Mr. and Mrs. William Mickle were Lincoln visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayres and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ayres and son and Mr. and Mrs. Leaver of Greenwood were Sunday dinner guests at the Frank Hempke home.

Bible school will close Friday after being in session for two weeks.

Mrs. Carl Hoffman has been helping with the work and cooking for the men working at the Pete Johnson home during harvest season.

Grandpa Klyver is ill, but it is hoped that he will soon be feeling better again.

Charles Stout and Ralph Winn spent the week end with relatives in Lincoln.

Mrs. Jessie Williams, Mrs. Wanda Williams of Little Rock, Arkansas, and Mrs. Bruner of Waverly spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Elmer Klyver.

Mrs. Stout was feeling well enough that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stout were able to spend Friday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Klyver.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foreman and son Bobby of Los Angeles, California, were Monday evening dinner guests at the Carl Ganz home. Mr. and Mrs. Foreman and son were returning to their California home from an extended trip to places of interest in New York, Canada and the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Swanson drove to Omaha Wednesday to look after some business matters.

Russell Bornemeier, a student at the University of Nebraska, came home to spend Sunday with his folks. He brought with him as guests for the day at the Bornemeier home one of his college professors and the latter's wife.

Mrs. Ed Craig of Murdock spent Monday at the Emmett Friend home here.

Some waste paper was being burned in the bank yard when the wind blew some of the burning paper into the Sherman Wolfe yard and set the grass on fire. The fire was put out before much damage could be done.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Appleman spent Thursday in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Chiever and children and the Misses Goida and Doris Klyver, all of Lincoln, spent Sunday at the Thomas Stout home.

Mrs. Arthur Klyver of Lincoln, accompanied her husband on his salesman's trip thru the western part of the state for an oil company last week. On Sunday they stopped over at Chappell and were guests at the Will Sutton home.

Harvest is on in full force in this vicinity. Some are combining their grain, while others have cut and shocked theirs and some of the threshing machines have started up. Some of the oats are being cut for hay while others will be threshed.

The grasshoppers are working bad on the alfalfa fields and some of the oat fields, in some places they are taking the corn and out west of town two or three miles, several people have reported their gardens have almost been completely eaten by the pests.

A great number of Alvo people are attending the moving picture shows being shown in Greenwood on Wednesday evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pifer and Dallas called on Floyd Rodeway at the Bryan Memorial hospital Wednesday afternoon. It is expected that Floyd will be able to leave the hospital for the second time, Sunday. It is hoped that the little fellow will now get along all right.

Johnson Family Visits Here.

Mrs. Robert Johnson, Sr., and small daughter, Geraldine of Clarinda, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Jr., of South Carolina, drove through Clarinda Thursday morning to spend Thursday and Thursday night with relatives and friends here. They plan to drive to Ashland Friday and return home from there.

The Robert Johnson family were formerly residents of Alvo community. They lived and owned the nice country home now owned by the Ben Ben Muenchau family.

Wheat Field Catches on Fire.

Saturday afternoon almost immediately after the west bound passenger train had passed a point two miles east of town the right of way caught on fire, but the fire seemed to go out, which evidently it did not do, as a few minutes later it was discovered that Homer Cook's wheat field was on fire. The fire department and help was summoned and the fire was soon extinguished as the wheat field was quite green and did not burn very rapidly which was very fortunate for Mr. Cook. About one acre was burned off.

L. B. Appleman Dead.

L. B. Appleman died suddenly on Tuesday afternoon. He has suffered from poor health for over a year and has been very ill at many times during that period. Mr. and Mrs. Appleman have been living in Lincoln the past few months so that Mr. Appleman might be near medical aid. Nevertheless death came as a shock to the neighbors.

The funeral services were held at the Alvo church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. R. J. McKenzie officiating. Burial was at the Alvo cemetery.

Return From Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kitzel and George returned home from Rochester, Minnesota Tuesday afternoon. The physicians believe that George's trouble can soon be cleared up with the use of medicine thru his attending physician under the direction of Mayo Bros. clinic.

George's friends are very glad to hear the good report and wish him a complete and speedy recovery.

Jolly Stitches.

The Jolly Stitches sewing club met at the home of Dorothy Skinner Tuesday afternoon for their fourth meeting. The members are working on their laundry bags.

At the close of a most pleasant afternoon Dorothy served the girls and their leader with delicious home made ice cream, cookies and punch.

The next regular meeting will be Tuesday afternoon, July 7th. Miss Baldwin expects to visit the club meeting and a 100 percent attendance is desired. After making some alterations the girls have been asked to again bring their dust cloths and pot holders all finished and nicely pressed.

Visiting in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wyatt left Thursday for Canon City, Colorado. They went by train to Denver where they will join their two sons and families and continue their journey to Canon City by auto where they will visit a daughter and family. They expect to return the first of the week as Mr. Wyatt's vacation from his railroad duties is short.

VISITS IN THE CITY

From Friday's Daily

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Meisinger of Cedar Creek were in the city this morning to look after some trading and visiting with their many friends. Mr. Meisinger reports the hot weather as being intense on the crops and some damage being done. He also states that Cedar Creek is now a busy place on Sunday and holidays with the flock of fishermen that visit that place to enjoy a short outing along the Platte and at the lakes.

