

Murray

Reverend and Mrs. Edwin G. Sloan visited with friends in Omaha and Emerson, Nebraska, last week.

Ralph Davis of near Union was a visitor in Murray last Monday evening, looking after business matters and also visiting friends here.

Misses Mildred Allen and Effie Poynter went to Lincoln Monday to spend the week with their friend and former schoolmate, Miss Harriet Milburn.

Fred Woolsey, who owns a number of farms near Union and Murray, was in Murray on Monday of this week and was looking after some business while here.

John Urish and daughter entertained at their country home on last Sunday, having as guests for the day and the very fine dinner that was served, Mr. and Mrs. John Beesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt moved to the Puls house the first of the week, thus leaving the house where they have been living vacant, and Harry Albin and family immediately moved into the same.

George Truman, of Omaha, who was a member of the state legislature with Representative George E. Nickles, was a business visitor in Murray last Monday and was visiting with Mr. Nickles while here.

Mrs. Hobart Blake has been experiencing considerable grief from the removal of three of her teeth, as excessive bleeding followed. This has now been checked, but her face is badly swollen yet and her mouth is plenty sore.

Jacob Bingen, who is a large cattle feeder, has been compelled to import much feed this year to supply the stock, and last week received a number of truck loads of hay, which were delivered by the Mrasek fleet of trucks.

Eugene Fitch and family were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Britten, of Omaha were guests last Sunday at the home of the mother of Mrs. Britten, Mrs. Edna Deles Dernier. Mrs. Britten was formerly Miss Reane Deles Dernier.

Marie Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Blake, went to Weeping Water to spend a week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Christian. The entire Blake family went over to Weeping Water Sunday to attend the celebration of the thirty-second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Christian, parents of Mrs. Blake.

J. W. Holmes and wife, together with their son, Ralph Holmes and wife, who are visiting at the parental home in Plattsmouth, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith here on Sunday. The elder Mr. Holmes is a brother of Mrs. Smith. Their son, Ralph is located in Schenectady, New York, where he has a position in the research department of one of the large electrical companies.

Will Visit in South

James Tilson and wife and Robert Morris are making preparations to spend the winter in Virginia, and will depart for Norfolk in about two weeks, driving through. They had enough of the winter here last year and are looking forward to a most pleasant winter this year. Virginia was the native state of Mr. Tilson, and he seeks to enjoy one winter among the old familiar landmarks of years gone by, where he will not have to dig in the snow and fight the extreme cold weather like we had to in this part of the country last winter.

Buried on Tuesday

Homer Engelkemeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engelkemeier, who has been an invalid for many years and unable to be up and about for a long time, was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia a short time since and passed away at the home of his parents last Sunday, being 24 years of age. The funeral was held from the Eight Mile German Evangelical church on Tuesday, being

Home from the West

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles and Mrs. Bertha Shrader, who have been in the western part of the state looking after some business matters in connection with land interests which the two ladies have there, returned home Saturday. They report a three day rain there which has made the country look fresh and nice and has revived pastures and aided the corn crop somewhat.

Met with an Accident

While John Noddleman, Jr., was en route to town last Sunday, driving his father's automobile, he was taken with convulsions, from which he occasionally suffers. As a result he was not able to control the car and the machine veered from the roadway, striking a road sign and vaulting over the bank. The car was but slightly damaged, but the young man suffered a severe cut on one of his arms, nearly a foot in length. He was given prompt medical attention and no serious results are expected.

Home from the West

Woodric Rainey, better known as "Wood" Rainey, formerly a resident of Cass county, but who has been making his home in South and North Dakota, has returned to the county, coming via Greenwood, where the family resided some thirty years ago and visiting the cemetery there in which his parents are buried. From there, he came on to Murray, and thence to Plattsmouth Monday evening. He expects to obtain employment there.

Enjoyable Family Reunion

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyson and little son spent last Sunday at the home of the parents of Dr. Tyson, L. A. Tyson and wife, of Elmwood. There were also gathered there for the day Mr. and Mrs. Fleming W. Robb of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. McCrory, of Elmwood. The ladies are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Tyson and sisters of the doctor. A most enjoyable gathering was had and an excellent dinner served.

Relatives Here Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sporer entertained for the day last Sunday, having as guests the family of Chester Sporer, residing west of Mynard, and William Sporer and son Charles of Murray. They all enjoyed a very fine dinner and an excellent visit.

