

UNION ITEMS.

Harry McVey has rented a farm of 120 acres four miles north of Union where he will move on March 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Donald and Ivan Hoback were in Nebraska City last Saturday looking after some business.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Colbert and daughter, Agatha and two granddaughters, all from Weeping Water were calling on Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor last Sunday afternoon.

Alvin Morris while practicing with the six man football team of the Union high school sprained one of his knees which has caused him to be very tender with the member.

Edward Jochin and wife were over to Ashland last Thursday looking after some business and visiting with friends and attending the "Stir-Up," an event held there each year.

Joseph A. Bauer who is at this time working on the remodeling of the Stites elevator, accompanied by the wife, were over to Falls City last Sunday looking after some business matters.

Noah Parker has opened an amusement parlor in the Modern Woodman of America building and was over to Plattsmouth last Saturday to look after some business matters regarding the opening of the place.

Deputy Sheriff Cass Sylvester was looking after some business in Union and Nehawka last Monday, collecting some slot machines and also was looking for some men who had attempted a robbery in Eagle last Sunday night.

Mrs. Elizabeth Crawford who has been making her home in Union, departed for the west last Monday morning where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. B. N. Lowell for the winter and will enjoy the warmer climate.

Miss Mayme O'Donnell and sisters, Mrs. Hannah Strawn and Mrs. Genevieve Coin and son Richard, all of Omaha, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach where all enjoyed a very fine visit and an excellent dinner.

C. E. Morris was down to Nebraska City last Saturday and had Dr. Achenbach extract twenty-five teeth and all of them. While the ordeal was severe Mr. Morris returned home and sowed grass seed on the lawn at the home and it waiting for it to grow.

The C. E. Morris family were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Silas Morris in Louisville and while they were enjoying the visit very much they stayed a little too long and were drenched by the rain as they returned home in the evening.

Alex Miller of Elmwood and a former member of the Baptist church of Wabash was a caller on Mr. and

GENERAL ELECTION PROCLAMATION 1936

Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the 3rd day of November, 1936, at the usual voting places in the precincts throughout Cass County, Nebraska, an election will be held for the election of the following officers, to-wit:

- One President
- One Vice President
- One United States Senator
- One United States Representative, First District
- One Governor
- One Lieutenant Governor
- One Secretary of State
- One Auditor of Public Accounts
- One Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings
- One State Treasurer
- One Attorney General
- One Railway Commissioner
- One State Representative, Third District
- One Judge of the Supreme Court, First District
- One Judge of the District Court, Second District
- One Regent of the State University, First District
- One Candidate for member of The Board of Directors of the Eastern Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District
- One Candidate for member of The Board of Directors of the Eastern Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District (To Fill Vacancy)
- One County Judge
- One County Attorney (For Unexpired Term)
- One County Commissioner, First District
- Also Precinct Assessors, Precinct Road Overseers and Justices of the Peace in the several precincts of the county as provided by law.

The polls at said election will open at 8:00 o'clock in the morning and close at 8:00 o'clock in the evening of the said same day.

In witness whereof, I have set my hand and affixed the Seal of Cass County at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 5th day of October, 1936.

GEO. R. SAYLES,
County Clerk of Cass County,
Nebraska.

(Seal)

Administrator Sale

On Tuesday, October 13, at 3 p. m., I will offer for sale at Public Auction on the Latta lawn just north of the Murray State Bank the following household goods of the late Charles A. McReynolds:

One Monarch range; one Round Oak heater; one kitchen cabinet; one dresser; one commode; one stand table; one 9x12 rug; four kitchen chairs; one rocker; one bed, mattress and pillows; some dishes, cooking utensils and some tools.

O. A. DAVIS,
Administrator.

05-3t sw

Mrs. W. A. Taylor last Saturday, Rev. Taylor ministered to the Wabash church when Mr. Miller was an attendant there, Alex is a cousin of the late Harvey Miller.

The Union Woman's club is to meet at the home of Mrs. Nels Madson this coming Friday when a very fine program will be presented. Mrs. R. E. Foster is the leader of the program, Fred Carsten of Avoca was present and addressed the club. The address was received with pleasure by the members.