Nebraska is Staging a Come-back in Hogs

Statistics Show Crop More Than Half Again as Large as Last Spring's But Still Low.

The Nebraska spring pig crop was increased 56 percent over that of a year ago, according to the state and federal division of agricultural statistics. Farmers plan to increase this fall's farrowing 5 percent, but this will still be about 35 percent below the 1932-33 average. The United States spring pig crop was increased 29 percent over the very small crop of 1935. Plans are to increase the United States fall pig crop 14 percent, but this will still be 17 percent below the 1932-33 average.

The number of pigs saved to weaning age this spring is estimated at 3,033,000 head, an increase of 1,088,000 head, or 56 percent, over last year. Although the increase is unusually large, the number of spring pigs saved this year is still about 35 percent below the 1932-33 average for the state. The average pigs saved per litter for the spring of 1936 is 5.97, which is slightly higher than the figure of 5.93 a year ago. Last fall's pig crop was 947,000 head compared with 510,000 in 1934 and 1,561,000 for the 1932-33 average.

A total of 508,000 sows were farrowed this spring compared with 328,000 a year ago and 630,000 in 1934. While more sows farrowed in the first four months of this year than last year, the weather was favorable during most of this period. Extreme cold weather during part of February caused some losses but the percent of sows farrowing during this month was the lowest since 1930 except for the year 1935. Indications are that 173,000 sows will farrow this coming fall compared with 165,000 last year or an increase of 5 percent. The indicated fall litters for 1936 are still about 38 percent below the 1932-33 average.

Nebraska is making a brilliant effort to return to its old place amongst the leading hog producing states, following the forced reduction in hog production beginning in 1934 and continuing thru until the fall of 1935. Nebraska showed the largest percentage increase in pigs saved of any corn belt state except the Dakotas, this spring compared to a year ago.

The spring pig crop for the United States was increased about 29 percent over the very small spring pig crop of 1935. This is still about 20 percent below the 1932-33 average. The increase in the number of sows farrowed this spring was about 30 percent over 1935 and the average pigs saved per litter was 5.96 head compared with 6.01 head in the spring of 1935. An increase of 14 percent in fall farrowings is planned but this is still approximately 17 percent below the average of 1932 and 1933. The number of hogs over 136 months of age on farms June 1, 1936, for the United States was somewhat larger this year than a year ago, but much below the corresponding date in any other recent year.

GLIMPSE OF POWER OF MOTORIZED WAR

Just a glimpse of the power of motorized war, if another war occurs, comes from the Franco-Belgian border.

Smugglers, getting hold of a fast army tank in Belgium, crashed through frontier barriers and proceeded to their destination somewhere in France at 70 miles an hour. The border patrol then decided to stop the tank as it returned. Double barriers were erected and an ambulance was planned. Back came the tank, crashing through the double barriers as though they were paper, while the steel sides of the machine repelled the bullets.

Now picture a fleet of these tanks ready to be launched against a distant objective. They could easily cover a thousand miles in a day down a paved road—the distance between New York and Chicago. And they could carry enough explosive to blow up any city. Probably they would be used in connection with an air fleet, constituting its supply train to bring the bombs within short striking distance. The rest would be easy. Whether the tanks got back to their starting point would be a minor matter—the damage would have been done.

More and more we see that distance is no longer much protection. —Milwaukee Journal.

Cut Flowers for July Considered Best of Style

Garden Blooms out Economical Now; Enjoyment You Get Is No Less Satisfying.

Summer garden flowers should fill the home with their colorful array of blossoms in July.

Zinnias, with their many pink, rose, orange, yellow and autumn colors, are favorites. Straight stems with formally designed blossoms atop them provide unlimited scope for arrangements. They are interesting in themselves, with their sun-burnt complexities, and you can pick them in almost any way, put them in a small vase, and have attractive decoration.

The lovely asters with their delicate colors and myriad of petals are one of the most satisfactory cut flowers. They are grown almost as large as chrysanthemums nowadays, and their straight stems and handsome leaves make them easy to handle.

The huge spikes of gladioli in almost every color make fine bouquets for the living room, or any place where they will have sufficient space. Place a large bunch on the sun porch in a wicker basket, which has a metal container inside for water.

Cosmos, especially the new brilliant orange variety, is good material to combine with other flowers. They have a bushy nature which makes them very pliable in arranging. Gallardias, with their neat design and var-colored petals, make dainty nosegays for street wear.

Two sparklers with tiny florets borne in umbrella-like stem clusters are the verbena and Sweet Williams. The annual phlox is another vividly colored member of this tribe. Use them alone in a small bowl or combine with other flowers.

For delicate coloring and fine texture the annual larkspur is excellent this time of year. It looks well alone or in combination with other flowers. Two fragrant favorites are the mimosa and sweet alyssum. Combine them with other flowers for their fragrance. Calendulas and marigolds in yellows and oranges complete the summer picture of garden flowers.

Let July be your fullest month where flowers are concerned, because this is one month where their cost is small, and the enjoyment you get from them is surely no less satisfying.

A small sized advertisement run steadily will produce greater results than now and then use of larger space.
