

DELINQUENT TAXES IN CASS COUNTY, NEBR. (Continued from Page 6)

Table listing delinquent taxes in Cass County, Nebraska, with columns for lot numbers, descriptions, and amounts.

Table listing real estate lots and their values, categorized by village such as AVOCA VILLAGE, UNION VILLAGE, and EAGLE VILLAGE.

Humboldt Girl Weds Secretary to Tokio Embassy

Maxine Cloidt of Plattsmouth Attends Sorority Sister as Maid of Honor Saturday Evening.

Miss Maxine Cloidt was maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Calista Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Cooper, Jr., of Humboldt, to Morris W. Hughes, third secretary of the American embassy at Tokio, Japan, late Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

A bower of greenery was used as the background for the ceremony which was performed on the entrance steps. White tapers burning in candelabra and floor baskets of white pompon chrysanthemums were used at either side. 150 guests assembled on the lawn as the wedding lines were read by Rev. Allen D. Seelig of Savannah, Mo. Miss Marjorie Williams of Fort Morgan, Colo., played the piano and Dale Reid, the cello, preceding the service. Dr. Harlan S. Heim sang and Miss Williams played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white French satin, ornamented only with a large belt buckle of pearl beads. The long sleeves were fashioned full to the elbow and fitted to the wrist. The skirt lengthened at the back to form a long train. With the costume she wore a double strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. The full length double tulle veil, which had been worn also by the two daughters of the American ambassador to Japan was bordered with a band of hand made Battenburg lace from Mrs. Joseph Grew's wedding dress. It was joined to a cap of real lace, with a band of orange blossoms across the back. The flowers were sent by Mr. and Mrs. Gary Cooper of San Bernardino, Calif., uncle and aunt of the bride. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Maxine Cloidt of Plattsmouth was maid of honor. She wore a floor length frock of burgundy velvet, with a tiara of velvet flowers to match. She carried an arm bouquet of deep red roses. The two bridesmaids were Miss Bernice Kaiser of Falls City and Miss Betty Clark of Humboldt. Both girls wore floor length frocks. Miss Kaiser's was of aqua blue brocaded satin and Miss Clark's was of cerise moire. Their tiaras were of white camellias and they wore shoulder corsages of orchids and carried white leather Bibles. The bride's two nieces and two nephews, Guy III and Prudence Ann Cooper and Virginia Lee and John Cooper, Jr., also were in the wedding party. John, in black velvet knee trousers and white satin blouse carried the ring on a white satin pillow. Prudence Ann, in a floor length frock of blue taffeta with sash and hair ribbon of peach was flower girl. Guy, dressed also in black velvet and white satin and Virginia Lee, wearing a floor length frock of peach taffeta and accessories of blue, were the train bearers.

Sherman K. Hughes of Chicago, served his brother as best man. The six groomsmen were Guy Lester Cooper, Jr., and John Robert Cooper of Humboldt, Charles Albert Cooper of Tokio, Japan, Paul Hughes of Waukegan, Ill., Nathan Scarritt of Kansas City and Stanley Kauffman of Champaign, Ill.

The bride was graduated from the University of Nebraska. Prominent in extra curricular activities she is a member of Mortar Board and served as president of her sorority, Pi Beta Phi, during her senior year. At the court of Ak-Sar-Ben in 1933, she was a courtess. She returned this summer from spending a year in Japan, where she presided as hostess for her brother, Charles Cooper, vice consul of the American consulate general at Tokio.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kelso Hughes of Champaign, Ill. Preceding his 12 years of foreign service, which has included posts at Uruguay, Italy, Greece, Iraq and Japan, received his degree at the University of Illinois, where he is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

The ceremony was followed by a reception on the north lawn, to which 50 additional guests also were invited. A program of piano and cello duets was played by Miss Williams and Mr. Reid during this hour. Miss Dorothy Jane Weaver of Falls City, Miss Eda Clare Maxwell of St. Joseph, Miss Mary Belle Bates of Rushville and Miss Eva Mae Livermore of Cambridge, each of the two tables was tabled with autumn flowers. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Guy

PUBLIC AUCTION

Having decided to move to Texas, I will sell at Public Auction on the farm on North Maiden Lane Road known as the Sr. Rabb place in the outskirts of Plattsmouth, reached as follows: From Missouri Pacific depot, go one block south, thence west three blocks and north from there one-half mile (first house on east side road) on—

Tuesday, Oct. 13 beginning at 1:00 o'clock p. m., sharp, the following described property, to-wit:

Horses and Cattle Two head of horses, with smooth mouth. One real good cow, fresh in December, and two head of calves.

