

Wabash News

L. R. Stanley, local merchant, was in Lincoln last Saturday, where he went for a truck load of groceries and other goods for the store.

A. R. Dowler, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in Wabash last Wednesday looking after sales for the Cole Motor company, by whom he is employed.

Ralph Richards and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hardaway were at Weeping Water last Saturday, where they attended the funeral of the late Lawrence Little.

Asa Potts, a friend of Sherman Hardaway, was looking after some hay over on No. 1 highway last Wednesday and was also visiting with friends in that vicinity.

Hobart Hansen has been busy sawing wood for the farmers with his power saw. At one time he had eight jobs ahead of him. He was sawing for George Mooney last Wednesday.

The Woods Brothers were over to Lincoln last Thursday, where they were called to look after business connected with the securing of permits to operate a truck on the highways of Nebraska under a new law now being invoked.

The Ladies Aid of the Wabash church met last Wednesday at the home of their fellow member, Mrs. Walter Pool, enjoying the time very pleasantly. The occasion was climaxed with the serving of a delicious luncheon by the hostess.

One of the staid and respected citizens of near Wabash, in order to save himself from having to haul his wood after getting it ready for the stove, cut down one of the large shade trees in his door yard and is able to just step out of the door and pick up the wood when it is cut.

Makes Trip to Iowa

M. V. Woods of Elmwood accompanied Herbert Hulfish to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, they leaving Monday morning and arriving there in the evening. After looking after business matters of Mr. Hulfish, they returned home Tuesday, arriving here in the early evening. It was a quick trip, but they had time to look after the business, nevertheless.

Will Live in Aurora

Mrs. Henrietta Lawton, who has made her home here for many years, departed Wednesday morning for Lincoln, where she visited with a daughter for the day and on Thursday went on to Aurora, where she will make her home with another daughter, Mrs. Frank Green and husband for the winter.

Home from Visit in Iowa

Clarence Rueter and cousin, Elmer Rueter, who have been over in the vicinity of Grand Junction, Iowa, where they were engaged in picking corn, have completed their work and returned home. The corn there was of very fair quality and averaged around 25 bushels per acre, which a lot of Nebraska farmers would be mighty well pleased to get this year. On the farm of Henry Rueter, an uncle of the boys, the yield was just a shade over 25 while on the Chris Kupke farm a little farther north, the corn made a 26 bushel average. The boys are glad to be back home again where they know everybody and everyone knows them.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers pay top prices.

FAY WEBB DIES

Fay Webb

Fay Webb, beautiful ex-wife of Rudy Vallee, died Thursday morning in a hospital at Santa Monica, Calif., her home town. Shortly before dying, she was informed that Vallee still loved her, even though they were divorced.

CLUB NEWS

EXTENSION CLUBS

Many homemakers have been able to add little touches to the arrangement and use decorative objects to an advantage since their study of the lesson for this month—"Adding beauty in homes, through decorative objects." A study of the color, arrangement, materials, and size of vases, pictures, lamps and books is included in the lesson.

Homemakers Meet

Units for dressing tables, buffet, and dining room table were demonstrated by Mrs. Joe McMaken and Mrs. Fay McClintock at the meeting of the Plattsmouth Homemakers Nov. 20. Among the interesting points brought out by the leaders were—clear glass may be combined with silver, clear and frosted glass should never be used together, house plants are becoming proper for use on dressing tables, a picture or a mirror may unify a group of objects. Following the lesson the group played bingo. Mrs. Milo Price won first; Hazel Baier, second; Mrs. Ray Bryant, third; and Mrs. Otto Keck, low. Mrs. Elmer Webb was hostess and assistants were Mrs. John Hadraba and Mrs. Edgar Newton.

Mrs. Lee Farris was hostess to the Social Circle club of Union the 17th. An all day meeting was held with a covered dish luncheon at noon. A flower fund was started so the club could send flowers to the sick. Mrs. Klum donated a quilt to be quilted and given away. The leader gave the lesson, for the month. Mrs. Herman Corner and Mrs. Earl Hathaway were assistant hostesses.

