SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

On September 13, 1866, there was born to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shrader, a son, who was named Robert and who has spent the years of his lifetime in Cass county. On his seventeenth birthday anniversary, September 13th, he was given a very pleasant surprise on the occasion of the anniversary. Mr. Shrader is making his home with his son, Mont Shrader and family near Nehawka. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe, the latter a sister of Mr. Shrader, decided that it would be a very pleasant event to stage a surprise on the brother and accordingly a fine dinner was prepared with a large angel food birthday cake as a part of the dainties. They arrived at the Shrader home and found that not only was the brother having a birthday, but that two of the Mont Shrader children also had their anniversaries in September. The children joined in helping dispose of the birthday cake and with all of the fine dinner prepared by Mrs. Mont Shrader and Mrs. Wolfe, made it a real feast. At the close all departed for their homes wishing the guests of honor many more such happy returns.

Review: "The Spread of Christianity in Asia"

This is a rehearsing and recounting of the stirring scenes and events of the first 25 years of the greatest world movement ever inaugurated and should be very profitable to the disciple of Christ. It should be very beneficial to everyone to live over the first 15 chapters of the Acts and follow the men who made history.

In chapter I, the Lord Jesus laid the basis for world evangelism when he said: "Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem, Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth." Chapter II showed what the power of the Holy Ghost accomplished. The result of Pentecost was encouraging for the church to expand and reach out. God was in the movement and he never fails in his purpose. Chapter III teaches the importance of deeds of power on a cripple, they to be the credentials of their Apostleship and to build up the faith of many. Herein lay the value of the healing of the cripple.

Chapter IV. The best argument for salvation is a saved man. "Beholding the man who was healed . . . they could say nothing against it." Peter in defense of the healing says: "We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." That is real witnessing, and it pleased God, see verses 29-31. God bore witness to their loyalty and devotion to his cause.

Chapter V. In the plan of God for spreading of the Gospel, the most potent factor is a witnessing church. And the disciples believed it. "We ought to obey God rather than men," to stand up against the powerful Sanhedrin like that took courage and grace; it produced a champion for the cause which the Apostles represented—Gamaliel.

Chapter VI. The appointments of deacons (seven) in the church at Jerusalem was a recognition of the sense of responsibility to the suffering and needy. This has increased until the whole world is now sown over with charitable institutions. Christianity must be credited with that work. That is some achievement—Praise His name!

Chapter VII. Stephen's death started the expansion of the church, for it scattered the followers of Christ, who went forth their hearts burning with a holy enthusiasm and love, to bring the good news to all the world. So does God use seeming disaster to his glory. That is where the devil made his greatest mistake. Paul is Stephen multiplied a hundred times.

Chapter VIII. The way God multiplies personality is shown by Philip, who started a great revival in Samaria, which might have been passed by by their long standing enemies; and then brought the Ethiopian into the kingdom, so carrying the "light" into the "dark" continent.

Chapter IX. What a commission to the one who had been the nemesis of all devout followers of Christ! "He is a chosen vessel to me, to bear my name before Gentiles and Kings and the children of Israel; for I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake."

Chapter X. Peter had to be convinced that the Gentiles had a right to salvation, or the cause of Christ could not be universal. It was a hard lesson for Peter to learn; but Peter as the key-man who should open the door to Jew and Gentile, fulfills his mission, Jerusalem, Pentecost, Casaria—the Gentile Pentecost—he leaves the stage and is only Peter the "servant and Apostle of Jesus Christ" no more.

Chapter XI. Antioch in Syria becoming the first great missionary center. Especially known for three things: (a) Barnabas' preaching; (b) the entrance of Saul of Tarsus into definite ministry; (c) the use of the term "Christians" for believers. First foreign mission founded, Barnabas and Saul as first workers.

Chapter XII. God interferes in the plans of a vicious, persecuting king, and the sparing of Peter for further usefulness in the spread of the gospel. See the prayer meeting for Peter and the result.

Chapter XIII. Follow the first missionary journey of Barnabas and Saul: Cyprus, Antioch, Pisidia, Iconium, Lystra, Derby. Establishing successful Christian churches; the opposition encountered, pointed preaching and miraculous power.

Chapter XIV. How the gospel was received; a "great multitude believed" and God "granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands." Then trouble began. Paul being stoned, his first experience in suffering for Christ. (Did he remember Stephen?) The Judaizers caused so much trouble about Gentiles, who they believed must first be circumcised before becoming Christians, resulting in—

Chapter XV. The first general conference being called at Jerusalem and certain definite rules laid down for the reception of the Gentiles into the church.

By this time the gospel had reached many nations. So the angels pronounced the "good tidings . . . shall be to all people" was being fulfilled.

Question: Do you consider the growth of the church rapid or slow? How would it have appeared to the early Christians?

Jane Palmer is Bride of Earl Canady

Daughter of Ethel Dovey Palmer Married Saturday Evening in Des Moines, Iowa.

