

MURDOCK ITEMS

Everett Heier has purchased a new 1937 model Oldsmobile.

Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Lee drove to Plattsmouth a few days before Christmas on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool were guests at the home of their son, Kenneth Tool and wife, of Wahoo, Christmas day.

Little Dona Rae Thoms, who has been quite sick the past week, is reported much improved and able to be about again.

Merideth Weddell, who is employed in Lincoln, was enjoying Christmas day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Weddell.

Sheriff Homer Sylvester and his brother, Cass, who is deputy, were in Murdock the fore part of last week, looking after business matters.

Henry Amgwert, wife and son were in Omaha Christmas day, being guests at the home of a sister of Mr. Amgwert, Mrs. L. A. Watson and husband.

Mrs. Alvin Bornemeier and young son Don were visiting for the past week at the home of the parents of Mrs. Bornemeier, Mr. and Mrs. Seik-Jost, of Eustis.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jones, of near South Bend, were guests over Christmas at the home of Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. McCroroy, where all enjoyed a splendid Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool and their son, Prof. Douglas Tool, who is home from his school work at Atlanta, spent Christmas day in Omaha at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Work and children.

Dr. C. J. Farmanack, the new physician who succeeds Dr. L. D. Lee, in order to keep in touch with the march of events, has arranged to have the Plattsmouth Journal visit his office twice weekly during the coming year.

That jovial old bird, the stork, has been making frequent trips to this vicinity of late, his last visit being at the home of A. C. Hinkle, where he left a very fine little baby girl, weighing 5 1/2 pounds. Mother and daughter doing nicely.

Mrs. Dan Panska spent several days in Lincoln as a guest of two of her aunts, who reside there. On her return, she was accompanied by her daughter, who is attending the University of Nebraska, but comes home for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rikli, who have been married twenty-five years, enjoyed an anniversary dinner at their home Sunday, December 27. Their son, Albert, who is employed in Enid, Oklahoma, arrived the latter part of the week and was able to be present at this anniversary celebration.

Reported Improving

Mrs. O. H. Robson, daughter of Edward Gannaway, who was seriously ill and was forced to undergo an operation at a Lincoln hospital recently, is now reported as being on the road to recovery.

Murdock Wins at Basket Ball

In a double game which was staged last Tuesday evening between the basketball teams of Murdock and Greenwood, at the Murdock gym, the local team won over the visitors by a score of 19 to 14 and the Murdock Reserves won their game by a score of 15 to 8.

Enjoyed Christmas Together

Mrs. Hannah McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McDonald entertained at their home in Murdock on Christmas day, when they were lost and hostess to the other members of the family, who were gathered to celebrate the occasion. A sumptuous dinner was served. Among those who were present besides Mrs. Hannah McDonald and the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McDonald, the host and hostesses, were Lacey McDonald and family, of Murdock; Gayle McDonald and family of Hampton; Harry Gillespie and wife of North Loup; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thimgan and son Larry and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thimgan, of Plattsmouth.

Entertained the Family

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kupke entertained at their home for the day and dinner last Sunday, having as their guests for the occasion the entire family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bohison and kiddies, of Omaha; Carl Kupke and family of near Greenwood and Albert Kupke and Gust Kupke and families who live in the country.

Home from Hospital

Mrs. Henry Timm, Jr., who has been at the hospital in Lincoln for

A. E. JOHNSON, Dentist
Office in First National Bank Building
Office, 236 Residence, 597

some time, where she underwent an operation for the removal of gall stones, was able to return home last week. Walter Thimgan went over and with the husband brought Mrs. Timm home. It is hoped she will continue to improve and be able to resume her usual activities soon.

For Benefit of Fire Department

The Murdock Volunteer Fire department is composed of a group of citizens who are ready and willing to answer fire calls and do everything possible night or day to save property that may be in danger of destruction. Not only does their service include the town, but the adjoining countryside as well and they have special equipment for fighting fires where water service is not available. They hope to further increase their equipment and to this end are giving a benefit dance this coming New Year's eve and will use the money derived therefrom to buy supplies.

The boys are deserving of every success and we trust the public will turn out en masse at this dance to aid the cause and incidentally enjoy a good time themselves.

