WESTMINSTER GUILD

The Westminster Guild held their meeting at the home of Elinore Smetana on Tuesday evening. There were ten members present at this the last meeting until fall.

The new president, Eleanor Olsen, presided over the meeting, which opened with repeating the Apostles Creed in unison. A scripture reading was given.

At the business meeting much new business was discussed. The outline of conducting next year's meetings was read by the president. Various new ideas were accepted from the executive committee.

At a suitable hour the hostess, assisted by Helen Smetana, served dainty refreshments.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, June 28th

9:30 a. m., Church School.
10:30 a. m., English service. Mr. L. S. Devoe will be the speaker in the absence of the pastor.

The pastor will return from his vacation in the east by the 4th of July, to resume his duties.

KNOT CLUB HOLDS VERY INTERESTING MEETINGS

The "Tie It and Untie It" Rope club met at the home of Mrs. Sack on June 9th. A demonstration on the making of rope was given by the leader.

The members learned how to tie the "Wall and Crown" knot and how to keep a rope from unraveling by a process called "whipping."

Refreshments, consisting of cherry pie, cake and ice cream were served by Mrs. Sack.

The club met again on June 19th at the home of Mrs. Forrest Leonard. A special demonstration was given by Robert Kiser, Jr., on tying a "Matthew Walker" knot.

Topics for discussion were: Square and Granny knots; Surgeons' and Weavers' knots.

After the regular business meeting the club sang songs. Ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Leonard.

The next club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. G. Kiser on July 3rd. Visitors are cordially invited.—Club Reporter.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, June 28th

By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

REVIEW SUNDAY

This is review Sunday. Since the Gospel of Luke is too much for one review lesson, it might be very profitable to concentrate on: "The teachings of some of Christ's great parables." This should prove to be a great blessing, as we sit at Jesus feet and listen of the greatest of all teachers, when he—

1—Teaches Humility. (Luke 14: 7-11). This virtue is best illustrated by the life of our Saviour in washing the disciples' feet; John 13 and Phil. 2:6-9, where he took upon himself the form of a servant. The washing of the disciples' feet was to be an example—a loving service for others to emulate.

2—The parables that teach God's love for the lost (Luke 15:1-32). (a) The lost sheep—the human race; because Jesus left the ninety and nine, pure, holy, sinless spirits that needed no repentance; (b) The lost coin in the home—the forgotten, neglected member in the church—the latent, unused talent. The coin restored to its rightful purpose. (c) The lost boy returns home—shows the father's solicitude and joy as the family circle is full again.

3—The parable that teaches the difference between false and true riches. (Luke 16:1-13). A rich man employed a steward over his possessions, who proved unworthy. He was dishonest and lost his position, but was clever enough to make friends who would be obligated to him. This steward knew how to make use of the unrighteous goods; his lord commended the clever way in which he accomplished his end. The teaching is to be faithful, true and honest in that which is entrusted to our care—only the faithful will be rewarded with a crown of life. (Rev. 2:10). Many a man is trying the impossible, i. e. serving God and mammon—the devil. God will not honor such service. God will not and cannot share the heart of man with any other. (Deut. 6:4, 5).

4—The parable that teaches us our obligations in serving God. (Luke 17:7-10). God has a rightful claim on our service. As man is dependent on God for everything that he needs, therefore God expects and rightfully demands that man do what a generous God who so freely gives and supplies all of man's needs wants him to do, OBEY his commands, and above all do him loving service, not grudgingly, but gladly. Here again, we have for an example our Lord Jesus. (Ps. 40:8). "I delight to do thy will, O my God" and in Heb. 10:7 we have the same saying.

5—This parable teaches us the true attitude of the heart in prayer. Praying is an art; by constant practice we may become adepts in this art. An earnest, faithful prayer consists of only few words. The most effectual prayers in the Bible contain from three to eight words. Exceptions are Solomon's dedicatory prayer, 31 verses, and Jesus' high priestly prayer, 26 verses. But the teaching of this parable is to show us the proper attitude of the heart in prayer—humility—contriteness of heart (Ps. 51:17) are pleasing to God, as illustrated by the publican. He went to his home "justified," pardoned—a clean record—freed from the charges against him. Restored to the favor of God.

