskets, the contents of which were consumed with relish by the happy "clan," judging from the remarks with not a little discomfort from the plenty that had been provided for the event. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hennings and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Rice and daughter, June, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Eager, Louisville, Mrs. Margaret McClanahan, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Taylor and family, Richard Hirz, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beverage and son, Dick, Alph Beverage, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Warren and family.

The event was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Warren of San Francisco, who are here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Warren.

It was such an enjoyable time that the group resolved to make the reunion an annual event.

VISITING IN THE CITY

Mrs. Laura Wilson, of Desplaines, Illinois, arrived in the city Sunday for a visit here with her mother, Mrs. James Sochor and the many old time friends in the community where she spent her girlhood days. Mr. Wilson will join his wife here on the coming Sunday and they will attend a family reunion at Omaha.

Anton Meisinger, one of the prominent farmers of the Cedar Creek community, was here Saturday afternoon looking after some trading and while here was a caller at the Journal to renew his subscription. His visit was a very pleasant one and much appreciated.

Officers of Job's Daughters Installed

Many Visiting Dignitaries Here for Ceremony—Past Queens Do the Installing.

Tuesday evening Bethel No. 24 of Job's Daughters of this city held their installation of officers at their lodge rooms in the Masonic building and the ceremony was witnessed by a large group of members of the order and officers of the state organization. There were members here from Bethels No. 1, 13 and 18 of Omaha. Among the state officers here were L. F. Fitch, grand assistant guardian and Mrs. Velva Schlors, supreme messenger, both of Omaha.

The officers were installed by a group of the past queens of the Omaha Bethels with Phyllis Hopkins as the installing officer and assisted by the following: Alice Jane Hirz, Alma Ellen, Jane VanHusen, Rebecca Morse, Marianne Soby, Lila Livey, Maurine Brown.

The officers installed for the next six months were:

Queen—Rachel Robertson, Senior Princess—Jean Knorr, Junior Princess—Eleanor Minor, Guide—Frances Cloldt, Marshal—Jeanette Hirz, Recorder—Wilma Frederick, Treasurer—Emma Kaffenberger, Chaplain—Janet Westover, Pianist—Margaret Will, Messengers—Betty Jasper, Katherine Barkus, Grace Louise Wiles, Beatrice Arn, Marjorie Wohlfarth, Senior Custodian—Mary Gayer, Junior Custodian—Harriet Goos, Inner Guard—Joan Moore, Outer Guard—Charlotte Jasper, Choir—Shirley Selver, Shirley Keck, Jacqueline Grassman, Velma Shrader, Mary Kathryn Wiles, Wauanita Johnson, Alice Hirz, Evelyn Gooding.

The adult officers of the Bethel are Miss Clara Weyrich, guardian; Don Selver, assistant guardian; Mrs. R. W. Knorr, guardian secretary; Marie Nolting, guardian treasurer and Mrs. J. R. Reeder, director of music.

Alice Jane Hirz, retiring queen, was presented with a jewel of her office. Light refreshments were served during the evening to add to the pleasures of the occasion.

CELEBRATE 76TH BIRTHDAY

On Sunday, June 14th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tell Billion in Nebraska City was held a very pleasant family gathering honoring Mrs. Billion on her 76th birthday anniversary.

All came with well filled baskets and at the noon hour enjoyed a very delicious dinner.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Levi Raikes of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schiessl, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koke and son, Chas. Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Koke, Robert Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mason and Ralph, Donna Fay and Billy, all of Plattsmouth; and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Tell Billion, Nebraska City.

Those unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mason and children, Jackie and Donnie, Mr. and Mrs. Ave Tonder, all of Omaha; Mrs. R. H. Fitch and Marjorie.

VISIT IN CITY

Mrs. Lydia M. Davis, now of Indianola, Iowa, formerly nurse at the Masonic Home, arrived in Plattsmouth accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Mary Hunnicutt and daughter, Miss Hazel Hunnicutt, both on their way to Los Angeles where they expect to make their home. Mrs. Davis visited with friends at the Masonic Home, returning to her home in Iowa Tuesday.

VISITS RELATIVES HERE

Miss Eleanor Baumgart of Crookston, Nebraska, has been enjoying a visit here with her grandparents and other relatives for a short time. She is en route home from a visit at Salt Lake City with relatives. Miss Baumgart is a daughter of Emil Baumgart, former resident of this county.

Don York and family were in Omaha Sunday, where they were enjoying the day at Elmwood park, where they were joined by other friends and relatives.

WIN ONE-SIDED GAME

From Tuesday's Daily.

Last evening the Cheviots of the local softball league took a one-sided conflict from the Murray team by the score of 17 to 0. The auto dealers had the sign on Murray from the start and coasted through easily to the first shutout game of the season.

This evening Donat's Falstaffs and the BREX are clashing in what should be a good game.

Death of Dr. S. E. Latta in California

Native of Rock Bluffs and Member of One of the Pioneer Families of Cass County.

Dr. Samuel E. Latta, member of one of the pioneer families of Cass county, who has made his home on the west coast for a great many years, died suddenly on Saturday at his home in Stockton, California.

Born about 1862 at Rock Bluffs, son of a pioneer physician, he removed with his parents to the then new city of Lincoln where he received his elementary education, later became a student at Rush Medical College, now a part of Northwestern University, in Chicago. He attended the fiftieth annual reunion of his medical class about three years ago, at the same time received from his San Joaquin county, Cal., medical society, a medal representing his half-century practice of medicine.

