Bolz of Palmyra, twelve grandchildren and two great grandchildren, and many friends.

She was a devoted member of the German Lutheran church, having been baptized and confirmed in that faith during her youth.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, January 29th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Bolz in Palmyra and at Paisley church. Burial was in the Unadilla cemetery.

To know her was to love her, a kind and loving mother whose voice is still heard but will abide with us spiritually forever. A lover of children unto the last, the grandchildren shall miss a tender voice, kind words and kind deeds.

In our sorrow and loss of this loved one, who has gone to be with her God—

"We often sit and think of her, when we are alone.

For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own.

Like Ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay, Our love for her will remain and never fade away."

Judge Jesse Root Guest Speaker at Rotary Meeting

"The Constitution" Is the Subject of Talk by Former Resident of Cass County.

The Rotary club at their meeting Tuesday had the rare pleasure of having with them one of the distinguished members of the bar of the state and a former resident of Plattsmouth and Cass county over a long period of years, Judge Jesse L. Root of Omaha.

The meeting was under the leadership of Judge A. H. Duxbury, who presented the speaker of the occasion. Judge Root took as the subject of his address, "The Constitution" and in a very fine talk discussed the document that embraces the fundamental law of the land. Judge Root traced the adoption of the national constitution and the safeguards that it had laid around the young republic and which down through the years had served to protect the interests of the people of the nation.

Judge Root in discussing the present day situations pointed out that in the past history of the nation that crises even greater than those of today had been surmounted. He gave a message of encouragement in the future years.

Addison E. Sheldon, secretary of the Nebraska State Historical society, was a guest of the meeting and was presented to the members of the club.

The high school students who will be members of the club for February, were presented, they being Wayne Falk, captain of the basketball team and one of the outstanding young men of the class of 1937, as well as Leonard Houliouck, of LaPlatte, the Junior representative.

WM. BURKEL DIES OF PNEUMONIA. Val Burkel received a telegram from Portsmouth bearing the sad news of the death of Wm. Burkel of pneumonia. He was ill only two days. The message also warned the Burkels that no one is allowed to enter the city.

Mr. Burkel had received a letter from his brother on Thursday of last week saying that the family was well but scattered in the homes of friends. He also wrote that six feet of water stood in the second floor of their home in Portsmouth but that they would soon be able to get home to clean out the mud. Mr. Burkel evidently contracted pneumonia from exposure.

Wm. Burkel will be remembered in this community by a number who treat him on his visits here. He was a lover of music. He leaves his wife and one son.