6—The parable that teaches us how to use profitably God's gifts to us. (Luke 19:11-27). Everyone has some talent entrusted to him, which he can use or abuse or neglect or multiply by using them. We see also that not all have been endowed or intrusted with the same capacity. God in his wisdom knew the load one can bear. It is astonishing, even to men, to see how mankind can increase their talents by employing their spare moments, by being diligent and ambitious—how they can climb upward until they reach the pinnacle of fame, while others with the same opportunity fritter their time away. Precious moments are wasted in frivolous, useless occupations. And almost invariably they are the ones who are found complaining that the other fellow was just lucky—had a pull which they did not have, or some other equally silly excuse, when the trouble was their own indolence, a love of ease—laziness, to be plain. God rewards the men who will burn midnight oil and deny themselves the pleasures of the world. They are indeed a blessing to mankind.

8—The parable that teaches the tragedy of refusing Christ. (Luke 20: 9-18). No greater curse can befall man than to reject the only means whereby he can be saved. Here is a man washed overboard; a life line is thrown to him, but he refuses to take it, because it is not the kind that he wanted—if any. Result, he drowns. A great general had a loathsome disease; he was told to go to a certain stream and wash therein. Although he first refused to do so, later he listened to good advice, went and washed and was healed. Men are going to perdition every day because they reject God's way of saving them—and there is only one way, and that is God's way. "There is none other name . . . under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved—but Jesus only." (Acts 4:12).

If we accept that way, we will be saved. If we refuse, neglect or procrastinate, just as surely as tomorrow's sunrise, we will find ourselves outside the fold of the saved when the role is called. Frittering away the opportunity of eternal happiness for a few gay pleasures during our brief lifetime on this earth is a serious thing. Consider now, before it is too late—repeat and be saved, all ye who are not now enrolled in God's legion of the righteous.

Funeral of Mrs. Clarence Osmon Today

Large Number Attend Service Held at Sattler Funeral Home—Interment at Oak Hill.

From Wednesday's Daily
The funeral services of the late Mrs. Clarence Osmon were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Sattler funeral home at Fourth and Vine streets and a large group of friends were present to pay their last tributes of respect and to share with the bereaved husband and other relatives the sorrow that her sudden and tragic death had brought.

In her residence here Mrs. Osmon had made many friends and her passing has brought to them a keen regret and she will be greatly missed among the circles of her acquaintanceship.

The Rev. R. F. Allen, pastor of the First Christian church, was in charge of the services and brought to the bereaved family the message of the scriptures and its comforting thought of the life everlasting.

During the services Mrs. Hal Garnett and Mr. Frank A. Cloldt gave three numbers, "Going Down the Valley," "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Saved by Grace," the accompaniment being played by Mrs. O. C. Hudson.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery.

Pauline Copeland was born July 28, 1910, at Niotaze, Kansas, and departed this life at Plattsmouth, June 21, 1936, aged twenty-five years, ten months and twenty-seven days.

She spent her girlhood in her native state and where she was married on November 21, 1928, to Clarence L. Osmon. The family came to Plattsmouth two years ago. Mr. Osmon being engaged in work on the Missouri river improvement project. There is surviving the husband, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Copeland, four brothers, Clyde, Raymond, Homer, at Benton, Kansas, John Harvey Copeland, Bucklin, Kansas, three sisters, Cleo Copeland, Zella Copeland and Laura Copeland, of Benton, as well as her grandparents and a host of friends.

BEST EVER CLUB MEETS

The "Best Ever" club met at the home of Mrs. Dirscherl on June 9th. The meeting was called to order by our president and we elected Beulah Kiser, our song and cheer leader. Then it was turned over to our leader and the lesson on "Pillows for a Bedroom" was discussed. Each girl showed her pillow and Ella Mae Ruffner demonstrated mitering a corner.

Our next meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Leonard on June 19th. The girls judged their color charts. Mary Dirscherl receiving first; Ella Mae Ruffner, second, and Whipple Leonard, third. The lesson was discussed, and plans to make curtains for the girls' rooms were made.

Then we sang songs about the 4-H. We will meet at Mrs. Kiser's on July 3rd.—News Reporter.

FUNERAL OF SARAH STONE

The funeral of Sarah Stone, long time resident of this community, was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mary Propst, west of this city, where she had made her home over a long period of years.

A large number of the old time friends and neighbors gathered to pay their last tributes of esteem to the memory of this highly esteemed lady who had been called to the last rest and peace.

The Rev. V. C. Wright, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city and Rev. W. A. Taylor, pastor of the Baptist church of Union, officiated at the services and brought the message of consolation and hope to the members of the bereaved circle of friends.

During the services Mrs. Hal Garnett and Frank A. Cloldt gave two of the old hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "Nearer My God to Thee."

