

Murray

Thomas Nelson was a guest of his son, Lawrence in Omaha last Sunday. Tommy Troop was called to Plattsmouth last Friday where he had some business to look after.

Luther Womack, living west of Murray was attending the sale of A. J. Wilson which was held last Saturday.

The Murray lumber yard who had about run out of coal and a great demand for the same, received a car last Monday afternoon which was very rapidly gobbled up.

A. G. Cisney and wife were guests for the day Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Peck of east of Avoca, where they enjoyed a very fine dinner. The ladies are sisters.

Walter Allen who has been and is employed in Omaha in a cafe, has been at home since last Saturday with his parents, C. W. Allen, remaining until Tuesday of this week.

Otis Baker who has been making his home with the W. O. Troop family and W. O. Troop were over to Plattsmouth last Monday afternoon where they were called to look after some business.

Capt. H. L. Gayer was on the South Omaha livestock market Monday with some 40 head of very fine hogs, they being delivered by the Murray Transfer company, who also delivered stock for Henry Kircker.

Will Entertain Kiddies.

The pastor of the Christian church, Rev. C. Loyd Shubert has arranged to entertain the boys and girls of the Christian Sunday school at a party for them at the parlors of the church this coming Friday evening. A pleasant time is assured all who attend.

Taking Short Vacation.

Miss Laurine Kaffenberger who is the general operator assisting Mrs. Vesta Clark, manager of the Murray telephone exchange, is enjoying a vacation extending over the present week and during her absence the position is being filled by Miss Freda Crunk of Union.

Undergoes Operation for Quinsy

Victor Wehrlein who has been suffering from an aggravated attack of quinsy which has been troubling him for some time and getting worse had to undergo an operation on his throat, with the hope that the operation would benefit the malady. He has received some relief from the operation.

Getting on Nicely Now.

Little Mary Catherine Sporer who has been in the Clarkson hospital for the past month where she has battled with the dread pneumonia for her life was able to be brought home last week and is making good progress towards recovery, which is very good news to her many friends and the friends of the family.

Returns to Iowa Home.

Miss Bettie Rice, a friend of Rev. Neil Stuart and wife of the Murray Presbyterian church, who has been visiting with the Stuart family for the past ten days departed early last Monday morning for her home in Iowa after having enjoyed a very pleasant visit here.

Home From Hospital.

Little twelve year old Jean Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Adams who has been at an Omaha hospital where she underwent an appendicitis operation, was able to return home early this week and is getting along very nicely.

Surprised on Birthday.

Rev. Neil Stuart of the Murray Presbyterian church was passing his birthday anniversary last Tuesday, but not thinking of the matter when he and the good wife were surprised by the arrival of his son, Rev. A. K. Stuart and wife and also Rev. J. M. Strong and wife of Omaha who came to greet Rev. Neil Stuart.

Entertained Mother and Sister.

Mrs. Fred L. Hill who was passing her birthday anniversary Monday of this week was also enjoying the company of her mother, Mrs. Henry Wofe and Mrs. A. F. Hansen for the evening and a six o'clock dinner.

Sketch of Life of B. B. Dean of Glenwood, Iowa

Funeral Services Held There Thursday for This Lifelong Resident of Mills County.

Benjamin Briggs Dean was born Dec. 24, 1858, in Lyons township, Mills county, Iowa, on the farm taken up by his father in 1850. He was the son of Wm. E. and Susan Briggs Dean. His life was spent continuously in Mills county.

On Feb. 25, 1883, he married Miss Annie M. Wallace. They established their home on the farm in Lyons township. Seven children came to bless this home, three sons and four daughters. In 1900 the wife and mother was called by death. Later Mr. Dean married Mary P. Wiles of Plattsmouth, Neb.

In 1920 he retired from active farm life, moving to the home on West Sharp street, Glenwood, which he purchased and where he was residing at the time of his death, which occurred Monday night, Jan. 23, after an illness of some months during which time he had been confined to his home.

Mr. Dean was a man respected for his honesty and thrift. He had a kindly interest in his fellow men and after his retirement from active farm life found enjoyment in his daily visits with friends on the streets about the square, but failing health for the past year had confined him to his home. He was a member of the Glenwood Congregational church which he served at various times to the official capacity as trustee and deacon.

He is survived by his wife, four daughters, Mrs. Bess Wallace of Cadiz, O., Mrs. Florence Groneweg of Council Bluffs, Mrs. Clara Hutchison and Mrs. Edith Wiles of Plattsmouth; two sons, William L. of Plainview, Neb., and Seth of Arvada, Colo., as well as 12 grandchildren and one great-granddaughter. One son, Edwin, passed away May 11, 1936, in Foulder, Colo. He is also survived by two brothers, A. E. Dean of Glenwood and Harvey Dean of Lyons township, one other brother, Seth Dean of Glenwood, having passed away in 1927.

