

UNION ITEMS.

Jack Roddy and John Klein were looking after business matters in Nebraska City Monday forenoon.

John Banning and wife, of Alvo, were visiting relatives in Union last Sunday, driving over in their car.

Charles Atteberry was called to Omaha Monday to look after some business matters connected with the garage he conducts here.

James C. Roddy has been undergoing treatment for a stomach ailment, and although he is slightly better and able to get around, is not feeling nearly as well as he would like to.

George Trunkenbolz, president of the Trunkenbolz Oil company, was here from Eagle on Monday while on a business trip to the different stations over the county which his company operates.

Tony Sudduth and family of Weeping Water were visiting in Union at the home of the parents of Mrs. Sudduth, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Albin, as well as looking after some business matters Monday.

Rev. E. C. Barton, a missionary for the Baptist church in Nebraska, who has been doing special work in the church here, and Rev. George Downing were guests at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Swan at a six o'clock dinner Monday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith and son Gordon, who reside in Colorado, arrived in Union in time to eat Father's Day dinner with the father of Mrs. Smith, Carl C. Cross. They will visit other relatives here before returning to Colorado.

Frank Bauer and sister, Anna, together with the three grandchildren who are visiting here from Ponca, Oklahoma, drove down to the little brown church near the Graham Mills north of Nebraska City on last Sunday and attended Bible school there.

Mrs. Olive Finney was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edgar Newton, stopping in Murray on her way up to pick up her mother, Mrs. Vesta Clark, operator and manager of the Murray telephone office, and take her along to the county seat.

There has been a space between the barber shop of Ira Clark and the Atteberry garage, where the eaves drip and water stands, making a mud hole which remains wet for a long time and in order to have it drain and remain dry, Mr. Clark had it filled with dirt last Monday, caring for the unsightly place and doing away with the mud hole.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor attended the dedicatory services at the ancient cemetery southwest of Nehawka wherein are buried some fifteen of the early pioneers, including the marking of the grave of a member of the Masonic fraternity, a Dr. Young and his son, Rev. Taylor being one of the speakers. The old cemetery has long been forgotten and neglected, but now a concrete wall has been placed around it and the Masonic lodges of Nehawka (to which a goodly number of Union Masons belong) and Dunbar will look after its upkeep in the future.

Home from the Navy
Albert Griffin, a brother of H. W. Griffin, of Union, who is located at Los Angeles in the navy, visited last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Griffin and a sister, who reside at Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mr. Griffin wired to his brother here to come and visit him, as he was on his way back to the navy in a few days, but the latter has been so busy with work that he was unable to get away at this time.

In Honor of Sister
Mrs. Martin Ross gave a reception at their country home south of Nehawka on Thursday of last week, with a large number of friends of the family gathered together to meet Mrs. Ben Benson, who with two of the children are making their home for the summer with their father, Stuart Routh. Miss Opel Griffin was over and enjoyed the gathering as she is a friend of the family. Others from here to attend the reception were Mesdames Delbert Lindsay and Ray Johnson.

Home from the Navy
Justin Anderson, who has been in the navy for some two years and has been stationed on the West Virginia, with headquarters at Los Angeles, arrived in Union a few days ago and will enjoy a furlough of some sixty days visiting with his parents and other relatives and his many old time friends here and elsewhere.

Honored as Veteran Mason
The Association of Veteran Masons of Nebraska has honored Rev. W. A. Taylor, of Union, who has been an active member of the Masonic fraternity well past the time required to qualify him as a veteran. A friend asked him to join and provided the initiation fee of $5. This is a mark of recognition worthy of having and the many friends of Rev. Taylor will extend congratulations to him on attaining this unusual honor.

Married Forty-Nine Years

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker were united in marriage forty-nine years ago on June 23rd, and have made their home in and near Union during the near half century of their wedded life. In honor of their anniversary they were greeted by a large number of friends. With but one more year to go before they will have been married an even half hundred years, the family are awaiting the coming of next June, month of brides and roses, when they plan a real celebration.

Enjoyed Fine Visit

Hon. W. B. Banning and wife, of Lincoln; W. E. Reynolds and wife and Mary Becker were guests for the day last Sunday and a very fine dinner which was served by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Latta at their home at Blair. The guests drove over to the Washington county seat town from their different homes for the occasion.

Happy Family Gathering

There was gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Roddy on last Sunday their children who are making their homes in that portion of the country for a very good visit and a fine dinner, they coming especially for the purpose of honoring the father, Mr. Roddy, on Father's day.

Among those in attendance were Curtis Dickson and family, of Blair; Robert Roddy and family, of Omaha, and Carl Wessell and family, of Nehawka. After they had all gotten together, they went to Riverview park near the old Graham mill north of Nebraska City, where they celebrated the day with a picnic dinner in the woods.

Visited in Lincoln

Horace W. Griffin, the blacksmith, purchased a new Chevrolet car last week, and on Sunday the family and that of Lester Schumacher made a trip to Lincoln, where they visited at the home of an uncle of Mr. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin and family and with them all went to the park and spent the day enjoying a picnic dinner.

