

Murray

Sheriff Homer Sylvester was a visitor in Murray last Monday, having some business matters to look after.

Mrs. Font T. Wilson was a visitor in Nehawka on Monday of this week, going to look after some matters of business.

Earl Merritt was in Union Tuesday of this week, where he was completing the painting of the residence of Frank Mrasek, which he has in the neighboring town.

Mrs. Leonard Terryberry was a visitor here at the home of her sister, Mrs. Roy Howard, coming down from her home in Plattsmouth to spend the day Saturday.

The family of Ivan Deles Dernier were in Omaha last Sunday, where they visited Mrs. Susie Berger, who is very ill at the home of J. H. Browne, and found her slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Oldham, of Omaha, who had been at St. Joseph, Mo., visiting relatives for a short time, stopped off here to visit with Mrs. Sadie Oldham last Sunday as they were en route home.

Dick Christweiser, who has been working at Nehawka for some three weeks, was a visitor in Murray for a short time last Monday evening, being on his way to Plattsmouth, where he is making his home for the present.

Van Allen, who is employed in Omaha was a visitor in Murray for a short time last Saturday night. He was accompanied by a young lady friend from the metropolis, they returning to Omaha later in the evening.

J. H. Browne and wife, of Omaha, were in Murray last Sunday taking George Berger with them to Omaha, where he visited his mother, and was caught in the wind and dust storm as he returned and had to stop for a time before he could come on home.

The Frank Mrasek Transfer company has been very busy of late with the delivery of stock to the Omaha markets, the hauling of materials, machinery and lumber from Omaha to Murray and the delivering of much newly-threshed wheat to the elevators.

Thomas Nelson, employee of the Murray Lumber yard was enjoying a visit last Sunday at Springfield, in Sarpy county, where he was located some twenty-seven years ago and was engaged in the hardware and lumber business. After all these years, he finds many of his old time friends there and sure pleased to meet him.

Russ Overhaiser, who has been in the western part of the state, where he went to assist with the harvest of the wheat crop, writes that they have completed this work and he is busy plowing corn, getting it laid by and although the corn is very late this year, it looks very good and with a reasonable amount of moisture at all will do very well.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles were in Shenandoah last Sunday. En route home, when they had gotten a short distance out of Nebraska City, the dust storm came upon them and although they speeded up, the storm was faster than they, so they stopped and accepted the invitation of Jesse Crook south of Union to rest a while in his cave while the dust storm blew over, which it did in a short time.

Frank Was Crowded Out

Frank Mrasek says his home was one of the most popular places imaginable last Sunday evening. The reason for this unusual popularity was due to the bad windstorm that swept the Missouri river valley for a distance of a couple of hundred miles and looked like it might develop into cyclone proportions. Frank has a fine cave that is used for the storing of edibles and sometimes as a place of refuge, and this was one of those times. When Frank sought to enter the cave for safety he found the place already packed with refugees and some not even able to get clear down the stairs and into the entranceway. So he had to stand outside and guard the cave from the wind, and did so with a smile.

Threshing About Completed

The farmers in the vicinity of Murray are just getting through with their harvesting and threshing, and are well pleased with their yields, the quality and the very nice prices that they have been getting for their grain. However, there still remain a few jobs of threshing yet to be done.

Mrs. Susie Berger Better

Mrs. Susie Berger, who has been very sick for some time past at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Browne in Omaha, is reported as being some better and was able to sit up for a short time last Monday. Her daughter, Mrs. Marie Marshall, of Oklahoma City, is expected here in a short time to assist in the care of the mother. The many friends of Mrs. Berger are hoping for the speedy recovery of this popular lady.

Released from Custody

George Berger, who was brought to trial in county court at Plattsmouth on an assault charge, after a trial extending over many hours on last Saturday and embracing the testimony of many witnesses, was discharged from custody. Among those from Murray who attended the hearing, either as witnesses or spectators, were W. S. Smith, John Poynter, Tom Nelson and George Nickles, also a goodly number of others.

Played Ball at Plattsmouth

The Murray Reds were at Plattsmouth last Monday evening, where under the floodlights they played a very one sided game against the Cass County Chevrolet team. The score was 25 to 0 in favor of the Chevys.

Home from Vacation

Uncle J. W. Hobson, who makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young, was away on a two days' vacation trip, which he spent in fishing along the river, and while he went with the intention of enjoying the outing and resting up, he found he might as well have been at home for he had to rest up after he got home before he could go to work again. The fish would not bite and he had not fish to eat. While he was away from camp for a short time, some sneak thief purloined his entire outfit with the exception of the coffee pot and frying pan. Like the well known radio character, Andrew Brown, he is "regusted."

Returned from the West

Frank Vallery, who has been in the western part of the state, returned home this week and brought with him some samples of the grain harvested there. The wheat would require three grains to make one of the Cass county variety this year. The barley was not very good. But he had a sample also of the grasshoppers from out there, which were truly monsters. However, no one desires to raise grasshoppers, so we guess old Cass county just about cops all the honors of this comparison.

