Mrs. Everette Reece, who has been confined to her bed from a bad fall suffered while roller-skating, is considerably better at this writing.

A few cases of scarlet fever are reported at this time, five families being quarantined. So far the disease has been in very light form and the patients are not very ill.

The first basketball game was played in the new gym on Tuesday night. The game was played between the high school and alumni teams, with the alumni winning.

The ladies auxiliary met with Mrs. Laura Trunkenbolz Tuesday afternoon, spending most of the time sewing supplies for the Veterans' hospital. Lunch of coffee and wafers was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stradley and daughter and granddaughter of Twin Falls, Idaho, visited at the Earl Stradley home Friday. They will also visit relatives at Waverly and Springfield, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wright entertained last Sunday at a birthday dinner in honor of their son, Harold. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wright, Miss Cassie Coleman and Mrs. Ella Marshall were guests.

The Christian church had their bazaar and supper last Saturday, November 21. A large crowd of people attended the supper and patronized the booths for the purchase of fancy work, candy and so forth.

Thanksgiving guests at the Ray McNurlin home were Mr. and Mrs. John Kyles and daughters, Bernadine and Darlene. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kyles and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Kyles, all of Lincoln. Miss Darlene remained until Saturday.

Dorcas Society Meets

The Dorcas society met last Friday at the church with Mrs. Gus Brockhage, Edith Landergreen and Mrs. Edith Schroeder. A nice lunch was served. Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. James Williams and Mrs. Robert Kelitznik will entertain the society at their next meeting at Bethany on December 11.

Pinochle Party

A pinochle party was given at the Legion hall Tuesday night under the auspices of the St. Joseph church. A large crowd attended, there being ten tables of players. Mrs. Pete Hill received the door prize, Mrs. Leo Peters held high score among the ladies and Pete Hill was high among the men. Numbers for candy went to Mrs. Warren for the 3-lb. box, John Meyers, the 2-lb. box and Mary Mockenhaupt, the 1-lb. box. A nice lunch was served.

Death of Henry O'Rourke

The community was shocked last Thursday to learn of the sudden death of Henry O'Rourke who had been in poor health for some time, but was able to be up and around and had been up town recently. Thursday morning, Mrs. Frank Welton called on him and found him not so well and when she returned in the afternoon he had passed away while sitting in a chair by the stove. Mr. O'Rourke had made Greenwood his home for some time and was nightwatchman for the city for a long time. He was living alone as his wife preceded him in death several years ago.

LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA

From Friday's Daily—
This morning Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rising departed for the west coast where they are planning on remaining for the winter season. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Rising, parents of Mr. Rising, at Los Angeles. They will have the Journal follow them to the west to learn of the happenings of the old home.

Laughing Around the World

With IRVIN S. COBB

Poor Aim But Good Intent

By IRVIN S. COBB

FRIENDS of Col. Roosevelt used to delight to tell this story on him. They said that after his retirement from the Presidency he was making one of his periodical trips through the Southwest, when word came to him in a town in Mexico that one of his old Rough Riders, cow hand, was in jail on a serious charge over in Arizona and craved that his beloved former commander would come to see him and, if possible, aid him in his present troubles.

Promptly the Colonel crossed the line. In a small brick coop of a county prison he found the veteran.

When greetings had been exchanged through the bars, Col. Roosevelt said:

"Jim, I'm certainly sorry to see you in this place, all chained up." "Kernel," stated the captive, "I'm sorry 'bout it myself. And I'm hopin' you kin use your influence to get me out pronto. They really ain't got no right to keep me locked up. My bein' here is all due to a mistake anyway."

"A mistake?" echoed the Colonel. "Why, I understand you were charged with some serious offense—shooting somebody, wasn't it?" "Well," said the prisoner with a petulant clanking of the pendant links of his hardware, "It's true that I did shoot a lady in the eye. But it was an accident, Colonel. I wasn't shootin' at that lady at all. I was shootin' at my wife."

MURDOCK ITEMS

The Murdock schools were closed from Wednesday evening until this (Monday) morning, allowing both teachers and students a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig went to Alvo to spend Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wolfe, where a very fine turkey dinner was served.

Minton V. Wood, of Elmwood was a visitor in Murdock last Wednesday afternoon and was looking after some business matters, making the trip in his truck, as it was handier to get out than the auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Newman were in Plattsmouth Friday of last week, where they had some business matters to look after, and while there they visited their former neighbor, Albert Glaubitz. They found Mr. Glaubitz employed with the Norfolk Packing company and Mrs. Glaubitz employed on the WPA work in the office.

Clarence Miller, who has been located at Great Falls, Idaho, where he was employed driving a truck, returned home Sunday. He says business is good out there and crops were excellent. The potato crop is one of the major crops out there and requires much help at harvest time. Clarence says there were more cars in Twin Falls bearing Nebraska license than there are Idaho cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool left Wednesday evening for Ackley, Iowa, where they went to visit with the mother of Mr. Tool, Mrs. Leah Tool, who is now past 95 years of age and the widow of a Civil war veteran, being the last surviving widow of G. A. R. members in that vicinity. They arrived in time for Thanksgiving festivities and remained the balance of the week, returning home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillespie, who manage the telephone exchange at North Loup, spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. Gillespie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, over Thanksgiving day and also enjoyed meeting many of their old friends in this vicinity, especially at the home of Mrs. Hannah McDonald, mother of Mrs. Harry Gillespie, who arrived home from her visit in the west last Sunday.