LOCALS

From Monday's Daily—

Miss Helen Smetana visited in Omaha over the week-end.

Miss Georgia White spent the week-end with friends in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Egenberger and sons of Omaha spent Sunday at the L. B. Egenberger home.

Frank J. Domingo, Weeping Water banker and Harold Meyers of that city, were here today to look after some matters at the court house and visiting with friends.

Miss Helen Wolcott, who is in training at the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln, has been ill with flu and laryngitis during the past week. Mrs. W. H. Wolcott, Helen's mother, has been with her since last Sunday. She returned yesterday.

Mrs. Charles Cooper and daughter, Phyllis Mae, have returned to their home in California after a ten day visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raffke, of this city.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Attorney Jack Devoe of Lincoln, was in the city today to look after some matters in the district court for a short time.

Elmer Hallstrom, the Avoca banker, was here today to look after some matters at the court house and visiting with the many old friends.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz, of Alvo, was her to look after some matters in the district court today. He reports that members of the family who have been ill are now showing improvement.

Car Harbors Pig From Flood

Among the flood victims in the water-wasted Ohio valley are helpless domestic animals. This pig, however, showed rare ingenuity in escaping the swirling torrent by climbing into the front seat of an abandoned car where he watched the raging river roar past Bullocktown, Ind.

Cast Selected for Senior Play, 'Growing Pains'

Adolescence Comedy to Be Presented April 23; Lumir Gerner, Miss Katherine Luke, Directors.

Misses Estelle Baird, Pearl Staats, and Florence Beighley assisted Lumir Gerner in selecting characters for the senior play, "Growing Pains," after try-outs last week. Characters were announced this morning. The play is to be given April 23. It is a comedy depicting the troubles of the adolescence age. Aurania Rouveral is the author.

George McIntyre will be played by Earle Taylor; Terry McIntyre by Betty Kalina; Mrs. McIntyre by Alice Hinz; Professor McIntyre by John Gayer; Sophia, a maid, by Rosemary Stander; Mrs. Patterson, Charlotte Japper; Elsie Patterson, Mildred Engelkemler; Prudence Darling, Jennette Hinz; Traffic officers—Dutch, Brian and Omar are played by Elmer Newton, Wayne Falk, Robert Vallery, and Dale Bowman; Hal, Donald McCarroll; Pete, Bill Carey; Patty, Rachel Robertson; Jane, Evelyn Melsinger; Miriam, Harriet Goas; and Vivian, Mary Jane Mark.

Miss Katherine Luke, senior sponsor, and Lumir Gerner will direct the play.

CARD OF THANKS

To my acquaintances in Plattsmouth I express my thanks for the courtesy and patronage extended to me during my stay here. An opportunity of bettering myself professionally impells me to leave this city, although it is with sincere regret that I terminate my associations in Plattsmouth.

CLINTON B. DORWART, M. D.

HERE FOR FUNERAL

From Wednesday's Daily—Mr. and Mrs. William F. Mutschullat of Lincoln, were here today to attend the funeral services of Mrs. T. W. Vallery, grandmother of Mrs. Mutschullat, which was held this afternoon at the U. B. church at Myrnard.

The Building and Loan

... with its well known and well proven plan for accumulating savings in large or small amounts; and for home loans on easy terms with full prepayment privilege, is nationally known and recommended as—

The Greatest of All Home Builders See Us for Home Loans

Neb. City Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n
Wm. H. Pitzer, President Marshall Pitzer, Secretary

Nehawka

John H. Steffens was over to Lorton where he was assisting his father C. Steffens with the first of the month work.

Mrs. Lyle Kruger who has been at Avoca the past three weeks returned home last week and is visiting for a week at the Harry Bucholtz home at Palmyra.

The Busy Workers, a ladies society of the Methodist church were meeting with one of their members and looking after some business matters for the church last Tuesday.

C. E. McCarthy and family of Union were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm where they enjoyed a very pleasant time. The ladies are sisters.

The Crete Mills last week came to Nehawka where they played the basketball team of the Nehawka schools with the result that the game was won by the Nehawka team 16 to 2. The same evening Murdoch was also here and played with the result Nehawka 41 and Greenwood 30. A game with Union resulted in Nehawka winning 27 to 19.

Married on Last Friday.

At Lincoln Miss Lucele Hadley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hadley living a few miles east of Nehawka, was united in marriage with Emil N. Nixon of the United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilma Dixon, where he has been spending a month's vacation with his parents. The young people went to Lincoln last Friday and were married, and will later go to the west coast to make their home.

