Loose Alfalfa Hay, $14 per ton. Henry Oehlerking. 122-21 Mp Joseph Marshall and Miss Violet Rosenow were in Lincoln last Monday, where they did some shopping.

Miss Edna Luetchens, who was confined to her bed several days last week with the flu, is much improved at this writing.

Warren T. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. August Wendt, of Wahashi, were looking after business matters in Murdock Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. J. Arnold left Monday for Lincoln to see a dentist about some dental work. In the meantime, L. Neitzel is running the house to suit himself, hatching for a while.

Henry Carson, manager of the Murdock elevator and Paul Stock were in Plattsmouth Tuesday and from there went on to Omaha, at which place they also had business to look after.

Roy Oehlerking left last Monday for the Ozark mountain country in southern Missouri, where he expects to make his home in the future and engage in farming. The reason for his early departure is due to the fact that the season down there is considerably earlier than here.

Copies of the Journal containing the panegyric on Fred Stock by L. Neitzel have been sent to relatives of the deceased man residing in Germany so that they might know of his exemplary Christian life and the high esteem in which he was held by those who knew him best.

Mr. and Mrs. William Witte, who visited relatives and friends during the past three weeks, left last Wednesday for Clay Center, Nebraska, where they will live on a farm. Mr. Witte worked for H. F. Luetchens the past three years and is well known here by a large circle of friends.

Ferdinand Reikman, who has been sick for the past month with flu and bronchial pneumonia, is making some progress toward recovery. For a time he was under the care of a special nurse. He has dismissed the nurse and is now sitting up a bit every day and feels encouraged.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kruse spent Sunday, February 14, with relatives and friends in Murdock, after a wedding trip to eastern points. They were entertained at a dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Angwert Sunday noon. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Eisele entertained the couple Sunday evening. They intend to visit with a sister of George Kruse in Imperial, Nebraska, before they take up their home duties near Clay Center, Nebraska.

Car Parked in Road

Victor Thimgan was called to the county seat one day last week and while driving along on highway No. 1, it being dark, he sighted a car without lights parked in the middle of the road, but was so near the car when he saw it that it was impossible for him to stop and he ran into the rear end of the parked car. When he straightened up after the impact he found the car was parked there with two occupants having no lights on their car.

It will cost Mr. Thimgan a good sum of money to have his car placed in order again, thus proving anew that in driving on the highway, one not only has to watch his own driving, but the other fellow as well, for you can never tell what he is going to do.

Visiting Son Here

Mrs. Frank (Bertha) Zabel, mother of our townsman, William Zabel, who has been making her home in Lincoln, spent the past week here as a guest of her son and visiting with other relatives and friends. She is a sister of Mrs. Albert Streich.

Since the removal of the Zabel store to the room formerly occupied by Frank Dean, the room which Mr. Zabel vacated has been occupied by Joe Johnson, who has moved his cafe from the Oscar McDonald building a half block north of Main street to this more central location.

A bridal shower was given in honor of Miss Violet Rosenow by Miss Doretta Schlapf and Miss Blanche Anderson, at the home of Carl Schlapf on Saturday, February 13th. Thirty-five guests enjoyed the afternoon of fellowship and fun. They showered Miss Rosenow with many beautiful gifts for her new home.

Dainty refreshments were served to the many guests. Everyone joined in wishing Violet much happiness and success in her new undertaking.

Carrying Out Lenten Program

The Murdock and Louisville Evangelical churches have entered into the Nebraska Conference Lenten program and are carrying out their plans for the pre-Easter season.

Each Sunday morning the pastor will emphasize the general theme, "For Christ and the Church" and will speak on the messages given to the seven churches in Asia Minor. The message to the church of Laodicea was presented February 14th and that to the church at Ephesus will be touched upon February 21. Practical application of these special messages will be made for today's church.

The Sunday evening messages will contain some of the great affirmations of the Apostles' Creed. All are cordially invited to attend the Lenten services.

Friends and members of these churches are entertaining "guest boxes" in their homes during this season and are remembering them daily with gifts, which they will bring to the church on Easter Sunday as their expression of love and loyalty to the Risen and Living Christ.