Members of the Good Will club met at the home of Mrs. John Eaton Nov. 11. A large group attended.

Over two hundred attended the community party held at the Murdock school house November 6. The 4-H and extension clubs joined in this project. The members feel it was such a success that another is planned for January.

Mrs. John Rummel and Mrs. Clyde Graves led the lesson at the meeting of the Jolly Workers club this month. Plans were made to attend the chorus next Monday. Mrs. Rummel was hostess to the group and Mrs. Ed H. Tritsch and Mrs. Verner A. Meisinger assistants.

The Better Best extension club held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Bleckford November 13. Three new members were welcomed into the club. Plans were made for the Christmas party.

Mrs. R. G. Kiser was hostess to the Merry Workers club Nov. 17. Mrs. George McKay and Mrs. Harry Noel brought many objective illustrations on the lesson of the month. Mrs. Myron Wiles, Mrs. Will Carey and Mrs. Hateliff were guests.

The principle stressed by Mrs. Henry Trunkenbolz and Mrs. Paul Chidester in presenting the lesson of the month to the Pleasant Hill club was—it is not how much one has, but how one uses those possessions that makes a home beautiful. The club met Nov. 12 at the home of Mrs. H. A. Rockenbach. Guests were Mrs. August Schweginan, Mrs. Rudolph Wulf, Mrs. George Wulf, and Mrs. Fred Schwelke.

Members of the 4 Square club met with Mrs. Henry Amoyert Nov. 16. 24 members and 2 visitors were present. Mrs. Schwab led the social period. Project leaders, Mrs. Elseman and Mrs. Rose, demonstrated different ways of placing articles on tables, buffets, etc.

A music period opened the meeting of the Willing Workers club Nov. 13 at the home of Mrs. Jess Wall. Mrs. E. M. Stewart and Mrs. R. C. Wenzel presented the lesson. Visitors were Mrs. B. B. Hursh and Miss Pauline Wall.

Manley's Center extension club met at the home of Mrs. O. Dowler Nov. 12. After the business meeting the leaders presented the lesson. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Bergman and Mrs. Wette.

Flower Club

Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger entertained the Social Workers Flower club Nov. 11. The afternoon was spent in singing patriotic songs and playing games. A number of visitors were present. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Albert Wheeler were assistant hostesses.

Helping Hand Club

Mrs. James E. Wurga entertained the Helping Hand club Tuesday. The afternoon was spent in quilting. Thanksgiving decorations were used.

Weeping Water Woman's Club—Members of the Weeping Water Woman's club entertained their husbands and the Weeping Water teachers at a dinner given at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, November 17.

The men found their partners for dinner by matching the numbers they held with those of the ladies. During the meal songs were sung.

Later in the evening the humorous play "Mrs. Lively's Operation" was presented by Marjorie Allen and Mesdames W. W. Davis, Clarence Pool, M. E. Johnson, Fred Allen, George Garrison, and William Joyce. During the games Mr. Allen and Mr. Wakeman won prizes for guessing most nearly the number of beans in a glass jar.

Avoca Woman's Club

Old-fashioned dresses were worn by the ladies of the Avoca Woman's club at their meeting November 18. They took antique dishes filled with some food popular a number of years ago for the covered dish luncheon.

The program was opened by the ensemble singing of the Doxology. Miss Bertha TeSelle played a violin solo preceding the Literary Feast. The feast included toasts upon the various foods for the Thanksgiving dinner. Mrs. Dick Berner gave a five minute paper upon the oyster fisheries. The history of macaroni was discussed by Mrs. Henry Straub. Mrs. Wm. Glaubitz had as her topic Turkey and told of the pilgrims' first Thanksgiving. The cranberry field was the subject of the talk by Mrs. J. W. Brendel. Whittier's poem was given upon the pumpkin pie and the feast was closed with the coffee industry by Mrs. Louis Ruhga. Mrs. J. J. Cullen was hostess.

