

RETURNS FROM THE WEST

From Wednesday's Daily
S. S. Gooding returned home this morning from a visit of some two weeks at Gillete, Wyoming, near where he has extensive land interests. Mr. Gooding reports that the light snows have visited parts of Wyoming, but not to any great depth. The condition there as to crops has been poor and only in sections of the Big Horn valley are there any good crop showing.

While in the west Mr. Gooding stopped at Stratton and Burlington, Colorado, where he formerly resided and met a number of the old friends.

SOAP BOX DERBY

Saturday afternoon the soap box derby, which was to have been featured on the closing day of the King Korn Carnival, was staged on South Sixth street. The event drew out a very pleasing number of the residents to enjoy the thrills of the races.

There were a large number of entries for the races, which made some very exciting heats as the list was gradually eliminated until the finals between Kenneth Wohlfarth and James Tolbert, both of whom had been contenders in the races in Omaha in July.

The final heat proved to be a real race and was plenty close as the two cars rolled down the hill, with Wohlfarth in the last few feet sweeping into the lead to win by a half car length.

The winners in the events were as follows:
1—Wohlfarth, $5 cash and pen and pencil.
2—Tolbert, wrist watch and pen and pencil.
3—Bryant, wrist watch and pencil.

4—Pitz, baseball glove and pencil.
5—Cloidt, football and pencil.
6—Smith, football and pencil.
7—Sheard, basketball and pencil.
8—Hobbs, pen and pencil, 2 sets.

The judges of the event were Judge A. H. Duxbury, Carl Schneider and Robert McPherson.

The starters were Claude Ruse, Guy Long and Earl Sipple. The committee in charge of the event were Fred Sharpnack, chairman; D. B. Ashbaugh, Claude Ruse, J. C. Woest and Ray Bryant.

President Roosevelt Thru Here Saturday

Special Train Over the Burlington to Reach Here at 11 a. m.—Many to Greet Executive.

The special train bearing President Franklin D. Roosevelt, will pass through this city on Saturday at 11 a. m., advices received here Tuesday night by Governor R. L. Cochran stated.

It is hoped that the train may have a five minute stop here to permit the residents of the community who are expected to be present at the station to greet the distinguished visitor to Nebraska. This will be the first city in Nebraska through which the train will pass and a truly Nebraska greeting should be given the president. President Roosevelt will speak from the state capitol steps in Lincoln at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and in the Coliseum at Omaha at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

The train here will be switched to the short line on to Lincoln.

Cass county has no bonded indebtedness, as, like the state, it has paid cash for its gravel roads and other improvements. That's

TO ATTEND CONVENTION AT NORTH PLATTE

From Tuesday's Daily:

Howard Davis, city attorney, will leave Omaha late tonight for North Platte, where he will attend the annual convention of the League of Nebraska Municipalities Wednesday, Thursday and Friday as a representative of the city government. One of the features of the convention is an all day meeting of the legal section, composed of attorneys from a large number of the member towns, to discuss timely matters of interest and Howard expects to return with much valuable information. Another feature of the three day session will be a tour of the Sutherland power project.

Plattsouth has held membership in the League for a good number of years and has derived much good from its contacts with League officials and legal aides.

LEGAL NOTICE AS TO MEASURE TO BE VOTED UPON NOVEMBER 3, 1936.

The following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska will be submitted to the electors of this State for approval or rejection at the general election to be held November 3, 1936:

Be it Enacted by the People of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. That Section 7, Article 12, of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, including the amendment to said section adopted at the general election held November 4, 1930, relating to the individual liability of stockholders in banking corporations or banking institutions, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. That at the general election in November 1936, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed repeal of Section 7, Article 12, of the Constitution of Nebraska in the following form:

"FOR repeal of Section 7, Article 12, of the Constitution of Nebraska fixing individual liability of stockholders in banking corporations or banking institutions," and

"AGAINST repeal of Section 7, Article 12, of the Constitution of Nebraska fixing individual liability of stockholders in banking corporations or banking institutions."

HARRY R. SWANSON, Secretary of State.

LEGAL NOTICE AS TO MEASURE TO BE VOTED UPON NOVEMBER 3, 1936.

The following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska will be submitted to the electors of this State for approval or rejection at the general election to be held November 3, 1936:

Be it Enacted by the People of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. That Section 1, Article IV, Constitution of the State of Nebraska, 1875, and the several amendments thereto, including the amendments proposed by the Constitutional Convention of 1919-1920, and adopted at the special election held on the 21st day of September, 1920, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 1. The executive officers of the state shall be the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of the State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Attorney General, Superintendent of Public Instruction and the heads of such other executive departments as may be established by law. The legislature may provide for the placing of the above named officers as heads over such departments of government as it may by law create. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, and Treasurer shall be chosen at the general election held in November, 1922, and in each even numbered year thereafter, and their term of office shall be two years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be elected in November, 1922, and every four years thereafter, and his term of office shall be four years and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. The records, books and papers of all executive officers shall be kept at the seat of government, and such officers, excepting the Lieutenant Governor, shall reside there during their respective terms of office. Officers in the executive department of the state shall perform such duties as may be provided by law. The heads of all executive departments established by law, other than those to be elected as provided herein, shall be appointed by the Governor, with the consent of a majority of all the members elected to the Legislature, but officers so appointed may be removed by the Governor. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the heads of the various executive or civil departments shall have power to appoint and remove all subordinate employees in their respective departments."

Sec. 2. That at the general election in November, 1936, there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Nebraska, for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution in the following form:

"FOR an amendment to the Constitution abolishing the office of Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings," and

"AGAINST an amendment to the Constitution abolishing the office of Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings."

HARRY R. SWANSON, Secretary of State.
