RESELLS BANK ASSETS
From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning in the district court a hearing was had on the objections to the sale of the assets of the defunct Elmwood State bank and the Bank of Union.
Judge W. G. Kieck after hearing the objections raised set aside the former sale and the bids and permitted the resale of the assets.
The assets and property of the bank were sold to H. A. Crozier and Knute Jensen, of Weeping Water, whose bid was some $500 higher than the former bid.

NOW ON HIGH SEAS
Mrs. E. G. Ore of this city is now enjoying the pleasures of the voyage on the Pacific from Vancouver, British Columbia, to Honolulu. She sailed from Vancouver last Saturday morning on the "Empress of Canada" and is expected to arrive at Honolulu on Friday morning to enjoy a stay in the tropical clime of the Hawaiian islands. On her return she will sail on the Matson line and arrive at San Francisco.
Club and Social news are being featured in the Journal.

OATMEAL PUDDING DRESSES UP THE TABLE

* If the proof of the pudding is in the eating, every bite of an Oatmeal Cream Pudding is "proof plus." An ideal dessert, it looks as good as it tastes, and dresses up any table.
It calls for:
2 cups QUAKER or MOTHER'S OATS
1/2 cup sugar 1 1/2 tablespoons gelatine
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind 1 cup milk
1 cup cream or evaporated milk
Soak the gelatine in the cold milk for five to ten minutes. Warm the hot oatmeal. Stir until the sugar is dissolved, then rub through strainer. Add the lemon rind and fold in the cream or evaporated milk, whipped stiff. Pour into a serving dish or shallow mold and chill thoroughly. Serve cold either plain or with any custard fruit.

Popular Young People Wedded at Papillion
Miss Helen Glesmann of Papillion and Mr. Edward Jochim, Jr., of Louisville Are Married.

Edward Jochim, jr., of near Louisville, and Miss Helen Glesmann of north of Springfield were united in marriage Sunday morning at 11:45 following the services at the First Lutheran church in Papillion, the Rev. H. Moellering, pastor, officiating. The beautiful double ring ritual was used.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Glesmann, and John Jochim, brother of the groom, was best man. The wedding march was played by Prof. E. Hellwege. Following the ceremony congratulations were extended the happy young couple, after which the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding dinner was served.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in a brown velvet creation with harmonizing accessories and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses. She wore a beautiful white gold chain, the gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid was very pretty in a dress of dark blue with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Glesmann, residing about one mile northwest of Springfield. She is a graduate of the Springfield high school and has been active in the social and religious activities of the community and is very popular wherever acquainted.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jochim, sr., prominent residents of near Louisville. He is an industrious and highly respected young man and well worthy of the bride of his choice.

The happy couple are staying at the home of his parents until March 1 when they move to a farm two miles north of Murdock where they will make their home.

H. J. Bosking, representative of the Quaker Oats company in this territory, has been in Plattsouth the past couple of days arranging Quaker Oats displays in the different food stores of the city.

The new Quaker displays are very attractive and are devoted to enlightening the public on winter health foods. Vitamins A, B, C, D and G are pictured on the charts, along with pictures of the foods containing the respective vitamins. For instance there is vitamin A which provides resistance to colds and is found in fresh vegetables; vitamin B to brace up the nerves, digestion and appetite, found in Quaker Oats; vitamin C to combat infection and low body resistance, oranges and tomatoes; vitamin D to build strong teeth and bones, found in irradiated foods; and vitamin G so necessary to children's growth, found in fresh milk and dairy products.

Grocers are featuring these vitamin-rich foods in their ads just now, as part of the educational campaign to get people using the proper winter health foods and fresh vegetables of all kinds, oranges and tomatoes, fresh milk, cottage cheese, and oatmeal will be found in the stock of nearly every Plattsouth store.

Securing the proper vitamin nutrition is important to young and old alike, and a more healthy populace should result from this educational campaign being sponsored by the Quaker Oats company.