The Four Corners extension club held the November meeting the 10th at the home of Mrs. Ray Norris. Mrs. Fred Norris was assistant hostess. 14 members and one visitor were present. Two new members were added to the roll. Mrs. L. G. Githier and Mrs. G. McFadden presented the lesson.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Venner was very pleasantly surprised when a well fitted auto of relatives from Lincoln arrived at her home. They had not seen one another for some time and all were happy to meet again and to have a short visit together.

Those who composed the auto party were Mrs. Fred Neu, nee Ida Venner, her sister, Jetta Venner, her brothers, Charles and Cobe Venner and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Venner, the latter a son of Cobe Venner.

Funeral of Mrs. Frank Massie Held Wednesday

Last Rites Conducted at Methodist Church at Weeping Water—Many in Attendance.

The funeral services of Mrs. Frank M. Massie were held Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church at Weeping Water where many of the old time friends and neighbors gathered to pay their last tributes of respect to her memory.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, an old friend, gave the sermon and was assisted in the services by Rev. Small, pastor of the Weeping Water church. The text was taken from Proverbs 31:28.

"The path of the just is as a shining light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day." Prov. 4:18. "Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

Pallbearers were Lester Shrader, Gene Fitch, Freddie Shumacher, Ray Chriswiser, John Murdock, and H. J. Thiele.

Those who came from a distance to attend the funeral were Mrs. Ida M. Whitmore of Wichita and Mrs. Max Whitmore of Grand Bend, Kansas; Walter Cox, Harry Massie and wife and Harley Massie and wife of Custer county; and Harold Massie of Le Mars, Iowa.

Obituary

Helen Victoria Kegley was born near Marion, Smith county, Virginia, November 8, 1862, and died Nov. 15, 1936, at the age of 74 years and 7 days. She was the oldest of the eight children, all of whom are living except Augustus D., who passed away, November, 1935.

When seventeen years of age she came to Nebraska with her parents, living a few years near Blair, from where she came to Weeping Water, making her home there with her cousin, Mrs. Albert Box.

She was united in marriage to Francis M. Massie, November 18, 1888, nobly caring for his three motherless children. To this union were born three children, Harlen, Lovell, and Georgia.

At ten years of age, she was converted, and joined the Methodist church at Mount Zion, Virginia, faithfully serving her Lord at all times during her entire life. She taught a Sunday school class in the Otterbein United Brethren church for thirteen years. Her home was always open to everyone, and many preachers and presiding elders found blessed fellowship there. These, with her loved ones and many friends will sadly miss the presence of this godly woman who was always ready to offer a helping hand to anyone in need.

Her kindly ministrations and deeds of love make an everlasting monument to her service of the Lord. November 15, 1936, she was taken to meet her Lord, as it were "in the twinkling of an eye." She had often expressed a desire to go quickly and her prayer was answered.

Besides her sorrowing companion, she leaves the six children, Frank E., of Crescent City, California; Harry T. and Harlen B., of Callaway, Neb.; Lowell L., Lincoln; Mrs. P. E. Tritsch, and Mrs. G. C. Hoback, of the home community. There are fifteen grandchildren, one great-grandchild, three sisters, Mrs. J. W. Swindle, Weeping Water; Mrs. Ella Hansacker, Lincoln; Mrs. Charles Griggsby, Arthur, Neb.; three brothers, Rance and George Kegley, Henrietta, Texas; and Steve Kegley of Lincoln.

MEETS OLD FRIENDS

Fred G. Morgan, who has just returned from an outing on the west coast, has had a very pleasant time and enjoyed the opportunity of meeting a number of the old time friends who are living in southern California.

Mr. Morgan spent the greater part of the time at San Diego, where his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Atkinson, reside. While there he was able to enjoy some deep sea fishing and secured several fine fish from his fishing stand on the pier.

While at Los Angeles he had the opportunity of visiting with Arthur Helps, a resident here some twenty-five years ago and with whom Mr. Morgan had been well acquainted in their shop experiences. He also met John Schulhof, another shop associate and Ernest Wurl who, is engaged in the automobile business on the coast.