Miss Jane Margaret Palmer, daughter of Ethel Dovey Palmer, formerly of Plattsmouth, was married to Earl L. Canady, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Canady of Ames at 8 p. m. Saturday at the St. Paul's Episcopal church in Des Moines.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, R. F. Patterson of Plattsmouth, wore an ivory satin dress with a short train and a Belgian lace veil and carried white roses. Her gown was trimmed with ivory satin pleating.

Mrs. Canady's sister, Miss Betty Ann Palmer, was maid of honor and wore a peach taffeta frock with a short jacket. Misses Louise Hoover of Des Moines and Mary Louise Falter of Falls City, Nebr., bridesmaids, wore green and yellow taffeta dresses with short capes. The three young women all wore Dutch bonnets of taffeta and carried bouquets of roses.

Cecil M. Canady of Boone attended his brother as best man and ushers were John Coolidge of Des Moines and Malcolm Allen of Ames.

Mr. Canady and his bride, who are now on a short wedding trip, will live in Ames.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Patterson of Plattsmouth, Mrs. John W. Falter of Falls City, Mrs. George H. Falter and daughter, Suzanne of Atchison, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Don Groves of Humboldt, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hoken of Story City, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Canady of Boone, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pritchard of Alden, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. George Akin, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lindstrom, and Robert Allen and family, all of Ames, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Rea Patterson left Plattsmouth last Wednesday for Falls City where they joined the Mesdames Falter and drove to Des Moines Friday for the wedding. They returned to Plattsmouth yesterday afternoon.

Miss Palmer is the granddaughter of the late George E. Dovey, a pioneer Plattsmouth resident, and the eldest daughter of Ethel.

OLD TIME BALL PLAYER

Monday afternoon one of the old time Plattsmouth baseball players, who some forty-three years ago was a real shot in Nebraska sporting circles, paid a visit to the old friends here. This was Al Perrine, who with his wife is en route from their home at Colorado Springs, to New York City, where they will attend the world series between the Yankees and the Giants.

Perrine was a player with the Plattsmouth team in the early nineties and at the time that Tom Patterson was also a player and the local team was one of the best in the eastern part of Nebraska and a member of the state league, including among other teams that of the Originals of Omaha.

Mr. Perrine spent a short time here and was able to meet a few of the baseball players and fans of his day, including Mr. Patterson, Henry Goos and E. H. Schulhof, who were associates of the days gone by.

GETTING ALONG NICELY

Robert Reed drove to Lincoln Sunday morning, accompanied by several other Plattsmouth Legionnaires, to visit Fred Lugsch and Ed Bashus, both of whom are patients at the Veterans' hospital. They found Mr. Lugsch getting along nicely from his operation of a few days before. Mr. Bashus is recuperating slowly from his operation of several weeks ago for the removal of splintered bone from the knee cap and is still required to walk with the aid of a cane.

Mrs. Lugsch and a number of friends, including Mrs. Bashus, drove up during the afternoon for a visit with their respective husbands.

Fred is looking fine and enjoying a splendid rest, being entirely out of pain from his operation.

RECOVERING FROM OPERATION

Mrs. Louis Kostka, who is at the University hospital at Omaha, is reported as doing as well as possible following her operation the past week. Mrs. Kostka was operated on for gall bladder trouble and came through the operation in very good condition. The many friends are hopeful that she may soon be able to return home and able to resume her usual activities.

Held for Killing Husband When He Talked in Sleep

Mrs. Georgia Haugaard. Infidelities she claimed her husband admitted while talking in his sleep were said by police to have caused Mrs. Georgia Haugaard of Los Angeles to empty the contents of a revolver into his body.

SOCIAL

From Monday's Daily

Birthday Dinners

Birthday dinners take the high light in social events for the weekend. Seventeen guests gathered at the home of Miss Lena Henrich Saturday evening to celebrate her birthday. A two-course dinner was served at 5 o'clock. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the table. A birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger, sister to Miss Henrich, formed the centerpiece.

Mrs. Guy White was guest of honor at a six o'clock birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger last evening. Green tapers at each end of the table and tiny green birthday candles at each plate, furnished the light during the two-course dinner. A birthday cake, decorated in green and white, was the centerpiece. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Young, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wheeler, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy White.

From Tuesday's Daily:

CALLED ON SAD MISSION

Charles Lutes was called to Merna, Nebraska, on Friday and Saturday the message was received here that the mother of Mr. Lutes, who has been ill for some time, had passed away. Mrs. Lutes left at once for Merna to be with the members of the bereaved family and remain over for the funeral services.

Murray

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meade were business visitors in Plattsmouth Friday of last week.

Charles Read and family were looking after some business matters and visiting with friends in Plattsmouth last Saturday night.

Thomas Nelson while in Omaha, secured Mrs. Lillian Kruse as housekeeper, she coming to Murray with him and is working at the Nelson home.

James E. Gruber, administrator of the estate of his mother, Mrs. John Campbell, was over to Plattsmouth last Thursday looking after settlement of the estate.

