DEATH OF MALISSIA MCKINNEY

Malissia Crider was born in Bland, Osage county, Missouri, Oct. 23, 1860. Passed away at Lincoln, Neb., July 16, 1936 at the age of 75 years, 8 months and 24 days.

She was married to Thomas Jefferson McKinney April 17, 1882. To this union was born five children, two dying at birth. She leaves to mourn her death three children, Mrs. Ed Redden, Hollman McKinney of Murray and John McKinney of Queensville, Mo. On sister, Mrs. Martha Smith of Pleasant Hill, Mo., and eight grandchildren.

Rev. Hunt of Weeping Water, had charge of the services. Mrs. Bessie Seybolt and Mrs. Herman Wohlfarth sang requested songs. The pall bearers were Mr. J. V. Pitman, Ben Noel, Ed Tutt, H. Gruber, Earl Lancaster and William Griffin, all of Murray.

Weep not that her toils are over.

Weep not that her race is run. God grant we may rest as calmly when our work like hers has been done.

Till then, we will yield with gladness

Our treasures to Him to keep, And rest in the blessed assurance

He gives our loved ones sweet sleep.

Home from the Hospital

Mrs. Del Cadwell, who has not been in the best of health, being confined in a hospital in Omaha for some time past, where she was under observation and receiving treatment, became so far improved that she was able to return home last Saturday. This will be pleasing news to her friends, who trust she may enjoy a complete restoration of her former good health.

The Cold Bath Too Much

Elmer Withrow, who works in the elevator, became well heated and could not sleep, so took a shower bath with the garden hose, which gave him rest, but the following day he was so stiff he could hardly get about and as Mr. Stites was away, he had to have C. W. Hoback look after the elevator during the even-

David Gerking and wife, of Sloan, Iowa, were visiting in Union last Sunday, being guests of relatives and old friends here, where they formerly resided. Mr. Gerking reports the drouth at Sloan as being even more severe than here and says our crops look very good as compared with the crops in that region. Sloan is located not far from Sioux City.

Fine Get-Together Dinner

The Methodist church held a mid-day get-together dinner on last Sunday, the affair having been planned for their own building, but due to the excessive heat was shifted to the basement of the Baptist church after same had been placed at their disposal. There, with the aid of fans, the place was most cool and comfortable and afforded a fine place for the serving of the mid-day meal. On invitation by the Methodists, numerous members of the Baptist church joined them in this splendid get-together and all enjoyed the occasion.

The members of the Methodist church are very appreciative of the invitation to use the cool basement of the Baptist church, while the members of the Baptist church who were guests of their Methodist neighbors at the dinner were equally appreciative of the cordial invitation that had been extended to them.

Taking Vacation in Canada

Charles Staska, operator for the Missouri Pacific at their Union station, is taking a vacation from his railroad duties and spending the time with relatives in the Canadian northwest at Edmonton, Manitoba. While he is away, the work is being handled by a Mr. Carr, extra man.

With the Nebraska Guardsmen, Miss Jane Robb, of Lincoln, was ing, as he had to give up the fight and go home and lie down. It is hoped that he will soon be in his normal condition again. This extremely hot weather has been plenty tough on all kinds of people, fat or thin, and in the more populous centers of the country there have been many deaths recorded.

DEATH OF PIONEER

Mrs. Lydia Bodien died at her home in Orleans, Neb., July 25, at the age of 86 years. Mrs. Bodieu was the daughter of the late James O'Neill, one of the founders of Plattsmouth, coming here in 1854 with her parents. She grew to womanhood and was married here in 1868 to Mr. Theodore Bodieu, a native of Watertown, Wis. They remained in Plattsmouth until 1875 when they moved to Bloomington, Neb., where Mr. Bodien was in the mercantile business. In 1881 they moved to Orleans, where she has resided ever since. There were three children born to them, namely, Mrs. Maud Moech who lived with her mother, and took care of her for a number of years, Mrs. John Claypool of Denver and Roy Bodien, who is in the automobile business in Orleans.

Entire Club to Attend Camp

The Sewing Queens 4-H club made final plans toward attending camp at their fifth meeting held Friday evening, July 24, with Betty and Margaret Cadwell. They will leave Sunday afternoon for Camp Brewster and return Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Sam Gruber, Mrs. Sam Pugh and Charlie Land will take them and stay for a picnic supper with the girls.

After the business meeting, the dresses were exhibited. As they were not all completed it was impossible to judge them at this time. Games were played, after which refreshments were served.

Two visitors were present,

Dorothy and Joan Lewis.

The meeting was adjourned until the time of the next regular meeting on August 7, with Charlotte Erwin as the hostess.—Dorothy Nickel, News Reporter.