The United Presbyterian Church.

Rev. E. G. Sloan, pastor

"Weighed and Found Wanting" is the theme Rev. E. Garrison Sloan will use for his sermon on Sabbath morning at the 11 o'clock hour. This will be a practical discussion and helpful to both saint and sinner.

The Sabbath school will convene at 9:45 for their opening service. With the return of the members from their summer vacations and school, interest is increasing. The attendance at all services have been fine considering the extreme heat of the past few weeks.

The Young Peoples Christian Union will meet at the home of Miss Marie Davis at 7 p. m. for their spiritual retreat in vesper worship. Cars will leave the church at 6:45 promptly.

On Friday evening, August 7th, the young people of the church and friends will go to the Goose Hill swimming pool, for the swim, then a delicious basket picnic supper, after which a short business meeting will be held. Cars will leave the church at 6 o'clock sharp for the swimming party. If the weather is inclement the young people will meet in the church auditorium for their business meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Visitors and friends are welcome to attend all services of the Murray U. P. church.

"If you mean well, do well!"

VISIT HERE SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wescott, of Lincoln, came in Saturday evening to spend the week end and Sunday here at the E. H. Wescott and John L. Tidball homes as well as visiting with the many friends.

Sketch of Life of a Long Time Resident of Neb.

Mrs. Joseph Samek, Well Known Here, Has Long Been Loved and Honored Figure in Weston.

Emma Samek was born at Rock Island, Illinois, Dec. 11th, 1874, and passed away July 31, 1936. She leaves surviving her, her husband, Joseph Samek, and children Mrs. J. A. Capwell and Virginia Samek of Plattsmouth, Mrs. C. N. Turner of Marquette, Mrs. R. R. Oredosky of Milligan; Melvin Samek of Chappell; Kenneth, Neal and Clifford of Weston and six grandchildren, also two sisters, of Weston, Mrs. F. Pacal and Miss Georgia Madigan. A daughter, Genevieve, preceded her in death.

At an early age Mrs. Samek with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Madigan, came to Weston where she grew to young womanhood, and where she met and married her husband, Joseph Samek, and where they founded their home and reared their children.

Mrs. Samek was a member of the Methodist church for a number of years, later associating with the Baptist church of Weston after the former church had been discontinued. Mrs. Samek was a faithful worker in this congregation for a long time, and at her death was serving as president of its ladies aid society. Religiously, Mrs. Samek was quiet, but sincere, her character alone speaking eloquently of her Christian faith.

Mrs. Samek was one of the earlier graduates of the Weston high school following its founding many years, and from which all her children graduated in later years, the youngest, Clifford, this year in May. Prior to her marriage she taught school a number of years. She was also a member of the Royal Neighbors.

Mother Samek represented the best that is good and fine in that splendid type of American motherhood. She and her husband were ambitious beyond their strength in their desire that their sons and daughters be given the advantages of an education and training in Christian character, and so become useful members of that large family of human society, Her life paralleled the ideal mother mentioned in the Proverbs of Holy Writ, and like that mother "The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her." "She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life." "She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy." "She looketh well to the ways of her household." "Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praileth her." And God said of this mother, "Many daughters have done well, but thou excellest them all."

This kindly, patient and tolerant mother will not only be missed by her family, but also by a large and intimate group of friends and neighbors of many years standing.

Mother Samek has gone to sleep, but she still lives in the hearts and lives of her husband and children. She will still hover over them, trying to guide them along the roadway of life. This ought to stand always in their conscious memories, lest by mistake they pain the one who only did them good. She lives also under the promise of One who long ago said "I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in me, tho he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever believeth in me shall never die." In this faith only shall we find our consolation.

After services at Weston, Mrs. Samek was laid to rest at Sunrise cemetery, the Rev. Johnson of Palmyra, Nebraska, a family friend, officiating.

BLUE BIRD STITCHERS

The Blue Bird Stitchers held their meeting at the home of Margaret and Miriam Fricke July 25 with their leader, Miss Dorothy Farmer. The roll was called by the secretary, then the minutes were read.

Comments were given on the unfinished laundry bags and instructions how to complete them. Our buttonholes were then judged. Ruth Gaines ranked first. The patterns were cut out for our aprons which are to be our next project. Instructions were then given on how to make them. Our laundry bags will be judged at the next meeting.

The next meeting will be at the home of May McCarroll August 8th. At the close of the meeting palatable refreshments were served. Due to the extreme hot day indoors games were played.

