

Weeping Water

O. O. Kimber has added to the store a ten foot show case for displaying of small electric appliances.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Browne were guests for the afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger Sunday.

G. R. Binger was called to Elmwood last Tuesday morning to look after some business and to visit with his many friends.

The Findley Grocery has just installed a large electric ice box to care for the perishable goods which would otherwise be damaged by the excessively hot weather.

C. M. Van Every of Lincoln was a visitor in Weeping Water last Saturday night where he was guest for the evening and next day with his brother, Wm. Van Every and family.

Wm. Joyce has purchased a new truck to care for the excellent business which he has and was called to Louisville Monday evening to look after some business and made the trip in the new wagon.

Chris Rasmussen who is every willing to work when there is work to be done, has accepted a job of painting the farm home and buildings for N. M. Nelson and is sailing into the work in fine shape.

Peter Johnson, father of John E. Johnson, making his home in Lincoln, has been in Weeping Water for the past week and notwithstanding his 85 years has been making some screens for his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Oscar Johnson at the home here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Compton have been enjoying a visit from a cousin, Mr. R. Compton of Yates Center, Kansas, who arrived a few days ago and have been visiting during the week. They all went fishing in the Weeping Water and were rewarded by a catch consisting of nineteen fish.

Wm. Preston, living east of Weeping Water, received a wire from his son, Elmond telling of the son leaving New York Tuesday morning with a van filled with goods for the west to the extent of 10,000 pounds which was destined for Chicago and from there it was expected he would continue to Omaha with a load of goods.

On last Tuesday evening P. H. Miller, who has been spending the past week at the home of his daughter and family, Martin Johnson and family at Siebert, Colorado, returned home, after a very pleasant visit. He was met at Lincoln by his son, Pete, with the car. During the absence of Mr. Miller the son, Pete, was been looking after the station.

County Fair in September.

The dates set for the Cass county fair at Weeping Water is September 15-18 inclusive, which is but two months away. Of course it is very dry now and then the people interested will be hoping it will not rain during the fair. And while some are down at the mouth just now, it is going to rain and things will be looking up nicely. Get your stock in the best condition and be sure to get your other exhibits ready, for the time will soon be here.

Visiting Relatives Here.

Charles Gerbeling of Elmwood, accompanied by his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Conger of Grand Island, who has been visiting with the father in Elmwood for some time, spent two days in Plattsmouth at the home of Floyd Gerbeling and family and later Tuesday came to Weeping Water where they also spent two days visiting relatives and friends. The will then return to Elmwood where Charles Gerbeling makes his home.

Eating House Changes Hands.

E. A. Fisher, better known as Bert, last week purchased the eating house which has been the property and has been conducted by Miss Mayme Hillman for a number of years.

Mr. Fischer is now in control of the place and is serving the people.

a few days off and with a sister and family of near Union went to Plainview where he and family and the others of the party are spending some time with his parents, Rev. B. N. Kunkel and wife, the former pastor of the Methodist church there.

Goals to California.

Randall Oldham, who has been working in Omaha for several months is at this time taking a trip to Los Angeles where he will look around and visit friends and relatives and should an opportunity turn up for employment which is appealing, will remain there, otherwise he will return to his position in Omaha after his vacation.

Sustains Fire Loss.

C. R. McCormack, who resides in the country some 4½ miles, was awakened about 4 o'clock last Tuesday morning and found the wood house burning and the brooder house close by with the flames sweeping in that direction. His young son, a graduate of the Avoca schools last spring was also awakened and rushing out shooed the 350 half-grown chickens from the brooder house, thus saving all of them. Fortunately the brooder and stove had been removed and placed elsewhere and were saved. However the wood house containing some fuel and the brooder house were destroyed.

Quiet Fourth at Home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger entertained at the home in Weeping Water the Fourth and had as their guests for the occasion their son, Ralph Binger who is employed in Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Fernbaugh and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. John Boiz of Weeping Water, where they all spent the day very quietly and had an enjoyable time notwithstanding the hot weather.

Attend Postmaster Convention.

