

AVOCA NEWS

The home of Mrs. Lucy Johnson on upper Main street was advertised to be sold at auction last Saturday.

All are looking forward to the King Korn Carnival in Plattsmouth next week and many from this vicinity plan to attend.

Earl Freeman and family spent the day last Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Freeman northeast of Weeping Water.

Oscar Zimmer and mother and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gother were in Lincoln last Wednesday, driving to the capital city on a business mission and also visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tefft and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tefft were visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Harmon last Sunday, being called here on account of the illness of Mrs. Harmon.

Herman Dankliff of southeast of Weeping Water was looking after business matters in Avoca Wednesday of last week, purchasing a quantity of lumber for some buildings on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Zaiser were visiting friends in Omaha last Sunday, returning home on Monday. Carl was called to Omaha again on Wednesday to look after home business matters.

William Steubendick, of near Unadilla was looking after some business matters in Avoca Wednesday morning of last week, having business to transact at the Avoca lumber yard.

Miss Nita Francis, sister of Mrs. Harry Marquardt, who resides at Beloit, Kansas, arrived in Avoca last week and is enjoying an extended visit at the home of her sister and family.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel and Dick Maseman were guests on last Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of Superintendent L. L. Larson and wife, former residents here, but now located at Syracuse.

The rainfall in Avoca last Tuesday morning fell just a little short of one inch—not quite as much as at some nearby points, but a very welcome amount at that and sufficient to be worth many dollars to the farmers of the community.

The old home of H. M. Lum at Verdon was the scene of a pleasant family gathering last Sunday, two of the members of the family from Portland, Oregon, Roy and Gertrude Lum, brother and sister of our fellow townsman, were present to renew acquaintance with the old-time friends and relatives.

Rev. Garfield of Blue Hill was here last Sunday for a visit and on Sunday evening delivered two discourses at the Congregational church of Avoca, one to the young people and the other the regular Sunday evening sermon. The service was attended by a large number of the people of Avoca and vicinity.

John Ruge, wife and their son and daughter, Morris and Francis, together with John M. Maseman, Louis Ehlers and wife of Avoca, Albert Ehlers and family of Weeping Water and Miss Sophia Steubendick made up a happy party who were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Emshoff last Sunday.

Many of the people of Avoca and vicinity attended the Cass county fair at Weeping Water last week. The opening day was marred by rain, cutting the attendance considerable, but on the other three days, Wednesday to Friday, inclusive, there were large crowds present, and all declare this year's fair was one of the best ever held.

Leo McCann was in Weeping Water last Wednesday to visit his friend, Art Johnson, who is engaged in the moving picture business and resides at Newman Grove, but came down to attend the fair. Art forgot his banjo and asked Leo to bring his to Weeping Water so he could use it, which Leo did, finding that an excellent opportunity to go over and take in the fair.

Home from Wedding Trip. Mr. and Mrs. Art Koester arrived home last week from a two weeks' honeymoon visit with relatives at Oreama, Illinois. Mrs. Koester was formerly Miss Gladys Berner. Art reports that crops over that way are much better than in this part of the country, the corn looking especially fine and with indications of yielding a very fair crop. They had a most enjoyable trip and a pleasant visit with the relatives there.

Has Been Very Ill. Mrs. Mary S. K. Harmon has been very ill at her home in Avoca and has had to have some help in caring for the home. While she is some better at this writing, she is still suffering greatly from her malady. Her many friends are hopeful of her being restored to her former good health in a short time.

Fractures Knee Cap. While engaged in a game of ball Emory Voyles had the misfortune to suffer a fractured knee cap, which required taking him to the hospital for treatment and has been giving much pain. At the hospital it was found necessary to perform a very delicate operation in order to return the fractured parts to place, and now all that remains is the healing effect of time to restore him to his former condition. The injury was a most unusual one, but anything can happen when one engages in strenuous outdoor contests.

Seeing the West. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt and Mrs. L. J. Marquardt have been enjoying a trip through the west during the past couple of weeks. Their course took them down through the Sunflower state of Kansas, with a number of stops en route to visit relatives and friends as well as look after business matters, and thence west into Colorado, where they remained for some time. En route home they came north through Denver and into Wyoming, thence through western and central Nebraska, stopping at Beaver Crossing for a short visit before continuing on home.

They saw much country, some good and some bad, and report a most pleasant time.

ATTEND PARRIOTT FUNERAL. From Saturday's Daily: Among those who attended the funeral services for Frank M. Parriott in Peru this afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tritsch, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Becker, Grover C. Parriott and Marie, Mrs. W. H. Rainey and Winifred.

MANY GOLDEN WEDDING COUPLES TO BE FETED

To date, nearly fifty golden wedding couples residing in Cass county and closely adjacent thereto have been contacted by the Program committee of the King Korn Carnival.

All of these couples are invited to be honored guests at the Carnival on Pioneers' day, next Friday, Sept. 25. They will be given King Korn buttons entitling them to free admission to all activities of the day. No effort will be made to get them together on the platform or otherwise publicize their presence, but special seats along the curb line will be reserved for them, and at 4:30 they will retire in a group to the Methodist church parlors for a rest, an informal program and a complimentary banquet to be served at 5:30 in ample time so those who do not wish to remain for the evening program may return to their homes.

In these days of frequent divorces, it is most refreshing to learn that there are some fifty couples in this vicinity who have passed their golden wedding anniversary and are still living happily together. All honor to them.