Farm Machinery One hay mower; one hay rack; one hay rake; one wagon; one plow; one lister; one small disc; one separator, almost new; one corn planter; one good gasoline engine; one pump jack; one set of harness; one wheelbarrow; one corn drill; one 1-horse cultivator; one cultivator; two harrows; two stock water tanks and many other articles.

Household Furnishings Singer sewing machine in good shape; one table and chairs; 90 quarts of canned fruit; one kitchen cabinet; several dozen empty fruit jars, mostly quarts; three beds, complete; Copper Glad cook stove in excellent shape; one wardrobe circulating heater; one heating stove; one good Maytag washer and various other household goods.

Terms—Cash No property to be removed from the premises until settled for.

Harvey Alden, Owner. REX YOUNG, Auctioneer W. E. REYNOLDS, Clerk

PUBLIC AUCTION

Having decided to quit farming, I will sell at Public Auction on the farm 3 1/2 miles north of Union and 3 1/2 miles south of Murray on U. S. Highway No. 75 pavement, thence one-half mile east, on—

Monday, Oct. 12 beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., sharp, with lunch served on the grounds, the following property, to-wit:

3 Head Horses and 1 Mule One extra good team bay geldings, 7 years old, weight 3250 lbs.; one gray mare, smooth mouth, weight 1400 lbs.; one black mule, 8 years old, weight 1400 lbs.

Nine Head of Cattle One Holstein cow, 5 years old, giving milk; one Holstein cow, 4 years old, giving milk; one roan cow, 5 years old, giving milk; one Holstein heifer, 2 years old, giving milk; one Holstein heifer, coming 2 years old; one roan heifer, giving milk; two Holstein heifer calves and one bull calf.

Four Dozen Chickens Two dozen White Jersey Giant pullets and two dozen Rhode Island Red pullets.

Seven Buildings One dwelling house, 16x24; one cob house, 12x16, with shingle roof; one brooder house, 6x10, floored; two chicken houses, 10x14, both floored; one double corn crib, 10x22; one smoke house, 10x12, shingle roof, floored.

Farm Machinery, Etc. One mowing machine; one binder, 7 foot; one wide-tread lister; one grass plow; one sulky plow; one press drill; one endgate seeder with grass seed attachment; one hay rake; one 2-row machine; two cultivators; one walking plow; one hay rack; one top buggy; one water tank; one cold water cream separator; one scalding vat; one 3-section harrow; two lumber wagons; one disc; one broadcast grass seeder; one corn planter; one walking lister; one hay fork; one 140-foot hay rope, new; one good stock saddle; four sets of work harness; several horse collars; some clover and prairie hay in barn; some wheat straw; 120 rods or more of woven wire fencing; several rods barbed wire; chicken coops; two brooders; one new Belle City 240-gallon incubator; one set Fairbanks-Morse wagon scales; two wire gates; three rolls slat cribbing; two rolls wire cribbing; several board panels; some lumber and posts; some fodder in shock; one hammer mill grinder; some 10-gallon milk cans; a number of doubletires; one feed bunk, 4x32 feet, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms of Sale All sums of $25.00 and under, Cash. On sums over $25.00, terms may be arranged with Clerk. All property to be settled for before removal from premises.

John Becker, Owner. REX YOUNG, Auctioneer W. G. BOEDEKER, Clerk

Lester Cooper, Jr. and Mrs. John Robert Cooper. In conjunction with the wedding rehearsal Friday evening, a buffet supper dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Cooper for the bridal party and the guests in the home.

The couple left immediately for a tour of the east, which will include some time in Washington, D. C., before sailing from Portland Dec. 1 for Tokio. The bride's going-away costume is a gray wool ensemble of dress and fur trimmed coat with accessories in Burgundy.

LOCALS

From Monday's Daily: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lippold of Omaha visited Sunday with Mrs. F. Crosser.

Everett Spangler of Murray was looking after business in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Mrs. Fannie Crosser spent Sunday with her son L. D. Crosser and family of Murray.

Miss Maxine Cloidt left yesterday afternoon for McCook, where she is teaching this year.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Molak drove to Weston, Nebraska, yesterday to visit with Dr. Molak's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Timm entertained at a dinner Sunday for Mrs. John Farris and family of Murray.

