Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Bothwell were in Lincoln last Sunday, going for a visit at the home of Mr. Boswell's mother, who has been ill for several weeks. While they found her somewhat better, she is still very poorly and is being cared for by a graduate nurse.

Joe Johnson, who has the cafe in Elmwood, was a visitor in Murdock last Tuesday, going to look after the cafe there which has been conducted by his son Paul, who has accepted a position near Greenwood and had to leave to take over the duties of his new job.

Frank W. Lorenz and wife and their son Arthur Lorenz and wife were in Glenwood, Iowa, last Friday, where they attended the funeral of a cousin. Where there was no pavement, they found the roads far from being good, especially in the vicinity of Pacific Junction, at which point a low section of the road was flooded.

Made a Rapid Trip
J. P. Cook, president of the American Exchange Bank of Elmwood, having some business matters to look after at Des Moines, Iowa, departed for the Iowa capital city at noon Sunday and arrived there that evening. The entire forenoon Monday was spent in the transaction of his business and the return trip was made that afternoon, arriving here in the early evening. He was accompanied by J. E. Shreeve, who acted as driver. They found good roads all the way, with the exception of a bad spot near Pacific Junction, Iowa, where the road was flooded with several inches of water from the melting snow.

Enjoyed Double Birthday
Miss Alma Clements and her brother, Vernon Clements, who is best known as "Bud," were celebrating the passing of their birthday on last Sunday and in honor of the occasion, their brother Sanford and wife, who reside at Peru, and L. D. Clements, another brother, making his home at Lincoln, and his wife drove over for the day. A fine birthday dinner was enjoyed by all.

Business Changes Hands

Mr. and Mrs. David Enterline, who have been conducting the north cream station for many months, have given up the work, which is taken over by Elihu Lyon. There is plenty of competition in the cream and produce business here as well as elsewhere.

Soon to Have Picture Show

The workmen in charge of transforming the empty room which is owned by Lee Coons, into a modern and up-to-date moving picture show room are making very good progress, although it will be some little time yet before the job is completed. As soon as the work is finished, a show will be operated in the building.

Returned to Home

Mrs. C. H. Shadley, mother of Mrs. Herman Penterman, who has been visiting here with her daughter for some time past, while recuperating from a serious illness in a hospital in Lincoln, departed for her home at McCook last Sunday. Mrs. Shadley, who was very ill when she first came, is now greatly improved and has enjoyed the latter portion of her stay here. Although she would have liked to enjoy a longer visit now that her health is so much improved, she felt that she should go home to look after affairs there.

RETURN TO PLATTSMOUTH

From Saturday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Rae McMaken and daughters moved into the Harris apartments yesterday. The family lived here until a year ago when they changed their residence to Omaha. Their friends are happy to see them return to this community. Mr. McMaken is employed in the McMaken Transfer Co.

SOCIAL

From Thursday's Daily—
Wednesday Afternoon Club—
Mrs. W. V. Ryan entertained the Wednesday afternoon club at her home yesterday. Prizes went to Mrs. Herbert Schutz, Mrs. Theodore Ptak, and Mrs. Ryan.

Honor Berniece Arn—

Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom and Miss Wilma Pickard were hostesses at a shower at the home of Mrs. J. Howard Davis last evening honoring Miss Berniece Arn. Members of the A. and O. Sunday school class were guests. The girls made a scrap book for the bride-to-be. Later hearts were played. Miss Kathryn Armstrong held high score and Miss Dorothy Glock, consolation.

Decorations carried out the St. Patrick's theme. Green candles in crystal holders sat upon green shamrocks to form the centerpiece on the tables. Favors were small green candy candles.

Following the lunch, Berniece went on a treasure hunt for her gifts.

Shower for Bride-to-Be—

Mrs. Frank Barkus, Mrs. Albert Funk, Mrs. T. B. Farmer, and Mrs. R. B. Hayes were hostesses at a shower honoring Miss Berniece Arn yesterday afternoon at the Hayes home. Thirty guests attended.