Mrs. Dora Hanson, who has been the housekeeper for Wm. Sporer and son, Charles, for some time past, has accepted a position in Omaha and returned there Saturday.

Mrs. Earl Terhune, wife of the barber who with their son Gerald were spending some days at Humboldt with her folks, returned home last Sunday after a very pleasant visit.

Miss Virginia Kaffenberger of Plattsmouth and a sister of the operator of the Murray telephone exchange, Lorene Kaffenberger, was a visitor with her sister for the day last Sunday.

A. J. Ross of near Nehawka, was in Murray last Sunday getting peaches from the orchard of Mrs. A. A. Young, which is yielding a good number even, tho the year was very poor in any line.

George E. Nickles the new vice chairman for Cass county of the democratic central committee, who will maintain offices in Plattsmouth was looking after business in both Omaha and Plattsmouth last Monday.

W. S. Smith, who has been rather poorly for some time past, is feeling some better and was able to make some repairs on the roof of his garage which was caused by a recent hail storm, and he is feeling much better than you.

Attended Birthday Picnic.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and son, John, were members of a party of relatives of Union who went to Kansas, the place where Mrs. Jennie Frans was born, where they celebrated on last Sunday the 78th birthday anniversary at that place where Mrs. Jennie Frans was born at Iowa Point, Kansas. Others in the party were D. Ray Frans and family of Union.

Will Arrive This Week.

As announced in the Journal last week that Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Sloan would return to Murray last week and conduct services, as was the intention, some matters developed preventing their return, but they will be here this week and ready for services Sunday. However Rev. Sloan had a man come from Omaha to conduct services last Sunday.

Attended Hunt Family Reunion

Wm. Sporer had a brother, George Sporer, who married a woman by the name of Hunt. Mr. George Sporer has been dead for a number of years, but on last Sunday the Hunt family had a reunion at Antelope park in Lincoln which was attended by 47 of the family. Mr. Wm. Sporer and son, Charles, were over for the celebration. Following the celebration where there were 15 children besides the 47 adults, they had a ball game and selected Wm. Sporer for the umpire. Now when short of an umpire you ball fans will know what to do.

Buys Land in South.

Jack Smock of Plattsmouth, accompanied by Ira Parker, were down to Mountain Home, Ark., where they visited and looked over the country. While there Mr. Smock made the purchase of 160 acres of land and will expect to move to the south to be ready to farm in the spring.

Fractures Arm in Fall.

Grandmother Redden, who is about 74 years of age, while eating her breakfast, sitting on a chair at the table, turned around to reach for the coffee pot on the stove and lost her balance, falling from the chair to the floor and fractured one of her arms, so severely that she was taken to the University hospital for care. However the fracture was reduced by Dr. Tyson and with the exception of the advanced years of the patient, the injury is expected to mend in due time. The many friends of this good woman are very sorry for her misfortune.

Returned From the West.

Everett Spangler and family who have been seeing the west for the past week, returned home last Sunday, they having visited Colorado

Will Advertise Murray.

Frank Bose, a salesman for the lumber firm of Adams and Kelley was in Murray last Monday afternoon and was taking some pictures of some of the houses in Murray, one being the George Nickles home and another the new Presbyterian parsonage, recently constructed by Ralph Kennedy, which will be used in illustrations showing erection of building with materials sold by the Adams and Kelly company, putting Murray on the spot.

Enjoy Jitney Picnic.

The Bible class which is instructed by Mrs. J. H. Farris which consists of young lads of the Presbyterian church gave a very interesting picnic supper in the grove, which they called a Jitney Picnic and which resulted in the boys accumulating a neat sum for the Bible school class.

Hustled for the Seed.

During the recent rain storm much of the alfalfa and sweet clover was damaged and the seed beaten off by the steady downpour. However, to secure what there was left on last Friday Parr Young with two combines and clover huller succeeded in getting some 50 bushels and while on the following day when harvesting of the seed was completed they succeeded in getting 72 bushels of alfalfa seed in all. This was hurrying things along, but as the rain had interfered they had to hustle to get the seed garnered.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our dear friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our dear beloved husband and father. — Mrs. Margaret Carrell, Earnest and Family.

DIES FROM INTERNAL INJURIES

Inquiries into the death of John E. Stradley, Greenwood road worker, was carried on Monday at Lincoln where the body was held at a mortuary. The death of Mr. Stradley was caused in some unexplained manner. Stradley died in a Rushville hospital Saturday, and physicians said they believed death was from an internal ailment. No autopsy was performed, however.

An automobile in which Stradley and Alex Johnson were riding became stuck on a sandy road 10 miles east of Gordon Thursday night, and Johnson went to obtain aid. Upon his return, his companion complained of pains in his abdomen. Stradley was taken to Gordon. He bore no marks of violence.

At Gordon, D. L. G. Gant, the attending physician, said Stradley's lungs were affected, "indicating he was exposed and he seemed to have internal injuries."