Visiting Here with Mother

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Born and son and daughter, who have been making their home for the past few years at Lorraine, Ohio, but who are visiting here with the mother of Mrs. Born, Mrs. Vesta Clark, manager and chief operator of the Murray telephone exchange, are enjoying their visit a great deal. They are considering the matter of remaining here as the opportunities seem as good here as they do in the east and the family will be nearer relatives and friends here.

Spent the Week End Here

Miss Elizabeth Spangler of Plattsmouth was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler here over Sunday and enjoyed among other things the fine birthday dinner prepared by Mrs. Spangler in honor of the anniversary of Miss Elizabeth.

They Swam; Then Ate

The Young People of the Presbyterian church of Murray went to the Graham Mill swimming hole north of Nebraska City last Friday afternoon, where they enjoyed a dip in the cooling waters and after a refreshing swim went to the state park at Nebraska City better known as Morton's park or Arbor Lodge, where under the shade of the pines they enjoyed a very delicious supper before returning to their home in Murray late in the evening.

Having Excellent Time

Ralph Kennedy, Charles Boedeker II, John Gilmore and C. J. Stuart, who are at Leech lake in northern Minnesota, where they are fishing and enjoying an outing, write that they are enjoying themselves very nicely, but that the supply of fish is not as heavy as they would like, for they all like fish. But they are enjoying their trip, however.

CARD OF THANKS

Our hearts have been comforted, our grief assuaged and a heavy load lightened at the manifestations of kindness from sympathetic and loving friends.

In our loss, we wipe away our tears and have comfort in a knowledge and firm belief that Jim, as the neighbors all call him, lives on in the hearts of all with whom he was associated.

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their kindness shown during the death and burial of our husband and father; also for the beautiful flowers, the quartet that sang so beautifully and the comfort-

Feed Situation Most Critical in State Just Now

Governor Cochran Asks the WPA to Create 7,500 More Jobs in the Drouth Area.

Gov. Cochran declared Monday at a hastily called meeting of an informal drouth committee that the feed situation is one of the most critical in Nebraska. It is bad now and growing steadily worse, he said. Crop Statistician Anderson, W. H. Brokaw of the agricultural college extension department and L. A. White, resettlement administrator, met with the governor to discuss plans for coordinating WPA and resettlement and extension service work in connection with the drouth.

The governor is in touch with Howard Hunter of Chicago, regional WPA director, trying to increase WPA aid for destitute farmers in drouth sections. A request has been made for 7,500 jobs for farmers in addition to the 17,500 already asked, putting the total at 25,000. Cochran expects Hunter to come to the capitol in the near future for a conference on drouth matters.

No counties in the state have yet been designated as drouth counties, Brokaw said. All those present agreed, however, that the situation is growing critical in some places. The governor said a widespread tour over the state convinced him that conditions in the eastern section are worse, generally speaking, than in most other parts. Hardest hit of all are counties in the extreme northwest part of the state. A number of counties are still in good shape, he said, and would respond well to rain. Anderson added there will be corn silage in many places if there is rain soon.

Members of the committee agreed that distribution of feed is one of the biggest problems. In some counties, Brokaw said, there is plenty of feed in low places and irrigated areas, while other areas in the same counties are drouth stricken. Feasibility of emergency grants and emergency feed loans was discussed.

STOP DONAT'S WINNING STREAK

The BREX kittenball team which in the first round of the season was defeated by the Donat's Falstaff, last evening proceeded to clean up on the younger team to win by a score of 8 to 7 in a hard fought game and in which the Donats had the edge until the last innings when they whittled the Donat lead down and in the ninth scored a victory.

The Donat's had a lead of 3 to 0 up to the sixth inning when the BREX annexed two runs and were in the going and placing the score at 3 to 2 for the beverage dealers. In the seventh inning the Donats stretched their score to 6 to 2 and then the BREX came right back with three runs of their own and were trailing by only one score. The Donats in the first of the ninth added another score and when the BREX came to bat then came the deluge, three hits and three costly errors giving three runs and the win.

The box score of the game was as follows:

NETSTERS TRIM CARTER LAKE

A group of Plattsmouth netsters administered a severe drubbing to Carter Lakers on the Lake club courts, eight matches to one.

The matches were played and concluded, just previous to the severe wind storm which struck very heavy near Carter Lake. The backstops of the court were completely wrecked. Some of the local players were forced to follow an unusual route to reach Omaha, because of the many fallen trees.

Sheldon Giles continued his win streak in singles, and the rest played unusually good tennis.

DIES IN MICHIGAN

Old time friends of the Francis E. White family in this city will regret to learn of the death of the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. White, Frank H. Hallar. Mr. Hallar died suddenly last Sunday at Ironwood, Michigan, where the family have made their home in recent years. Mrs. Hallar was formerly Miss Louise White of this city.

DIES AT MINNEAPOLIS

Word has been received by Miss Olive Gass, of the death of her cousin, apolis. The funeral occurred today. Mr. Wintersteen was a nephew of the late Dr. William Wintersteen, a former pioneer resident of this city and in whose honor Wintersteen hill is named.

C. B. Wintersteen was a Civil war veteran and altho 93 years old, was honored by being asked to place a wreath on the grave of the "unknown soldier" at Minneapolis last decoration day.

Mr. Wintersteen gave an address each year before the pupils of the Minneapolis schools on his experiences in the hospitals and prisons during the Civil war.