Postmaster Sterling Amick was spending last Monday at the postmaster convention at Fremont. Mr. Amick attended the convention Monday but had enough of the hot weather and so did not remain over for the Tuesday session but returned home to his work, allowing his assistant, Harold Baker to get what he could out of the deliberations on Tuesday.

Has New Electric Cooker.

The O. O. Kimber place where he manages the department at Weeping Water for the Rudge and Gunzel store has on display an electric cooker which makes an entire meal in one operation, and all the dishes separate.

Home from Western Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hobson who have been spending two weeks and more in the west where they have been visiting the coast cities, and going first to Los Angeles where they visited former Weeping Water people. They visited with I. W. Teegarden and family and a number of others in Los Angeles and at Fullerton they were guests of W. R. Davis formerly a resident of this section. They found Mr. Davis, who is well past 80 years, as spry as a kitten and as full of life and jokes as when he attended the county convention of the Populists. He had formerly been in the ice business and had disposed of that and now has an orange ranch for which he has recently been offered $49,000. Mr. and Mrs. Hobson also visited with his son, William O. Hobson, who is engaged in the mortuary business at San Francisco. They also visited San Jose and other places of interest.

Home From Hospital.

Mrs. Wm. Meisinger who has for the past week or more been at the hospital in Omaha where she underwent an operation was able to return home during the early part of this week and is showing good improvement and is pleased thereby as well as the host of her friends.

ENTERTAIN FOR FOURTH

Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer entertained Omaha relatives for a chicken dinner on the Fourth of July. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fischer, Francis Fischer who is just home from college for a vacation, Katherine, George and Mary Ann Fischer, Mrs. Andrews and her son, James Andrews.

All had a grand time with firecrackers. Miss Katherine Fischer and sister, Mary Ann, are remaining for a vacation. The last few days they spent visiting friends; for they formerly lived in Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Simpson and baby, Marlene, Mr. and Mrs. John Lanam of Ansley, Sebr., and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Richardson of Mynard, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Simpson of this city.

FOURTH AT SOUTH BEND

Hundreds of people motored to Lake Park at South Bend July 4, to enjoy the cool seclusion of the shaded picnic ground and swim in the refreshing water at the beach. The swimming meet sponsored by the national "Y" meet of the Y. M. C. A. of Lincoln with Joseph Wolf and Tommy Leeke directing, were as follows:

A trophy was awarded for high point man in both junior and senior events, medals were awarded for first place and ribbons for second and third places.

In the evening the Farmers Union local band of Louisville, gave a concert on the platform at the beach which won much applause and many favorable comments.

Parking space was at a premium after dusk, as car after car rolled in loaded with people bent on witnessing the unique fireworks display on the water.

After the fireworks came the portrayal of the destruction of the City of Pompeii, which was fully appreciated by the hundreds of spectators watching from the sandy shore of the lake.

SUNNY SIDE COOKING CLUB

The fifth meeting of the Sunny Side Cooking club met at the home of Dorothea Duxbury. A demonstration was given by Dorothea Duxbury and Willa Sylvester on how to make meat loaf. Next we played a "go shopping" game. The business meeting followed. The roll call was given in answer by our favorite meat. Next we decided about our picnic on July 7th. Then we had an amateur hour. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The sixth meeting was held at the home of Betty McKissick. A demonstration was given by Betty McKissick and Maxine Hughes on how to make cake. Our business meeting followed. The roll call was given in answer by our favorite cakes. We then decided where to go on our picnic. It was decided on the Boy Scout cabin. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The seventh meeting of the Sunny Side Cooking club was held at the home of Alice Rea. A demonstration was given by Alice Rea and Betty Jo Libershal on macaroni and cheese. The business meeting followed. The roll call was given in answer by the things we have made. Catherine Brink then led us in a yell. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

'REPORT OF MYNARD CLUB

The Mynard Girls Room club held its regular meeting at the home of our assistant leader, Alice Barbara Wiles. Our secretary was absent so Maxine Neilsen took her place.

We decided to have a carnival on the last Friday of July to help pay our camp expenses. We got our 4-H pins. The business meeting was adjourned.

