

MANLEY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Seiker, of Elmwood, were visiting relatives and friends in Manley Thursday of last week.

Sherman Hathaway, proprietor of the Manley cafe, visited friends at Union a few days during the early part of last week.

Mike Honor was called to Omaha last Wednesday morning, where he had some business matters to look after for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lopp of near Nehawka were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hathaway.

Mrs. Catherine Earhardt, who has been visiting for some time with her son, Clarence Earhardt, at Nebraska City during the past couple of weeks, returned to her home here last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hohmann were in Nebraska City Sunday, going to visit a brother of the former, who has been in the hospital there during the past three weeks, recovering from an operation. They found him getting along very well. Mrs. Harry Haws was a passenger to Omaha Wednesday, going up for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Salberg, where she was able to assist with the celebration of the passing of the birthday of Mr. Salberg.

Enjoyable Christmas Party

Mrs. O. E. McDonald was hostess to a very enjoyable Christmas party at her home here Tuesday afternoon, December 8th. Twelve invited guests were present. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed and at the proper hour a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present were Mesdames Walter O'Brien, Edna Stander, Joe Sheehan, Fred Bauer, Mike Sheehan, Glen Miller, Ralph Welte, John Sheehan, Hugh O'Brien and Margarite Myers.

Attended Welfare Meet

Mesdames Harry Haws and Oscar Dowler were at Weeping Water last Tuesday afternoon to attend a meeting of the Weeping Water Welfare club, which was holding a pleasant and unique program and Christmas party with an exchange of Christmas presents among the members, as well as preparing for Christmas, which is so near at hand.

No Name Club Meets

The No Name club of Manley and Weeping Water met last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Rudolph Bergman, enjoying a very pleasant afternoon and an excellent program, as well as a social hour climaxed with the serving of a luncheon.

F. D. R. Pinochle Club

The F. D. R. Pinochle club met again last Sunday for another pleasant session with the cards, this time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moeckenhaupt. High scores were won by Mrs. Frank Bergman and Harry Haws, with consolation honors to Frank Riester. The traveling prize was won by Frank Bergman.

New Pastor Installed

The Rev. Father Hoffman, who has been parish priest at Falls City, where he was active in civic and other community affairs, having recently been transferred to Manley to take over the duties of pastor of the St. Patrick's Catholic church here, was inducted into the pastorate here last Wednesday morning at 9:30.

The service of installation was conducted by the Very Rev. Father Adolph Mosler, of Plattsmouth, assisted by Rev. Father George Agius, also of Plattsmouth. A large number of the members of the parish were present to enjoy the ceremonies.

Elected for Another Year

At a meeting of the governing board of the Manley Farmers elevator, they considered a number of matters in regard to the business and re-elected Harry Haws as manager of the business, a position he has held for several years. An inspector for the Farmers Elevator organizations of the state was here recently and examined the books of the company, making his report in which it was shown that the Manley Farmers elevator had the best rating of all the farmers elevators in the state, which speaks very well for Mr. Haws.
