The Deceased Had Been Forehanded

By IRVIN S. COBB

IN THE spring of 1919—a few months after the Eighteenth Amendment went into effect—a Texan passed from this life.

While the funeral services were in progress at the late home of the deceased, two of the men mourners stood on the front porch of the house lamenting the passing of their friends and praising his virtues.

SAYS TELEPATHY EXISTS

Durham, N. C. — Experiments which he says mathematically prove the existence of telepathy were made public by Prof. Rhine, of Duke university.

Dr. Rhine has been making telepathy experiments for five years and these new results come from tests set up to meet criticisms of other scientists that the former proofs might have been due to involuntary whispering, sensory clues or habitual symmetry of mental patterns.

Miss Sara Ownbey, Duke psychologist, imagined these cards, one after another, as they might lie in the pack. "GZ" another Duke psychologist, a man, sat with eyes closed, in deep abstraction from his surroundings, and told card by card what Miss Ownbey was thinking.

DO YOU KNOW—

That wedding anniversaries are symbolical? The first signifies cotton—the second is paper—third, leather—fifth, wooden—the seventh is woolen—tenth, tin—the twelfth, silk and fine linen—fifteenth, crystal—twentieth, china—twenty-fifth, silver—fortieth, ruby—the fiftieth is golden and seventy-fifth, diamond.

EXPECTANT FATHERS AIDED

Quincy, Mass.—An alert young physician, Dr. Joseph P. Leone, superintendent of Quincy hospital, has found a way to still the beat of nervous feet in his institution's corridors—he's installing a special room for expectant fathers.

The room, Dr. Leone hopes will have the homelike atmosphere of a man's den/lounges, blankets, easy chairs, a writing desk, reading lamps, books and magazines.