Mary Helen Dill gave a demonstration on measuring curtains. We judged our color charts. Dorothea Fulton received first; Maxine Neilsen 2nd; Mary Helen Dill, 3rd.

We judged our patchwork pillows. Dorothea Fulton received 1st; Mary Helen Dill 2nd; Maxine Neilsen 3rd; Willene Rusk, 4th.

At the close delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held July 17 at the home of Maxine Neilsen.

DOROTHEA FULTON, News Reporter.

LEAVE ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Clouet and daughters departed Sunday on a vacation trip to the east where they are planning on an outing of several weeks. They are to visit in the great lakes area and then to Montreal and Quebec where they will enjoy a stay in these quaint old cities that carry so much of the atmosphere of the old France. They also expect to stop at Inlet, New York, where the H. G. McClusky family are enjoying a vacation at their summer camp near that place.

Elmwood News

Guy Clements and Mrs. Emily Gonzales were called to Lincoln last Tuesday where they were present at the sale of some estate property of Elmwood parties.

Norville D. Bothwell was called to Lincoln Tuesday afternoon of this week where he had some business to look after as well as supplies to get for the store here.

Wm. Patterson of Murray was a visitor in Elmwood on Tuesday of this week and was a guest of Wm. Flaishchmann for a short time as well as visiting with other friends.

Missouri Pacific Agent F. L. Colburn was very ill for a few days, but is reported as being much better at this time and it is thought he will regain his former good health soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meyers and the kiddies of Fairbury, Mrs. Meyers being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillett, departed last Wednesday for the north where they are spending the time in Minnesota in the lake region for a week or ten days.

Visited Nehawka Lodge.

A delegation from the Elmwood Rebekah lodge which included the installing officer and her assistants were over to Nehawka Monday evening of this week where they inducted the newly elected officers of the assembly into office and where they enjoyed a very pleasant time visiting with members of the sister lodge.

Among those going and assisting in the work were Mrs. Sylvia Penterman and son Morris, Miss Inez Lane, Mrs. J. E. Shreeves, Miss Golden Keitch, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Miller, Doris Linder, Blanche Klemme, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elliott, Chris Bakemeyer, Jesse Creamer.

This same delegation also visited the Weeping Water lodge Friday, July 3, where they installed the officers of that lodge. The installation of the officers of the Rebekah and the I. O. O. F. will be held in Elmwood July 14th.

To Visit in Washington.

Mrs. Wm. Flaishchman is to spend a month or more in the west, as she departed last Wednesday evening via the Shriner special train for Portland and will be guest of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Apt who makes her home in the coast city. Mrs. Flaishchman will surely enjoy the time spent there and especially the cooler climate as it has been abundantly warm here during the past month.

The Flies Not Wanted.

There has been erected a new screen door at the post office that the flies which are appearing in numbers may now be excluded from the building and people may not be molested when they call for their mail.

at his home in Elmwood and is kept to his bed by reason thereof. He is thought to be some better at this time, however. It was found necessary to maintain a trained nurse for his care as he was considered as being in serious condition. With the proper medical attention and good nursing Mr. Williams has been showing improvement and it is hoped he will soon be able to be up and out again.

Relatives Visiting Here.

Charles Gerbeling has been very much pleased with the coming of his daughter, Mrs. O. W. Conger and family, consisting of the husband and children who came last week from their home at Grand Island and were accompanied by Mr. Gerbeling making a two days visit over the Fourth at Plattsmouth with Floyd Gerbeling and family, later visiting in Weeping Water for two days and then returning to Elmwood where they will visit for some time before returning home.

Here From the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ware of Washington, D. C., is here visiting with relatives and friends for a time. Mr. Ware has been in the east for some time and there met and married his wife and where they have made their home. Mr. Ware is now with the police department at the Capital City, and is now taking his summer vacation, visiting the friends here.

Attend Young Peoples Meet.

Rev. Ernest E. Baker, pastor of the Elmwood Christian church and wife were over to Crete attending a convention of the young people of the church, and were accompanied by a delegation of five young people, including Miss Edna McLaughlin, Miss Hazel Stegge, Miss B. D. Olsen, Lois Hazel and David Bornemeier.