Alvo News

J. B. Elliott, Jr. is the first Alvo person to secure one of the new 1937 automobiles.

Earl Fairfield was unfortunate in cutting two of his fingers very badly a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Copple attended a music recital in Lincoln Wednesday evening. Their son Lee took part at the recital.

All Church Night

Thursday evening a capacity size crowd enjoyed a covered dish luncheon at 7:00 o'clock in the church basement. Immediately after the supper, a worship service was held which was followed by business meetings of the church board and the Sunday school board.

Mrs. Edwards' Sunday school class had charge of the social hour for the older ones and Mrs. Walter Vincent and Miss Maxson had charge of the games for the children in the basement.

All returned home at a late hour, declaring they had had a most enjoyable evening.

Alvo Leaguers at Eagle

Sunday evening the Alvo Epworth Leaguers went to Eagle, where they put on the evening service. Several were able to go and as a result all enjoyed a profitable evening.

Entertain Mother-Daughter Council—The Mothers' and Daughters' council met at the home of Mrs. Joe Vickers Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Vincent had charge of the lesson and discussion of "Library Service."

A large crowd enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon and very delicious refreshments.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, November 24, featuring a Thanksgiving Festival at the church basement.

Pleasant Surprise on Birthday

Mrs. Minnie Peterson enjoyed a very pleasant surprise Sunday on her birthday, when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Geraldine, Pauline and friend of Clarinda, Iowa, drove in Sunday noon. They had dinner with Mrs. Peterson and Dorothy and departed soon afterwards to call on other relatives and friends before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and family were long time residents of this community, having resided in the lovely country home where the Ben Muench family now live. Robert Johnson is a brother of Mrs. Minnie Peterson.

"Man on the Street"

"Man on the Street" Lyle De Moss from KFAB at Lincoln was one of the special features of the John Deere Centennial, held by J. B. Elliott, Jr., hardware and implement dealer, last Wednesday.

Even the ladies, who were serving lunch in the church basement and those eating lunch also had the opportunity to hear the broadcast as one of the town ladies was so kind as to bring her radio over to the church so that no one would need to miss out on hearing the local broadcast program.

School Children See Pictures

The entire school, teachers and students, attended the morning picture shows held in the hall Wednesday in connection with the John Deere centennial.

The school children also enjoyed a free lunch at noon given by J. B. Elliott, Jr., returning to school at 1:30 to write essays on what they had learned.

Superintendent L. M. Hauptman and a number of the school children were interviewed by the Man on the Street during the 12:15 broadcast.

Record Crowd in Town

J. B. Elliott, Jr., has again been responsible for bringing a record size crowd to town, one even larger than those which attended public sales here that he promoted, as many came from quite distant points to see the pictures that were shown at the hall. The entire set of pictures were shown four successive times, with a large audience each time and a number having to be turned away.

Mr. Elliott estimates the total number of his guests during the day as well over 1,000.

W. C. T. U. Workers' Conference—The Alvo W. C. T. U. organization was hostess to four county Unions on Wednesday, when the county Unions held their workers' conference at the Alvo church.

About fifty were present to enjoy a most profitable day. The state president, Mrs. Rev. Innis, of Lincoln and County President Mrs. Ivan Balfour of Union were present.

Many entertaining numbers were rendered during the day's program, which included talks by Mrs. R. B. Hayes of Plattsmouth and Mrs. Jackson of Lincoln.

Those attending enjoyed their noonday meal in the Home Economics room at the school house.

Unions represented at the meeting were Eagle, Elmwood, Union and Plattsmouth.

An Appreciation

The Ladies Aid society deeply appreciates the fine co-operation of Superintendent L. M. Hauptman and the Home Economics teacher, Miss Shoemaker, for arranging for the W. C. T. U. ladies to use the Home Economics rooms Wednesday during the noon hour.

It was very fine indeed for the local ladies of the W. C. T. U. to release their use of the church basement Wednesday and make it possible for the Ladies Aid to use it. Many thanks.