HORSES TO BE CARED FOR AT OLD LIVERY BARN. The City of Plattsmouth, owner of the old Manspeaker livery barn building on upper Main street, has given its approval to use of the building by the Farmers' committee of the King Korn Carnival for housing the large number of horses that will be brought to Plattsmouth next Thursday for the All-Farm parade and exhibitions. The barn, once a busy and popular place has long been closed, and it is the intent of the city to dispose of it this fall, subject to being torn down and the lot cleaned up. It was obtained in foreclosure suit of City of Plattsmouth vs. John E. Lazzard, et al.

Arrangements will be made to have water turned on in the building and a supply of feed arranged for, so the horses that come to our King Korn Carnival, like the human beings, need not go hungry or dry.

ARTISTS EXHIBIT

As an added attraction of the King Korn Carnival—an exhibition of Cass County Artists' work will be held in the building formerly occupied by the Gerner Electric Co. on South Sixth street.

This exhibition will include oil, watercolor, pastel, pen and ink drawings, posters, photographs and enlargements, plain or tinted, hand-made ship and airplane models, wood inlay, paintings on velvets for cushions or hangings, hand-made laces and hand painted china.

In addition a collection of articles of artistic interest belonging to residents of Cass county will be displayed.

Anyone wishing to enter work in any of these divisions please notify Marie Kaufmann or Anne Peoples.

FOSTER MAY

You have no doubt tuned in often to the Man on the Street and perhaps you have wondered what that sprightly man looks like who gets so much out of this 15 minutes on the air. Well, you can see as well as hear him right here on Main street in Plattsmouth next Wednesday, September 23rd, at 12:45 p. m. If you are in the crowd, you may be "The Man on the Street" he will interview. At any rate it will be fun to see him operate.

Write your friends to be sure and tune in on this WOW broadcast next Wednesday, September 23, at 12:45 p. m. What occurs here on the streets of Plattsmouth that day will go out on the air to a listening audience of approximately 300,000 people living in seven different states.

IMPROVING HOMES

The block on the south side of Main street from Eighth to Ninth street is leading the way in the residential section in the fall improvement program that is adding very much to the appearance of that section of the city.

The residence of Dr. R. P. Westover is having a very large and attractive porch added to the building which will not only enhance the appearance of the home but also be a place of delight to the family.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Soennichsen and that of Mrs. J. M. Roberts, two of the pleasant homes of the city, are also being redecorated and painted and make a very fine appearance.

ATTEND QUILT SHOW

From Friday's Daily: Mrs. Edward G. Ofe and Mrs. Henry Ofe, Sr., were visitors in Omaha today for a few hours, enjoying the quilt show that is being given in that city this week. The ladies are great admirers of this line of needlework and found a large array of handsome and attractive designs in the home made quilts.

Relics Display to be Feature at Karnival

Committee Asks for Contributions of Historical Keepsakes—Dr. G. H. Gilmore is Chairman.

Historical relics will be on display at the King Korn Carnival. The building formerly occupied by the Farmer's State bank is to be used for the exhibit. Dr. G. H. Gilmore is acting as chairman of the committee in charge.

A request is made that all persons having antique pieces of furniture, dishes, documents, clothing, or any other article of historical interest, bring them for display. Since there was no exhibit of antiques at the county fair this year, the Carnival is especially anxious to have a large number of such pieces.

Articles will be received and checked at the display building any time before Wednesday noon. A short history of the articles is also desired where possible.

JUNIOR DRUM CORPS TO BE GAILY DECKED

The Junior drum corps will make its first appearance in the gay new uniforms that are now on the way, on the opening afternoon of the King Korn Carnival next Wednesday, Sept. 23rd. In addition to the new uniforms, the organization will be equipped with newly painted drums and new bugles, making a most striking appearance as they lead the children's parade at 4:30.

The expenditure for new equipment, amounting to nearly $100 is being met by a contribution from the American Legion, sponsoring organization, which provided the entire initial equipment for the corps when it was first organized. This money comes from profits realized on the Community Building club.

The uniforms are being bought with funds provided by various civic organizations, including the King Korn Klub.

Director C. A. Marshall and numerous Legion members have put in a lot of time and hard work cleaning up the drums, replacing damaged heads and getting them painted for the initial appearance of the newly equipped corps. In the painting, they have been assisted by several non-Legionnaires.

The Legion will also undertake construction of wardrobe cases that may be set into a truck and taken on trips, or stored in the building, securely locked and of dust-proof construction, and no member will be permitted to take any part of the uniform home.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE CONTEST

Is there a Shirley Temple in your home? If so, she may win the first prize in the Shirley Temple contest to be held during the Kass County King Korn Carnival, September 23 to 26. A first prize of a beautiful doll will be given to the little girl between 4 and 8 years of age whom the judges decide looks nearest like the little actress. A second and third prize will be given.

If you care to enter your little girl, send her name, age and address to E. H. Schulhof, chairman, Plattsmouth, Nebr., or telephone 159. He will advise you the exact time and place of the contest.

This will be a real Beauty Show. Don't miss it!

QUILT SHOW

In connection with the King Korn Carnival there will be a quilt show—open to the world. This exhibit will be held in the room north of lobby Plattsmouth Hotel, North 6th street and will be in charge of Miss Mathilda Soennichsen and Mrs. John Wolff. These quilts will be insured and carefully handled. Bring them to Miss Soennichsen at the Soennichsen store any time before Tuesday noon, Sept. 22, so that they may be properly listed and hung. There will be four classes. 1. Quilts made by children under 16. 2. General open pieced quilts. 3. General open embroidered and appliqued quilts. 4. Antique and unique quilts. Prizes will be given.
