

MURDOCK ITEMS

Henry Amgwert and wife were look after some business. Mrs. A. J. Tool accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Harger were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heinemann.

Charles Kupke was called to Ashland last Wednesday afternoon to look after business matters for a short time.

Henry Heinemann and Herbert Bornemeier were assisting Emil Lau dress his winter supply of hogs last Wednesday.

Elmer Schliefer, who some time since held a sale and has quit farming, has purchased a residence property in Murdock and moved to town to reside.

Fred Towle was looking after business matters in Murdock on Wednesday of last week. The matter of sending his children to the Murdock schools, brings Mr. Towle to Murdock oftener than when they attended at Wabash.

The T. W. Engle Lumber company, which operates yards at Auburn, Elmwood and Murdock, sent a truck up from their Auburn yards last Monday after a truck load of coal to tide them over until some cars which they had in transit might arrive.

G. Bauer who has been sick during the past few weeks, confined to his bed the greater portion of the time, is much better now, and is able to be up and about. Last Saturday he was even able to assist with the task of sawing wood at the Albert Theil home.

I. C. McCrorey, having gotten the new building enclosed so it can be used and installed a heating plant therein is now using the same, and with a door between the greasing room and the office of the service station, is heating both with one heating plant.

Alfred Rikkl, who is assisting in the management of the store of Oscar Rikkl at Enid, Oklahoma, expects to make a visit in and about Murdock shortly after the first of the year. Trade is rather brisk during the holidays, which prevents his return until later. The young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rikkl.

Rev. Howard Hunter, field secretary of the Wesleyan University at Lincoln, spoke at convocation at the high school last Friday afternoon on "The Necessity of a Good Preparation before College Days."

Later he addressed the Senior class and introduced more particularly the University. There are thirteen Seniors in the class this year.

A sacred cantata is being prepared under the auspices of the Murdock Young Peoples' organizations, next Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m., December 20th, entitled "The Last Star." The impressive message and the beautiful music will be a benediction to all who shall attend. Mrs. Harvey Schwab will take the speaking parts.

A Friend of the Scholars W. O. Gillespie ("Odd" as he is familiarly called) is one of the very good and well beloved friends of the school children, especially those he hauls to and from school each day. There are a considerable number of them, and instead of presenting them with a Christmas present, last Monday evening he took them all in the school bus for a trip to Ashland, where he treated them to a very entertaining picture show. All declare he is one of the very best of men and it looks as though they are about right.

Members of the Junior class of the Murdock high school were in Ashland the same evening and enjoyed attending the same show that the rural pupils were treated to.

Building Fire Wagon The Murdock fire department are building a fire cart that can be pulled by hand or hooked on behind an automobile, should one be handy. This new cart, on which they are doing practically all the work themselves, will carry their hose and other fire fighting paraphernalia and enable them to make quick runs to the scene of any fire that may occur.

The state fire marshal was in Murdock during the past week and made a critical examination of the new cart, pronouncing it one of the very finest he had seen, which speaks well for the ability and handicraft of the Murdock fire boys.

Visited Here Several Days Mr. and Mrs. Court Opetz who reside at Binger, Oklahoma, visited here a number of days during the past week with the mother of Mrs. Opetz, Mrs. Margaret Rikkl and with other relatives residing in this vicinity. They were enjoying their stay very much, it having been some time since they were last here.

Holding Annual Elections The various auxiliary organizations connected with the Evangelical church of Murdock, including the Ladies Aid, the Young Peoples society and other similar groups, are holding their annual elections of officers during the fore part of this month. The names of those elected in the different societies will be published later.

Feeling Some Better Louis Schmidt, who has been in rather poor health for several weeks and who was very seriously ill for a time, went to Ashland for an examination to determine the nature of his illness, so as to have the same properly treated. He has not had a diagnosis as yet, but is hoping that in any event he may find relief from his illness soon.

Lived in Cass County 66 Years Robert Crawford was born in Cass county a few miles north of where Murdock now stands and has resided in the county during the entire time. He lived on the farm where he was born for the first 35 years and since that time has made his home in Murdock. Mr. Crawford says he has never been out of the state and but a few times out of the county, he being at Ashland a few times and a couple of times at Lincoln and once to Omaha. The only time he has ever seen a river with the exception of the Platte was when he accompanied a friend, who was delivering a truck load of stock to South Omaha.

