

Scout Circus or Other Activity Here in Spring

Thirty-five Attend Annual Business Meeting, Election of Officers Last Night at Nebraska City.

From Wednesday's Daily—
A Scout circus, camp or merit badge exposition will be held in Plattsmouth this spring, according to plans made last night at the annual steak dinner business meeting and election of officers of Arbor Lodge district, which was attended by 35 troop committee members and Scoutmasters of the district composed of Nemaha, Otoe and Cass counties, and presided over by Vice Chairman Dr. C. A. Lutgen of Auburn.

Successful Scout circuses have been held in the district the past two years. In 1935 at Nebraska City indoors and last year in the wide open spaces of the fair grounds at Auburn. Should the decision be to hold a circus, it will be held outdoors at the local Athletic field, as would also a camp or merit badge exposition. However, should the decision be to hold a merit badge exposition that would be held in the Legion community building.

Finances of the district were reported in good shape by C. D. Damast, chairman of the finance committee. All but three towns in the Arbor Lodge district have paid in their 1936 per capita assessments, and promise was received these will be in before the first of January.

Rev. Walter Jackson, subbing for Superintendent M. R. Shrader as Court of Honor chairman reported that during 1936 53 boys have been elevated to second class rank; 22 to first class; 19 to Star Scout; three to Life Scout and four to Eagle Scout (one of the latter being a Plattsmouth troop member).

Scoutmasters and committee members rendered reports on camping activities of their troops during the year. One troop, No. 346, of Nebraska City, had taken a fishing trip to Minnesota. Other troops had sent numerous boys to council camps, where they had opportunity to become acquainted with Scouts from other towns.

Camp Quilvera at Louisville will not be operated in the future, and it is possible a southeastern Nebraska camp for Arbor Lodge and Falls City districts may be located in the vicinity of Auburn.

Willis V. Elliott, field executive of the Cornhusker council, who pays regular visits to the district called attention to the poor attendance at training courses, of which two were held during the year. He stated a highly specialized training course for Scouters would be held at Peru Normal soon, taking several nights to complete. This is largely a lecture

Laughing Around the World

With IRVIN S. COBB

Kind Words for Us Yanks

By IRVIN S. COBB

HERE are two compliments from widely different sources for Yankee valor:

In 1914, R. H. Davis, the magazine editor, was visiting G. K.

Chesterton, the English writer, at the latter's home near London. Davis was standing with his back to the fireplace when his host entered the room.

"You astonish me, Mr. Davis," said Chesterton. "I didn't know an American ever turned his back to British fire."

In Paris a column of our troops marched under the Arc de Triomphe in the parade in honor of the French unknown soldier. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the commanding officer approached the Marshal for instructions.

"Do we go back, Marshal, the way we came?" he asked. "It's a one way arch."

With a smile the great Frenchman made answer: "No, sir. The American army never goes back!" (American News Features, Inc.)

course, and will be under direction of A. B. Clayburn, of Peru, leadership chairman.

Report was also made of the successful circus at Auburn last spring in spite of bad weather.

At this time Santa Claus put in his appearance and passed out gifts to the members of the party, which they were required to unwrap and exhibit, as they came in for good natured "ribbings."

As secretary, Mr. Elliott, rendered the report from that angle, urging the importance of building a troop program. He said Scouting is not just another organization, something to belong to, but rather a program that is ever progressing, having for its basic principle "doing something." The troops, districts and areas that are successful plan their programs, he said, and then live up to the plans.

At this point plans for 1937 in Arbor Lodge district, including the holding of the big spring activity here, were discussed.

Election of Officers

The nominating committee recommended the following for district officers, the report being adopted by a unanimous vote:

Bert Swalley, Nebraska City, chairman; Dr. C. A. Lutgen, Auburn, organization vice chairman; E. H. Wescott, Plattsmouth, camping vice chairman; B. F. Parnell, Peru, and G. M. Cerum, Louisville, third and fourth vice chairmen; C. D. Damast, Nebraska City, finance chairman; Rev. Walter Jackson, Nebraska City, court of honor chairman, with Rev. Glenn W. Marshall, of Auburn, assistant; Elmer Webb, Plattsmouth, publicity chairman, and A. B. Clayburn, Peru, leadership chairman.

A special chairmanship was set up during the first half of the year to handle contact relations for the national jamboree to be held in Washington this summer. Duke Groves of Nebraska City was named as chairman of this special committee.