A. V. Stander has just completed a new concrete tank for a water supply at the home on the farm, the foundation of the one which he has heretofore used, having given away and so Andy thought it best to while he was at it to build a new one, so last Friday was in Omaha for a new steel tank for pressure, coming via Plattsmouth brought the children home who are attending school there.

Visited Here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stites were enjoying a visit last Sunday from Mrs. A. E. Stites and son, James and daughter, Jane, Gardner Pickering and wife, all of Omaha, where all enjoyed a very fine visit for the day and a very fine dinner. Miss Gwen Stites who is attending business college in Omaha was also home, which lent additional pleasure to the visit. Lieut. James Stites who was visiting here was called to go to St. Joseph where he goes as reserve lieutenant to be attached to the regular army at that place, passing through Union last Monday morning.

All Enjoy the Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lidgett received a letter from their son, Henry Lidgett who is in the navy located at Los Angeles, saying that he was greatly pleased with the copy which his mother sent him of the Journal which she sends every week and that after he had read it he takes it down to the battleship West Virginia where Justin Anderson also reads it and they read it together and talk of the old times had in Union.

Moving to Avoca to Live.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Terrell, the latter mother of Mr. George A. Stites, are moving to Avoca where they will make their home in the future. They have been residing on a farm south of Union but have some time since retired from active work.

Will Play Football.

There has been organized a six man football team in the Union high school and they are preparing a court for the playing of the game south of Union.

Funeral Held Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Greene and family were out to Grand Island last Sunday, called to attend the funeral of the late John Greene, 62, father of Charles. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harris of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Harris being daughter of Mr. Greene.

Mr. Greene was born in Ohio and had made his home in Nebraska for the past fifty years. He had been in poor health for the past few years and was in an hospital for a portion of the time. He leaves a wife, one son, C. L. Greene, and a daughter, Mrs. C. E. Harris of Plattsmouth. Mr. Greene and family have the sympathy of his host of friends in Union.

Celebrated Birthdays.

Philip Rihn's birthday anniversary falls on October 5th, Miss Wilma Pickard's on Oct. 5th, with Mr. and Mrs. Rihn's 26th wedding anniversary on October 5th, which was sufficient occasion for assembling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rihn of Mrs. Maudie Bunch and Hazel of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. John Alwin, Miss Wilma Pickard and George Perry of Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Burr Stanley Better.

Good news comes from the hospital at Peru of Mrs. Burr Stanley as holding her own in her struggle to throw off the illness which has held her for so long. While she is considered as being slightly better, no one is allowed in the sick room but the mother, Mrs. James Dysart, the husband and the nurse. The many friends are hoping for her recovery.

SOCIAL

From Monday's Daily

Attends Tea—

Miss Hazel Baier attended a tea yesterday afternoon in Lincoln at the home of Miss Lois Hiatt honoring Miss Muriel Moffitt. Miss Moffitt will be married to Jesse Livingston of Nehawka October 17. Misses Moffitt and Baier taught in the same high school last year.

Pinochle Club—

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rice entertained the pinochle club at their home last evening. A fried chicken dinner was served to twelve. Fall flowers were used in decoration. The storm interrupted the party at an early hour.

Steak Fry—

A group of twenty gathered Saturday evening at the cabin of Roy Holly for a steak fry. Among the party were Dr. and Mrs. Frank Molak, of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hamer, Misses Grace and Mary Finnegan, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Finnegan and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Finnegan, all of Omaha.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Entertain for Visitors—

A number of social events have been planned in honor of Misses Kathleen Darcy of Yankton, S. D., and Helen Egenberger of Long Beach, Calif., during their visit here.

Saturday evening the ladies were honor guests at the home of Miss Genevieve Whelan. A slumber party was given for the members of the W.H.E.L. club. Both girls were formerly members. Twelve attended.

On Sunday, Miss Egenberger and Herman Neitzel of Boise, Idaho, were guests for dinner at the home of Mrs. F. R. Guthmann and daughter, Minnie. Sunday evening Miss Eleanor Hiber took Miss Egenberger, Miss Darcy, and Mrs. Lon Henry to Omaha for a dinner and theater party.

Miss Egenberger was a guest at the Henry Albert home near Cedar Creek last evening at a dinner and attended a tea in Nebraska City this afternoon given by Mrs. J. S. Egenberger and Miss Esther Anne Heafey.