Kruse-Johnson Wedding

A beautiful wedding in which Miss Violet E. Johnson of Aurora, Nebr., became the bride of Mr. George L. Kruse, of Murdock, Nebr., took place at the Evangelical Mission church in Aurora, at 5:30 p. m. January 30, 1937. The Rev. A. Mogenson, pastor of the church, read the marriage lines. He was assisted by the Rev. C. Jannen, of Elmwood, Nebr.

A Mistake in Identity

By IRVIN S. COBB

IN THE town where I was reared there was a barroom known as the Bleeding Heart Saloon. Among its regular patrons was a brawny individual six feet, four inches long and correspondingly broad, who answered to the pet name of Red Hoss. Red Hoss posed as a bad man.

One night a packet on her way south landed at our town. Among her deck passengers was a small yellow man, a professional prize fighter from up North.

He climbed the wharf and entered the Bleeding Heart and called for a job of sice gin. He was in the act of paying for the drink with the top film of a delectably fat roll of bills when the swinging doors were thrust asunder and in stalked Red Hoss.

Lurching slightly, he swaggered up to the bar and gripped a huge soiled paw on the lapel of the little man's coat.

"Say, lissen, pusson," he stated. "You better turn dat bundle of sof' money over to me, an' en I'll give you back what turn of it I thinks you should have fur yo'self."

"Who is you, may I ast?" inquired the visiting nobleman.

"You better ast" growled Red Hoss. "Finding out who I is meks yo chances fur livin' longer all de brighter of you aims to stay around dese parts. Ise de town bully, tha's who!"

Then Red Hoss swung with a huge fist for the little man's jaw. The pugilist ducked and came up expertly with a short arm jab which landed exactly on the point of Red Hoss' chin. There was a jar as a large inert body struck the floor.

Three minutes later Red Hoss slowly and dizzily roused himself. Dazed, he sat up, holding his aching head on with both hands. The little man stood at the bar blowing softly upon the knuckles of his right hand.

"Mister," quavered Red Hoss, "who is you?"

"Me?" said the stranger. "Oh, I is merely the pusson you thoun' you wuz w'en you come in yere."

white transparent velvet gown made in the princess style and a long net veil trimmed with pearls, carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Her sister, Miss Evelyn Johnson, was maid of honor, and wore a dark green velvet dress and had a corsage of gardenias.

The groom and his attendant, Warren Tool, of Lincoln, wore conventional dark suits.

Miss Olga Gustafson sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly." Miss Mabel Van Burg played the wedding march, "Lohengrin." The altar of the church was decorated in a setting of ferns and candelabra. The ushers for the occasion were Floyd Alberding, of Clay Center, Nebr., and Everett Waddell, of Aurora, Nebr.

After the ceremony, the bridal party, their relatives and friends, gathered in the church parlor, which had been trimmed in colors of orchid and white, for a reception and the two-course wedding supper.

The Rev. Magnuson, as toastmaster, introduced Rev. C. Jannen and Rev. J. L. Arnold and the groom's father, J. H. Kruse, who spoke words in appreciation of these young lives. Mrs. C. Jannen and Mrs. Clayton Jaeger, sisters of the groom, sang "Trust and Obey." Miss Mabel Van Burg rendered a vocal solo, "Oh, Sweet Mystery of Life." Mrs. Joe Monroe, sister of the bride, who lives in Jacksonville, Florida, was in charge of the gifts and the guest book.

The waitresses were the Misses Vivian Hedlund, Ruby Sands, Nina Anderson and Aileen Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Kruse, who are well known here, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, which they will use in their home on a farm near Clay Center, Nebr.

The couple took a delightful trip to points east. They will be at home to their many friends about March 15th.

Marshall-Rosenow Wedding

The Murdock Evangelical church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Wednesday afternoon, February 17, at five o'clock when Miss Violet M. Rosenow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosenow, became the bride of Mr. Joseph A. Marshall, son of Mrs. Henry Oehlerking. Nuptial vows were taken on the same spot where the bride's parents were married Sept. 20, 1905, that being the first wedding which was held in the new Murdock church after its dedication in 1905.