Paul Wolfe Very Sick.

Paul Wolfe, who underwent an operation at a Lincoln hospital some time ago, had to submit to an additional operation last Saturday and is reported getting on only fairly well.

Have a Merry Evening.

The young lads Bible class which is instructed by Superintendent of the Nehawka Schools C. E. Stimbart at the study hour last Sunday dropped upon the topic of a taffy pull and immediately asked if they might have one on that evening which was promised by their efficient teacher, and during the evening they loaded with all that was necessary did have a most enjoyable time at the church basement that evening.

Evening With Oysters and Cards.

Four of the families of Nehawka have found it convenient at a number of times to get together for a pleasant evening which is generally selected as Sunday evening, they being Messrs. and Mesdames Albert Anderson, Frank Lemon, Herbert Kuntz and Nelson Berger. Last Sunday they were guests at the Nelson Berger home and had a very fine time.

Enjoyed Banquet.

Charles Land of Union who handles Continental oil products and Olat

WANTED . . .

Men and Women (ages 18 to 45) to prepare for work under Social Security Law now in effect.

WRITE

Social Security Counselors

Journal, Box 4, Plattsmouth, Nebr.

LAND, FARM and RANCH BARGAINS

FARM FOR RENT

Three miles southeast of Plattsmouth. W. M. Kennedy. 14-21w

FOR SALE

Alfalfa hay in stack. Reuel Sack, Mynard. 14-21w

MYNARD COMMUNITY CLUB

Mynard Community club will meet Friday night. Take collection for Red Cross.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers always pay top prices.

CASS THEATRE

Friday and Saturday DOUBLE FEATURE "CONFLICT"

Starring John Wayne and Jean Rogers

'Mysterious Crossing' with James Dunn and Jean Rogers

Jungle Jim Serial AND Movie Races

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday Matinee Sunday, 2:15

Wednesday - Thursday BANK NIGHTS

Matinee Thursday, 2:15

"Back-to-Nature" The Jones Family

REDUCED PRICES on USED CARS

- 1 1932 Chevrolet Coach
- 1 1932 Chevrolet Coach
- 1 1931 Chevrolet Tudor
- 1 1931 Chevrolet Coupe
- 1 1931 Ford Tudor
- 1 1931 Ford Coupe
- 1 1929 Ford Coupe
- 1 1929 Ford Tudor
- 1 1929 Chevrolet Tudor
- 1 1929 Chevrolet Fourdoor
- 1 1935 Oldsmobile Coach
- 1 1935 Chevrolet Coach

- 1 1935 Ford Sedan
- 1 1935 Ford Tudor Sedan
- 1 1932 Plymouth Coupe
- 1 1936 Ford Tudor
- 1 1936 Ford Deluxe Fourdoor with Trunk
- 1 1935 Ford V-8 Deluxe Tudor
- 1 1935 Ford V-8 Coupe
- 1 1935 Ford Deluxe Coupe
- 1 1935 Oldsmobile Coach
- 1 1934 Ford Deluxe Fourdoor Sedan

- 1 1934 Ford Deluxe Tudor Sedan
- 1 1933 Chevrolet Tudor Sedan
- 1 1934 Chevrolet Fourdoor Sedan
- 1 1932 Ford Deluxe Coupe with Trunk
- 1 1930 Dodge Fourdoor Sedan
- 1 1928 Whippet Tudor
- 1 1936 Ford Tudor with Trunk
- 1 1930 Durant Sedan
- 1 1934 Oldsmobile Tudor

TRUCKS & FARM TRACTOR

- 1 1934 International Truck
- 1 1934 Chevrolet long wheel base Truck
- 1 1935 Ford long wheel base Truck

- 1 1936 Ford Pickup, like new
- 1 1936 Chevrolet Pickup, like new
- 1 1936 Ford short wheel base Truck, like new

- 1 1932 Ford Pickup Truck
- 1 1934 Ford Pickup Truck
- 1 1930 FARMAL TRACTOR and Cultivator

Also Some Good Work Horses Priced to Sell

We Now Have on Display in Our Show Room a Fordson All Purpose Farm Tractor

C. A. RUSE MOTOR CO.
6th & Pearl Telephone 44 Plattsmouth, Nebr.

FREE DANCE

MURRAY DANCE HALL
Saturday, Feb. 6
Music by
Rhythm Ramblers of Omaha
Manager, Harry Noel

You are giving us in CATTLE-HOGS-SHEEP Our Special Truck Department Assures You of: 24-hr. Unloading Service Intelligent Handling Experienced Selling High Prices Prompt Remittance

JOHN CLAY & CO.
LIVESTOCK COMMISSION SERVICE
SINCE 1890 OMAHA