The interment was at the Pleasant Ridge cemetery south of this city and the pall bearers were neighbors and old friends, Ed G. Meisinger, Henry G. Meisinger, H. A. Schneider, Fred Tschirren, John B. Kaffenberger and George A. Kaffenberger, Jr. The funeral directors were the Horton funeral home of this city.

HEAR ANNUAL REPORT

The Rotary club at their meeting Tuesday noon heard the reports of the various department heads as well as the annual report of the retiring president, Dr. H. G. McClusky. The various department heads reporting were Dr. P. T. Heineman, Judge A. H. Duxbury, Searl S. Davis and L. O. Minor.

Dr. McClusky made a very able and concise report of the club work in general for the year and the fine results that had been attained in the advancement of the aims and objects of the club in the community work. Charles Geiger, of Los Angeles, was present as a guest and enjoying meeting the local club members, a number of whom were old time friends.

Murray

Mrs. A. G. Cisney and daughter, Maurine, were visitors in Nebraska City last Saturday.

Miss Irene Finkle, of near Union, was a guest of her friend, Miss Evelyn Meade, at the Charles Meade home east of Murray.

Font Wilson was in Plattsmouth last Sunday evening, where he was looking after business matters and meeting a number of his friends.

Miss Evelyn Meade arrived home last Saturday from a visit with some of her school girl chums at Tarkio, Mo., where she had spent most of a week.

Uncle James W. Hobson was visiting with relatives in Plattsmouth last Sunday, remaining over Monday to transact some business in the county seat.

Otto Wohlfarth, of Plattsmouth, salesman for the Cass County Motor company, was calling on old friends here and looking after the sale of automobiles.

Dr. R. W. Tyson was called to Omaha Monday of this week, where he had some business matters to look after, and was accompanied by Mrs. Tyson and the little one.

Mrs. Earl Terhune and little son are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bengett, of Humboldt, where they expect to remain for some two weeks.

Mrs. Sadie Oldham, who was quite ill for a number of weeks recently, and who has attained the advanced age of 88 years, is feeling greatly improved the past few days.

Ray E. Frederick of Nebraska City was a visitor in Murray Monday on matters connected with the seed business he operates. He says things are looking fine down his way, especially the wheat which is now being harvested. The cherry crop has also been heavy in that vicinity.

Mrs. Olive Kinner, daughter of Mrs. Olive Finney, daughter of Mrs. Vesta Clark, came to Murray, and picking up her mother, went on to Plattsmouth to attend the showing of "Runnin' Wild," home talent moving picture, in which two of the children of Mrs. Finney had a part. Both enjoyed the show.

A. R. Troop, of south of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murray last Monday, coming to secure some lumber with which to make repairs of a bridge over a stream at the farm. He visited his friend, Thomas Nelson, employee at the lumber yard, and was telling of the great amount of damage being done by grasshoppers on his farm, stating that he is putting out poison to kill them, but still there seems to be plenty left to do a lot of damage.

Thomas Nelson was in Plattsmouth last Sunday, calling on his old friend George W. Rhoden, who is residing at the Nebraska Masonic Home, and also enjoying the band concert which was given on the lawn of the Home grounds that afternoon by the Iowa State Institution band, of Glenwood.

Arrival of Son Brings Joy

On Monday of last week there arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jennings a fine baby boy of regulation weight, which brought joy and happiness to the parents. All parents are naturally prejudiced in favor of their children, but Delbert confidently told us the little fellow has been doing many of the chores about the home for nearly a week now, which we view as being rather more than one might expect. Anyhow, the babe and mother are both doing nicely and happiness reigns supreme.

Passing of Edward Lyman.

Edward Lyman, of Yale, South Dakota, brother-in-law of Albert and Rex Young, Mrs. Ona Lawton and Mrs. Guy White, was taken suddenly ill last week and passed away on Saturday. When word of his death was received, Rex Young and sister, Mrs. Lawton, left for Yale to attend the funeral on Tuesday.

The deceased man was known to many here, and a more detailed account of his life will appear in a later issue of the Journal.

Building New Corn Crib
At the farm of O. A. Davis, where H. M. Worthan and family reside, there is hope and confidence that we are going to have a good corn crop this year, and in preparation for the same, Mr. Davis is having a large corn crib erected on a solid concrete foundation. The work of constructing the crib is being done by A. A. Young and his assistants.