From Wednesday's Daily

Tuesday Bridge Club—

Mrs. W. C. Soennichsen entertained the members of the Tuesday Contract Bridge club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. James Mauzy held high score for the afternoon and Mrs. M. D. Brown, second.

TO ATTEND GOLDEN WEDDING OF PARENTS

Phil Hoffman and son, Jesse, together with Mr. Hoffman's brothers, Frank and Everett Hoffman of Lincoln left early Sunday morning via auto for Terre Haute, Indiana, where they will spend a few days visiting at the home of the parents of the Hoffman brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Hoffman, and assisting them in the celebration of their golden wedding anniversary tomorrow. The parents reside on a farm some fifteen miles from Terre Haute, where they have lived throughout the fifty years of their married life. A sister and two brothers who reside at distant points will be unable to be present. They expect to return home Thursday.

TO OPERATE SERVICE WAGON

Carl Ulrich, who has been residing on a farm west of Mynard, has taken over the operation of the tank wagon for the Standard Oil Co., and will operate the same out of the local station. Mr. Ulrich, who has a large acquaintanceship over the county will make a most capable man on the job and has started in on his work this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich are moving into the city to make their home.

HERE FROM DENVER

Eugene F. Tighe, of Denver, was a visitor here over night, a guest at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald and family at the farm west of Mynard. Mr. Tighe is a former Cass county and Plattsmouth man and has been engaged in the banking business in that state for a number of years. He is on his way to Kansas City to look after some business affairs.

TRUSTEE OFFICERS ELECTED

From Tuesday's Daily.

Wm. F. Evers was elected president of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist church last evening. W. G. Kleck was named as vice president and J. Howard Davis will be secretary-treasurer during the coming term of office. The board of trustees met at the church for the business meeting.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

A fine little eight pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rabb on Thursday at their home near Murray. The happy event occurred at the home of L. C. Horschar, father of Mrs. Rabb, where they have been making their home. All are doing nicely and the event has brought a great deal of happiness to all of the family.

We will appreciate our readers' Phone details to No. 6.

Eastern Star Honors Departed Group Members

Twenty-four Past Matrons and Pastrons Attend Memorial Services in Masonic Temple.

From Wednesday's Daily

Tribute was paid to the departed brothers and sisters of the Eastern Star organization last evening at a memorial service in the Masonic Temple. The hall was decorated in roses from the Masonic Home gardens. A huge Eastern Star emblem, fashioned from roses, was used on the altar.

Services were conducted by the officers of the organization and the past matrons and patrons, of which there were twenty-four present. The services were pronounced very beautiful and impressive.

A choir of eight furnished music

THOSE persons careless enough to drive without proper insurance should get no sympathy when they have an accident. They know they need insurance!

Searl S. Davis
OFFICES: 2ND FLOOR
Platts. State Bank Bldg.

for the memorial. It was composed of Miss Edna Schutz, Mrs. Wiley Sigler, Mrs. E. H. Wescott, Mrs. George Lushinsky, Raymond Cook, Don York, L. S. Devoe, and Roy Knorr. Raymond Cook also sang "Rose of Sharon" as a solo.

Opening
Friday
October
9th

Not New Just . . .
Cleaned
NO odor
NO shrinking
NO fading

A 'SPEED' SERVICE FOR RURAL PATRONS
Bring your clothes when you come to shop Wednesday or Saturday nights and take them back with you immaculately cleaned and faultlessly pressed!

faster better safer!

Announcing

a new, Complete, Quality service—

BAND BOX

CLEANING

odorless

Now you can have your clothes really cleaned! We have installed our new BAND BOX system to handle them more carefully, to clean them more thoroughly, safely and quickly. Ours is Perfect Cleaning and perfect service.

Velvets, Woolens, Laces, Furs, Silks and Satins

are cleaned with the same perfection. Their luster is restored, their nap is lifted, their colors brightened. No matter how fragile, how costly or soiled, every article is returned to you safely and clean. And there is never any unpleasant odor, or fading or shrinkage. We invite you to inspect our plant and see how it's done.

Work Called for and Delivered

Harris Band Box Cleaners

Complete Cleaning, Pressing & Laundry Service

318 Main St. Laundry Building Phone 75