He began practice at Palmyra in Otoe county, but soon afterward went to California where he had lived continuously, for the greater time in Stockton, 60 miles east of San Francisco in the San Joaquin Valley.

He is survived by his wife and five children, all residents of San Joaquin county; two sisters, Mrs. Olive Watson and Mrs. Minnie Ladd, Lincoln. His mother, a pioneer of Lincoln died about three years ago at 95. His father, at one time associated with Lincoln Medical College and a long-time practitioner in Nebraska, died about 30 years ago.

YOUNG PEOPLE WEDDED

The announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Phyllis Westerlund and Mr. James W. Benedict, both of this city, which occurred on Friday, June 12, at Atlantic, Iowa. The young people were married at the rectory of the Presbyterian church at Atlantic.

The wedding comes as a great surprise to the many friends in this city and the estimable young people will receive the hearty well wishes of the many friends on their new found happiness.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Westerlund, the father being the owner of the Cass theatre of this city, and during her residence here has made many friends among the young people of the community.

The groom has grown to manhood here and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Benedict and is numbered among the popular and highly esteemed young men of the community. He is a graduate of the class of 1936 of the Plattsmouth high school.

The young people will make their home at Atlantic, Iowa, in the future.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Marian Keefer, of Berkeley, California, is in the city to enjoy a visit with relatives and to renew the associations and scenes of her former years, she having made her home in this county for a great many years. Mrs. Keefer is a niece of Mrs. Anna Lillie and an aunt of George R. Sayles, county clerk and Mrs. W. H. Seybert. After visiting here she goes to Ohio to visit with her son in that state before returning to the west.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Miss Vivian Moore, who has been at Omaha for the past ten days recovering from an operation, has so far recovered that she was able to be brought home Monday. She is recuperating at home and after a few days rest will be able to receive her friends who are delighted that she has been able to return home so soon and much improved in health.

Murray Pastor Wedded at Monmouth, Illinois

Miss Frances Elizabeth McCulloch of Sharon, Penn., Married to Rev. Edwin G. Sloan.

On Wednesday morning, June 10th, in the quaint historic chapel of Monmouth College, at Monmouth, Illinois, Miss Frances Elizabeth McCulloch of Sharon, Pa., became the bride of the Reverend Edwin Garrison Sloan of Pittsburgh, Pa. The simple, yet impressive ceremony was solemnized by Dr. T. H. McMichael retiring president of the college, conducting the single ring ceremony.

Dr. James H. Grier, newly-elected president of Monmouth College, and Miss Lucille Wheeler of Springfield, Illinois, were the attendants. During the ceremony, Mrs. Harold Peterson of the College Womens Glee club played the appropriate music softly. Many friends of the bride and groom were present.

Following the ceremony the wedding party motored to Galesburg, Illinois, where a wedding breakfast was served in the newly decorated Hotel Custer.

The bride was attractive in a blue knit suit with a white picture hat and accessories to harmonize. Her corsage bouquet was of sweet peas, pink rose buds, and baby breath.

Mrs. Sloan is a graduate of Monmouth College with the class of '33. During the past three years she was professor of English at the Hickory high school, Sharon, Pa. Reverend Sloan attended Monmouth College and the University of Pittsburgh, graduating in 1932. During her undergraduate days, Mrs. Sloan was prominent in glee club, choral societies, and inter-society affairs. She is a member of the Kappa Alpha Alpha and Theta Chi Mo sororities; the Order of the Eastern Star, and the White Shrine of Jerusalem. While an undergraduate, Rev. Sloan was prominent in athletics, glee club and inter-fraternity relations. Rev. Sloan is a member of the Tri-Sigma, Kappa Phi Sigma national forensic fraternity, and the Theta Upsilon Omega national social fraternity. Rev. Sloan received his Seminary degree in 1935, and recently completed his resident work for the Master of Theology Degree.

Rev. and Mrs. Sloan will be at home in the new modernly built manse at Murray, Nebraska.

STEAL GAS, START FIRE

Tuesday afternoon Duane Garrison of Weeping Water and Ernest Kride of Louisville, were arraigned in county court on the charge of breaking and entering.

The men are charged with having broken into a section house of the Missouri Pacific at Louisville and incidentally their visit was the cause of the structure being burned down.

The two men had taken a quantity of gasoline from the section house and one of them struck a match and with the result that the structure burst into a blaze and gasoline and building were both consumed.

The men were placed under bond and released pending their hearing.

VISIT IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Flannigan, of Los Angeles, who have been visiting for a short time at several of the east coast cities, was a visitor here over night as guests of Mrs. August Richter and her daughter, Mrs. Pauline Hild. The Flannigan family are former residents of this city.

LEAVES FOR WEST COAST

August Weideman, who has been engaged here at the Norfolk Packing Co. plant for the past two years, is to take a trip to the west coast. He is visiting at Lincoln for a short time and from there expects to go to California, where he will visit friends and enjoy an outing.

DIES AT COUNTY FARM

From Wednesday's Daily This afternoon at the county farm west of this city, occurred the death of Alfred Loring, 79, who has been very critically ill for some time. He came to the farm from Wabash, Nebraska, where he made his home for a great many years.