Returns to Kansas City

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Miller, of Kansas City, Mo., stopped off on their way home from Chicago and took Mrs. Clara Hartung with them. She has been housekeeper for L. Neitzel since the passing of Mrs. Neitzel last March. Mrs. J. J. Arnold, sister of the late Mrs. Neitzel, has taken the place of Mrs. Hartung and will look after the care of the home for Mr. Neitzel in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool Entertain

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool was a merry place on Thanksgiving day, there being three families present, that of George Woods, of Omaha, W. P. Meyer of Sioux City and Douglas Tool of Atlanta. There was a very merry group of grandchildren to enliven the home and provide a most pleasant holiday for Grandfather Tool and wife.

Had a Good Time

August Wendt and daughter, who make their home on the farm, had the entire family at home on Thanksgiving day for a family reunion and a very fine dinner. Those present for the day included the families of all the sons, Henry Wendt and family of Elmwood, Louis and August Wendt and families of Murdock and Fred Wendt and family of Wabash. To say they had a fine time would not half tell it.

Attended Funeral of Uncle

Mr. and Mrs. William Zaebel were in Plattsmouth last Friday afternoon, where they were called to attend the funeral services of the uncle of Mrs. Zaebel, George King Staats, who passed away last Wednesday morning after an illness that had extended over some two weeks. Mr. Staats was 86 years of age last June and had resided in Cass county for more than half a century.

The Work Goes On

The garage and work shop as well as the greasing establishment for the garage of I. C. McCrorey, which has been constructed by Frank Melvin and Mr. McCrorey, is going forward with good speed. The gentlemen are busy and have been so for nearly a month, with each succeeding day seeing the work that much nearer complete.

Marketed Good Hogs

Paul Johnson and Glen Buck were in Omaha last Wednesday with a truck load of hogs, which they were delivering for Fred Stock, Sr. They were in fine condition and brought a price right close to the top of the market for that day. Uncle Fred has always raised a fine quality of porkers, and cattle too and knows just how to get the most out of the feed and the stock.

Has New Automobile

A. H. Ward is driving a new Ford V-8 for which he traded his faithful old Buick car last week. Mr. Ward and family are well pleased with the new car, which they feel will serve their transportation needs most efficiently and economically.

Soon to be Seventy-Three

Uncle Henry Bergmann, one of the familiar gentlemen of Murdock, who is always desirous of serving a friend in the best manner possible, is soon to celebrate his 73rd birthday, having been born in the old country on December 8th, seventy-three years ago. All are wishing him continued good health and happiness.

Entertained for the Day

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dean were host and hostess at their home in Murdock on Thanksgiving day, having as guests for a splendid Thanksgiving dinner the brother of Mrs. Dean, Bennie Kern and family, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin of Avoca and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Dehning of Elmwood, as well as Albert Dehning and family of Emerald. A very pleasant feature was the presence of Mr. H. P. Dehning, who was on that day passing his 85th birthday anniversary, all greeting him with well wishes for many more happy years of life.

Addressed the Student Body

A very pleasant feature of the afternoon last Wednesday at the Murdock schools was the address delivered by our townsman, L. Neitzel, who spoke on the past history of Murdock and vicinity. Mr. Neitzel came here in 1891, some 45 years ago. He told of conditions as they existed at that time and of the many changes and improvements that have come with the passing year to make life more pleasant.

All Enjoyed Gathering

There was a very merry group of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kupke last Thursday, when the entire family was present to enjoy the hospitality of the Kupke home. This practice of getting together, if only once a year, is a very fine one and is always enjoyed by everyone present.

Among those who came last Thursday to spend the day and enjoy the sumptuous dinner that was served, were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kupke, of Greenwood, their two children, Paul Kupke, wife and two children; and Louis Kupke, wife and two children; also Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bohison, wife and two children, of Omaha.

Visited at Fremont

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig went to Fremont last Sunday to spend the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Skinner. They were accompanied by the father of Mrs. Craig, E. D. Friend, who remained for a week's visit, while Mr. and Mrs. Craig returned home that same evening.

Happy Home Makers

The Happy Home Makers club met Friday, November 20, with Mrs. August Kupke. Fifteen members and five visitors were present. Mrs. Kupke led the social period after which the leaders, Mrs. Stroy and Mrs. Bornemeier, presented the lesson, "Adding Beauty in Homes through Decorative Objects." At the close of the lesson, a short parliamentary drill was held, led by Mrs. Schewe.

The next meeting will be held on December 11th, at the home of Mrs. Leo Rikkl.—Mrs. H. H. Gakemeier, Club Reporter.

Red Cross Enrolls 45 Members

The Red Cross roll call in Murdock was very successful this year, a total of 45 being enrolled, more than double the number last year, and in addition there were also fifteen contributors.

Local Red Cross officers appreciate very much and wish to thank all those who contributed, also those who kindly drove the various solicitors into the country, so they could get to see the farmers as well as the town people. A considerable number were found, both in town and in the country who would gladly have given, had they been able to do so. This spirit of willingness is also greatly appreciated.

Following is the list of names of those who gave:

L. B. Gortley, L. Neitzel, M. S. Briggs, Clara Briggs, Mrs. J. Eppings, Hannah M. McDonald, W. L. Eisele, Mrs. Fred Buell, Mrs. Frank Buell, L. Neumann, K. A. Kuehn, Mrs. C.
