

MURDOCK ITEMS

Henry Oehlerking is driving a new car, having traded in his old one on the transaction made with an Ashland dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were over to Oton last week, where they went to consult a doctor in regard to the health of Mrs. Craig, who has not been feeling the best of late.

Mrs. Brackhage, who has been ill for some time, still continues in a serious condition, notwithstanding the best efforts of the medical profession to restore her to health.

Mesdames A. H. Ward and Leo Rikli sang a group of songs at the funeral of the late Wm. F. Langhorst last Monday morning. The funeral discourse was delivered by Rev. Harvey Schwab, pastor of the Murdock church.

Rex Young, well known Platts-mouth auctioneer, was in Murdock the first of the week, calling on his many friends here and posting bills for the Glen Valley sale of live stock and farm machinery which was held at Platts-mouth Saturday.

Emil Kuehn, a former citizen of Murdock, who now resides at Fullerton, was a visitor here Friday of last week, coming to Lincoln to take his son Gerald home for the Easter holidays and driving on over to Murdock to look after some business and visit with his many friends here.

Miss Verona Landholm, who has been making her home with her father, Mr. Landholm, at Fremont, where the latter is engaged in business, drove down to visit friends in Murdock, being a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kruger, the two families having long been close friends.

Found Mother Better

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sheldon of Eagle, Sherman Wolfe and wife of Alvo and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig of Murdock accompanied Miss Orland Parriott, the beauty operator at Murdock to the home of her parents on last Tuesday evening to see Mrs. Joe Parriott, who was afflicted with pneumonia. They were pleased to find the patient much improved.

Honor Excellent Citizen

Almost all of Murdock and surrounding country were gathered at the funeral of the late Charles Buell in recognition of one of the very best of citizens. Business houses of the town were closed for the occasion as a testimonial of the high esteem in which he was held. The funeral was held at Elmwood, being conducted by Rev. Sala, a former pastor of the Elmwood church, who is now connected with the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln.

Seems Many Have Died

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schweppe attended the funeral of their long time friend, William F. Langhorst, which was held at Wabash Monday. On Tuesday they attended the funeral of a neighbor, Mrs. Dan Schlap-hoff, which was held at the Callahan church, and on Wednesday that of another neighbor, Charles Buell, at Elmwood. Thursday they went to Platts-mouth to attend the funeral of the late Judge William G. Kieck. During the week they were also in Lincoln, where they attended the funeral of the late Mrs. J. H. Humpe, another old time friend and neighbor, and the mother of Mrs. H. L. Gayer, who resides south of Platts-mouth.

An Excellent Woman Called

In the death of Mrs. Dan Schlap-hoff, the community has lost one of the very finest of women—one who was always ready and willing to do her part in relieving suffering and aiding the distressed and unfortunate. She made a home that has shed its influence for good over the entire community. One daughter, Miss Hilda, has been a teacher in the Wabash schools, and another, Miss

Robert Fowler, former husband of the slain New York model, Veronica (Ronny) Gedeon, kneels before her bier in New York prior to last rites. Police are still searching for her murderer.

Ruth, has been taking a nurse's training course.

When stricken, the mother was rushed to the hospital for treatment but death overtook her on the way. It was a sad blow to the entire family, and especially to the daughter waiting at the hospital to bestow upon the mother all the tender care of her profession.

Miss Hilda, demonstrating the excellent characteristics of the mother, immediately resigned her position as teacher to go home and pick up the shattered threads of the home life and make a home for the other members of the family. Such are the children of this noble woman.

IN MEMORIAM

In memoriam to Judge Wm. Kieck we wish to print his two favorite quotations:

So live that when the summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan
That moves
To that mysterious realm,
Where each shall take
His chamber in the silent
halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-
slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but,
Sustained and soothed
By an unflinching trust, approach
thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.
—from Thanatopsis,
William Cullen Bryant.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time,
—A Psalm of Life,
Henry W. Longfellow.

The cemetery board met Friday evening to take up the matter of the selection of a new superintendent of the Oak Hill cemetery and who will be hired on the proposition of devoting all of his time to the cemetery care. The board also decided to purchase new equipment for the use of the new superintendent and owned by the cemetery, lowering devices, tents and other necessities for the care of the cemetery and the conduct of funerals.