Those who attended from here included J. A. Capwell and Elmer Webb of the Legion troop committee, Scoutmaster Raymond Larson and John Turner, a member of the troop committee the past two years. Other members of the troop committee and Assistant Scoutmaster Lee Knolle were unable to attend.

FEW SEEK SHELTER

City police report that very few flunkers are to be found seeking shelter at night at the city jail, a marked contrast to the past few years when the jail was sometimes crowded to its capacity. One or two seems to be the extent of the callers at night and many nights there is no one to repose in the comfort of the city prison.

PLEASANTVIEW SCHOOL NOTES

The three act play, "Hobgoblin House," was given at Pleasant View school on Friday night, November 27 and repeated on Monday night, November 30th. A large crowd greeted the players both nights.

The characters in the play were: Darius Krupp, Bob Doty, Miss Priscilla Carter, Osa Marie Boedeker.

Marian Carter, Bobby Mayfield, Jill Carter, Josephine Fitch, Frank Harlow, John Deterding, Jack Loring, Robert Ahrens, Susan Parkins, Kathryn Urish, Henry Goobar, Stanley Doty, Delilah Worts, Wilma Livingstone, Bluebeard Bronson, Gerald Puls, Bill Wilkens, Elmer Fitch, Patricia Arnold, Wanda Schomaker.

Two adult door prizes were given each night and one child's door prize.

The lucky persons Friday night were Earl Hickman, of Dorchester; Mrs. John Ferris, of Murray, and Barbara Doty, of Weeping Water. On Monday night the winners were Mrs. Louie Ehlers, of Weeping Water; Mrs. Arnold Schlietert, of Manley, and Lyle Schafer, of Murray.

The Pleasant View school wishes to express thanks to Evelyn Kahland for playing the piano between acts; to John Murdoch, Jr., for his piano accompaniment; Edward Boedeker for making foot lights; Will Philpot for lumber to extend the stage; Cyrus Livingston and J. W. Philpot for hauling; Gerald Puls and Elmer Fitch for taking extra parts in the play; De Forest Philpot, Cyrus Livingston and Henry Urish for taking in tickets at the door. The play was coached by Esther Tritsch, who called upon Florene Schafer to help her.

The pupils worked hard on the play, but were well remunerated for their efforts.

LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA

From Monday's Daily—
A letter arrived today from Mrs. T. J. Will, who, with her family, recently moved to California. She writes:

"We left Murray, Neb., at 5 o'clock Saturday evening and arrived at our destination in Van Nuys, Calif., at 7:45 the following Monday evening. We stopped only to service the car. James and Margaret took turns driving. It snowed on us all the way through Wyoming."

"We are now in our own home and pretty well settled. Thanksgiving day we entertained at dinner, Mr. and Mrs. F. Clare Thomas and daughter, Jane, of Riverside, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Will and daughter, Ann, of Van Nuys; and Mrs. Grover Will and daughter, Virginia, of Kerby, Oregon. All of them are former Plattsmouth people."

She adds, "Plattsmouth will always hold a place in our hearts as our parents and grandparents were some of the very first pioneers. My grandfather, Dr. A. L. Childs, was instrumental in establishing Nebraska as an agricultural state. My other grandfather, Thomas Thomas, Sr. in the very early days, kept a stage house where freighters stopped and sometimes bands of Indians spent the night with the family. They called my grandmother 'Good Susan.'"

"We still own Whitview, the farm north of town, and Mr. Will probably be back in Plattsmouth in the spring to look after the farm."

"Yours truly,
"MAY E. WILL."

The Journal is very glad to have letters from its friends who are in distant points and feel sure the readers enjoy words of greeting from former residents of the city.

SOCIAL

From Monday's Daily—

Shower for Bride—

Mrs. Ray Bockman, formerly Miss Estelle Beverage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beverage, was honored at a shower at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. O. Baier at Avoca last Wednesday evening. Thirty classmates and friends of the bride attended. Bits of advice to the bride were written by the girls then the guests played bingo. Mr. and Mrs. Bockman left from Avoca Thursday morning for their new home near Grand Island.

