TO AUCTION BUSINESS BUILDING SATURDAY

The double front one story brick business building on South Sixth street, north portion of which is occupied by Hatt's Clover Farm Store and the south room formerly occupied by Gomer, will be sold to the highest bidder at auction Saturday night, Sept. 19th, at 7:30, by the Nebraska Realty Auction Co., of Central City, Nebr.

M. A. Larson, manager of the Auction company, was in Plattsmouth a few days ago placing advertising in the columns of the Journal and having bills printed. He has a contract with the owner of the building to dispose of it regardless of price, the deed being completely filled out except for name of buyer and insertion of purchase price, and the contract invests him with authority to fill in this information and pass deed to the new owner. Merchantable title is guaranteed.

This building is a desirable business property, but like all others owned by out of town parties who cannot be here to look after rentals and upkeep, is not nearly so good an investment as when owned by home parties who can personally supervise the same.

The terms are 20 per cent cash at time of sale and balance within thirty days. "The deed is made—you make the price," says Mr. Larson.