Weeping Water

Ben Gibson has been under the weather for some time, being confined to his bed the past few days.

E. R. Cole and family, of Lincoln were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wright. The two ladies are sisters.

George Sell has opened an ice station just west of the Lawrence Askew shoe and harness shop, which business is in charge of his son.

Miss Doris Staley, of Norfolk, a friend of the Misses Vera and Reba Stock, has been a guest of these two young ladies during the past week.

Arnold Schliefert, who resides week and was meeting his many Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week and was meeting with his many friends here.

W. P. Sitzman was looking after business in Plattsmouth Wednesday of last week, securing a number of ads for insertion in the Cass county fair book, now being published.

Chris Rasmussen has been very busy of late with the measuring of lands of those making application for acreage reduction under the government's new soil conservation program.

Guy Buchanan and family, of near Nehawka, were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gibson, and also visited for a time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Askew.

Joseph Vickers, of near Alvo, was looking after business matters in Weeping Water Tuesday, and also called on his friend, Bert Fisher, who recently came here to engage in business.

William Patterson, of near Murray, was looking after business matters in Weeping Water one day this week and enjoyed meeting a number of old friends here. He also visited friends in Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lytle, their daughter, Mrs. Sarah Leiner and two sons, Max and Martin, and A. Howard, all of Lincoln, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wiles on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Stuart Rough, of Nehawka, was a visitor in Weeping Water last Sunday, being a guest of his sister, Miss Agnes Rough. Mr. Rough has just returned from a visit in Iowa and Illinois, where he has been spending some time at the homes of two of his daughters.

Verne Amick, son of Postmaster and Mrs. Sterling Amick, has been visiting for the past week at the home of the Rhoades family near Nehawka. The two families have been friends for a long time and it was with much pleasure that Verne was privileged to spend a week on the Rhoades farm.

John E. Johnson, the blacksmith, who has been kept busy throughout the recent extremely hot weather, is not feeling any too well, but has managed to remain on the job, turning out the work that was brought to him. With the coming of slightly cooler weather this week, he is feeling a little better.

Neat Place of Business

The Pennsylvania Consumers Oil company, successors to the Handy station which was conducted by the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Oil company, have had the station and warehouse repainted, the body color being yellow, with bright red trim. The roofs of both buildings are of the same bright hue of red, making a very attractive place. A change in products has been made under the new ownership, the new line being the DX Diamond goods.

William Van Every continues in charge of the business for the new owners.

Sunday Visitors Here

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wiles was the scene of a pleasant gathering last Sunday when a number of their relatives and friends came to pay them a visit. Those who were present included Herman Meisinger and family, of Mynard; Miss Mildred Young and Lloyd Ranney and family, of this vicinity, who enjoyed a sumptuous dinner. During the afternoon and evening Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stander and daughter and Reuben Grosser and family also called at the Wiles home, where they enjoyed meeting with the many friends who were gathered there.

Underwent Operation

Wanda, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shumacher, who has been troubled with repeated attacks of tonsillitis, and who has also been afflicted with adenoids, was taken to St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha last Monday, where she underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils and adenoids. She came through the ordeal in fine shape and is making a speedy recovery.

Celebrated 32nd Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Christian were united in marriage August 2, 1904 and thus attained their 32nd anniversary last Sunday. In honor of the occasion, their children and families came and surprised them, bringing with them an abundance of good things to eat and also a gift for the parents. Mr. and Mrs. Christian have resided in many places during their 32 years of wedded life, but have made their home in Weeping Water during the past year, and have many friends here who join in congratulations and best wishes for many more happy anniversaries.

SOCIAL CIRCLE CLUB

The July meeting of the Social Circle club was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Snodgrass. Mrs. Lee Paris assisted with the entertaining. This was a social meeting and everyone enjoyed the afternoon despite the heat, especially when delicious sherbet, cake and iced tea were served by the hostesses. The club songs were sung and it being Miss Margaret Moore's birthday, greetings were sung for her by the club.

The next meeting will be held on August 11th.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

From Monday's Daily:

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sedlak of Los Angeles arrived here this morning for a visit for a short time at the home of Mr. Sedlak's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sedlak. They have been east visiting at Detroit with relatives of Mrs. Sedlak and after the stay here will continue on to the west coast. Mr. Sedlak has made his home there for the past two and a half years, this being his first visit home in this time.
