1937 TO BE A WET YEAR

Omaha.—The Rev. Bernard H. Hubbard, S. J., "the glacier priest" and recognized weather authority, predicted here 1937 will be a wet year for Nebraska.

"A new sun-spot cycle indicates a change in the weather and the only change you can have out here is lots of moisture," he said. "I can promise rain, but I can not do anything about the dust storms. These are man-made, and men, after all, are not predictable."