A model home was planned for the bride-to-be during the afternoon each guest preparing a page. Mrs. E. H. Wescott sang three love songs for Miss Arn. She was accompanied by Mr. Wescott.

Guests hid their gifts then wrote verses on pink hearts directing the guest of honor to the hiding place. After the gifts were located, Miss Arn opened them at the table.

Two baskets of snapdragons helped to carry out the color scheme of pink, white and lavender in the decorations. The bridal cake was cut by Miss Arn and served with the brick ice-cream with pink heart-center. Mrs. V. T. Arn, mother of Berniece, poured.

From Friday's Daily—

Plans were made for a card party to be given March 31. The ladies worked upon tray cloths and dresser scarfs for the hospital.

Birthday Celebration—

Miss Patty Ann Heil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Heil, celebrated her second birthday Tuesday. She was guest of honor at a dinner at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Will Rummel. The cake which was the great attraction to Patty, was sent from Holdrege by Mrs. H. B. Hall, an aunt. Tuesday evening Patty and her parents were guests at another aunt's home, Mrs. Clyde Graves.

Treasure Hunt—

Sixteen schoolmates met at the home of Betty Mae Barkus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barkus yesterday afternoon to help celebrate her ninth birthday. The party took the form of a treasure hunt. Invitations were small pirate hats and when the guests arrived each was given a pirate cap with skull and cross bones to prepare them for the afternoon adventures.

Mysterious notes led the young pirates to the treasure, which was chocolate gold coins. Another game of the afternoon consisted of a race in carrying a gold nugget on a spoon. Hubert Babbit was the young pirate who guessed most nearly the number of pieces of candy in the bag of treasure.

A red and white cover, and dark green candles were used on the table. A treasure chest filled with candy favors wrapped in silver formed the centerpiece. Betty Mae opened her gifts following the lunch.

Methodist Federation—

Mrs. L. S. Devoe was chairman of the program at the meeting of the Methodist federation yesterday afternoon. A musical program was presented by high school students. Lee Knolle introduced the students. Robert Valley sang the "Kashmiri Song" and Rachel Robertson played a viola solo "The Swan." A piano solo was given by Jean Knorr. "Coming Home" was the title of the song by Beatrice Arn.

Plans were made for a church supper to be given election night, April 6. Members of the Naomi circle were hostesses.

SAINT JOSEPH OF MOUNT ROYAL

Following a tradition that dates back to 1928, there will be again this year a solemn world-wide novena at St. Joseph's Oratory, Montreal, extending from the 10th to the 19th of March.

This year the novena has a special significance. 1937 marks the 300th anniversary of the solemnity of the consecration of Canada to St. Joseph, by the civil and religious authorities of our country. Furthermore, we love to believe that dear Brother Andre will this year intercede all the stronger, from his heavenly home, for the friends of Saint Joseph.

To participate in this novena, it is necessary only to send one's intentions to St. Joseph's Shrine, Cote-des-Neiges, Montreal, where they will be placed before the statue of Saint Joseph during the novena. A medal and a novena leaflet are sent on request.

Hundreds of thousands reap many blessings from this field of devotion. Beginning March 16th, there will be broadcast from St. Joseph's Shrine, a triduum in honor of Saint Joseph. The broadcast will start at 8 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time) and will be on the air for two nights.

All C.B.C. stations from Sydney to Winnipeg will be included in the hook-up. There will be a ten-minute sermon in French, a five-minute program of singing in Latin, then a ten-minute sermon in English. Prayers and announcement will complete the half hour.

Special speakers for each evening will feature the program.

DRAWN SMALL FINE

From Thursday's Daily—

The time of the county court was taken up today in the hearing of the case of the State of Nebraska vs. John Nolting, charging the defendant in a complaint of four counts of assault and battery and threatening Judge C. S. Wortman, of South Bend. The testimony took up the greater part of the morning and the case was submitted to the court after the noon hour.

The court found the defendant guilty on count one of the indictment and assessed the fine of $10 and costs which was paid. County Attorney Capwell dismissed counts two and three and the county dismissed count four, that of trying to provoke an assault.