Will Eat Oysters The Murdock Fire department, who are a lively as well as sociable set of valiant fire fighters are to feast on December 17th, when they will eat oysters at the Murdock town hall. They will also give a benefit dance which will be given on December 31st.

New Members of Church Those who joined the Murdock Evangelical church Sunday morning, December 6, were: Miss Mildred Schlapf, Miss Carolyn Schaffer, Charles Schaffer, Mrs. Helen Folk Rase and Mr. Lawrence Rase. Circumstances prevented others from joining the ranks at that time. The church is composed of a body of believers in Jesus Christ. She is a living organism to build Christian faith in a community, to represent Jesus Christ upon the earth, to purify society, with the dynamic principles of righteousness and salvation, and to develop Christ-like personalities in the hearts of believers. This task is tremendous. It is still unfinished, Christ needs and is still calling for the surrendered life and whole-hearted loyalties of men.

Enjoyed Pleasant Evening On Tuesday evening of last week the lovers of pinocle were gathered at the home of J. W. Kruger and wife, where all enjoyed a very fine evening with games of pinocle and some good eats. The winnings of the games were considerably scattered, but the losing was rather bunched. Chester Elsmere won the consolation prize with hands down.

Held Annual Christmas Party The Murdock Ladies Aid met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. H. Miller for their annual Christmas party. The occasion was delightful in that thirty women gathered in the spirit of the Christmas season and enjoyed the fellowship throughout the afternoon. The usual routine work was forgotten for the day. Mrs. Leo Rikkl and her assistants arranged and carried forth a well prepared program and distribution of gifts. Throughout the year, each member has cherished a secret friend within the organization. On various occasions tokens have been bestowed upon that friend, without knowing who bestowed the remembrance. But last Thursday the secret became known. Everyone gave a Christmas remembrance and revealed her identity. The occasion was most revealing and interesting.

A covered dish luncheon was served in an appropriate manner after the election. During the jolly period for electing next year's staff, Mrs. Leo Rikkl was again elected president; Mrs. William Eisele, vice president; Mrs. Fred Buell, secretary and Mrs. William Zabel, treasurer.

1854-1936—A Review By L. Neitzel This is November 12, 1936, the 82nd milestone since November 12, 1854; and as I look back over the "long, long trail," I can see the guiding hand of a loving Father. I was always religiously inclined; that kept me from many a pitfall, where the great masses of youth make their sad mistakes. Jesus knew what he was saying when he laid down the fundamental law of his Kingdom, as recorded in Matt. 6:33, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you."

When I finally came to get into the Kingdom, it took four long years before I found the pearl of great price. January 3, 1877, in the midnight hour, Jesus came into my heart, and has dwelled there ever since. It has been a sweet companionship. He has never disappointed me. So then, when I had found the Kingdom of God, things needed for my happiness and comfort were "added." Three months later God led me to the finest, most beautiful girl in the world; I won her heart and she became mine on February 19, 1878. Our life from then on was a wonderful happy walk with Jesus as our companion. This was a wonderful "addition," which I held and cherished for more than 58 years (up until March 24th of this year, when God took her home).

Four lovely babies were added for good measure for our enjoyment. They were gladly received with thanksgiving; all were dedicated to God in holy baptism, and grew up to man and womanhood.

For 58 years God "added" one responsibility after another unto me: Sunday school teacher, class leader, preacher, writer on Bible topics and last but not least editor of International Sunday school lessons. As I responded to the call to these activities, God "added" the ability; that is what the word responsibility implies, when thus divided—"responsibility."

January 1, 1926, I had to give up my Sunday school class on account of defective hearing. I still help in teaching and an occasional sermon is delivered, as God gives me strength. I want to testify here and now to the glory of my Master for giving me a good mind (which is clearer and stronger now than at any time), while many younger men have begun to fail at sixty years and less. God has further "added" home comforts and a host of friends that make life worth while. How poor and joyless would life be were it not for friends true, faithful and loyal.

