DESIGNATES ARMY DAY

Washington.—President Roosevelt directed that April 6—the 20th anniversary of America's entrance into the World war—be designated as army day. His proclamation ordering military units to assist civic bodies in appropriate observance did not mention the anniversary.

LINDBERGH'S ON WAY

Aleppo, Syria. Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh hopped off in their sports monoplane for Athens on the return journey from a flight to India. The fliers spent the night in Aleppo after a flight from Baghdad.

Nehawka

Marion Tucker was called to Lincoln last Monday to look after some business matters.

Raymond C. Pollard and wife were in Nebraska City last Sunday where they enjoyed their Easter dinner.

J. E. Kruger was a visitor in Nebraska City last Monday, visiting with his two sons who live there.

The class of nurses of which Ruth Schlaphoff is a member, attended the funeral of Ruth's mother at Murdock Tuesday.

George Troop was spending last Sunday at Kearney with his wife who is at an institution there receiving treatment for her lungs.

E. A. Nutzman was a visitor in Union last Friday where after he had completed the business calling him there, visited for a time with Rev. W. A. Taylor.

W. A. Ost, living southeast of Nehawka with the family were guests for the day Easter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarthey. The ladies are sisters.

Wm. Jourgensen was looking after some business matters in Union last Monday and was also visiting at the home of George Martin, Mesdames Martin and Jourgensen being sisters.

Harry Bucholdz and family of Avoca, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bucholdz and family of Unadilla, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bucholdz and wife of Nehawka.

Miss Helen Schumacher who has been in Lincoln for some time taking a nurse training course, was spending Easter at home. She returned to her studies there the early portion of the week.

Visited with Mother.

W. H. Kruger and the other members of the family were enjoying a visit with the mother of Mr. Kruger, Mrs. Clara Davis, who makes her home at Kansas City. They went with the expectation of bringing the mother home with them, for a visit but as Mrs. Davis has been troubled with rheumatism she thought it better to remain at home until the weather was warmer. Later she will come and make all the folks here a nice long visit.

Enjoyed Easter Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Poppe of Lincoln were guests in Nehawka last Sunday, they coming to enjoy Easter with the mother of Mrs. Poppe, Mrs. Gertrude Carper. They were also joined by Mr. and Mrs. Lucean Carper and their son Allen of Murray. Allen remained for a longer visit with his grandmother.

Entertained for Easter Dinner.

Mrs. Anna Harshman of Nehawka was hostess last Sunday to a number of friends and relatives. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Lundberg and daughter, Mr. Verner Lundberg and wife with their children and Harold Dodson and wife.

Visited in the West.

J. J. Pollard and wife departed last Saturday morning for the western part of the state where they drove to Alma and spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McCleary for the day and drove back during the latter portion of the day and evening. One thing which struck Mr. Pollard was the excellent condition of the wheat crop and the large amount which is sown in that part of the state.

Blessed with New Daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion J. Stone who have been contemplating a visit to the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln, hastened last Sunday to make their visit and had Hall Pollard make the drive for them. They had hardly completed their trip to the hospital when Mrs. Stone presented the husband with a very diminutive and new daughter with all concerned getting on nicely.

Spent Easter Here.

John O. Yeiser and family of Omaha were guests for the day last Sunday where they enjoyed a bountiful Easter dinner and also attended the Masonic services at the Methodist church in Nehawka. Mr. Yeiser who had made a radio for Mr. Sturm, installed the same in the lumber office so that Mr. Sturm can keep in touch with current events while at work.

Celebrated Legion Birthday.

The American Legion, growing out of the World war, was organized eighteen years ago during the month of March. The members of the American Legion and Auxiliary, put on a celebration on the evening of their regular meeting Thursday of last week when some sixty-five members of the two organizations gathered at the hall for their regular meeting and to celebrate the anniversary. They enjoyed a very fine program. The first commander, Walter J. Wunderlich, made an address telling of the history of the order, and all the living commanders with a single exception, made short addresses. One commander, Edward Woods has passed on.

The ladies at the proper time served delicious eats.

PADEREWSKI STILL ILL

Lausanne, Switzerland.—Ignace Jan Paderewski, the great Polish pianist who has been ill with bronchitis, motored here from his villa at Morges to lay a wreath on the bier of his friend Kosol Szymanowski, Polish composer who died Monday. The 76 year old Paderewski defied the advice of friends who feared he might suffer a setback.

NO DEATHS IN CAMP

Omaha.—In announcing plans for the celebration on April 4 of the fourth anniversary of the establishment of the CCC, Maj. B. F. Herless of the Seventh army corps area pointed out that during the month of February there was not a single fatal accident among the 46,610 enrollees in this corps area. There were 7.31 minor and major accidents per 1,000 enrollees during that time, an exceptionally low figure.