Here from Chicago—

Harley Becker of Chicago spent the week-end in Plattsmouth visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Becker, and with his sisters, Mrs. Wm. Schmidtman, Jr., and Mrs. John Sattler, Jr. He returned to Chicago last evening to resume his work as manager of a Spalding sporting goods store there.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Guest from Grant—

Mrs. George Mumm entertained in honor of Mrs. Clara Twiss of Grant, Nebr., last Tuesday. Mrs. Twiss is formerly of Plattsmouth. She has been visiting at the Mumm home in Plattsmouth and with her brother, Clarence Mumm, in Omaha during the past two weeks. Mrs. Twiss left for her home Sunday.

Birthday Surprise—

Mr. and Mrs. George Mumm celebrate their birthdays together, December 6. A group of relatives brought Sunday dinner and gave a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. Mumm. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Sack, Walter Fulton, and Peter Mumm.

Entertains at Contract—

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beverage entertained the members of the contract bridge club at a party at their home Sunday evening. Mrs. Walter Tritsch won high for the ladies and Mrs. Fred Sharpnack, second. Fred Sharpnack was high for men and Richard Beverage took second.

Friday Evening Party—

Mrs. Florence Coleman entertained the bridge club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Niel Friday evening. Prizes went to Mrs. Wm. Swanda, high, and Mrs. Wm. Wells, consolation, for the ladies. John Woest was high and Wm. Swanda took consolation for the men.

California Bound—

Don Rainey and Roy Turner left yesterday for Los Angeles, Calif. They are driving new cars through for an Omaha dealer. They expect to take jobs in California and if the work is satisfactory they will make their homes there. Mrs. Turner expects to join her husband on the west coast soon.

Leave for California—

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Davis leave this afternoon for a trip to California. They plan to drive to Lincoln to have dinner with Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. Parker, then drive to Geneva tomorrow morning. They will be joined at Geneva by Mr. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Davis. They will make the trip by way of Cheyenne, Salt Lake City, Portland, Ore., then down the coast to Los Angeles.

Christmas is to be spent with friends in Paso Robles. Mr. and Mrs. Davis plan to attend the Washington-Pittsburgh game at the Rose Bowl on New Year's day. They expect to return the middle of January.

Standard Bearers—

Progress was shown by both the blue and white circles of the Standard Bearers at the meeting last evening. Each side has gained two new members since the last meeting. Mary Kay Wiles is president of the whites and Mary Ann Highfield of the blues. Mrs. Merrit Kerr explained the object of the contest—new members and perfect attendance. The losing side will entertain the winners at the end of the year.

During the business meeting the girls decided to hold their meetings on the first Monday in each month. Mamie Schwenecker presided.

Mary McCarroll read the scripture, taken from the second chapter of St. Luke. Mary Ann Highfield presented the third chapter of the missionary study on lands and life in Africa. Mrs. Kerr led games following the meeting.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Spending Christmas in East—

Miss Eleanor Olson leaves tomorrow for a Christmas vacation in the east. She plans to visit her brother in Illinois, Wilbur Olson, a few days.

She will then go north to Detroit, through Canada, to Niagara Falls thence to Beardston, Mass., where she will visit her sister, Miss Esther Olson. The two girls plan to spend Christmas in Boston.

D. A. R. Entertains Young Women—

Young women of the Plattsmouth high school who will be eligible for D. A. R. were guests of honor at the meeting last evening. Miss Katherine Luke was the main speaker on the program. She told of the Youth Conference which she attended at Lakeside, Ohio, last summer.

Mrs. E. H. Wescott explained the work of the D. A. R. organization to the twenty-four girls who were guests. Miss Violet Dodge, Mrs. William Clement and Mrs. Henry McMaken of Omaha were also at the meeting at the E. H. Wescott home.

Covered Dish Supper—

Girls of the Westminster Guild met at the home of Mrs. Marjorie Lohnes last evening for their Christmas party. A covered dish supper was served at 7 o'clock. After the meal the members gathered around the Christmas tree for the gift exchange. A handkerchief shower was given for Miss Eleanor Olson, president.

who is leaving for Boston Thursday. Each girl brought five small gifts to be sent to the Presbyterian Indian school in Ganado, New Mexico. This is the custom in the club. A great deal of enjoyment was derived from the opening of the gifts for the children.

Miss Helen Hofacker won the prize for carrying the most clothespins and Eleanor Olson was able to make the most words from Merry Christmas. Ellen Kaffenberger had the low number.

Mrs. H. G. McClusky and Mrs. Frank Cloldt, sponsors, attended and 15 members were present.
