Wabash News

L. R. Stanley made a trip to Lincoln Saturday, bringing back a truck load of groceries for the store here.

W. F. Langhorst was a visitor in Elmwood last Sunday, where he was a guest at the home of his brother, L. F. Langhorst and family.

Henry Crozier of Weeping Water was a visitor in Wabash last Tuesday, having business matters to look after here, and was also visiting his friend, Sherman Hardaway.

William Cappen, of Port Arthur, accompanied by the family, were visiting here for some time at the home of Clifford Browne, but returned to their home in the south last week.

John West, Guy Hinds and John Cardwell have accepted work with the Missouri Pacific at Weeping Water and are employed there. Being so near, they are able to drive back and forth each day, and thus live at home.

The Ladies Aid of the Wabash church met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Weyers, where they were doing some work for the church and also planning the program of work for the society during the coming winter.

Mrs. H. H. Gerbeling, who has been visiting in Lincoln for some time at the home of her daughter, returned home last Saturday and was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McCoy, who spent a few days here at the Gerbeling home.

Miss Edith Abel, who has been in China as a missionary, arrived in Lincoln last Tuesday evening, calling her friend Miss Myrtle Wood, who drove over to the capital city after her. Miss Abel, as related in last week's Journal, is a former Elmwood resident and an old school chum of Miss Wood.

Departed for Oregon
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Richards departed last Wednesday for a place near Portland, Oregon, where they expect to make their home in the future. They went to Weeping Water in the morning for a brief visit with the parents of Mrs. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Moore and family, and from there proceeded on their way westward. They are making the trip in their trusty coupe and expect to reach their destination within a week.

Hauling Gravel for County

John Wood and M. V. Wood, who have been busy for some time getting their trucks in shape, have finished the job, and are now out with the trucks hauling and distributing gravel for the county, graveling some newly graded roads near the Callahan church southwest of Murdock.

Much Wheat to be Sown

Ralph Dorr is busy sowing his 1937 wheat crop, putting in a total of 130 acres, more than twice as much as he had the past year. Over near Murdock, Paul Stock is sowing 110 acres, while James Mills is sowing 85 acres, all greatly increased acreage over the present year. Since wheat yielded such a handsome profit this year and the corn has proven a failure, it is but to be expected that many farmers will turn to wheat as their major crop next year. However, it is possible to overdo the matter and get excessive acreage if all follow this inclination with resorting to their better judgment. With a doubled or trebled acreage, surplus wheat would again flood the market, and the price be greatly reduced, according to the age-old law of supply and demand. It is never well to rush from one extreme to the other. Some are planting wheat with the idea in view that if the stand is poor next spring, they will re-plant the land and plant it to corn.

NOTICE, SALE OF REAL ESTATE

The undersigned, Administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Wittboett, of Murdock, Nebr., offers her property located in Block 2 of said village for sale. Anyone interested in said property may see me at any time prior to October 6, 1936. AUGUST RUGE, Administrator.

MURDOCK ITEMS

August Ruge has had a number of his teeth extracted and expects soon to be fitted out with a new set.

Mrs. Herman R. Schmidt was visiting for a number of days last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gus Straich, who lives west of town.

Otto Miller has had a large trench silo dug at his place in the east edge of town, which he is filling with ensilage to provide feed for his stock the coming winter.

L. Neitzel has been having his home property painted and otherwise brightened up, in anticipation of the bad weather season ahead. The work is being done by Chester Elseman.

Miss Pearl E. Staats, an instructor in the Platts mouth public schools, accompanied by her father, George K. Staats, were guests at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Will Zabel, here, last Tuesday.

Ed Morrison, who formerly lived in Murdock, came over from South Bend, where he is located in the employ of the Rock Island, to look after business matters last Wednesday.

C. H. Gipson, receiver for the defunct Bank of Murdock, was in town last Wednesday, having business matters to look after here in connection of the closing up of the affairs of this bank.

An eight and a half pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Kupke last Wednesday morning, bringing much joy to the nappy parents. Mother and daughter are getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gustin entertained a group of relatives last Sunday, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hoover and Albert Theil, Sr. Mrs. Hoover is a sister and Mr. Theil the father of Mrs. Gustin.

Mrs. Eddie Craig is assisting with the care of her mother, Mrs. E. D. Friend, at the latter's home north of Alvo. Mrs. Friend has been in poor health for more than a year and her condition is quite critical at present.

Louis F. Newman, who resides east of Murdock, has been very sick with a severe attack of intestinal flu, but after a number of days wrestling with the malady, is able to be up and about again, although not feeling any too well at this time.

Mrs. Elmer Corbin, of Avoca, the mother of Mrs. Frank Dean, returned home last week from St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City, where she had been a patient for some time. Friends here who know Mrs. Corbin will be pleased to learn of his improvement.

Mrs. C. A. Besack, of Omaha, was a visitor in Murdock during the past week, being a guest of her sisters, Mrs. Henry A. Tool and Mrs. Hannah McDonald. On last Wednesday, Lacey McDonald took the three sisters to the Platte river for an afternoon fishing party.

