HAVE CLOSE GAME

The BREX team in the softball league had a close call from defeat on Friday evening when the Murray team dragging 13 to 7 at the seventh inning that brought them in the narrow margin of one from victory.

Murray opened the game with a demonstration of strength which featured a home run by Pointer that scored himself and Long, who was safe on a fielder's choice.

The BREX started going places in the third inning and which piled up a good lead in that inning and the fourth and fifth when Gruber was hit hard, one of the blows being a home run by Chandler of the BREX.

The fireworks opened in the seventh when the first two men were passed and Stewart then poked one for a double to score them and later scored on the double of Grueber. The ninth inning rally of the Murray team was featured by errors on the part of the BREX to help out the cause.

The box score of the game was as follows:

SEARCH FOR HIT-RUN DRIVER

Deputy Sheriff Cass Sylvester was called out last night to be on the lookout for a car bearing an Omaha license that was last seen coming this way after an accident on Railroad avenue in Omaha. The car had struck a man on Railroad avenue, the car coming around the wrong side of a street car, hitting the man and dragging him several feet. The deputy sheriff remained on the watch for the wanted car but without any success.

WILL BROADCAST PROGRAM

AVOCA NEWS

Dr. J. W. Brendel and wife were visiting and looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. McLean of Lincoln were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer where all enjoyed a very fine visit.

Miss Helen Aline of Omaha and a friend of Jordon Kokjer, they being school pals at Doane college, was a visitor in Avoca last Sunday and dinner guest at the J. M. Kokjer home.

Dick Neumeister and family and J. H. F. Ruhge and family were in Lincoln last Saturday enjoying the Fourth and came back in the afternoon via Syracuse where they enjoyed the celebration there.

Ralph Morley has been the second assistant at the Fred Marquardt elevator with the extra work which has come incident to the threshing of the excellent crop which has been the lot of Cass and Oteo counties.

The kittenball game was staged in Avoca between the crack team from Weeping Water and the Avoca team was played a few nights ago and resulted in a victory for Weeping Water 50 to 10. This was the girls team, while the boys game was Avoca 35 to Nehawka 10.

Contrary to the practice for a number of years of having a Fourth of July celebration July 2nd at Avoca and which has been enjoyed by many people during the time, there was no celebration or picnic this year. No one was particularly at the head of the former movement and so this year the city went without a celebration. What will be done in the future about it is not known.

Enjoyed Quiet Fourth.

The families of Banker E. J. Hallstrom, Supt. L. L. Larson of the Avoca schools and Elmer Hennings and family were enjoying a very peaceful and enjoyable evening at the home of the folks of Mrs. Hennings and at the lakes at Cedar Creek which abound and with their eats and plenty of cool shade and an abundance of hot wind they got through the day nicely and enjoyed the outing to the fullest.

Syracuse Celebrated the Fourth.

John Ruge and family and Henry Maseman and family were enjoying the celebration at Syracuse on the Fourth. Syracuse generally has a very good celebration and this year was no exception, as it is a very enterprising town along various lines.

Breaks Ribs and Finger.

While T. L. Clayton, who is employed on the Cam Clesper place was trying to lead a fractious mule from the stable, the mule gave a lunge and fractured his finger, which had just gotten so he could work when he fractured three ribs when he ran into a washing machine in the dark, which seems to be his full portion of bad luck.

Celebrated Anniversaries.

Carl Nickles and family, Mrs. Nickles formerly being Miss Freeman and who were married three years ago July 4th, Dale Tigner who was married to a sister of Mrs. Nickles a year ago and Earl Freeman who was married nine years ago July 4th, enjoying a picnic celebration of their wedding anniversaries at the lake at Louisville where they went with an abundance of eats and enjoyed a picnic dinner. They were all married by the marrying pastor, Rev. C. W. Savage of Omaha, who has married so many thousand couples. They were joined at their picnic on the Fourth by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freeman, parents of Mesdames Nickles and Tigner and of Mr. Earl Freeman. A most enjoyable time was had.

CLUB GIRLS MEET

The 4-H club girls had a very pleasant meeting at the home of Wilma Swatek on Thursday of last week with a very pleasing attendance of the members. The girls of the club were busy in planning their achievement day program which will be held Wednesday morning at the parlors of the Methodist church, for the mothers of the members of the club. The refreshments were served by Betty Bruce and Luetta Falk.

RETURNING TO SOUTH

From Wednesday's Daily
Mrs. C. C. Hargis of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, who has been here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Davis, departed today for her home in the south. Mrs. Hargis is a cousin of Mrs. Davis and was brought up in the home of Mrs. Davis' parents. She has been at Lincoln visiting Mrs. Parker, her aunt, who is recovering from a very severe illness.

OBITUARY

Harriett Mathis was born September 22, 1851, in Mills county, Iowa, being one of the pioneer children of that county, and grew to womanhood in the community near Malvern. She was married on August 26, 1875, to Ensley R. Dillehay. They moved the year following their marriage to Kansas and after living there and in Valley county, Nebraska, they returned to Mills county to live. They came to Plattsmouth in the nineties and have made their home here since that time. Mr. Dillehay died May 24, 1935 and since that time the widow has made her home the greater part of the time with her sister, Mrs. John Wiles up to the time of the death of Mrs. Wiles. She has been living with her nephew, Everett Wiles for some time and at whose home she died on Wednesday morning, July 1st. The funeral was held at the Sattler funeral home here on Friday morning and the interment was at the Hillsdale cemetery south of Glenwood.

SHOWING NICE IMPROVEMENT

C. A. Johnson, former mayor, who is at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha, is reported as recovering nicely from the effects of an operation. Mr. Johnson was taken to Omaha last Monday and operated on for an abdominal rupture and which has proved very successful and the patient is now gaining nicely. The many friends are trusting that he may soon be out of danger and well on the highway to recovery.

HERE FROM CHICAGO

From Tuesday's Daily
Mrs. James Ptacek and daughter, Miss Gertrude and Stanley Marcelak, Jr., a grandson of Mrs. Ptacek, arrived in the city today for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Yelick, the latter a daughter of Mrs. Ptacek. While here they will visit among the many old time friends of the Ptacek family in this city and vicinity.

PURCHASES NEW HOME

The residence of Mrs. Cora Cotner on Granite street near Lincoln avenue, has been sold to Clarence Favours of this city, the family to take possession of the house at once. This is one of the worthy ways in which the veteran compensation has applied in the securing of a permanent home for the family.