The church was beautifully decorated with many flowers and potted plants loaned by friends of the young couple. The bride's colors, blue and white, also entered into the decorative scheme.

As Miss Doretta Schlapf played McDowell's "To a Wild Rose," the ushers, the Misses Blanche Anderson and Pauline Kroh, lighted the blue and white tapers at the altar. "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning" were sung by Mr. Vernon Rikli and Mr. Roland Rikli.

As Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" was played by Miss Schlapf, the wedding party entered, the groom being attended by Mr. Willard Rosenow, brother of the bride, Miss Bernice Rikli was maid of honor.

The bride entered upon the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The rites were read by the Rev. Harvey A. Schwab.

As the ceremony was finished, the pianist played the ringing strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," during which the happy couple received best wishes and congratulations from their many relatives and friends who were present at the ceremony.

The bride, gowned in a turquoise blue crepe frock carried a bouquet of bride's roses and white sweet peas. Miss Rikli wore a gown of rose-colored crepe. The groom and his attendant wore the conventional dark suits.

After leaving the church, the bridal couple with their immediate families and the members of the wedding party went to the Rosenow home east of Murdock, where Miss Elvina Kuehn, the bride's cousin, had been preparing a delicious two-course wedding dinner. The dinner was served by the Misses Berdema Rosenow and Eloise Pool. The blue and white color scheme was again carried out in the table decorations and throughout the home.

Charles Marshall, of Grant, Nebr., brother of the groom, was a guest at the wedding. The bride's brother, Eldon Rosenow, of Canby, Oregon, was unable to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are well known in this community. They are both members of the local Evangelical church, in which the bride has been an active and faithful worker. Mr. Marshall has, for the past several years, been employed in the western part of the state. They will soon journey to Portland, Oregon, where they expect to make their home. The good wishes of their many friends here, accompany them.

Monday night the Woman's Missionary Society of the Callahan church will sponsor a birthday party at the basement of the church. This is an annual affair, and all are looking forward to it with great expectation.

Rev. F. C. Weber drove to Lincoln Tuesday morning to meet with the district superintendents of the Nebraska Conference to study the financial program of the conference.

Last Monday evening the F. Stock, D. Schlapf, R. Kuehn, G. Stock and G. Lewis families met at the Callahan parsonage for a social evening.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. John L. Smith of this city has returned from Omaha where she was called by the death of her brother, Samuel Henderson, 53, which occurred there on Monday, the funeral services being held on Wednesday.

The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henderson, old residents of this city and of Rock Bluffs, they later moving to Omaha and where Mr. Henderson has made his home in recent years.

He spent his boyhood and youth here and will be remembered by many of the older residents.

Mr. Henderson is survived by his aged mother, two brothers, Thomas of Lincoln and William, who lives in Kansas and the sister, living in this city.

CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

The anniversary, February 20th, is one that Fred T. Range of this city observes as marking his birthday and also the 58th anniversary of his arrival in Plattsmouth.

Today marks the seventy-ninth birthday of Mr. Range, who born in Germany was brought to the United States when a small child and grew up at Burlington, Iowa. He was just twenty-one years of age when he arrived at Plattsmouth and where he has remained since, an honored and respected member of the community and who has aided much in the building up of the city.

Mr. Range first engaged in work here in the Burlington shop, being foreman in the paint shop for several years and among the associates of these years who are still here are R. H. Patton, William Oliver, Val Burkel, with George Lushinsky, our mayor, then an apprentice in the shops.

In 1884 Mr. Range first started in business in Plattsmouth and has since been identified with the community life. He was engaged in the conduct of several meat markets in the city through the years and still engaged working at the meat cutters trade.

Twelve years ago Mr. Range retired from the daily toil of the meat market and has since been largely identified with the Plattsmouth Loan & Building association of which he is treasurer and director as well as his private interest.

Mr. Range has been a citizen of which the community can feel happy in having through the years and all will join in hoping that he may enjoy many years with the old friends here.