The Andy Robinson family spent the day yesterday at the home of Mrs. Robinson's parents at Tekamah.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thysson of Nebraska City will visit at the home of Mrs. J. A. Donelan tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Will Rice plans to leave tomorrow morning for a visit at the home of her niece in Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henrichsen and Wilhelmina visited at the home of Mrs. J. L. Jipp at Fort Calhoun yesterday.

The Elmer Webb family spent the day yesterday in Omaha at the L. R. Feller home, where a birthday dinner was served in honor of Lloyd L. Feller, now 18 years of age.

From Tuesday's Daily: A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chandler Thursday, October 1.

Rev. G. A. Pahl, Jr., had his tonsils removed at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner and family visited at the Frank Dasher home in Glenwood, Ia., Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie O'Hara of Pawnee City is making a short visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Reed.

Wm. Baird and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wurl drove to Lincoln Monday to attend the funeral services for their friend, Frank DuTeil.

Mrs. D. C. Dorwart of Friend is spending the winter at the home of her son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Dorwart of Plattsmouth.

Wm. J. Slattery and Miss Genevieve M. Crane of Omaha, were married yesterday morning at the county court house by Judge A. H. Duxbury.

The small son of F. J. Zimmerman who broke his arm about seven weeks ago, yesterday fell and broke the arm again in the same place.

George Swatek and Miss Margaret Nelson of Lincoln and Misses Mary Swatek and Florence Nelson of Omaha spent Sunday visiting at the Wm. Swatek home.

Mrs. Anna Burian of Crete, is here as a guest of Miss Ida Mosler, housekeeper for her cousin, the Very Rev. Adolph M. Mosler, pastor of the Holy Rosary church.

Mrs. J. W. Meyers of Louisville was a visitor in the city today to look after some matters of business at the court house. She accompanied Editor Lee Mayfield and Mrs. Mayfield to this city.

From Wednesday's Daily: George A. Stites of Union was here today to look after some matters of business at the court house and visiting with friends.

Mrs. T. B. Farmer who has been in the hospital some time, returned to her home Sunday. She is recovering very rapidly from her operation.

Eugene Nutzman, senior vice-commander of the American Legion in Nebraska, was here today from his home in Nehawka, looking after some business at the court house.

A group of girls from the Queen Esther circle met last evening at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hayes to make plans for attending the fiftieth anniversary celebration of the society in Lincoln Friday.

CRABAPPLE BLOSSOMS There is a crabapple tree at the home of Mrs. Herman Gartman in the south part of the city, which is now blooming for the second time this year. The tree has a more profuse showing of the blooms than in the spring and if the cold weather holds off will produce a crop of crab apples.

VISITS FRIENDS HERE Miss Kathleen Darcy, of Yankton, South Dakota, was a visitor in the city over the week-end as a guest of Miss Eleanor Hiber. While here she had the pleasure of meeting a number of the friends that she had made while a resident here a number of years ago.

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Rev. D. J. Schuyleman of Garrison was in town last Thursday afternoon.

Edward Gerhard made a business trip to Peru on Tuesday of last week.

Arthur Burdick of David City spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Burdick.

Agnes Ketelhut visited at the Edward Gerhard home the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wall of Arapahoe spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. Arthur Thomson and son of Palmyra spent Saturday and Sunday at the J. L. Wall home.

The Starlight Brigadiers report a fine time at the wiener roast held on Tuesday evening of last week.

Sumner West, who is attending the University of Nebraska, spent last Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. Orville Robertson was hostess to the members of the W. C. T. U. at her home last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Umland and Dorothy Jean were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Umland.

Mrs. Irene McFall had as her dinner guests on Wednesday of last week Mrs. S. E. Allen, Mrs. R. B. Morgan and Mrs. George Althouse.

The first leaders meeting was held for the extension clubs in and near Eagle at the home of Mrs. John Fischer on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer and family were guests last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. Fischer's brother, Dick Fischer near Alvo.

Mr. and Mrs. Orill Allen, Kenneth and Laverne of Emerald attended the Rally Day services and basket dinner at the M. E. church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Root and Lloyd and Mr. and Mrs. John Root and family attended a birthday dinner last Sunday for Mrs. Seaman of Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bender and sons and Mrs. Elizabeth Carr motored to Beatrice last Sunday and visited the William Butler family and Miss Lola Carr.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Root have heard from their son, Merle Root and Mrs. Root since they arrived at Tillamook, Oregon, where they will visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gerhard and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nelson motored to Stanton, Iowa, on Saturday where they visited over Sunday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price and family and Mrs. Snyder spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Houston Welton and Mr. Welton of Rockport, Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Paine motored to Beaver Crossing last Sunday afternoon and returned in the evening bringing with them Mrs. Paine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen.

Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Talcott of Greenwood were in town on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Dr. Talcott was attending to some matters of business concerning Red Cross organization prior to the membership drive in November.

Miss Zelma Waldron, home economics instructor, visited the homes of a number of her rural students during the past week. The purpose of the visit was to meet the mothers and talk over the pupil's home work required as a part of the course.

Birthday Dinner Honoring W. E. Muenchau on his birthday, Mrs. Muenchau entertained the following at dinner last Sunday: Mrs. Lydia Muenchau and daughter, Lillie, of Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Muenchau, Edward and Grace, of Alvo; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Muenchau and daughters of Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Muenchau.

Extension Clubs Organize A new extension club was organized at the home of group chairman, Mrs. Turley Wall last Friday afternoon. The club has a membership of fourteen women, who have chosen the following officers: Mrs. Harry Fischer, president; Mrs. Bert Muenchau, secretary; Mrs. Henry Towle, social leader; Mrs. Clyde Wenzel and Mrs. Robert Kunz, project leaders.

Another extension club was organized at the home of Mrs. Bert Lytle last Saturday afternoon. This club includes women living in Eagle.

First M. E. Church of Eagle Don Springer, pastor; G. H. Palmer, Sunday school superintendent. Choir practice Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday school board meeting after worship Sunday. Church school at 10 a. m. Sunday. New starts and new resolves in a new year.

Morning worship at 11 a. m. Come

RITZ THEATRE

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY DOUBLE FEATURE BILL Little Virginia Wilder in 'Girl of the Ozarks'

You'll love this tiny heroine of a thrilling mountain romance! PLUS Frankie Darrow in Peter B. Kyne's 'Born to Fight'

Better than 'Wild Boys of the Road' ADVENTURES OF TARZAN, SCREENED Adults...25c Children...10c

SUNDAY-MONDAY-TUESDAY Jean Harlow and Franchot Tone in 'SUZY'

Drama of a woman driven to desperation—restored by courage. Don't miss this picture! Our Gang Comedy and News Reels Sunday Matinee at 2:30 and take part in worship and praise. Sermon: 'Is Life a Responsibility or a Possibility?'

Matinee Prices Evening Prices 10-25c 10-30c

Coming Wed., W. C. Fields in 'Poppy'

Epworth League at 7 p. m. Sunday. Great plans will be made. Evening worship at 8 p. m. Hour of fellowship and evening meditation. Always special music and pleasant surprises. Follow this service of high-lights on the loved Bible characters.

TAPPY AND JOHNSON TO SPEAK HERE FRIDAY

Hon. Edward A. Tappy, U. S. prosecuting attorney from Chicago, will address a republican meeting in the district court room at Plattsmouth Friday evening, October 9, at 8 o'clock. This speaker of national reputation comes through the courtesy of the republican national committee. Richard Johnson, candidate for attorney general of Nebraska, will also deliver an address.

JUDGE ROSE HERE

From Monday's Daily: Judge William B. Rose, of Lincoln, member of the supreme court from the first district, was here today to visit with his friends. Judge Rose is a candidate for reelection to the position that he has so excellently filled in the past years. The office will be voted for on the non-political ballot at the fall election.

TO ATTEND DEDICATION

From Tuesday's Daily: William A. Robertson, deputy grand master of the Nebraska Masons, departed this afternoon for Fort Calhoun, Nebraska, where he will participate with other of the grand lodge officers in the dedication of the Masonic Temple. The Fort Calhoun lodge has erected a new building and which will be dedicated to the use of Masonry.

CASS THEATRE

Friday and Saturday TWO BIG HITS

Feature No. 1 TOP SPEED ROMANCE

'Human Cargo' with Claire Trevor

Feature No. 2 CHARLES STARRETT in 'Secret Patrol'

Also BUCK JONES in 'The Phantom Rider'

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday Matinee Sunday, 2:15

HOW THEY CLOWN TO TOWN! SING BABY SING

WITH Alice Faye, Adolph Menjou, Ted Healy, Patsy Kelly

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY Matinee Thursday, 2:15

'The Girl on the Front Page'

WITH Gloria Stuart Edmund Lowe