Church Has New Minister

The Methodist church of Union has a new minister in the person of Rev. E. P. Booher, who has been stationed at Kennard for a number of years, but was formerly pastor of the Louisville church in this county. In company with his wife and three children, they will make their home here. The community joins in welcoming Rev. Booher to the charge here.

Suffers Severe Loss

Last Sunday morning the home of Fred Tigner and wife was discovered to be on fire and while everything possible was done to extinguish the flames and save the furniture and effects, but little in that direction was accomplished. The cook stove was gotten out and the washing machine which was standing outside the home was removed to a place of safety. Other than this, very few things were saved.

This loss comes hard to the Tigner family, as it leaves them without anything with which to keep house, even if a suitable place could be obtained. Mr. Tigner was severely injured when struck by an auto some months ago, and it seems is having more than his share of bad luck.

Death of Nephew

M. A. Cross has received word of the death of a nephew by marriage, Ezra A. Sutton, who formerly lived near Union, but for the past eighteen years a resident of California. Burial was in the Turlock cemetery June 17. In 1897 he married Miss Elizabeth Klepser, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Klepser. Later they resided in Colorado for a time, then in Oregon for several years, later moving to Hickman, California, where they resided at the time of his death. His wife, two sons, and one daughter, reside near Hickman.

AVIATION TIEUP PREDICTED

Rome.—Aviation collaboration between Italy and Germany was predicted on the basis of a trip to Berlin soon to be made by Gen. Giuseppe Valle, undersecretary of aviation. General Valle and other high officials are expected to leave this week for a stay of several days in the German capital. In aviation circles it was suggested there may also be a discussion of Italo-German collaboration in South American airlines.

Death of Former Resident Occurs in Washington

Richard Rivett, One Time Plattsmouth Man and Veteran Railroader, Dies in West.

The death of Richard Rivett, 76, a former resident of Plattsmouth, occurred Saturday at Ocean Park, Washington, where he has made his home in more recent years.

Mr. Rivett, while living here was engaged in the coach shop of the Burlington, and while a resident here married to Miss Flora Smith, a sister of the late A. Baxter Smith, the family later moving to Lincoln. He was for twenty years in charge of the wrecking crew of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad between Lincoln and Alliance. He was car inspector for the Union Pacific Central for ten years and was general car inspector for the government during the wartime control of the railroads.

Mrs. Lorence Freidrich, a daughter and William Rivett, a brother of the deceased, are residents of Lincoln. The body will be brought to Lincoln for interment but the time of the funeral has not been definitely given.

FORMER LOUISVILLE PASTOR MARRIES A KANSAS GIRL

Word has just come to Cass county friends of the marriage of Rev. Robert D. Murphree, of Oneonta, Alabama, a former Louisville and Valley M. E. pastor, to Miss Nola Marple, of Iola, Kansas, where the wedding took place at the M. E. church on Sunday, June 4.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. C. L. Isaac, of Louisville, and has visited there on numerous occasions.

Rev. Murphree's first wife died after the family moved from Nebraska to an acreage near Norfolk, Arkansas. She was survived by two young sons. Following her death, Rev. Murphree and the children returned to the old home in Alabama, where he again became pastor of the church at Oneonta, which he served for several years before coming to the Nebraska conference some eight years ago. They will make their home at Oneonta.

Rev. Murphree was active in boys' work and became noted for the gipsy trips which he conducted, taking large groups of boys on extensive tours each summer. His many Nebraska friends will wish them every happiness and success.

SEWING CIRCLE GIRLS CLUB

The club met at the home of our leader, Faye Hennings, Wednesday, June 17. Roll call was responded to by telling the names of different kinds of cloth.

We cut a pattern for a laundry bag under the direction of our leader, Kathaleen Larson gave a demonstration on "Removing Work from the Machine." We judged our finished hot-pads.

Our next meeting will be with Emilie Bieri, on June 25.

On Friday, June 12, Faye Hennings and five of her club members, Darlene Heil, Billie Lou Heil, Dorothy Ulrich, Bonadelle Larson and Kathaleen Larson had the pleasure of being present at the 4-H club girls judging contest, held at the agricultural building at Lincoln. George Bartek and Laverne Hennings accompanied us to the capital city.

Articles for judging were sport dresses, kitchen aprons, towels, laundry bags, hot-pads and under-clothing sets. Fifteen minutes were allowed for judging each group of articles, which consisted of four in number. We were given two minutes to give reasons for our placings. We felt it very educational and well worth our time. Later we went to see the capitol building.

TO SUMMER IN THE EAST

From Wednesday's Daily

This morning the Misses Mia and Barbara Gering departed on a motor trip to the east and where they are expecting to spend the summer months with relatives and enjoying the pleasantness of the Atlantic coast country. They are stopping at a number of places en route to New York City where their uncle, G. A. Pfeiffer, head of one of the largest business houses in the nation resides. They are to spend the summer at Westport, Conn., on the Pfeiffer summer estate which has been placed at their disposal by the uncle. At Westport they will be but a short distance from the summer home where their nephew, Matthew Gering Herold and family reside. Later in the season, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herold will join the family group in the east.