Tots Give Interesting Program

The scholars of the first and second grades gave a very fine program last Wednesday afternoon to mark the close of school for the Christmas holidays. Following the program, there was an exchange of gifts, with the teachers included among those who received remembrances. Treats of candy were also provided for the little ones. Chester Elsemann acted as substitute for Santa Claus and gave out the presents and treats.

With the closing of school until Monday, January 4th, the teachers also received from Santa Claus their pay checks and were thus able to start out for their respective homes with an abundance of funds to help make this a merry Christmas.

The program was well rendered and a most pleasant time was had by all.

A Delayed Celebration

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Straich was the scene of a very merry gathering Saturday night, when a postponed Christmas celebration was held. The entire family was able to be present upon this occasion, consisting of Martin Straich and family, Gustav Straich and family, William Straich and family and Joy Miller and family, the latter from near Elmwood.

Bought Their Supplies at Home

The local committees of the Murdock and Louisville churches in their preparation for the evening's programs held on Christmas eve, purchased their candy and other treats from local merchants, which was a very proper thing to do.

Held Annual Christmas Party

The church known as the Louisville Evangelical church and located east of town on the section road, held its annual Christmas party at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Schweppe. Gifts were exchanged and an excellent program was rendered.

Mrs. August Panska Entertained

Mrs. August Panska entertained at her home in Murdock on Christmas day, having as a guest her son, Daniel Panska and family of near Murdock, and the family of R. L. Panska of near Elmwood. A bounteous Christmas dinner was served, and the spirit of the season was very much in evidence as the children and their families came home to enjoy the holidays with the mother and grandmother.

Have a Surprise

Last Thursday evening after the Christmas program given by the Callahan young people, Rev. F. C. Weber and Mrs. Weber were invited to the basement of the church where the congregation had arranged a surprise for them. Good things were piled all around them by the men, and to top it all out the ladies presented Mrs. Weber with a most beautiful quilt with all the names of the ladies stitched into it by loving hands. It only shows the love and devotion of a congregation which can never be described in words.

TRUCKERS GET RAISE

Chicago.—Two trucking unions reached an agreement with the Cartage Exchange of Chicago for a $1,500,000 boost in the annual wages of about 10,000 drivers, beginning Jan. 1.

COUNTY CLUB NEWS

Murray Home Study Club— "Why I Read the Bible" was the lesson at the meeting of the Murray Home Study club last week. Mrs. Faris and Mrs. Gilmore presented the lesson. The Christmas story of the birth of Christ was also read from the Bible by Mrs. Faris. Mrs. Margaret Todd led the singing of Christmas carols.

During the afternoon a gift exchange was held. Mrs. Brendel and Mrs. Shubert were present for the first time this club year. Mrs. Brendel has been making her home in Lincoln during the school year and Mrs. Shubert is teaching.

The ladies also filled several baskets to be presented to the less fortunate. A basket of fruit was also sent to Mrs. Albert Young, a member of the club who is ill.

Twenty members and three guests were present. Hostesses were Mrs. C. D. Spangler and Mrs. Margaret Todd. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. A small Christmas tree was used as the centerpiece and tall red tapers were near the ends.

Extension Clubs—

Members of the Social Circle club held an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Tony Klimm with a covered dish luncheon at noon. The meeting was opened with the repetition of the Lord's Prayer. Gifts from the capsule friends were opened. Mrs. Klimm also presented gifts to each. The project leaders presented the lesson of the month.

Tuesday, December 15, the club held an old fashioned taffy pull at the community center. Corn was popped, games played, and a general good time enjoyed.

Mrs. George Bornemeier was hostess to the Elmwood Morning Glory club at the December meeting. Answers to roll call told when the members first discovered there was no Santa Claus. The project leaders presented the lesson of the month. Assistant hostesses were Miss Rosemary John and Mrs. John Hay. Plans were made for the Family night the 10th of January.

Twenty-four attended the club's Christmas party December 4. Mrs. Joe Kunz opened the program with a solo. Readings were given by Mrs. John Hay and Mrs. Harry Duckworth. Mrs. Ed Hall interpreted "The Night Before Christmas" while Santa filled the stockings with home made candy and presents. Lois Turner led games. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Emil Bornemeier with Mrs. Ed Hall and Mrs. Harry Duckworth assisting.