Mrs. Boedeker Improved
Mrs. Glen Boedeker, who was at the hospital in Omaha for a time last week, after a few days' stay there, was able to return to her home here and has been showing good improvement. Her many friends will be pleased to know that she is doing so well.

Improving His Property

Frank Vallery, who owns a number of pieces of property in Murray, has been in town during the past week and was accompanied by A. S. Gregory, painter and carpenter. The two have been busy making repairs on the garage building and the store building occupied by Tutt & Brubacher, both of which properties Mr. Vallery owns.

Ferguson Family Reunion

The Ferguson family, of which the Sporer family here is a branch, for a number of years past, have been enjoying a family reunion and dinner each summer, alternating the place for holding same among different members of the family. This year the dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sporer, who reside west of Mynard, on last Sunday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Long, of Murray; Ivan Balfour, wife and daughter, of Nehawka; Charles Ferguson and family, of Nebraska City; Martin Sporer and family, Ralph Kennedy and family and William Sporer and son Charles, of Murray.

Defeated the Sciota Team

Henry Gruber and his kittenball players were in Union Sunday for a game with the Sciota team, which the Murray boys won by a score of 12 to 2.

Conducting Revival Services

Rev. Loyd Shubert, pastor of the Murray Christian church, has been conducting revival services at Wann during the past week. Sunday, Rev. Shubert came to Murray to conduct the regular services at the church here and his wife remained at Wann, where she delivered the regular Sunday morning sermon. Rev. Shubert returned to Wann in time for the evening service, arranging with Rev. Harry McKelvey, pastor of the United Brethren church at Mynard to come here to conduct the regular evening service. Rev. McKelvey was accompanied by his wife, together with the latter's sister, her daughter and granddaughter.

Ladies Aid to Meet

The Ladies Aid of the Murray Christian church are to meet at the church parlors on Wednesday, July 1st, looking after routine business and enjoying a social session. The hostesses are to be Mesdames L. D. Crosser, J. E. Gruber and Lloyd Lewis, and Mrs. Anderson will be the leader. All members of the society are urged to come and you are also welcome to bring a friend with you.

Entertained for Dinner Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Siles Ferry entertained at their home for dinner on last Sunday, having as guests Oscar Upperman and family of Weeping Water; Julius Nielson and family, who reside west of Weeping Water, and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Overhulser of Murray. A fine time was had by those present and all enjoyed the excellent dinner that was served by Mrs. Ferry.

Attended Operators' Gathering

Mrs. Vesta Clark, manager and chief operator of the Murray telephone exchange, was at Nebraska City one day last week, where she attended a gathering of the chief operators of this section of the country employed by the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company.

The home has just been completed and presents a very nice appearance with the rooms very nicely appointed. The entrance doors are both on the east, with a large living room, kitchen and dining room as well as bath room, two bedrooms and a storage room, the latter being connected with an underground cave for the storage of vegetables for winter use. There are electric lights, bath and water in the house, all providing the utmost convenience and making this a most complete country residence.

Final Meeting of Year

The Murray Home Study club met at the home of Mrs. John Vantine at Wyoming on Thursday, June 18th. As this was the final meeting until fall, all the members and their families met for a delightful picnic on the beautiful home of the Vantine farm. A very delicious picnic lunch was served at 12:30 and in the afternoon a very interesting program was given. Mrs. Gilmore had charge of a brief review on the year's work, assisted by Mrs. Spangler, Margaret Todd and Mrs. Brendel.

Mrs. Everett Spangler gave a very interesting talk on her trip to Washington, from which she had just recently returned.

Mrs. Brendel had charge of the entertainment for the afternoon, which was spent in games and other amusements. Later on in the afternoon, ice cream and cake was served, which closed a very delightful day for all.

United Presbyterian Church.

"The Christian Prize-Fighter" is the theme for the morning worship service at 11 o'clock, when the Rev. E. Garrison Sloan will preach. At this service there will also be special music by the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Kennedy.

There seems to be greater interest with the increased attendance each Sabbath at all services of the church. The Sabbath school will meet at 10 o'clock for their opening exercises.

The Young Peoples Christian Union will meet at the Roy Gerking home at 7 p. m. for their interesting vespers worship service. Miss Lois Mead is the leader. Automobiles will leave the church at 6:45 p. m. sharp, for the meeting. If the weather is inclement we will meet at the usual time at the church. Last Sabbath there were 26 at the interesting vespers service.

On Thursday evening, June 25th, the choir will meet for rehearsal and business meeting. Strangers and visitors are welcome at all services of this church, at all times.