Joe Johnson, the cafe man, was at the county fair in Weeping Water, where he conducted a lunch stand, doing a very good business. Joe reasoned that since everybody and his brother was at the fair, he might as well go along to feed them, and did so, finding a lot of hungry mouths to supply food for.

An indication of the trend of the farmers to greatly increase their wheat acreage this year is shown in the fact that Paul Stock is putting in 110 acres and James Mills is sowing 85 acres. It will be all right if everybody doesn't jump in and overdo the thing, in which case a superabundance would serve to lower the price to basic levels below the cost of production. One year the farmers find themselves short of grain to sell and a high price quoted, while perhaps the very next year the situation is exactly reversed.

Engaged in Religious Work

The three Evangelical churches of this section of the county, are conducting a series of evangelistic meetings, beginning at the Callahan church southwest of Murdock and to continue two successive weeks. Sermons are delivered alternately by different ministers, Rev. F. C. Weber of Callahan, Rev. C. Jannan of Elmwood and Rev. Harvey A. Schwab of Murdock. A good deal of interest is being shown in the opening week of the campaign and much good is anticipated.

Had Very Fine Display

The entire front window of the Murdock Mercantile company store was filled with Quaker Oats last week as a part of the Quaker advertising drive started in the Journal. An ad was also carried by this enterprising firm in support of the Quaker ad and dealer listings. The Quaker company is giving away Dick Darling's 62-page "Trick Book" free with one large or two small trademarks (Quaker men) from their oats packages. Demand for these books is very brisk at the Journal office, where they are being given away on presentation of the trademarks.

Wm. Zabel also had a display of the Quaker Oats in his store, but, lacking room, could not make it so extensive, although it was truly representative of the product just the same.

Henry A. Tool and wife were at Platts mouth Thursday evening, attending the Korn Karnival.

If you have something to sell, the advertising columns of the Journal are the proper place to tell the world about it.

Art Bornemeier of Lincoln was a guest last Friday and Friday night of his friends, the three Schleuter brothers.

Joe Johnson, the cafe man, was attending the Korn Karnival at Platts mouth last week, having business to transact there.

George Miller, wife and daughter were in Platts mouth last Thursday, where they enjoyed the King Korn Karnival and the farmers' parade, which was especially fine. They report large crowds and everyone enjoying themselves.

The Schleuter Brothers, living west of town, at the time G. V. Pickwell disposed of his farming equipment, purchased an old and trusted mare named Bessie, 28 years old, which they have since kept, giving the faithful horse a pleasant and easy old age. Last week the animal died and was taken to Omaha by the dead animal man.

The Quaker company has contracted for 26 weeks of advertising in the Semi-Weekly Journal and last week's two page ad with supplemental tie-in ads was the opening gun in their campaign. Dealers who co-operated with tie-in ads of their own, report a greatly increased volume of sales as a result.

Home from Hospital

Alvin Bornemeier, who was injured recently when thrown from a wagon and run over, has been able to return home from the hospital and is making daily progress towards recovery. This will be pleasing news to his many friends.

Entertained Bible School Class

Mrs. Frank Rosenow, who teaches a class of some seven girls at the Murdock Sunday school, entertained them at a weiner roast at the home of Postmaster and Mrs. L. B. Goerly last Tuesday evening. A fine time was had and the youngsters are very grateful to their teacher for arranging this pleasant event for them.

L. Neitzel Confined to Home

L. Neitzel has been suffering from a recurrence of the attacks to which he has been subject at several times during the past year or two, suffering from chills and much pain, so bad in fact that he is unable to endure it without being given something to deaden the pain. Heretofore the attacks have been of short duration, but this time one followed another over a period of several days leaving the patient weakened. It is thought the trouble is over now for a time, but his recovery will be slower than heretofore. His daughter, Mrs. Clara Hartung, is caring for the father. During the illness of Mr. Neitzel, Charles Kupke is looking after business at the store.

Wind Up Soft Ball Season

Last week witnessed the windup of the soft ball season in Murdock. The result of the final games were Bible School 13 to South Bend 9; Ithica 9 to Murdock Fire Department 4.

The season was divided, Callahan being winner of the first half and the Murdock Bible School winner of the second half. Arrangements will be made for the play-off between these two half-season winners in the near future in order to determine which one is the champion. This will comprise a series of games that should attract large crowds and wind up the year in regal manner.

Murdock has furnished more interest in soft ball than any town of its size in the state, and the lighted field has been packed with spectators most of the nights when games were played there, proving a fine recreational feature throughout the entire summer season. After the play-off games, the lights will be turned off until next spring, when renewed interest is expected.

Seriously Injured in East

G. V. Pickwell, who has been at Dayton, Ohio, where his son is engaged in business, was severely injured in an auto accident last week, according to word received here.

In a company with five other men, Mr. Pickwell was going to a picnic last week, when a gravel truck ran through a red light at an intersection, striking the car in which the picnic party was riding. Four of the men in the party, including Mr. Pick-well, were so badly injured they had to be rushed to a hospital.

Mr. Pickwell's injuries are very serious, including a broken pelvic bone, crushed chest and three ribs broken, together with a severe cut in the back of his head.