But the crowning "addition" of all the blessed things is: "The abiding Christ." I will come in to him and will sup with him, and he-with me." (Rev. 3:20). Not a passing guest, but an abiding friend. "Blessing, and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen!" (Rev. 7:12).

Funeral of Geo. Lamphere Wednesday

Old Resident of City Is Laid to Rest in Community Where He Long Made Home.

Wednesday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home was held the last rites for George A. Lamphere, a resident of Plattsmouth for many years, who passed away on December 5th at Humansville, Missouri, where he had made his home for the past seven years. In recent years Mr. Lamphere has been a sufferer from eye trouble and which had made him practically helpless.

The services at the funeral home were conducted by the Rev. V. C. Wright, pastor of the First Methodist church, who brought from the scriptures words of comfort for the members of the bereaved family circle.

Mrs. E. H. Wescott gave two of the old and loved hymns, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" and "Rock of Ages."

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery beside the wife who had preceded him in death. The pall bearers were selected from the old friends and members of the L. O. O. F. Harry Kruger, Fred H. Mumm, T. E. Olson, John Lutz, Henry Lutz, George Hall.

George Augustus Lamphere was born in Richland Center, Salina county, Wisconsin, January 13, 1861. When thirteen years of age he came to Nebraska where he spent practically all of his lifetime. He was in the employ of the Burlington railroad in the Plattsmouth shops for a period of thirty-nine years, being engaged in the blacksmith shop.

He was married to Miss Rose Clutter on June 3, 1892, she passing away June 13, 1923. There was of this union twelve children, those surviving the passing of the father being Bert, Charles and John of Plattsmouth; Bernie of Omaha; Henry of Humansville, Missouri; Clara Arnold, Fremont; Roy, San Diego, California; Violet Owens, Council Bluffs; Lillian Michael, Jackson, Michigan; two brothers, Ben, Humansville, Mo.; Melvin, Jordan, Montana; several grandchildren and a large number of friends.

member. Various games were enjoyed under the direction of Mrs. L. W. Rase and a generous luncheon was served at a late hour. Nearly all the members were present and extended to Mrs. Lee their well wishes and a little token of their esteem and love.

The community deeply regrets the departure of Dr. and Mrs. Lee and their son, Larry, after being in this community for nearly ten years. But it desires for them great success in their new location and many warm friends and neighbors.

Held Annual Business Meeting

The Evangelical Louisville congregation met in annual business session last Wednesday evening to elect officers for the coming year. After an inspiring devotional period, in which many took part, the pastor opened the official business by reading the membership roll of the church. The duties and rules for class leaders and their assistants were given for information, after which August Ruge was elected class leader and William Luetchens his assistant for the north class. Herman F. Schewepe and William Vogt became leaders of the south class. They are elected for a term of two years. August Ruge has now served as a class leader for seventeen consecutive years, following in his father's footsteps, who held the honored position before him for 25 years.

H. F. Luetchens was re-elected as a church trustee for a term of three years, which also places him upon the cemetery board for the coming year with Fred Luetchens and Daniel Panska.

The election of a leader for Sunday school and Christian Education purposes went to Herbert Oehlerking, who serves for his second year. Daniel Panska, Marie Schewepe and William Vogt will act as vice superintendent, secretary and treasurer. Miss Edna Luetchens was chosen as the church pianist and her cousin, Esther Luetchens as the assistant pianist.

COUNTY CLUB NEWS

Christmas parties were combined with a number of the extension club meetings during the past week. Women of extension clubs, all homemakers, form the nucleus of the spirit of Christmas.

Members of the Camp Creek club met with Mrs. Arthur Blodgett for the December lesson on "Decorative Objects One Can Make." Mrs. Robert Kunz assisted. Plans were made for a New Year party. Mrs. Harvey Heier and Mrs. Curley Mockenhaupt were visitors. Useful gifts were presented to each member.

Mrs. Mike Sheehan and Mrs. Mattis Beckenridge presented the lesson to the On Time club December 1 at the home of Mrs. Grover Lorenson. Each member made a candy dish during the meeting.

