Snider-Spangler Nuptial Service Held in Omaha

Young Couple to Make Home in Plattsmouth After Honeymoon Trip to California.

The marriage of Miss Mary Alice Snider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Snider of Omaha, to Jean Spangler, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Spangler of Plattsmouth, took place at 2 p. m. Saturday at the home of the bride's parents. Dr. Laurence Plank performed the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives. Palms, baskets of white gladioli, asters and roses on pedestals, provided a background for the service. Harry Disbrow furnished nuptial music.

The bride's dress was a Lavinne model of ivory moire, made floor length, with a jacket type basque and puffed sleeves. The neckline was caught with clips. Her tulle veil was fingertip length, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and pompons.

Attendants at Wedding.

Mrs. Lynn Harris of Omaha as matron of honor and Miss Desta Ann Ward of Madison, bridesmaid, wore Le Long models of moire made basque style, with a corsage of petunias at the neckline. The former was of romance blue and the latter of the new toast shade. Both carried Johanna Hill roses tied with matching tulle ribbon. Richard Spangler served his brother as best man.

An open reception was held following the wedding, for about 150 guests. The table had a centerpiece of white flowers and four tall white tapers. Among those assisting with the serving were Miss Marylu Petersen and Mrs. Winston Strain, both of Lincoln.

After a trip to California, the couple will reside in Plattsmouth. Mr. Spangler has the position as supervisor of the resettlement administration in Cass, Otoe, and Nemaha counties. The couple will live in the Coronado apartments.

The bride is traveling in a costume suit of rust wool, having black fur pockets, with which she wears black accessories. Both Mr. and Mrs. Spangler are graduates of the University of Nebraska, where she is a member of Alpha Phi sorority, and he belongs to Kappa Sigma fraternity. Among the Lincoln guests were Misses Virginia Kenner, Margaret Smith, Elaine Shonka and Eva Jane Sinclair. Those who attended the wedding from Plattsmouth were: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Spangler, Mr. C. L. Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiles, Mrs. S. A. Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wiles, Miss Elizabeth Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. AIDS IN CARNIVAL

One of the always outstanding features of the King Korn Carnivals of the past five years, has been that of the handling of the announcing of the various programs. R. Foster Peterson, then principal of the high school, was induced in 1932 to take up this job and which with his usual ability and skill he put over in a truly wonderful way. While he is now a resident of Tarkio, Missouri, teaching in the college at that place, he very generously accepted the invitation to again assist this year. The acceptance made necessary his driving back and forth during the teaching week, holding his classes in the morning and being here in the afternoon and evening and his sacrifice of this time certainly is appreciated by the residents of this section and particularly those interested in the success of the King Korn Carnival.

Nice representations came from other Methodist groups. Louisville had 19 representatives at the meeting; Nebraska City, 14; Omaha, 5; and Gretna, 4. The committee in charge of the rally was composed of: Harold Stewart, Mamie Schwenneker, Mary K. Wiles, Viva Palmer, Kathryn Armstrong.

Korn Karnival Draws to Close Amidst Rainfall

Final Day of Colorful Four Day Event Is Disappointment, But Two Schools Stage Parade.

Saturday, the final day of the King Korn Carnival, was one that dampened the chances of making the day one of glorious climax of the very successful celebration and the steady rainfall caused the abandonment of all of the platform program and the midway attractions remained closed in the steady downpour of the entire day.

The day was to have been featured by the rural school parade and with the rainfall that started early Saturday morning, this feature was thought to have been abandoned.

The King Korn committee were agreeably surprised in the afternoon when two of the schools of the county arrived here with their floats, that of district No. 64 of near Alvo of which Miss Bernice Knabe is the teacher and that of district No. 15 of near Nehawka, of which Miss Velma Fulton is the teacher. The floats and the children and teacher were given much commendation for their fine spirit that was not daunted by the rainfall.

The floats that appeared for the parade were awarded cash prizes and the teachers congratulations on the fine showing that they had made. The judges were Mrs. E. H. Scott, Freeman McFarland and Miss Anna Peoples.

Miss Knabe has only two boys in her school. In order to bring the float she drove from Lincoln to Alvo then by way of Omaha to Plattsmouth. Miss Fulton, brought her group 22 miles. The floats were decorated after they arrived. Since the two rated so closely, equal prizes were given to each.

Despite the fact that the weather caused the postponement of the last day's attractions, it is estimated that there were some 14,000 present, the greatest attendance being for the opening evening ceremonies on Wednesday.

This year the golden wedding guests made one of the outstanding features to the carnival.

It is thought that she suffered a severe concussion and not a fracture of the skull.

Robbery Case Proves One of 3 Card Monte

James Eden, Claimed to Have Been Robbed by Two Negroes, Asks Dismissal of Case.

This morning in the county court a dismissal was filed in the case of the State of Nebraska vs. James McDonald and Charles Wells, in which the two colored men had been charged with robbery.

The robbery had been reported to the authorities by Eden, who claimed that he had been stuck up and robbed of some $35 at the Toman station south of this city, by the two men, who were later apprehended while passing through Auburn. They had later been identified by Eden as the two men that he claimed had taken his money.

This morning in the dismissal, the request for which was made by Eden, he stated that the men had not robbed him, but that he had lost the money in a card game, familiarly known as three card monte.

The defendant Wells gave a demonstration of the game in court and proved that he was a real card shark and that he easily could get the money on the bets of the suckers that he backed his game.

The demonstration was watched with interest by the spectators and who acquired new knowledge of the game.

Weeping Water Queen Esthers Hold Reunion

16 Members of Original Methodist Organization Gather for Second Annual Assembly.

From Monday's Daily
Members of the Queen Esther circle of the Methodist church, organized about thirty years ago, gathered in the basement of the Weeping Water church for their second annual reunion yesterday. 16 members with their husbands were present to talk over good times. After a picnic dinner the women recalled bake sales, bazaars, and candy sales held to help the fund which brought the first pipe organ to Weeping Water; garret room picnics; taffy pulls, and outings.

The group's first sponsor was Mrs. E. T. Rickard. As there was no Y. W. C. A. the group of active girls were very anxious to participate in such an organization. Membership averaged about 25. Gradually the group married and moved from Weeping Water. Last summer the first reunion was held in Omaha. This year the girls went back to their own church.

Those who came from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Van Avery of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wallen and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfe of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baier of Avoca, and Miss Laura McDonald of Milford.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. William A. Robertson observed very quietly and informally at their charming home on North Sixth street, the passing of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

During the day a group of the close friends who had learned of the happy anniversary dropped in during the late afternoon and evening to join in their congratulations and well wishes to the bride and groom of a quarter century.

The members of the family with Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Van Anda and daughter, Frances, of Fremont, enjoyed the noonday meal at the home. Mrs. Van Anda was the maid of honor at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson.

The bride and groom of twenty-five years ago were presented with a large bouquet of white roses in remembrance of the event, by a group of the friends and which added its beautiful touch to the home.

Miss Helen Gray and William A. Robertson, classmates at the University of Nebraska, were married on September 27, 1911, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones, at Sioux Falls, S. D. the latter a sister of the bride, the marriage lines being read by Bishop Miller of the Episcopal church.

A striking note of the anniversary was that the bride appeared in her wedding costume of a quarter century ago, carrying the white prayer book that had been carried in the wedding service.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson also had preserved through the years a section of both the bride's and groom's cake that was served at the wedding luncheon at the Jones home, the cakes being well preserved but dried by the passing years.