DIES AT SIOUX FALLS

The death of E. O. Jones, prominent Sioux Falls, (South Dakota) attorney, occurred Monday afternoon at 2:05, following a complication of diabetes and asthma.

Mr. Jones is well known in this city where he has been a guest at the W. A. Robertson home on many occasions, the late Mrs. Jones having been a sister of Mrs. Robertson.

Mr. Jones was 64 years of age and has been in practice since 1897 following his graduation from the college of law of the University of Nebraska and has been one of the leaders of the South Dakota bar since entering into practice.

He is survived by one son, Enos Gray Jones, his father, aged 93 years, as well as one sister, all of Sioux Falls.

The funeral will be held at Sioux Falls on Wednesday afternoon and the interment there beside the wife.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, August 2nd By I. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Philip's Missionary Labors"

(Acts 8:26-40)

This lesson should be studied to find the nature, the art and the joy of personal work in soul saving.

Philip had a love for souls, a knowledge of the word, and a sensitiveness in the leading of the Lord. That is all we need. If every Christian were a Philip, the world would be won for Christ in ten years. Of the four Philip recorded in the gospels, the one named in the lesson is Philip the deacon. We find him on a preaching tour in a town of Samaria called Sychar, where Jesus had met a woman at the well, and through her he stayed two days in the city.

We meet Philip only once more in Caesarea (Acts 21:8) being host to Paul and his company. The great revival at Sychar, which was started by Philip, has been duplicated millions of times since, and by the same means, namely by preaching Christ; the only God-appointed way, for bringing God and man together in Christ Jesus. "And there was great joy in that city." It is the natural consequence—great joy, for salvation that had come to them. Zacharius received the Lord with great joy. Millions had the same experience.

Peter and John are sent from Jerusalem to investigate and report. They also took part in the revival, and a second pentecost followed. The incident with Simon Magus, shows that men in all ages have tried to counterfeit the genuine i. e. to deceive—nobody will imitate or counterfeit a bad coin—only the good. "Traffic in sacred things" was the outcome—"Sinnony." But Philip, fired with a holy zeal for souls, and full of enthusiasm from the recent revival got a call from God for a special mission; from the crowded city to a lovely road in an uninhabited region—did he hesitate and wonder if he had understood the Lord right? No. Faith goes when the order comes to go; it does not stop to reason. It is a long journey, some 50 miles southwest from Jerusalem. "And he arose and went"; trusting God. As a tired traveler on foot, he moves along, is overtaken by a chariot, as he keeps pace with the procession, he hears the occupant read aloud from the Old Testament scriptures.

A good example to follow for Christians on a journey, to have God's word with them to feed on, instead of papers, magazines or story books. We should get acquainted with this traveler. He is a man of some authority, being the treasurer of the Queen of Ethiopia, south of Egypt; in Africa, hence a black man. Possibly a proslytite to the Jewish faith; not satisfied with the gods or religion of his country; seeking something that will satisfy the hunger of his soul—"seek and ye shall find"—what he saw and heard in Jerusalem did not satisfy him—God leads him to buy a school, of holy writ, and it happens to be the writing of Isaiah. He had made a good purchase.

Oh, the wonderful leading of God! Here is an "unfilled" preacher in Sychar—Here is a hungry soul after righteousness—they are 60 miles apart—God calls the preacher and he obeys; the traveler and preacher meet—prearranged by God. The traveler takes the preacher for a ride. The man of such a high station in life, is not too proud to confess that he does not know all, but is willing to be taught.

Reading Isa. 53, is hard for many to understand. But the Holy Spirit is present, who will interpret the word. "Do you understand what you are reading?" We should often stop and ask ourselves, "What does this or that mean?" God will give us light, or direct someone to enlighten us. Philip had found an answer to his own questioning and reasoning. This is the special mission. Now he is glad that he had gone the lone journey—what a glorious opportunity to preach "Jesus" unto the small audience.

Well his Master had such an audience once—the Samaritan woman at the well—here is Philip with an audience of one. (This writer had the same experience 54 years ago). But look at the result; while Philip held up Jesus to this man, the Holy Spirit opens the Eunoch's understanding, light floods his soul, that is what he wanted—needed; eagerly he takes Christ as his savior, he is ready and willing to comply with any rule or rite that shall and can complete the work of regeneration—there is water for baptism—the chariot is halted, the rite is performed—then the two part—Philip turns up at Azotus (30 miles from Guza—the Ethiopian goes on his way rejoicing, he had found Jesus, who would abide with him. So the gospel was carried into the "dark continent." So God carries on his work, and uses consecrated laymen as well as ordained preachers to witness to the power of God who can save to the uttermost, all that call on Him.

The lesson is this: Every earnest seeker is assured help from God; and God has always the right man for the right place ready; and joy and peace, that passeth understanding are the reward of every earnest endeavor—it is God's free gift through Jesus Christ.