Mrs. John Hansen of Nehawka entertained the Happy Day Extension club December 3. Miss Frances Jane Hansen assisted. Misses Pauline Ingwerson and Frances Jane Hansen presented the lesson of the month.

Plans were made for a Christmas party at the meeting of the Dutch Academy club at the home of Mrs. Wm. Wendt December 2. Group singing preceded the lesson.

The Center Extension club met at the home of Mrs. H. Haws December 1. After reading the collect and singing the song for the month, the leaders presented the lesson, showing how attractive objects can be made from a tin can. Gifts were exchanged after the meeting.

Nehawka Extension club met at the home of Mrs. Leo Switzer December 3. Hostesses were Mrs. Mark Burton, Mrs. Grover Hoback, and Mrs. George Poules. The lesson was presented by Mrs. William Nixon and Mrs. Gilbert Edwards. 13 members and two guests, Mrs. Henry Wessel and Mrs. A. W. Fulton, were present.

Members of the Mynard Homemakers held an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed. Spangler November 8. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Agnes Dill and Mrs. Francis Toman following a covered dish luncheon.

Nehawka Woman's Club—

The Nehawka Woman's club held their December meeting Friday the 4th at the home of Mrs. Wm. Ost with Mrs. Delbert Lindsay assisting. Mrs. Carl Balfour, president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Nelson Berger led the flag salute.

Mrs. Mary Norris was in charge of the devotionals. Mrs. E. A. Nutzman and Mrs. H. L. Kuntz sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and Mrs. Norris read the 2nd chapter of St. Luke they sang "Holy Night." Mrs. Ivan Balfour gave a talk on International Relations. Mrs. R. C. Pollard was program leader and her subject was "Neighbors of the North." Preceding the discussion Mrs. E. A. Nutzman sang a solo entitled "The Eskimo." Mrs. Pollard then took the members for a visit to Eskimo land, giving a description of the Eskimo, their homes, mode of living and the kind of food they eat. This was enjoyed by all.

There was a Christmas tree loaded with gifts. The members sang Christmas carols and Mrs. Ivan Balfour and Mrs. John Ketelhut distributed the gifts. These gifts were brought by the mystery daughters and given to their secret pals.

Mrs. Carl Balfour and Mrs. George Sheldon presided at the serving table. The table had a centerpiece of an Eskimo igloo.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Rebecca Burris, Miss Della Wilson of Nebraska City, and Mrs. C. W. Alvord of Minneapolis, Minn.

New members of the club are Mrs. Mollie Magney and Mrs. John Stefens.

Mrs. George Topfiff entertained the Merry Workers club December 8. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. Mrs. Harry Noel and Mrs. George McKay gave instruction on the lesson of the month. Late in the afternoon the members gathered around a table filled with Christmas packages—a result of each member's "capsule friend." Mrs. W. P. Kraeger was a new member in the club.

Mrs. Otto Miller entertained the Four Square club of Murdock December 7. Mrs. Schwab took charge of the musical numbers. The project leaders demonstrated articles made from tin cans and crepe paper.

Thursday evening the club held a surprise farewell party for Mrs. L. D. Lee at the home of Mrs. Reinke and presented a handkerchief shower to her. A jolly time was had with games and visiting. Mrs. Lee plans to leave soon for her new home in Los Angeles, Calif.

Golden Rod Study Club—

Mrs. B. W. Livingston entertained the Golden Rod Study club at her picturesque country home. She was assisted by Mrs. Myron Wiles and Mrs. Henry Hill.

A musical program was given following the business meeting. Mrs. Albert Wiles played variations of Christmas songs. Mrs. Roy Cole directed the singing of Christmas carols. The accompaniment was played by Mrs. Wm. Minford.

"Why We Read the Bible" was the topic of the lesson. Mrs. Howard Wiles directed the study. She explained different verses and helps obtained from them. A written quiz was given at the conclusion. Mrs. Herman Meisinger won the prize for answering the most questions.

Gifts were hidden in the home. Each was given a number and the members had a jolly time in the search for the presents. Twenty-one attended the meeting. A Christmas basket was prepared for Mrs. Amanda Jean, a charter member of the club, who was unable to be present.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers always pay top prices.
