

URGENT NEED FOR RED CROSS FUNDS CONTINUES

Despite the fact that Cass county has already contributed more than ten times the quota set in the original call for funds, the growing needs in the flood areas of the Ohio and Mississippi river valleys make it imperative that there be no let-down in the giving of funds to this worthy cause. In fact, there should and must be increased giving if the needs of the homeless refugees are to be met. A minimum of $11,000,000 will be necessary to carry on this work, every cent of which will be expended most judiciously.

Funds are being forwarded daily as reported from this different towns over the county. The response is gaining momentum daily and many chapters have passed their new enlarged objective, with continuing their vigorous campaigns. The total now being sought is limited only by the generosity of the American people, says a special bulletin to the Journal from Miss Augusta Robb, of Union, secretary of the Cass county chapter.

Two hundred counties in eleven states have been affected to date. There are now 200 Red Cross concentration and refugee camps in operation and 50 field hospitals with more than a thousand trained nurses working under Red Cross direction.

The National organization is providing food, shelter, clothing and hospitalization to those who have been overwhelmed and made homeless in the present catastrophe.

Churches throughout the land are backing the drive for increased contributions and on Sunday thousands of clergymen appealed to their congregations at the regular service to lend ear to the Red Cross fund appeal and to give increased amounts.

In many special contributions are being taken to add to the regular amounts previously given by individuals. Radio stations are also voicing the appeal to all America.

Cass county can well be proud of the way its people have responded so far to this appeal. Yet, it is very evident much more will be needed and we know the American people will respond and send dollars into the vast flood-stricken area, there to be administered by the National Red Cross in extending aid to the great numbers of homeless persons.

See the goods you buy. Catalog descriptions are alluring enough, but how about the goods when you get them?

Alvo News

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayres were in Ashland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Banning have both been ill with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dinges spent Sunday with Mr. Dinges' mother.

Wayne Kinney was quite ill with quinsy last week, but is much improved this week.

Quite a large crowd of young folks came over from Eagle Friday evening to hear Dr. Frank Cartwright speak.

Carl D. Ganz left the first of the week with a group of Nebraska bankers on a business trip to Washington, D. C.

Lloyd Mickle became ill at school Wednesday and Thursday forenoon he broke out with a rash which proved to be scarlet fever.

Thomas Stout has been confined to his bed the past three weeks on account of heart trouble. It is hoped he will soon be restored to better health.

Three scarlet fever cases have developed in this locality, according to Dr. Liston, of Elmwood, attending physician. They are Archie Miller, Ruth Ann Ganz and Lloyd Mickle.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dimmitt were guests at the Wm. McReynolds' home Wednesday, when the W. A. W. C. enjoyed a most delicious dinner and social time at the club's open meetings.

The W. C. Timblin family were calling on relatives at Palmyra Sunday. Mr. Timblin visited his sister, Mrs. Grinnell, who lives there and who has been ill with pneumonia the past three weeks. He found her improving very slowly.

Mrs. A. B. Stroemer took her father, J. C. Brown, of Wabash, to the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln Sunday. Mr. Brown had been ill for several days with inflammatory rheumatism and his condition became worse when he also took the flu. Mrs. Stroemer has driven to Lincoln nearly every day during the week to see her father.

Dr. Cartwright Speaks
Dr. Frank Cartwright, formerly a foreign missionary to China, delivered a special address at the local church Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock.

Earlier in the day, Dr. Cartwright and Dr. Spooner, superintendent of the Lincoln district, visited at the local school, where Dr. Cartwright spoke to the high school student body.

Entertained Club
Mrs. A. B. Stroemer was hostess to the Alvo Woman's Reading club last Thursday afternoon. About twenty ladies were present to enjoy a good book review on Agnes Turnbull's book, "The Rolling Years," given by Mrs. Earl Dreamer.

The afternoon was climaxed with the hostess serving delicious refreshments.

Aiding Flood Sufferers
The local Red Cross are doing all in their power to aid the flood sufferers through contributions. Close to $119 had been donated by local people up to the latter part of the week and more coming in each day. School children contributed $10.50.

of this amount, which was greatly appreciated. If you have not made a contribution yet and desire to do so, your help will be more than appreciated. You may make your contributions to Arthur Dinges of the Alvo Garage or Mrs. W. C. Timblin. They in turn will see that your donations are at once turned over to the American Red Cross officials.

Ministerial Meeting
The sub-district meeting of the ministers was held at the home of Rev. Ben Wallace on Wednesday, January 29. Sunday school superintendents were guests of the ministers and wives.

Plans were made for a leadership training school to be held at Alvo on the evenings of February 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 11 and 12. Meetings will commence at 8:00 o'clock and continue until 10:00 o'clock each night.

These courses will be taught by Dr. Spooner, district superintendent; Mrs. Bruce, well known teacher of Methods for Children, and Rev. Frank Finch, Nebraska conference director of religious education.

Aid Society Meeting
The Aid Society meeting that was scheduled to be held at the home of Mrs. Carl Ganz has been called off on account of scarlet fever. The committee in charge wish to contribute their loyal support in trying to prevent the spread of the disease.

Church and Sunday school services have been called off, too, for the time being.

Water in Tank Freezes
The water in the tank of the local water system froze up again last week for the second time during the present winter. The freezing is attributed to a small amount being consumed, which does not permit of rapid enough circulation so that the warmer water pumped from the well will keep the temperature of the tank above freezing point. The same trouble has been experienced at Murdock, where it has been necessary to keep the pumps running and drain some of the water back to keep up circulation.

If water consumption were greater, this trouble would not occur.

Returns from Hospital
From Friday's Daily—
Ralph Anderson returned to his home in Plattsmouth yesterday afternoon. He is still suffering with bruises and is confined to his bed most of the time but is getting along very well. He is walking with crutches. Mrs. Anderson, who has been with him at Council Bluffs, also returned.