Did Not Have Time to Fish.

Bruce Rosenkrans and Robert Walling of Plattsmouth were visiting and looking after some business matters in Elmwood last Tuesday morning and were deliberating on fishing some at South Bend and extended an invitation to Guy Clements who was compelled to turn down the invitation on account of a pressing business trip which he had to make to Lincoln.

Services at Methodist Church.

There will be services at the Methodist church of Elmwood the coming Sunday by the young people, as this will be Young Peoples day at the church. Dale Ganz who graduated from the Alvo high school, will furnish the special music. It is hoped that all young people will be able to enjoy this program. James Bliss spoke at the services last Sunday on the young peoples co-operative movement.

SEWING SALLIES MEET

The Sewing Sallies met at the home of Fern Neil, near Union, June 24. Ten members were present and a new member was taken in. There were four guests present, two Mrs. Neil, Betty Ann and Jene. After discussing our lesson and received our pins a dainty luncheon of Jello, cake and punch was served. Our next meeting will be at Donna Jean Himdy's July 9 when we will learn to make three different stitches sewing and start work on our laundry bag. A 4-H picnic will be held by our group, the 7th of July.

Mrs. Laura Edith Reeves Walker.

Miss Edith Reeves was born August 26, 1904 at Osekis, Minn., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Reeves, and was united in marriage on March 15, 1929 to Clarence E. Walker, they have been making their home on a farm between Seward and Garland.

While Mrs. Walker has not been in the best of health for some time she was not really sick enough to be kept to her bed but for the past two days and passed away Wednesday of last week at the farm home.

A short service was had at the funeral home at Seward and the remains brought to Elmwood where services were held at the Methodist church Friday, July 3 at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. B. Bliss, pastor of the church, Mrs. Walker having been a member of the Methodist church for many years. She was a graduate of the Elmwood high school and had a host of friends here who mourn her departure.

She leaves the aged father, Horace A. Reeves, three sisters and a brother, besides the husband, Clarence Walker and children, the eldest, Kenneth, 5, Marjory Ann, 2 and Roger, 9 months.

Mrs. Mesdames V. G. Clement and K. A. Schlanter sang a number of the favorite songs of the departed, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Ted Hall. Interment was at the beautiful Elmwood cemetery.

DEATH OF CHILD

From Tuesday's Daily. This morning L. L. Horton of the Horton funeral home of this city, was called to the vicinity of Murdock by the death of the small child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroy, well known residents of that locality.

The child who was of tender years, was ill for a long period and his illness was such that offered little hope of its recovery and it has been under treatment at the hospital.

The date of the funeral will be announced later.

The child is related to many of the prominent families in the western part of the county and Mrs. Stroy is a niece of Mrs. Ethel Ossenkop, postmistress at Louisville.

MARRIAGE LICENSE RECORD

In the office of County Judge A. H. Duxbury where a very complete and well arranged set of records have been arranged that dates back to the formation of the county and the creation of the office, many interesting facts are to be found.

The marriage license record shows that since May, 1855, 11,365 licenses have been issued from the office. The first license issued was to Miss Parmelia A. Walker and Thomas Hanner, they being granted a license on May 20, 1855. L. G. Todd was the issuing officer as justice of the peace.

MANY ENJOY SWIMMING

The office of Mrs. Lottie Rosenkrans, local Red Cross secretary, reports that thus far there has been 268 permits issued for the participation in the Red Cross swimming school and tests at the Merritt beach.

This morning there were 72 of the children on hand to catch the early truck to the bathing beach where they were able to enjoy themselves as well as to learn the art of swimming and safety when in the water.

The adults are invited to join in the week's swim and have a part of the fun that the youngsters enjoy.

HERE OVER THE HOLIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallinger and daughter, Ila of near Ashland, were in the city Saturday and Sunday where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Becker, the latter a sister of Mrs. Wallinger as well as at the home of Mrs. Louisa Bauer and family.

VISIT IN SPENCER

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Kocian and children, Patricia and Cyril, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Horsak, spent the past week end at Spencer in the northern part of the state. En route they also stopped at Loma and St. Libory to visit relatives and friends.
